presents

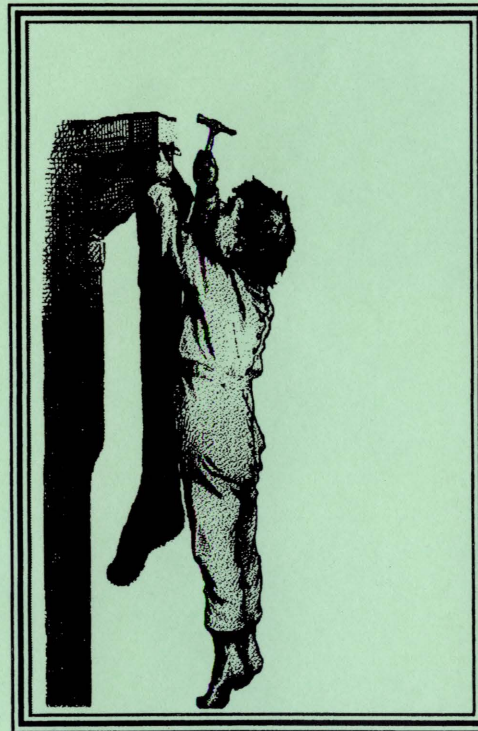

A Stocking Full of Christmas Stories

(A Christmas Readers' Theatre)

December 8-10, 2000

A Stocking Full of Christmas Stories, a compilation of Christmas stories and poems by outstanding American, Canadian and British humorists showcases works by Robert Benchley, O. Henry, William Dean Howells, Jerome K. Jerome, Stephen Leacock, Ogden Nash and Saki.

What is a Readers' Theatre?

A Readers' Theatre performance can simply be described by imagining yourself in the studio audience during a radio broadcast. Viewing this production vividly places the audience back into the golden age of radio drama.
