Note:

One of the best things I learned in my theatre school experience is the importance of working. Not waiting for work, but working. Creating. Making stuff happen. Don't have a stage? Make one. Not working on a play? Write one. Fill in the cracks with art, or allow yourself to slip through them. It's a choice we're all faced with, and I'm proud of the choices these students have made. Enjoy.

Dave Rabinow, Curator for the Creative Writers Festival
