LITTLE FLAGS THEATRE TO PERFORM AT BLACKFRIARS

Providence, R.I. Sophie Tucker will belt the blues in her tweed and brown paper, heiress Margaret Mellon Dupont will lecture on proper attitudes, and Mother Jones will stride out of history as the hero of the mining men...Quite exciting for one evening? Well, the Little Flags Theatre has much more in store.

Ah, Women!, a musical revue by Maxine Klein and James Oestereich, will come to the Blackfriars Theatre on Wednesday, September 23 and with song and scene, the women will speak.

Ah, Women! is a series of musical skits, ranging from comedy to serious mini-dramas which highlights the role of American women in the progress of social justice. Ah, Women! is, in a sense, a celebration of the strength and style of the American woman.

Maxine Klein, who wrote and directed Ah, Women!, founded Little Flags Theatre thirteen years ago in Boston. Ms. Klein has directed shows in Minneapolis, Canada, Boston, as well as off-Broadway. She is the author of numerous articles, books, and plays. Her husband, James Oestereich, composed the music for Ah, Women! which is both rousing and politically gripping.
