

Providence College

DigitalCommons@Providence

---

Commentary

Man of La Mancha (1973)

---

Spring 3-2-1973

Inter-Office Memorandum from J.F. Cunningham, O.P. to R.L.
Pelkington, O.P.

J. F. Cunningham, O.P.

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.providence.edu/lamancha\_commentary

Part of the Acting Commons

---

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

INTER-OFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO R. L. Pelkington, O.P.

DATE 2 March 1973

FROM J. F. Cunningham, O.P.

SUBJECT A most pleasing one

Dear Leo:

Don Quixote de la Mancha lives!

At least he did last night for two enchanting hours in The Friars Cell. Without doubt, the Theatre Arts Program has turned a bog corner and the road ahead is filled with promise. The La Mancha production was the finest piece of theatre I have seen in fifteen years at the college.

I look forward to the continuing development of the Theatre Arts Program under your direction.

Felicidades!

_____
J. F. Cunningham, O.P.
Dean of the College