ANTIGONE by Sophocles is the moving and dramatic legend of one of the greatest Greek heroines who stood for the individual conscience against the evils of civil authority. This classical Greek tragedy to be performed at the Blackfriars Theatre is to be given a revitalized and stimulating production accessible to the 1985 audience. See the story of a girl as she fights all odds in the world being destroyed around her.

FOR A GROUP OF 20 OR MORE, PAY JUST $3.00 PER TICKET!!!

Deadline for making reservations is Monday, April 15.
Seating is limited, so act today!
