DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Contemplate this: Do you know who you are? Are you conscious of the constructed context controlling your conscience? Conformity ought not to have a negative connotation. Conformity to ones convictions is the gateway to freedom. Connection to your soul requires the conquering of your spirit. Are you connected? Consider life as an opportunity to convince, not to be controlled. Consistency leads to containment, not contentment. Condemn conceit. Confess and become contrite.

"He who loses his life for my sake will find it"-Jesus Christ.

VERY SPECIAL THANK YOU TO

Mr. John Garrity and the Providence College Department of Theater, Dance, and Film for their commitment to Arts Education.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Moliere's Tartuffe is a satire that examines human nature and deceit through the comedic situation of it's characters. I chose this show because it showcases the triumph of the human spirit and how difficult it is to navigate between right and wrong. This classic farce has been entertaining and teaching audiences for generations. Our company has drawn upon many different styles of comedic acting to entertain you. We hope you enjoy this performance.
