Dear Sir:

A couple of weeks ago your Mark Twain group presented their program at this school. While I was grateful for having this performance available for our students, I was apprehensive over the response to this type of program. It turned out that there was no need of my concern because Mr. Butler kept them tuned in for the entire program. Irrespective of this fact, he was terrific.

I would like to acknowledge his kindness and that of those young men who accompanied him. My sincere thanks to you and to this group.

Yours truly,

Leo T. Wontkowski
