

ALEMBIC READY FOR DISTRIBUTION BY END OF WEEK, REPORTS EDITOR

Quarterly Features New Writers

The ALEMBIC has gone to press and should be ready for distribution to the student body at the end of this week. Featured in the forthcoming issue will be stories by Freshman Paul Flanigan and Juniors John Slain and Raymond D'Ambrosio.

Paul Flanigan makes his first appearance on the pages of the ALEMBIC with two poems entitled Lullaby in an Autumn Wood and To A Lost Love. Not content with these two offerings, Paul has also submitted an excellent short-story, A Caller from the Sea. Far from civilization, in the eerie setting of a storm swept island, a small family is visited by an unknown seaman. The effects of his sudden appearance and his subsequent rapid departure coalesce to form an intriguing story of human emotion.

Raymond D'Ambrosio presents a story of medieval Italy which contains all the local color and fidelity of expression which this writer is capable of producing. La Giuliana is the title of his story which deals with one Cesare Di Lucca who travelled from Tiarra to Savento where he met a Madonna who caused him no end of involvement in her amours.

John Slain appears with a story of Army life. Any person who has been in a barracks with a first sergeant will appreciate the manner in which Slain draws his main characters from one predicament to another in The Greek Wheel. Fortunately, this is not the blood and gore type of story which has flooded the pages of literary publications since the advent of the last war. It is a narrative of how one recruit did the wrong thing at a crucial moment and how his first sergeant reacted to it. The surprise ending is a unique one—or at least we believe you will find it so.

The editor of the ALEMBIC announced the promotion of Charles Wooley, '50, to the rank of Associate Editor. Wooley will be read in this issue in a piece entitled Singsong of Futility. The continued interest of Mr. Wooley and his numerous contributions have earned this promotion for him.

The following additions have been made to the Literary Board of the ALEMBIC: John Slain, '51; Raymond D'Ambrosio, '51; Paul Flanigan, '53. Both Slain and D'Ambrosio have appeared in the Literary Quarterly on numerous occasions before and their

(Continued on Page 5)

Kennedy Assumes OSP Chairmanship; Asks More Support

Edward T. Kennedy, Jr., '51, New Haven, Conn., has assumed the position of Overseas Service Program chairman on campus which John L. Connolly, '50, Hamden, Conn., has relinquished because of ill health. In resigning the office, Connolly expressed gratefulness to the administration, the Student Congress and student body for the assistance and support they gave him and the program which was started at the college last fall under his leadership. The program, sponsored by the National Federation of Catholic College Students which serves under the National Catholic Welfare Conference, concerns itself mainly with providing spiritual, intellectual, and material aid to students abroad.

In taking over the chairmanship, Kennedy asked for continued cooperation in the charitable work. In order not to conflict with the Penny Sale and drive for funds for the Grotto and new gymnasium, fund raising for the program has been temporarily suspended. He also remarked that a number of students have inquired concerning the summer tours

(Continued on Page 6)

40 Students Apply For Law School Test

About forty students have applied for the Law School Admission Test to be taken here Saturday, February 25, 1950, the Rev. Vincent C. Dore, O.P., Dean of Studies, announced yesterday.

The tests will be given in the Harkins Hall auditorium and will be divided between morning and afternoon sessions, the morning session to commence at 8:45 a. m. and the afternoon session at 1:45 p. m.

Although the test will tentatively be given in April and again in August, Fr. Dore said, it is recommended that

(Continued on Page 6)

P. C. FRESHMAN AND GRADUATE COMBINE TALENTS FOR MUSICAL

A Providence College graduate and a freshman at this college are writing and directing "A Stranger In Town," the original musical comedy to be presented by the CYO at Hope High School Auditorium on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, February 5th, 6th and 7th.

John Mutter, a graduate of P. C., and Lou Cabral, currently a freshman, are combining their talents to produce a show. Both are graduates of St. Raphael Academy, and Cabral is a former Marine.

The show will feature Frank Toste, known locally for his work with the New Yorkers Stock Company and heard nationally over WMGM in New York City as an announcer and a member of the special events department. Toste will present his pantomime act which has pleased audiences at many theaters in Rhode Island. It is an act which is designed to appeal to all members of the family.

Another featured performer will be Betty Ann Farrell, a pretty young

(Continued on Page 6)

Administrators Take Part In Meetings

The Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., the Rev. Daniel M. Galliher, O.P., and the Rev. Vincent C. Dore, O.P., attended meetings of college administrators in Cincinnati on January 9, 10 and 11.

Fr. Slavin and Fr. Galliher served on the board of the Executives of the Department of Colleges and Universities.

Taking part at the meeting of the Association of Deans was Fr. Dore.

At the general annual meeting of the Association of American Colleges and Universities, Fr. Slavin was elected to membership on the Commission of Higher Christian Education.

Third Concert Held By P. C. Glee Club

The Providence College Glee Club presented its third concert of the season last Sunday night at the Woonsocket Junior High School Auditorium under the sponsorship of the Trinity Club of that city.

The featured soloists of the program were Lucien Olivier, '53, baritone, and Mortimer Sullivan, '51, at the concert grand. Everett Morrison, '51, the tenor soloist who was scheduled to appear, was unable to do so for the very good reason of having his appendix removed just two days previous.

The Reverend Leo S. Cannon, O. P., Mus. M., directed the group and Mr. Michael L. Healy was the accompanist.

The next scheduled appearance of the Glee Club will be a joint concert with Regis College to be held in the Main Ballroom of the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel on the afternoon of Sunday, February 12th.

Sympathy

Rev. Thomas H. McBrien, on the death of his aunt.

Raymond Keough, on the death of his father.

William Grady, on the death of his father.

PENNY SALE SCHEDULED FOR FEB. 9 AT ARENA

Many Valuable Donations Made; Ticket Sales Lag

Plans for the Penny Sale to be held February 9th in the Rhode Island Auditorium are progressing rapidly. Donations of prizes have now reached the five hundred mark and include magnificent jewelry for both men and women from some of the most famous

Carolyn Club Plans For Dorm Week-End On Feb. 10, 11, 12

Tentative plans for the annual dorm weekend, which is scheduled for Feb. 10, 11 and 12, were the main business discussed at the last meeting of the Carolyn Club, which was held Tuesday, January 10, in the Lounge of Aquinas Hall. The schedule for the weekend, it was decided, will be the same except for a new new innovations as that which has been so successful in the past.

To initiate the three day affair a buffet supper will be served in Aquinas Hall Dining Room, followed by dancing in both the Lounge and the Penquin Room. The Lounge, with nothing save its polished inlaid panelling and rich 18th century decor transforming it into a splendid ballroom, will echo with the smooth cyneopations of a large orchestra, as yet unnamed; while in the Penquin Room, appropriate decorated for the occasion, a small "combo" or "rumba" band, also unnamed, will provide the

(Continued on Page 5)

Frosh Nominees For Class Office Listed

The following named men have submitted their nominations for the various offices in the forthcoming Frosh elections. Those seeking the office of President are:

James J. Sughure from Whitinsville, Mass., and Robert E. O'Brien from Hartford, Conn.

Those men seeking the Vice Presidency are: Tony San Bento from North Providence, R. I., and Charles F. Banfield from Washington, D. C.

The treasurer nominees are: John E. Macedo from New Bedford, Mass.,

(Continued on Page 6)

manufacturing houses in the nation; all sorts of electrical household appliances, an electric range and frigidaire; four television sets—two table models and two portable sets; blankets, a tuxedo, men's shirts, sporting goods, and automobile supplies.

A barrel for the raffle tickets is being constructed, that in size is equal to the spectacle itself. It has two glass windows in it that will enable the spectators to see the tickets being shuffled about. All that is necessary now is for the tickets to be returned. The Chaplain expressed the idea that undoubtedly many of the books of tickets have been sold and the money was used during the Christmas holidays, perhaps even to buy gifts for mothers and girl friends. An urgent appeal is now being issued to have returns made as soon as possible.

Only three weeks remain before the Penny sale and up to the time of going to press the total number of books sold by students is 239. Divided according to classes the results are as follows: Seniors—59; Juniors—32; Sophomores—45; Freshmen—103. This is not a particularly good showing for any group and if it is any indication of effort expended thus far, then there can be only one conclusion that the present student body is not interested in assisting the College in its building campaign, that the students are not particularly interested in hastening the realization of the gynosium. This is hard to believe.

Everyone knows that men are naturally reluctant to sell tickets. By no means is it a pleasant task. But when one recalls the very successful endeavors in this respect that are sponsored by organizations that are composed only of men, then one can not help but ask where is the loyalty and the cooperation of our students? Money is not quite as free as it was in the recent past, unemployment is more widespread, these are some of the excuses heard for not having

(Continued on Page 5)

Sign at Entrance to Campus Not Intended for Passersby

By LEONARD I. LEVIN, '52

At one of the entrances to Providence College there stands a sign. Its purpose is to inform passersby that they are beholding a noble institution of learning conducted by the Dominican Order. As a footnote there is appended to the sign this notice: "Enter at your own risk." It is our opinion that this is intended, not for mere passersby or sightseers, but for students at P. C.

Day after day reports come into the Cowl Office of students who were heedless of that relatively insignificant notice. In an effort to teach undergraduates (especially freshmen) how to avoid the pitfalls of everyday life at P. C., we shall proceed to enumerate some of the reports.

The first (and most important) report that comes to our minds is that about a student who shall be called Elmer (his real name is Oswald, but we do not wish to injure the reputations of any scholars.) Elmer is—or rather, was—a freshman. On the morning of September 26, 1949, Elmer (really Oswald) was blithely shuffling (as only Frosh can shuffle) to school with some freshmen compatriots. As they neared the parking lot one of Elmer's alleged companions dared him to cross the intersection before a car, which was rapidly approaching said intersection, did. They made reference to a certain fowl, specifically a chicken, in their challenge, and Elmer, never one to be called a coward, complied. The driver of the automobile was a sophomore; Elmer was a freshman. His friends thereafter referred to the late Elmer as chicken salad.

Another noteworthy case is that of, strangely enough, another freshman. It must be confessed that this was

(Continued on Page 6)

Glee Club Concert

The Rev. Leo S. Cannon, O.P., directing the Glee Club at a concert last Sunday evening at Woonsocket Junior High School.

THE COWL

Established November 16, 1935.
PROVIDENCE COLLEGE, PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND
Office: Donnelly Hall

Published every full school week for the students of Providence College by the students interested in Providence College.

STAFF

Co-Editors-in-Chief

Francis L. McPeake, '50 Anthony Jarzombek, '51

Associate Editors

William Plummer, '51 Thomas Sullivan, '52

News Staff

Leonard I. Levin, '52; James F. Lynch, '50; Charles Haggerty, '51;
Robert Reardon, '51; Thomas Coleman, '52; Joseph Ungaro, '52;
Martin Hagopian, '50; Bob Simpson, '52; Dan Shea, '52

Sports Editor

Dave Connors, Jr., '50

Sports Staff

John Shea, '50 Dick Boulet, '52 Robert Flanagan, '51 Francis Kane, '50
John Salesses, '52

Photographers

Edward Strack, '50; Walter Little, '51

Cartoonist

Edward Leonard, '51

Circulation Manager

James M. Coughlin, '50

Business Manager

Louis Martino, '50

Subscriptions: 10 cents a copy, $2.00 a year. Same rate by mail.

Advertising: 75c per column-inch.

Entered as second-class matter, November 5, 1947 at the Post Office at Providence, Rhode Island, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Member of Rhode Island Intercollegiate Press Association.

VERITAS PATRONS

The 1950 Veritas will be a splendid book, a special publication dedicated to the Holy Year of the Catholic Church.

Because of the significance of this year's Veritas, the staff has made a real effort towards a book that will be a thing of beauty and of lasting value to each man in the class of 1950.

Unfortunately, the added appreciation that will go with the owning of the Yearbook has resulted in a deficit between the original appropriation and the actual cost. The book will be a great improvement over last year's Veritas. The record number of Seniors this year will increase the number of pages. All this costs money.

Since the 1950 Veritas is a Senior book, each Senior is asked to provide at least one three dollar patron so that the Yearbook budget may be balanced.

Forms will be distributed soon on explanation. Although there will be space on these forms for three patrons, the staff of the Yearbook asks for only one from each Senior.

Money and forms may be returned either to the ticket booth next to the bulletin board on the second floor of Harkins' Hall or to the Veritas Office in Donnelly Hall or to any Veritas staffer.

A three dollar patron should not be hard to find. Let each Senior do his duty in acknowledgement of a splendid Yearbook and the hard work that will go with it.

CHANGES

The campus, we are pleased to note, is really brightening up. Since return from the lengthy holidays, numerous changes have been incorporated that serve handsomely to promote a greater admiration for our beloved institution of learning.

Foremost, we observed, is the area surrounding the official bulletin boards. A veritable spot of beauty now with its attractive new bulletin boards and ticket booth, plus increased lighting facilities that banish the second floor gloom forever.

The newly renovated Bookstore facade has aroused numerous comments of approbation from a delighted student body.

These are but two examples of the progress Providence College is making. More is in the offing. We pray that included with the things to come will be a process to facilitate the task of learning. Wishful thinking, perhaps, but it is something for which we shall be eternally grateful.

SMOKERS NOTICE

We hate to say this again, but we still notice cigarette butts littering the floors of the classrooms and corridors.

The COWL is in favor of Father Dillon's recent directive punishing smokers in classrooms and corridors. We trust this move will eliminate this odious practice.

Roving Reporter

Gerald C. Gregory, '51

Beginning this week the COWL will introduce a series of "campus views," presenting the opinions of the student body on the various social and political problems of the day.

This week's question concerns the advantages and disadvantages of co-education, which has been a topic of paramount importance in American educational circles. It is: Do you think coeducation would be an advantage or disadvantage to Providence College?

MARK MOREAU, '51. A disadvantage because it would interfere with the students scholastically and would eventually lower the school's academic standing.

PHIL PETERS, '51. A disadvantage. It would lower the academic standards in general. I do not believe that the academic standards of schools which have coeducation are as high as those which haven't; however, one definite advantage is a better integrated social program.

JOHN SULLIVAN, '52. A disadvantage. I am of the opinion that co-education would not be beneficial on the college level because the presence of girls in the classroom has a tendency to make the male students feel ill at ease.

WILLIAM McMAHON, '52. A disadvantage because from an intellectual viewpoint the mind of a woman does not develop along the same parallel lines as that of a man, and the professor is obliged to vary his teaching methods, thus lowering the academic standard.

ARTHUR ANCTIL, '53. I believe it would be an advantage as well as disadvantage; one advantage would be that it would be a diversion from the strict academic routine of most colleges that are not co-educational.

JOHN SMILE, '50. No, I do not believe that coeducation is conducive to a high academic standard; however, we can learn from the experience of other colleges and universities that have a coeducational system, and proceed accordingly after carefully weighing the various advantages and disadvantages that would be attained under such an arrangement.

— Campus Quips —

By Dan Shea and Bob Simpson

After four years of eavesdropping we have come up with these five questions and answers which we think are classics . . .

From examinations:

Q. What was the first cross country railroad?

A. Trans-Atlantic.

Q. Can you give me the names and dates of all major battles in European wars between 1889 and 1870, in chronological order?

A. Sure.

Q. Name two ancient sports.

A. Anthony and Cleopatra.

These two were perpetrated in oral quizzes:

Q. What was it that crushed Napoleon?

A. The Graduate Record Examinations. (He's not the only one.)

One day a certain history professor asked a student for the name of the first railroad in the United States. "Gee, Father, that's a tough one."

"Well," said Father, "It was nicknamed the B&O and was supposed to run from Baltimore to Ohio. Now can you tell me the name of it?"

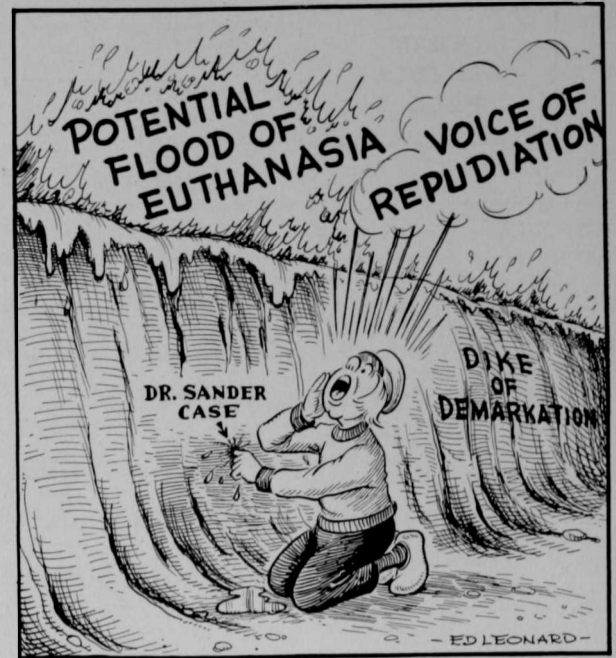

"Gee whiz, Father, I missed Saturday's class."

We haven't heard much of one of our newer clubs lately, the Aquatic Friars. Could it be our web-footed friends have gone into the mud for the winter?

They were such a jolly group, splashing, ducking each other, and playing a very popular game called, "Drowning the Moderator."

Probably the recent drought has something to do with their disappearance.

Well, so much for this week (this thing gets shorter every week.) we would like to close with the words of the immortal Robespierre: Le fromage est sur le table.

A CONTROVERSIAL TOPIC

When the warm-hearted agnostic and the true Catholic met for a chat, the conversation, ranging from one current event to another, became rather forceful on one particular subject.

The topic of conversation found itself centered on the case of the prominent and respected New Hampshire physician who next month goes to trial on a first degree murder charge. The indictment charges him with the "mercy killing" of a woman dying of cancer.

"Of course," said the agnostic, "we know that murder is wrong but this was done as an act of mercy. The doctor wanted to end the woman's suffering."

"Murder can never be construed as an act of mercy," countered the Catholic, "no matter what the circumstances. Only God can take away the life that He has given. No man has the power of determining whether a person should live or die. When you condone 'mercy killing,' you are attempting to clothe evil in the guise of goodness, which is not only contradictory but dishonest and insidious as well."

"Well," said the agnostic, "all this talk about God and goodness and so forth is fine, but the fact remains that the woman is better off dead than alive and suffering. I think that euthanasia will put many people of this type out of their misery. It's a good thing."

"If euthanasia were legalized," cried the Catholic, "the door would be open to legalized murder. If the incurables were put to death under the pretense of 'mercy,' the next logical step, it seems, would be to do away with imbeciles, idiots, morons and others of their ilk all in the interest of their welfare and society's betterment. The insane would also be killed because they are a burden on society. Not only would these people be killed," added the Catholic, injecting a note of humor, "but in time, Democrats in power would kill off as many Republicans as they could find. After the elections, the Republicans, if they won, would seek out the Democrats with the same purpose in mind. For the good of society, of course."

"You've brought your conclusions to the point of absurdity," laughed the agnostic, "but seriously, though, it's too bad that the doctor must suffer the penalty. I hope he's acquitted."

"There must be a conviction," concluded the Catholic, "not only because an acquittal would leave the door open for a flood of such cases, not only because human life would thus become progressively cheaper, but because acquittal would leave unpunished the violation of one of the ten laws which holds society together, the Fifth Commandment. THOU SHALT NOT KILL is a divine law which cannot be compromised."

— CAMPUS CALENDAR —

Thursday, Jan. 19—Freshmen Elections

Friday, Jan. 20—Basketball—P. C. vs Brooklyn at Brooklyn, N. Y.

Saturday, Jan. 21—8:30 P. M.—Carolyn Club Sponsors Record Hop in the Penquin Room of Aquinas Hall. Basketball—P. C. vs Iona College at New Rochelle, N. Y.

Sunday, Jan. 22—2:30 P. M.—International Relations Club of P. C. to attend Panel Discussion at Salve Regina College. Afternoon—Veridames of Providence College to Have Silver Tea and Musicales at Aquinas Hall

Monday, Jan. 23—8:00 P. M.—Debate Between Providence College and Holy Cross Before the Finnigan Council at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Providence

Tuesday, Jan. 24—Basketball—P. C. vs Boston College in Boston

Placement Director Instructs Seniors

Mr. Maurice Timlin, college replacement director, released the following outline to describe the procedure that seniors should follow in affiliating themselves with the college Placement office:

The first of two Round Table Conferences is held during the first semester of the senior year. This conference covers basic points in guidance and the choosing of careers. Attendance at conferences is limited to about 24 persons. That is why several groups meet for each of the two conferences. The final group of the first conference will be held on Tuesday, January 24th, at 1:30 p. m. in Room 300. Those who are unable to appear at this time, kindly inform the Placement Office. Cards for this conference are available in Room 207.

The second conference may be attended during the early part of the second term. It will cover the technique of writing personal resumes. It is open to all seniors who have attended the first conference. The dates for the groups to meet for the second conference will be announced through the Cowl and the official bulletin boards.

The third step is the preparation of the Senior Fact Sheet to be used by the Placement Office in aiding those seniors who have attended the Two Round Table Conferences.

Seniors who have completed the above three steps will be invited to all interviews to be held on the campus and in local business offices. Company representatives are asked to report results of all interviews so that job-candidates will benefit from these meetings.

Shutter-Bugs to Meet Tomorrow Night at 7:30

There will be an important meeting of the Camera Club tomorrow night at 7:30 in room 22 of Albertus Magnus Science Hall. Movies will be shown following an important business meeting. Yearbook pictures of the Camera Club will also be taken at the meeting.

Business to be discussed includes the forthcoming Camera Club exhibit, and a Camera Club party. Ed Strack, '50, president of the Camera Club, urges all to attend if they wish to have their picture in the yearbook. All members are requested to bring their cameras.

Refreshments will also be served.

Ed Micarelli Named CYO Man Of Year

Edmund C. Micarelli, '50, Student Congress President, has been chosen CYO member of the year, it was announced recently, Mr. Micarelli, who is working for a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Science, is the first active scout to receive this high honor.

"Mickey", as he is known to his boys, has been in the Scout Organization since 1935. For the past eight years he has been Scoutmaster of Troop 76 of St. Augustine's Parish, Providence.

During the war while serving on the Military Government in Italy, Mr. Micarelli received the War Cross Medal from the Italian Government for his efforts in reviving the Italian Boy Scout Organization. He has also received the Ad Altare Dei Cross, the highest award in Scouting, for his exceptional work in the Scout Organization.

Besides his many scout duties Ed has found time to serve as secretary of the Third Order of St. Dominic, Publicity Director of the Pyramid Players, and President of the Student Congress.

Penny Sale Prize Is Kent County Gift

The Kent County Club last week presented the Rev. Charles H. McKenna, O.P., Chaplain, with a gift to be used as a prize at the coming Penny Sale. The group has also made a $5.00 donation to the Overseas Service Program, it was disclosed.

The donations were voted at a club meeting held Monday, Jan. 9, at Eddie's Cafe, in East Greenwich. The members also extended a vote of confidence and congratulations to Coach Vin Cuddy and the basketball team on their success.

George McKenna, '50, ticket committee chairman for the Holiday Frolic held during the Christmas vacation, gave a report on the affair. Members called the dance a financial as well as a social success.

George E. Forcier, Jr., Kent County Club president, was authorized to form an organizational committee of four to start plans for the annual communion breakfast, traditionally held in May. The committee will include one member from Warwick, East Greenwich, Coventry, and West Warwick. Robert A. Flynn, '50, and Raymond Levesque, '50, co-chairmen of the social committee, will represent West Warwick and Coventry.

W-D-O-M

Campus Broadcasting Service

750 Kilocycles

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Wednesday, January 18, 1950

- 4:30—Band Selections
- 4:45—Guest Star
- 5:00—Popular Melodies
- 5:15—Human Interest Excerpts and "Anything for Laughs"
- 5:30—Dinnertime Musicales
- 6:30—Concert Time
- 6:45—Jack Benny Show
- 7:00—Hollywood's Open House
- 7:30—Sportsreel Theater of the Air
- 7:45—Rendezvous with Ross
- 7:55—Closing Announcement and Prayer

WDOM ANNOUNCEMENT

In an effort to improve transmission, WDOM, Campus Broadcasting Service, has changed its frequency to 750 kilocycles.

Because of mid-year examinations, WDOM, Campus Broadcasting Service, will suspend its broadcasting activities after Friday's broadcast. The campus station will resume its broadcasts after the opening of the Spring term.

Friday, January 20, 1950

- 4:30—Band Selections
- 4:45—It's a Great Show
- 5:00—Selections from "Inside U. S. A."
- 5:15—Lest We Forget
- 5:30—Dinnertime Musicales
- 6:30—Concert Time
- 6:45—Tabloid Edition
- 7:00—Hour of St. Francis
- 7:30—Hollywood's Open House
- 8:00—Sports Reel Theater of the Air
- 8:15—Closing Announcement and Prayer

Hartford Club Plans For Social Future

The Hartford Club of Providence held a meeting at 7:15 in the Penquin Room of Aquinas Hall. James M. Coughlin, '50, President of the club selected a number of chairmen and committee members to handle some of the events that are planned for the future.

Gerald Crotty, '50, who is also chairman of the February Carolan Club meeting, was appointed chairman for the Communion Breakfast that will be held in Hartford on the first Sunday in May. Plans are underway to hold a party or smoker some time in February and William Finn, '50, will be in charge of the committee. William Brennan, '50, a diligent worker who always brings at least four other couples to a Hartford club dance, was chosen chairman for the dance which will be held during the Easter holidays.

Francis Kane, '50, manager of the Hartford Hilltoppers, will head a sports committee. His first plan is to select and purchase jerseys for the members of the Hartford Club basketball teams.

There are twenty-three Senior members of the Hartford Club who will graduate this June. They are going to hold a special meeting on Thursday, January 19, in order to discuss plans for the formation of a Providence College Alumni Association in the Hartford area.

Coach Coates In Cranston

Coach Harry Coates discusses future track plans with the Rev. Herman D. Schneider, O.P., and Cranston Clubbers. From left to right (seated): James A. O'Dea, '50, secretary of the club; Father Schneider, moderator; Coach Coates, and John E. Fagan, president. Same order (standing): Robert A. Gentile, '52; James Costroll, '53; John Hobin, '53; Joseph J. Gilmartin, Jr., '50; Donald C. Rich, '50; Loring R. Forcier, '51; John Dillon, '50, and Edward J. Campbell, '52, vice-president of the club. The meeting of the Cranston Club, with Coach Coates as guest speaker, was held at Garden City.

Friars Club Meeting

James A. Shiel, '50, President of the Friars Club, the college hospitality group, announces that the club will hold its monthly meeting this evening at seven p. m. in Room 307 of Harkins Hall.

Members inducted during the first semester and all old members are urged to be present.

Those who witnessed the Springfield-Providence College basketball game on Saturday evening noticed an innovation provided by the Friars Club. Colorful programs, containing the lineups and complete rosters of both clubs and an announcement of the Penny Sale for the benefit of the War Memorial Grotto and the proposed new gymnasium, were distributed to spectators before the game.

Fr. Jurasko Speaks As Tertiaries Meet

"Tertiaries as well as all men of good faith should pray with perseverance for those who have strayed away from God," the Rev. John J. Jurasko, O.P., said last Friday evening at a regular meeting of the Third Order of St. Dominic. Opening his sermon with the words, "Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy," Father Jurasko told a gathering of over one hundred persons in Aquinas Hall chapel that God will not abandon them if they are merciful towards sinners. It may take years, he said, but even the most desperate sinner can be brought back to God.

To work and pray for others, Father Jurasko stressed, is an important task of the Third Order.

The meeting opened with the chanting and recitation of the rosary, and included the chanting of Compline. Benediction was by Father Jurasko. The Rev. John C. Rubba, O.P., spiritual director of the campus chapter, accompanied at the organ.

Coach Coates Talks To Cranston Club

On Thursday of last week the Cranston Club held a regular monthly meeting at the Garden City Plat office. After a few brief announcements concerning the Turkey Party held the week before Christmas, which, incidentally, was quite successful, the business meeting was turned over to the co-chairmen of the dance committee, Ray O'Rourke and Loring Forcier.

Through a stroke of good fortune the club was able to present the reputed track coach of P. C., Harry Coates. After an enthusiastic reception by the members, Mr. Coates gave a highly inspiring talk concerned for the most part with the courage and "heart" which he termed the most vital necessity in an athlete's physical or spiritual makeup. He described many instances in which this "rare courage" figured in the winning of world famous scoring events. Needless to say, Mr. Coates gave up an excellent summary of the track situation and outlook at the College. It might be added from his remarks the track future of the College looks bright indeed.

Ray O'Rourke's commentary on the possibilities of the forthcoming dance elicited most spirited response from the members. He remarked afterward that he now knew what the members wanted and that he and Forcier would have the plans for the dance completed within a few days. The dance, he continued, would be held in the week immediately preceding the Lenten season.

The club also wishes to thank the Kent County Club for their vote of support and to state its wish that such fine friendly relations will continue to be the rule between the two organizations.

WALDORF

TUXEDO SPECIAL NEW DOUBLE BREASTED TUXEDOS

Best "Tux" Buy In Years

$34.50

Each Tuxedo is Full-Cut—Well Tailored . . . and All Wool.
Just in Time for Your Coming Formal Occasions.

Men's Formal Wear "EXCLUSIVELY"

WALDORF CLOTHING CO.
212 UNION STREET CORNER WEYBOSSET

"KEN" QUIRK, '34

We have a good selection of

CATHOLIC BOOKS

For Sale

The Book Store

TWO N. Y. WEEKEND GAMES FOR FRIARS

COATESMEN VICTORS IN BOSTON JOHNSON, CASSEDY STANDOUT

By JACK SHEA

Jack Cassidy and Dick Johnson continued in their winning ways to gain greater glory for the Providence College tracksters last Saturday at the Boston Y.M.C.A. Meet, as they sped to victories in the 600 and 1000 yd. races respectively. Captain Gerry McGurkin ran one of his greatest races and again demonstrated his steady improvement as he placed 2nd to Cassidy in the 600.

On another front, the P.C. two-mile relay team placed 3rd in the Washington Star Meet Saturday. The Friars were only 2 seconds behind the winning Maryland squad. Navy placed 2nd and North Carolina was behind P.C. taking 4th. Considering the calibre of the opposition, this wasn't at all a poor showing.

The 600-yd run at Boston came close to being a complete sweep for Providence. The Friars qualified three men, McGurkin, Cassidy, and Kallman, for the final heat. McGurkin sprang into an early lead, with Cassidy close at his heels, and set a blistering pace. Kallman grabbed the 3rd slot and for the greater part of the race the Black and White were running one, two, three. In the final few yards Cassidy drove past McGurkin to win by a foot and Kallman lost his 3rd spot by a single margin to a runner from Bowdoin. Cassidy's winning time was 1:17.9.

"Pop" Johnson ran his usual smart race to cop the 1000. Johnson was content to stay behind for the first half of the race but when he did spurt to the head of the pack he succeeded in holding the lead for the remainder of the race. His time was 2:23.2.

Larry Marra won his qualifying heat in the high hurdles, but could do no better than 4th in the finals. John Shanley won his heat in the 300 but failed to qualify for the finals since his time wasn't among the first five. Rocco DiFalco was 4th in the open handicap shot put. Jim Penler qualified for the finals in the 45-yd dash but failed to place.

This Saturday evening the Friar speedsters will compete in Massachusetts K. of C. Games at the Boston Garden. Competing for P.C. will be the one and two mile Varsity relay teams, the freshman one mile relay team, Larry Marra in the hurdles, and John Shanley in the pole vault. Except for the two-mile relay team's trip to the Washington Meet, this will be Providence's first big time test of the season. The calibre of our relay teams may be determined by their showing in this meet.

Next Tuesday evening the Friars journey to Boston to meet the very strong B. C. Eagles. The game will be preceded by a freshman contest. The Eagles are one of the strongest quintets in New England and should provide more than enough competition for the Friars. Their Frosh outfit is about tops in N. E.

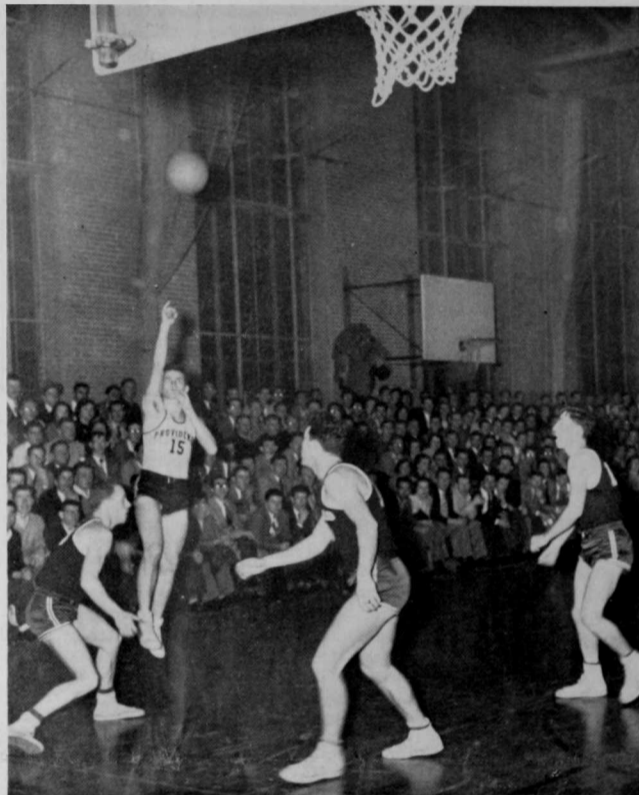

BROOKLYN COLLEGE THIS FRIDAY ONCE DEFEATED IONA SATURDAY

By Francis S. Kane

The winter is gone, the rain has stopped, and the voice of the basketball Friar is heard triumphantly throughout the land.

Yes, the storm has been weathered successfully and the fortunes of Providence College basketball are now definitely looking up once again.

Friar Power in Action

Reserve Guard Hockey Power Makes a Bid For a Two-Pointer Against Springfield on a Neat One-Hand Push Shot.

With eight straight victories tucked away and having played Holy Cross at Worcester last evening, the basketballers of Coach Vin Cuddy embark this weekend on their only road trip of the season. This jaunt will take them to Brooklyn, N. Y., on Friday evening for a game with Brooklyn College, and to New Rochelle, N. Y., on Saturday evening for a contest with Iona.

Both of these games promise to be severe tests for the Friars as is usually the case when anyone encounters a representative of Metropolitan District basketball. All present indications point to the fact that the Cuddy-men should have two very full evenings in store for them. Only by playing as they did against A.I.C. and Springfield will it be possible for P.C. to emerge victorious.

Unless some unforeseen circumstances arise from the playing of last night's game with Holy Cross, Coach Cuddy is expected to start the same group that he has used so successfully all season. This team will be led by Co-Captains Walter Lozoski and Arthur Weinstock at the guard positions, Francis Pelligrino at center, and Melvin Nissel and Raymond Garcia at the forwards.

However, after the splendid performances turned in by the reserves during the A.I.C. and Springfield games, it can be definitely said that a great deal of action will be seen by the following "shock" troops: Skip McGurkin, Jim Schlimm, Tom Bauer, Ronnie Gagnon, and Ray Korbusieski. These men, along with Charlie Shea, Tom Orr, Alex Becker, Jim Power, Ed Mooney, Joe DiStefano, and Bill Higgins, have all been found guilty of possessing the ability to play a fiery brand of topflight basketball.

In review, it can be said that last week, during a span of four days, Providence College was exposed to the finest basketball of its postwar history. First against the American International College by a margin of 68-52, and then against Springfield, 70-48, the Friars demonstrated a driving and slushing brand of attack that gave great pleasure to all of those who were fortunate enough to see it.

In these games, the Black and White seemed to possess an unlimited supply of energy, an unsurmountable spirit to win, and a hitherto unseen shooting accuracy which at times bordered on the uncanny.

Above all, these victories were team victories. It is next to impossible to single out anyone or even two men and say that they, and they alone, were mainly responsible for these splendid successes. This factor alone should eventually provide a sound basis of internal team strength from which many more plus signs will be marked down in the Providence College victory column.

Who Are These Local Boys Who Made Good?

Just who are the members of the Providence College basketball team? Where do they hail from? These are a couple of questions that run through the minds of Friar fans.

Representatives of but five states of the Union make up the Friars and their impressive 1949-50 basketball record.

As might be considered natural (or maybe, unnatural) the largest group are Rhode Island athletes. Among them are: Ray Garcia and Ed Mooney of Newport, Frank Pelligrino and Bill Higgins of Westerly, and Ronnie Gagnon, Joe Blain and Jim DiStefano from Providence.

Pennsylvania takes second honors as five Quakerites help to make Providence College basketball a success. They are Co-Capt. Walt Lozoski and Tom Orr of Hazelton, Sam Nissel, Jim Schlimm, and Tom Bauer of St. Mary's.

Ray Korbusieski of Naugatuk, Skip McGurkin, Hartford; Jerry Lembo of New Haven, and Stonington's Charlie Shea make up the Connecticut aggregation. The Bay Staters are: Co-Capt. Art Weinstock of Newton and Hockey Power of Roxbury.

Standing alone as the sole representative of the State of New Jersey is Alex Becker of Paterson.

The team, then, as we can see is primarily a New England team, represented by New England basketball talent, but who would give away our Pennsylvanians?

Frosh Lose to Bryant And Gymnast Frosh

By JOHN SALLESES

The Freshmen basketball team had a rugged time of it during the past week in losing first to Bryant College last Wednesday night, 68-47, at the Mount Pleasant gym, next to Nichols Jr. College, 48-46, Thursday night up in Dudley, Mass., and last Saturday night, 52-57, to Springfield at the Mount again.

The Frosh hit rock bottom in their game with Bryant College. The drive and hustle of Cool, Votsch and Schermerhorn led Fred Davis' quintet to victory. For all but five minutes of the game, it was all Bryant. From the 5 minute mark to the 10 minute mark, of the first half, P.C. made a game of it. Led by Quinn, Hines and Prendergast, the Frosh trailing 4-8 went out front 14-10. From that time on the Businessmen took control of the situation and never lost the reins again as the Frosh could do nothing right. Bryant led at half-time 31-21.

The following night, Hal Martin took his crew up to Nichols College where they dropped a close one, 48-46. In the first half, it was the same story as in the previous night's game, as Nichols led at half-time, 31-20. However, in the second half, the Freshmen found themselves. They were hustling and aggressive as they fought back into a 2-point lead a few minutes before the end of the game. Prendergast and Paul showed much improvement on all-round play. Moose Perricane aided greatly with his fighting spirit, Hines and Kirby also showed improvement.

Saturday night, the Freshmen Friars faced the Springfield Freshmen at Mount Pleasant. The night before the Freshmen Gymnasts humbled a good R. I. State Freshmen team at Rodman Hall. This was a notable feat in itself when you consider the record threat State teams have for winning on their own court. As a result, there was little optimism concerning the Freshmen game as far as P. C. was concerned.

This Saturday night, the Freshmen play Bryant at the Hope High School gym and then the Boston College freshmen up in Boston the following Tuesday night.

Intramurals

By DICK BOULET

Only three games were played in the intramural loops last week, and all of them were one-sided affairs. In the first tilt the La Salle II quintet swamped the Blackstone Valley five, 38-15. The Froshmore outplayed the Cranston Green, 39-22. The top contest of the week found the Woonsocket Club drubbing the Ramblers 67-41, in a high scoring, well-played affair.

Racing out to a 21-8 half-time lead, the La Salle II experienced little difficulty in downing the inept Blackstone Valley five, 38-15. This was mainly a team triumph, as the victors displayed a good, well-balanced offense. Gentile, who did excellent work under the boards for La Salle, paced the scorers with 9 points. Cottam and Toomey each racked up 8 for the winners, while their teammates Cathers and Pallizza each registered 6.

A well organized Froshmore quintet scored a convincing 39-22 win over the Cranston Green team. Paced by Fried and Lamy with 14 points apiece, they won going away. Penza was high man for the losers with 7, but it was his teammate Collella who thrilled the crowd with his long sets.

In the highest scoring contest of the week, the Woonsocket Club swamped the Ramblers, 67-41. Playing an aggressive form of ball, and displaying an ability to score from anywhere, the winners dominated play throughout the game. Dwyer and Doonan with 19 and 17 points respectively, sparked the winners. Williams with 13, several coming on tap-ins and Fachada with 10, were high men for the losers.

The leagues are operating on an abbreviated schedule, since the auditorium is being used as a cafeteria three days a week.

In the ping-pong tournament,

Need More Boxers, Bouts in Early March

Although the candidates who have come out thus far have been showing up well, Coach Pete Louthis needs more fellows to be able to stage a show on par with the ones of previous years. There is an urgent need for more fellows to try their hand at this sport. No experience is necessary, for candidates will be matched not only according to weight, but also according to ability.

Only fourteen fellows have been practicing for the bouts. It is very evident that more are needed. There is no need to fear injuries because this year's bouts will be conducted under the intercollegiate boxing rules. Regulation headgear is going to be used. No one will be allowed to compete unless he can pass a thorough physical checkup.

Coach Louthis and the Monogram Club have decided to postpone the matches until the beginning of March to allow all late comers to get in shape for the bouts. If any one of you have been in doubt about reporting, come on out and give Louthis a hand. He can't put on a boxing show without boxers.

Duchaine has advanced to the finals where he will meet the winner of the Carnavale-Razza match. The double winner will come from one of the three remaining teams, Carnavale-Girouard, Razza-Duchaine, and Riccio-Poirier.

During this week a free throw contest is being conducted by the intramural department. Each competitor will shoot fifty fouls. The top five men will then shoot fifty more, with the winner being determined on the basis of the best total on the hundred shots taken.

THE BEST PLACE IN TOWN TO BUY MEN'S SHOES

PAUL'S
Alexander
Mason

119 MATHEWSON ST.

ELMHURST BARBER SHOP

673 Smith Street
Providence, R. I.

Cafe Bradley TELEVISION

For the LADIES
For the MEN
Dan Colando, Prop.

— Examination Schedule — Jan. 30 - Feb. 4 —

NOTE: Examinations start at 8:00 a.m.; 10:30 a.m.; 1:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

MONDAY, JANUARY 30

8:00 - 10:00

Philosophy 401—Fr. Friel Auditorium—Harkins
Philosophy 401—Fr. Sullivan A-100

10:30 - 12:30

History 303—Fr. English Auditorium—Harkins
History 307—Fr. English Auditorium—Harkins
Biology 305—Fr. McGonagle A-100
Mathematics 301—Fr. Gallagher Room 214
Business 301—Mr. Moroney Room B-5
Business 305—Mr. Breen Room B-2

1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

English 101—Mr. Akey Auditorium—Harkins
English 101—Mr. Brennan Auditorium—Harkins
English 101—Mr. Farrell Auditorium—Harkins
English 101—Mr. Knickerbocker Room 215
English 101—Fr. J. T. Fitzgerald Room 208
English 101—Mr. Flanagan A-100
English 101—Fr. Larnen Room 217
English 101—Fr. Molloy Room 219
English 101—Fr. R. D. Reilly Room 214
English 101—Mr. Sandler Room 216
English 101—Mr. Shunney Auditorium—Harkins

3:30 - 5:30 p.m.

Business 313—Fr. Masterson Room B-5
English 415—Fr. Donovan Room 215
Economics 401—Fr. Quirk Room 217
Political Science 415—Fr. P. P. Reilly Room 214
Theology 201—Fr. Dittoe Room 208
Theology 201—Fr. S. B. Jurasko A-100
Theology 201—Fr. McBrien Auditorium—Harkins

TUESDAY, JANUARY 31

8:00 - 10:00

Sociology 201—Fr. Clark A-100
Sociology 201—Fr. J. V. Fitzgerald Auditorium—Harkins
Chemistry 401—Fr. Hickey Room A-18

10:30 - 12:30

Theology 301—Fr. Fallon A-100
Theology 301—Fr. Hogan Room 215
Theology 301—Fr. Lennon Auditorium—Harkins

1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Theology 101—Fr. McGuinness A-100
Theology 101—Fr. Mahler Room 208
Theology 101—Fr. O'Connell Auditorium—Harkins
Theology 101—Fr. Prout Room 210
Philosophy 151—Fr. Howley Room 214
History 351—Fr. Heasley Room 216
English 251—Fr. Heasley Room 216

3:30 - 5:30 p.m.

English 201—Mr. Akey Room 214
English 001—Fr. Begley Room 216
English 001—Mr. Brannon Room 220
English 201—Mr. Brennan Room 222
English 201—Fr. Larnen Room 215
English 201—Fr. J. T. McGregor Room 217
English 001—Mr. Shunney Room 219
English 201—Mr. Thomson Room 208
Biology 201—Mr. Fish A-100
Physics 101—Fr. Murtaugh Auditorium—Harkins
Physics 101 (Sophomores only)—Fr. G. C. McGregor Auditorium—Harkins
Business 201—Fr. Masterson Room B-5
Business 203—Mr. Matthews Room B-1
Physics 201—Mr. Gora Room A-20
Political Science 401—Fr. McKenna Rooms 311, 305
Sociology 405—Fr. Clark Room 221

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1

8:00 - 10:00

Theology 401—Fr. Doyle Auditorium—Harkins
Theology 401—Fr. Zvirblis A-100

10:30 - 12:30

Philosophy 205—Fr. J. J. Jurasko Rooms 311, 305
Philosophy 205—Fr. Conway Auditorium—Harkins
Philosophy 205—Fr. Fallon Room 214
Philosophy 205—Fr. Georges Room 208
Philosophy 205—Fr. Kennedy Rooms B-3, B-5, B-4
Philosophy 205—Fr. Regan A-100
Philosophy 205—Fr. Whittaker Room A-12
Philosophy 205—Fr. Zvirblis Room 217
Philosophy 105—Fr. Georges Rooms 208, 210

1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Mathematics 101—Fr. Hunt Auditorium—Harkins

3:30 - 5:30 p.m.

French 103—Fr. Cannon Room 210
French 101—Fr. Cannon Room 210
French 201—Mr. Drans Room 208
French 103—Mr. Drans Room 208
French 103—Fr. McDermott Room 214
French 103—Fr. Ross Room A-12
French 101—Fr. Ross Room A-12
German 103—Fr. Brackett Room 216
German 101—Mr. Sandler Room 220
German 103—Fr. Schmidt Room 222
German 101—Fr. Schneider A-100
German 201—Fr. Ziuraitis Room 215
Italian 301—Mr. Scotti Room 311
Italian 201—Mr. Scotti Room 311
Italian 103—Mr. Scotti Room 311
Italian 101—Mr. Scotti Room 311
Portuguese 103—Mr. Rocha Room 300
Portuguese 101—Mr. Rocha Room 300
Spanish 401—Mr. Rocha Room 300
Spanish 103—Mr. Rocha Room 300
Spanish 101—Mr. Rocha Room 300
Spanish 203—Fr. Jurgelaitis Auditorium—Harkins
Spanish 201—Fr. Jurgelaitis Auditorium—Harkins
Spanish 101—Fr. Jurgelaitis Auditorium—Harkins
Spanish 103—Fr. Rubba Auditorium—Harkins
Spanish 101—Fr. Rubba Auditorium—Harkins
Spanish 101—Fr. Scola Room B-4
Spanish 103—Fr. Scola Room B-5

Cowl Mail Box

Dear Editor:

The misplaced exuberant spirit evidenced at our last basketball games here in Providence threaten to mar the joy of victories. Hissing to distract opponents in the act of foul shooting is the most flagrant and contemptible abuse of sportsmanship. (This is aside from the fact that a stern referee could award additional free throws to suppress this interference, which may result in the loss of one or two valuable points.) A continuance of this practice will not only create an unfavorable impression in the minds of visiting teams, but will reflect considerable discredit on the school. If hissing remains I also suspect Mt. Pleasant gym might become more readily known as The Snake Pit. Excessive protestations of referee's decisions and insulting commentaries directed at opponents are also unworthy characteristics of true sportsmen.

Ruffling the opposition and a natural, reasonable disapproval of what appears to be unjust decisions are an unmistakable part of the ball game. I am not suggesting that these actions be eliminated, but I do contend we should leave the legitimate and more forceful protestation to our very capable coach and ball team.

Real support and true sportsmanship can be manifested by voicing cooperation with our three freshman cheerleaders; by shouting friendly words of encouragement to our ball-players; and by means of generous applause paying tribute to both teams as they enter and leave the gym, as well as to all players leaving the game when substitutions are made.

Providence College has a smart winning ball team for which we are all proud and grateful. Sportsmanlike conduct by the spectators will add appreciably to their success.

Edward R. Coogan
Vice President
Student Congress

—Carolyn...

(Continued from Page 1)

music. Dress, of course, will be formal.

The agenda for Saturday lists a Tea-Lecture in the afternoon and a basketball game in the evening. The speaker for the lecture, which has proved to be very popular in the past, has not yet been selected; but the social committee announced that the speaker's theme will be timely and pertinent to the audience. In the evening the students and their guests will attend the P. C.-Brown basketball game at Mt. Pleasant gym.

The climax to the three-day affair will come Sunday with Mass in Aquinas Chapel followed by open house in the dorms. A new feature has been inserted for the afternoon phase of the weekend. The Glee Club, under the direction of the Rev. Leo Cannon, O.P., will give a joint concert with Regis College of Western, Mass., at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel.

At the same meeting Dick Maloney, Athletic Committee Chairman, announced the intention of his committee to honor the winners of the Dorm Basketball League with a banquet and tickets to a R. I. hockey game. Mr. Maloney also commented on the fine student's support and the fine work of the officials in the league.

It was also announced at the meeting that there will be a record dance in the Penguin Room Saturday evening, January 21, from 8:30 to 11:30.

—Penny Sale...

(Continued from Page 1)

sold the tickets. But has the effort been made. Or, are the excuses involved solely on the statement of others and not on the practical knowledge acquired by individual and personal effort. Let's have some real activity! Let's show some enthusiastic cooperation! Let's produce some results!

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2

8:00 - 10:00

Biology 407—Fr. Serror Room A-12
Business 403—Mr. FitzGerald Room B-3
Education 401—Fr. Quinn Room 210
English 326—Fr. Dillon Room 208
English 451—Fr. Larnen Room 215
Mathematics 201—Fr. McKenney Room 214
Political Science 303—Fr. Bergkamp Room 217
English 413—Fr. McCarthy Room 216

10:30 - 12:30

Education 406—Fr. Morrison Room 210
Political Science 307—Fr. Skehan Room 214
Chemistry 303—Fr. Hackett Room A-20
Physics 301—Mr. Garabedian Room A-18
Economics 303—Fr. McLaughlin Room 208
Sociology 301—Fr. Clark Room 216

1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Business 101—Mr. Breen Room B-3
Business 103—Mr. Breen Room B-3
Business 103—Mr. Matthews Room B-5
Chemistry 101—Fr. Whittaker A-100
Latin 101—Fr. Fanning Room 215
Latin 103—Fr. Schnell Room 217
Physics 101 (Freshmen only)—Fr. G. C. McGregor Room A-20

3:30 - 5:30 p.m.

Business 407—Mr. Breen Room B-3
Business 418—Fr. Skehan Room B-3
History 101—Fr. Forster Room 208
History 101—Fr. Hinnebusch A-100
History 103—Fr. Hinnebusch A-100
History 103—Fr. Bergkamp Room 215
History 103—Fr. Forster Room 210
History 103—Mr. Mullen Auditorium—Harkins
History 103—Fr. D. F. Reilly Room 311, 305
Latin 201—Fr. Schnell Room 214
Latin 207—Fr. Prout Room 216

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3

8:00 - 10:00

Biology 405—Fr. McGonagle Room A-12
Business 401—Mr. Moroney Room B-5
Chemistry 403—Mr. Hanley Room A-18
Economics 307—Fr. James Room 214
Education 301—Fr. Quinn Auditorium—Harkins
Mathematics 101—Mr. Flynn Room 216
Physics 401—Mr. Gora Room A-20

10:30 - 12:30

Business 417—Mr. Matthews Room B-4
English 211—Fr. Donovan Auditorium—Harkins
English 211—Fr. McCarthy Room 208
English 211—Fr. R. D. Reilly Room 210
English 211—Mr. Thomson Room 215

1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Biology 101—Fr. McGonagle A-100
Biology 103—Fr. Reichart Auditorium—Harkins
Mathematics 101—Fr. Howley Room 210
Mathematics 103—Fr. Gallagher Room 214
Mathematics 103—Fr. McKenney Room 216
Mathematics 105—Mr. Flynn Room 208
Mathematics 405—Fr. McKenney Room 216

3:30 - 5:30 p.m.

Chemistry 201—Mr. Hanley Room A-12
Economics 201—Fr. James Auditorium—Harkins
Economics 201—Mr. Martin Room 208
Economics 201—Fr. Quirk Auditorium—Harkins
Economics 407—Fr. James Auditorium—Harkins
Political Science 101—Fr. P. P. Reilly A-100
Sociology 303—Fr. James Auditorium—Harkins

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4

8:00 - 10:00

Business 311—Mr. Moroney Room B-5
Chemistry 301—Fr. Whittaker A-100
Chemistry 408—Fr. Hackett Room A-18
Drawing 101—Fr. Hunt Room 218
Education 101—Fr. Morrison Auditorium—Harkins
French 403—Mr. Drans Room 216
History 403—Fr. McKenna Room 210
Mathematics 305—Fr. Gallagher Room 214
Physics 303—Mr. Garabedian Room A-20

10:30 - 12:30

Business 315—Fr. Skehan Room B-5
English 326—Fr. Molloy Room 215
English 405—Fr. J. T. McGregor Room 210
French 303—Mr. Drans Room 216
French 401—Mr. Drans Room 216
History 315—Fr. Bergkamp Room 214
Latin 105—Fr. Schnell Room 217
Latin 312—Fr. Prout Room 220
Physics 307—Fr. Halton Room A-20
Political Science 315—Fr. Skehan Room B-5

NOTE: 1. First morning examination starts at 8 o'clock.
2. Read the official bulletin boards for additions and adjustments.
3. In cases of conflicts, inform professors immediately.
4. A student who has more than two examinations on same day may consult the Dean.

—Alembic...

(Continued from Page 1)

work has consistently reflected quality of merit.

Paul Flanigan is one of the first Freshmen in years to be appointed to the Literary Board. In the opinion of the Editor and the Moderator his manuscripts show great promise of things to come in the future. It may well be noted by the rest of the student body that the respective college classes have no bearing on the appointment of members to the Board of the ALEMBIC. Literary quality is the essential factor in these appointments. Mr. Flanigan has fulfilled all the requirements in this respect.

If pink elephants you find disturbin' Remember, they're just beasts of bourbon.

May nightmares be his dismal lot,
His bed like stone to lie on,
Who moves into the parking spot
Which I just had by eye on.

Students Resume Pre-War Practice Of Foreign Travel

With travel services to Europe and South America functioning at their pre-war capacity, United States colleges and universities are renewing the practice of sending student groups abroad for study in individual countries, according to an announcement today by Dr. B. W. Van Riper, director of the American Express Educational Travel Service.

Several colleges have included courses for study abroad as part of their regular curriculums, and students registering for these special courses receive full credit. The courses include preparatory study at the home university before students embark on the tours and attendance at foreign institutions.

Dr. Van Riper has arranged several student tour itineraries in cooperation with university officials. Two groups will leave from Hiram College, Hiram, Ohio. The first, conducted by Professor Albert G. D. Levy, professor of history and social sciences, will leave in February for a nine week study of European culture and history. Among the countries scheduled to be visited are France, Italy, Germany, Switzerland and Austria. Under the direction of Professor R. H. Goodale, head of the English department, the second group will visit the literary shrines of England with a final week in Paris, France. College officials at Hiram plan more student tours in the 1950 winter semester.

ATTENTION

Copies of any pictures which school photographers have taken may be purchased at the COWL Office between 12:20 to 2:00 any day of the week from Ed Strack or Walt Little.

When planning a visit or a weekend in New York, don't worry about hotel accommodations. Get your reservation through your own college representative:—

ALAN H. SPROUL

Union 1-1500—Room 308

SINGLE with BATH from $3
DOUBLE with BATH from $5
ATTRACTIVE RESTAURANT AND COCKTAIL LOUNGE

Guy P. Seeley, Manager
Adjacent to United Nations site

—Campus Sign . . .

(Continued from Page 1)

not entirely the fault of Eustace (gosh, but these Frosh have strange names!) Three upperclassmen, not recognizing by his bewildered expression that he was a freshman, had invited him to a friendly game of Hi-low Jack, said game to take place in the Palladium (men's lounge to the uninitiated.) Eustace, being only a freshman, was not acquainted with the intricacies of the noble game as played by P. C. students. The game was a four-handed partnership, and Eustace, holding in his hand an ace, jack, and four of clubs, immediately took the bid for three. Needless to say, an opponent "pounced" on the jack, and Eustace went "up." His partner, a junior, went up in arms, and, grabbing the nearest weapon available, a biology book, proceeded to bash Eustace's head to a pulp. The junior later was acquitted of involuntary manslaughter and was restored to full rights in the Hi-low Club. But poor Eustace.

The last case worthy of mention is that of Waldo, a sophomore who owned a car. One morning Waldo was speeding up Eaton Street on his way to an 8:30 class. As he glanced at the clock and saw 8:29, he realized that he would have to hurry. And hurry he did, attempting to turn the corner into the driveway on two wheels. It is ironic that the remains of Waldo and his car were firmly entrenched around the large sign which reads: "Enter at your own risk."

Veridames Sponsor Silver Tea Sunday

A silver tea and musicale will be held next Sunday afternoon from 3 P. M. to 5 P. M., in Harkins Hall under the sponsorship of the Senior Veridames of Providence College.

Miss Dorothy Place will direct the Place Harp Ensemble at the tea. Mrs. Benjamin Laushaway, soprano, and Mrs. Edward O. Richards, pianist, are also on the program.

Mrs. Gustave Loessler and Mrs. Anthony Lucas are in charge of the affair.

—40 Students . . .

(Continued from Page 1)

the February test be taken as most law schools will not consider applicants who have not complied with this ruling. Besides, Fr. Dore added, if the applicant waits too long and the school of his choice has a quota, he will not be admitted.

The test scheduled here on April 29, 1950, will not be given, Fr. Dore said, unless at least ten students or more apply.

A growing tendency has been noted, added the Dean of Studies, for law schools to require bachelor's degrees of its applicants for admittance. Regardless, he said, a bachelor's degree is practically a must, for competition is keen nowadays in the law schools. The only exception, he noted, is the case of the two years' honor student who is considered capable of maintaining the rigorous schedule demanded by the law schools.

BLACKSTONE VALLEY CLUB

There will be a meeting of the Blackstone Valley Club, Friday, at 8:00 at the Irish-American Hall in Pawtucket, it was announced today. All members are requested to attend.

—Nominees . . .

(Continued from Page 1)

and Richard C. Lederer from Pittsfield, Mass. James W. Saunders from Webster, Mass., and Richard J. Cobb from West Hartford, Conn., are running for the office of Secretary. The nominations are incomplete up to Monday afternoon.

The elections are to be held under the supervision of the Student Congress and the voting, which will take place on January 19th, will be held by secret ballot.

—Kennedy . . .

(Continued from Page 1)

to Europe which are being sponsored under Catholic auspices and supervision. Others who are interested in these Holy Year tours, which are offered at a considerably lower price than most others, may find additional information concerning the trips from any O. S. P. member in the Student Congress office, he concluded.

Kennedy, former travel chairman of the program, is also a member of the Glee Club and Carolan Club.

What once was lack of chivalry
Is now known as equality.

—Musical . . .

(Continued from Page 1)

accordionist, who is a senior at St. Xavier's Academy. Miss Farrell has a long record of theater and radio appearances behind her.

Soloists include Edith Follis, a talented miss who has been heard on Providence radio stations. Miss Follis will sing, "My Man," the classic blues number. Headlining one of the many production numbers in the show will be Mary Gilson of North Providence and Charles Briggs of Pawtucket, both singers. Miss Gilson will offer "Boy of Mine" and Briggs will lend his voice to "You Are A Wonderful Mother."

Sam Belltrami and Norma Piccirilli will twice combine their voices in duets. The first song will be "A Rose, Moonlight and You," and the second will be "A Dreamer's Holiday".

Music for the entire production will be provided by Arthur Paquette and his WFCI orchestra. All production numbers will feature the singing and dancing of the choral group of the CYO Girls Catholic Action Group.

Tickets for the show are now on sale at CYO Headquarters, 25 Fenner Street; Marian Book Shop, Providence; Father Lamb's Book Shop, East Providence, and may be obtained from any member of the CYO Catholic Action Groups.

What's happened to old Atlas?

He took it on the "lam,"

And left his world-supporting job
To good old Uncle Sam.

At MARQUETTE and Colleges and Universities throughout the country CHESTERFIELD is the largest-selling cigarette.*

PAT O'BRIEN

Famous Marquette Alumnus, says:

"Chesterfields are Milder. At the end of a long day at the studios, no matter how many I've smoked, Chesterfields leave a clean, fresh taste in my mouth. It's the only cigarette I've found that does that."

PAT O'Brien

STARRING IN
"JOHNNY ONE EYE"
A BENEDICT BOGEAUS PRODUCTION
RELEASED THRU UNITED ARTISTS

*By Recent National Survey

Always Buy CHESTERFIELD

They're Milder! They're TOPS!— IN AMERICA'S COLLEGES
WITH THE TOP MEN IN SPORTS
WITH THE HOLLYWOOD STARS