FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Providence -- "You haven't lived if you haven't seen VANITIES at least once" states the New York Daily News about Jack Heifner's bittersweet comedy.

VANITIES will open the second half of Providence College Theatre's current season. This special presentation has been planned to coincide with Parents' (February 6-8) and Alumni (February 13-15) Weekends at the college.

VANITIES is a photo-sharp chronicle of the lives of three Texas girls. In 1963, Joanne, Kathy, and Mary are vivacious cheerleaders-- five years later, in their college sorority house, they are nervously confronting the future. In 1974, a brief reunion in New York shows how their lives have diverged.

Daniel P. Foster will direct VANITIES. Mr. Foster is a PC alumnus and administrator.

VANITIES will be presented in Harkins Hall Auditorium for six (6) performances; Friday, February 6 thru Sunday, February 8 (Parents' Weekend); and Friday, February 13 thru Sunday, February 15 (Alumni Weekend).

Tickets for all performances are $3.50, general admission; $2.50, students and senior citizens. Call 865-2327 for information and reservations.

"VANITIES is an evening I heartily recommend." (Walter Kerr, New York Times) Look back in laughter with Providence College Theatre's production of VANITIES.
