

Providence College

DigitalCommons@Providence

Playbill and Promotion

An Evening of One Act Plays (1996)

Fall 12-5-1996

An Evening of One Act Plays Playbill

Providence College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.providence.edu/one_act_plays_pubs

Part of the Acting Commons

Friar's Cell Theatre presents

ACTOR'S NIGHTMARE

BY CHRISTOPHER DURANG

George Spelvin Eric Cutler
Meg Jacqueline Bradford
Sarah Siddons Cayte Castrillon
Ellen Terry Liz Condon
Henry Irving Rich Powell

Supressed Desires

by Susan Glaspell

Henrietta Brewster Amy Shea
Stephen Brewster Chris Drury
Mabel Elizabeth Brady

For Whom The Southern Belle Tolls

by Christopher Durang

Amada WingValley Amanda Blake Davis
Lawrence WingValley Eric Cutler
Tom WingValley Michael Sablone
Ginny Bennett Nora Whalen

Directed by Stephen B. Radochia

December 5, 6, and 7, 1996

Blackfriars Theatre

Director's Note

For Whom The Southern Belle Tolls is a parody on the Tennessee Williams play, The Glass Menagerie. In The Glass Menagerie, the mother, Amanda, lives her life by recalling memories from her girlhood. Laura, the shy, slightly crippled daughter finds refuge in an imaginary kingdom of her glass animal collection. Tom Wingfield alternates between the narrator and participant in the play. Tom brings home a "gentleman caller" from the warehouse he works at, in hope of finding a love interest for Laura.

About The Friar's Cell

The Friar's Cell is a Student Based Organization where every facet of the production is run exclusively by the students of the Theatre Arts Department at PC. It is currently in its second year, and is open to anyone who wishes to help strengthen the organization. Thank you.

Production Staff

Production Stage Manager Allison Healy
Costume Designer Elizabeth Brady
Lighting Designer Pat Austin
Light Board Operator Grace Gonzalez
Sound Chris Saulnier
Running Crew Rebecca Upham, Roberta MacIvor
Box Office Manager Alissa Collins
Publicity Brian E. Canell
House Manager Eileen Murphy

I would like to thank Allison Healy, Pat Austin, Elizabeth Brady, David Cabral, the Theatre Department and the cast and crew.

Thanks for all your help! Stephen Radochia