Blackfriars Dance Concert

Angell Blackfriars Theatre, Smith Center for the Arts

Providence College's Department of Theatre, Dance and Film presents the Blackfriars Dance Concert, to be performed by members of the Providence College Dance Company on 15 November and 16 November, 2013.

The concert will feature works by visiting artists Heather Ahern of Aerplaye Dance, choreographing a pair of tangos by Fortuna and Astor Piazzolla; Michael Bolger of Providence Ballet, including original music just for the dance; PC Faculty Member Betsy Miller, choreographing a humorous look at the business world accompanied by classical music; Eva Marie Pacheco of Providence Ballet, who has created a piece based on the movement of waves to music by Franz Schubert; and PC graduate student Katie Paquin. The production will be under the direction of Dr. Wendy Oliver, who heads the Dance Company and will also contribute a dance conjuring up an image of the off-beat French circus, with dancers walking an imaginary tightrope, juggling scarves, performing gymnastics and riding scooters onstage to French music. The performance will consist of a variety of dance styles. Betsy Miller and Heather Ahern will each be performing a solo. There are 23 people in the dance company, ranging from first year students to seniors.

In addition to online sales, tickets are available over the phone with Visa or MasterCard. For walk-up sales, the Box Office in the Smith Center is located at the main entrance of the building and is open Monday through Friday, 1:30 to 5:00 PM, and 1 hour prior to performances.
