The Blackfriars Theatre

October 13, 1989

Dear Faculty and Staff:

On behalf of the Blackfriars Theatre I would like to invite you to be our guests at the upcoming production of Blood and Ice. Blood and Ice is the chilling and provocative biography of Mary Shelley, author of Frankenstein and wife of Percy Bysshe Shelley. This intense drama is set in the 1800's and follows the life of Mary Shelley and the events that lead to the writing of her masterpiece of horror. It also deals with the widespread use of opium of the day, for it is in her opium dreams that Mary Shelley's monster is born.

Opening night is Friday, October 20th at 8:00 p.m. with a reception to follow. Remaining performances are October 21, 22, 27, 28 and 29. Friday and Saturday performances are at 8:00 p.m., and on Sunday's there is a 2:00 p.m. matinee.

You may reserve your tickets by stopping by the Blackfriars box office Monday-Friday, 3:00-5:00 p.m., or by calling 865-2218. Tickets for faculty and staff will be $5.00. P.C. student tickets are only $3.00, so please encourage students to attend.

Sincerely,

David M. Cabral
