III. In the cases of Private Jacob Henry, 20th United States Colored Infantry, Musician James Norton, Company I, and Privates Henry Gohnssen, Company B, and Henry Mason, Company D, 1st New Orleans Volunteers; George Harrington, Company D, and John Cummings, Company C, 56th Ohio Veteran Volunteers; Terrance Razor, Company II, 87th United States Colored Infantry; William Wilson, Company B. John Smith Company E, David Dunlap, and Peter Gaffney, Company G, 1st United States Infantry, Peter Davis and Samuel H. Canfield, Company D, 4th United States Artillery; George Sweet and Charles B. Rote, Company B, 3d Maryland Cavalry; Corporal Joseph Manuel, Company B, 74th United States Colored Infantry; Privates Charles Dill Signal Corps, United States Army, Joseph Romer, Company E, 77th United States Colored Infantry, and John Harney, Company A, 4th Missouri Cavalry, the proceedings, findings and sentences are approved, and the sentences will be carried into effect, at Ship Island, Mississippi, by the Commanding Officer thereof. The prisoners will be sent to the Provost Marshal of the Parish of Orleans, with their descriptive lists and certified copies of their sentences, and will be forwarded by him to Ship Island. Corporal Manuel ceases to be a non-commissioned officer from the date of this order.

In the case of Michael Kennedy, Company A, 1st United States Infantry, the proceedings, findings and sentence upon the first charge and specification are disapproved; the evidence is altogether insufficient to establish the charge of habitual drunkenness. The findings on the second charge are approved. The sentence is accordingly mitigated to confinement at hard labor, at Ship Island, for the period of six months, and a forfeiture to the United States of ten dollars of his monthly pay for and during said period, which sentence will be duly carried into effect.

In the case of Private John W. Murray, Company I, 1st New Orleans Volunteers, the proceedings, findings and sentence are approved, but in consequence of the recommendation of the members of the Court, the sentence is remitted.

In the case of Private James Stewart, Company B, 1st New Orleans Volunteers, the proceedings, findings and sentence are approved, and the sentence will be carried into effect by his Regimental Commander.

In the cases of Sergeant Lewellyn Williams, Company G, 26th Ohio Veteran Volunteers, Private Ignatius Goldhofer, Company F, 1st United States Infantry, Private Thomas Marshal, Company A, 1st New Orleans Volunteers, and Charles Brown, Company G, 47th Illinois Volunteers, the proceedings, findings and sentences are approved.

In the case of Private William Ware, Company F, 1st United States Infantry, the proceedings, findings and sentence are disapproved.

The Court having acquitted him of the charge of "Worthlessness," it is considered improper, if not illegal, to punish him for specific offences, which have already been passed upon by his Commanding Officer. He will be released and restored to duty.

In the cases of Patrick O'Brien, 142d Company, 2d Battalion, Veteran Reserve Corps, Joseph Lougue, Citizen, and J. Corrigan, Civilian, the proceedings, findings and sentences are approved. The prisoners will be released, Private O'Brien will be returned to duty.

In the case of Simon Baum, Civilian, the proceedings, findings and sentence are disapproved; as the Commission exonerates the accused from all intent to violate military regulations prohibiting the sale of citizens' clothing to soldiers, the sentence is deemed improper; the accused will be released.

In the case of Private John Panow, Company E, 3d Maryland Cavalry, the proceedings, findings and sentence are approved; but as it is probable that the accused intended to surrender himself under the President's Proclamation, and failed to do so by five days only, it is considered that the interest of the service requires the sentence to be remitted, and it is remitted accordingly. The accused will be released and returned to duty.

In the cases of Private Matthew Prince, Company F, and Private John Newman, Company H, 1st United States Infantry, the proceedings, findings and sentences are approved, and the sentences will be carried into effect, except those portions thereof awarding confinement, which are remitted.

BY ORDER OF BREVET MAJOR GENERAL SHERMAN:

B. B. CAMPBELL,

Captain and Assistant Adjutant General.

OFFICIAL:

Acting Assistant Adjutant General.
