"BREVIARIUM SANCTI DOMINICI."

A 13th century ms., preserved by the nuns of Monte Mario, Rome, is claimed by them to have been the breviary given by Jordan of Saxony to B1. Diana d'Andalo as a remembrance of St. Dominic.

The claim is doubtful. The handwriting is that of the middle of the 13th century; hence the ms. was written at least a quarter of a century after the saint's death.

So many of its folios were cut out of the book (doubtless as pious souvenirs) that only 93 folios remain. What is left leaves us in doubt as to whether the book ever had been a breviary.
