Circular

No 4

Officers of this Command detailed on Court Martials ^{and} Military Commissions or Boards of Enquiry meeting in New Orleans are at liberty to choose whether they will remain with their Commands and be reported on "Special duty" or whether they will leave them and be reported on detach^{ed} Service.

If they choose the former they will when not actually sitting with their Courts be entirely under the orders of the Comdg Officers of their regiments, and if desiring to leave the camp or remain in the City after the adjournment of their Courts, must make Applications to the Post Commander through the regular channels.

Officers now serving or who may be hereafter detailed on such duties will immediately report in writing to their Ad. Col. their choice

in order that the Roster of the Command may be correctly arranged.
