FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Providence -- A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE, the American Classic by Tennessee Williams, will be presented by the Providence College Theatre February 27 thru March 1, and March 6 thru March 8.

The passionate drama of A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE reveals to the depths the character of Blanche DuBois; a woman whose life has been undermined by her illusions, which lead her to reject the realities of life with which she is faced and which she consistently ignores.

Williams' Pulitzer Prize-winning play will be directed by Mary G. Farrell, an instructor in acting at the college.

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE will be presented in Harkins Hall Auditorium for six (6) performances; Friday, February 27 thru Sunday, March 1, and Friday, March 6 thru Sunday, March 8.

Tickets for all performances are $3.50, general admission; $2.50, students and senior citizens. Call 865-2327 for information and reservations.

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE is a tragic and effective drama which ranks as one of the greatest in American Theatre. Experience the passionate drama of Williams' play with Providence College Theatre's production of A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE.
