PARENTS WEEKEND
at
The Blackfriars Theatre

PRESENTS

A DOLL'S HOUSE
BY HENRIK IBSEN

The classic drama of a woman's struggle for personal freedom in a rigid society whose rules have made women into little more than house decorations. The play, written in 1879, was a harbinger of times to come. Today, A Doll's House has important ramifications and raises some disturbing questions in a world that is still grappling with the problems of human rights.
