Playhouse Creatures Updated House speech

Ladies and Gentleman, welcome to the Smith Center for the Arts and to the David and Lynn Angell Blackfriars Theatre.

At this time we ask that you take a moment to turn off all cell phones and other electronic devices. As a courtesy to those sitting around you, and out of respect for the performers, texting is not permitted in the theatre during the performance. Photography and video recording of the performance are also prohibited.

In the unlikely event that the performance is interrupted, please notice the four Emergency exits in the auditorium behind you and two Emergency exits on either side of the stage. Please take a moment to locate the best foot path for your exit, either through the main stairway from which you entered, along the ramp on the right side of the house or the small staircase from the left side of the house.

Due to the nature of this set, reentry and late seating is not possible.

Thank you for supporting the arts at Providence College. And now, the Department of Theatre, Dance and Film presents, Playhouse Creatures
