FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE TO OPEN NEW THEATRE WITH GALA "A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM"

PROVIDENCE, RI -- The Providence College Theatre Program will officially open it's new theatre and its 14th season on October 15th with a gala opening of William Shakespeare's classic comedy, "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Directed by Mary G. Farrell, the production will be the first of four mainstage productions being presented this season in the new Harkins Theatre. The production is being staged October 15-17 and 22-24 at 8 PM.

ADD ONE TO PC'S THEATRE SEASON . . .

James Eddy is designing the lighting and setting for the production and costumes are also being designed by Ms. Farrell.

Other offerings this season are "Ladyhouse Blues," an American drama written by Kevin O'Morrison, December 2-5; "Scapino," a contemporary adaptation of Moliere's classic farce, written by Frank Dunlop and Jim Dale, March 4-6, 11-13; and "Strider," an adaptation of Tolstoy's "The Story of a Horse," written by Mark Rozovsky, April 28-30, May 1.

Curtain for all productions is 8 PM. The tickets are $4 for general admission and $2 for students and senior citizens. Reservations and information on group sales are available by calling 865-2327.
