

Providence College

DigitalCommons@Providence

Playbill and Promotion

Love's Labour's Lost (1999)

Fall 9-9-1999

Audition Workshop and Casting Call for Love's Labour's Lost Flier

Providence College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.providence.edu/labours_pubs

Part of the Acting Commons

Audition Workshop

FOR LOVE'S LABOUR'S LOST

Thursday September 9
4:00 PM
Blackfriars Theatre, Harkins Hall

If you are interested in auditioning for Love's Labour's Lost but are unsure of what to do or how to do it, then come to this audition workshop. Mary Farrell, the director will present some audition pieces and talk about what you can do to prepare a strong audition. She will discuss selection of audition material, length of audition piece, and ways you can put your best foot forward at an audition. At the conclusion of the workshop, the Director will ask for volunteers from the audience and work with one or two student on an audition piece. You need not perform to attend this workshop. It will be beneficial to both those who listen and those who perform.

See other side for date of audition!

SHAKESPEARE'S IN LOVE

at the Blackfriars Theatre in '99 - '00

CASTING CALL

for William Shakespeare's

Love's Labour's Lost

Audition Open to all PC Students

Tuesday September 14 7:00 PM
Blackfriars Theatre, Harkins Hall

PREPARE A 2-3 MINUTE MONOLOGUE FROM ANY PLAY BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL MARY FARRELL AT 865-2328

LOVE'S LABOUR'S LOST is one of Shakespeare's earlier comedies. In it, the young king of Navarre persuades his youthful friends to fast, give up sleep and the company of women to study in his kingdom for a period of three years. The Princess of France and her Ladies-in-Waiting arrive the next day on a diplomatic mission. A battle of the sexes ensues. A host of other comic characters help bring this play to its romantic conclusion.

See other side for details on the Audition Workshop!

If you are not interested in auditioning but would like to work on crew call John Garrity at 865-2219.