Student Congress to Join National Student Association

The Student Congress of Providence College had its first meeting of the year on Monday, Sept. 25. The major topic on the agenda was whether the Student Congress would join the National Student Association (NSA). The NSA, headed by Joseph Pepka, sponsored the bill to join the NSA, and pointed out that the Association is made up of 326 student governments throughout the country. Advantages in joining NSA were, accessible library of references explaining what student governments are doing, a life insurance policy for students at a reduced price, and better bargaining power when dealing with singing groups for concerts. Also more than 15,000 volunteer workers have come from the NSA to help the Office of Economic Opportunity.

The Class of 1969 has been appointed chaplain at the Dominican Order that same day. Father Paul Walsh, O.P., has been appointed chaplain at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

New P.C. Chaplain Appointed; Father Walsh Appointed to Post

Fr. Paul Walsh, O.P., has been appointed chaplain at Providence College. He succeeds Fr. Adrian Wade, O.P., who has been appointed to the Saint Thomas More Center at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

The student organization would be feasible. James Montague sponsored a bill that would petition Fr. Haas, to reduce prices of paperback books, to bring in a profit of 30% while paper-backs bring in 30%. For this reason he lowered the prices of his paper-backs by 30%. Mr. Montague went on further to say that the request was not granted the passage in the Student Handbook which states that "students should buy books from the College Book Store since it is more economical," should be stricken from the handbook. The bill was passed unanimously.

A bill to protest the "hearing" of students to the convocational Mass was tabled for further study.

Among the first matters of business was the appointing of students to the Student Faculty Board. Representing the class of 1969 will be Joseph T. McAleer and Lindsay E. Waters. Brian J. Murphy and Robert W. Palmer will represent the class of 1970. Of the six students three are day-hops and three are dorm students.

Promotions, New Titles

Several staff appointments, promotions and reassignments at Providence College have been announced by the Very Rev. William Paul Haas, O.P., President.

The Rev. John F. Cunningham, who has been in direct of the Liberal Arts Honor Program becomes Director of Residence with responsibility of overall supervision of residence facilities. The new assistant was Andrew A. Del Corso, a former professor of military science at the College.

The Rev. John S. Peterson, O.P., assistant bursar, was named his assistant was Fr. James Sullivan, O.P., Bursar; Fr. Charles B. Bargamian, O.P., Assistant Bursar; Fr. Robert A. Morris, O.P., Bursar; and Robert G. Palmer, O.P., Assistant Bursar.

The first stages of what appears to be an ambitious long-range program of improvements at the physical plant of the College is now evident. Official confirmation of a much discussed "10 year program" of building and remodelling has not been made as yet. However, the most current tour of the campus reveals an unprecedented state of activity that perhaps is an indication of a bright future for the College campus.

Adding considerable weight to rumors that a 10 year expansion program is to be inaugurated in the recent formation by Very Rev. William Paul Haas, O.P., President of the College, of a permanent building committee. The objective of the committee, as reported by Mr. Montague, to oversee construction presently underway and to formulate and recommend plans for new constructing. The committee is to be made up of an advisory body and a permanent Student Union.

Among the various physical changes which have taken place on the P.C. campus during the summer recess is the refurbishing of Donnelly Hall, in order to serve as a temporary Student Union. Fr. Robert Morris, O.P., Vice President for Development, has indicated that Donnelly is only a "temporary measure, until permanent facilities can be provided." Fr. Morris noted that a permanent Student Union was one of the topics discussed in the Development Committee meeting Sept. 23.

Mr. Arthur J. Newton, Director of Student Affairs, pointed out that, under the Management of Mr. James Donahue, and his assistant, Mr. William Panacea, the Administration hopes to provide at Donnelly the recreational needs of the students. Along with the pool tables, TV lounge, Carolan and Dillon Club offices, Mr. Newton wanted that the two conference rooms, which would be used on a rotating basis, would satisfy many of the students' needs.

Mr. Newton noted that since Donnelly is to serve as a student activities center, it is his intention that the students actively participate in the management of the facility. For this reason, he has recommended that the Student Congress "(Continued on Page 6)
On the Riots

Summer '67 marked the emergence into the limelight of two of the greatest war mongers in American History. This infusion of war fever which could at any moment explode. The effects of the summer of rioting were devastating and hideous, but yet we can claim that the events were coincidental.

Did the riots just happen haphazardly, or were they part of a master plot to undermine the fabric of Democracy may hinge on the answer to this question.

Little has been done to check the primary cause which is the instigation of the ominous oration (Brown and Carmichael).

The student prefect system this year has managed to formulate a bill which was supposed to make it a federal offense to cross state lines for the purpose of inciting a riot. However, this law does not seem to be worth the paper it was printed on because both Brown and Carmichael continue to preach hate and violence throughout the country.

The freedom of speech is indeed precious, but it creates somewhat absurd that subservient savages who call for mass destruction and the humiliation of the American Negro would be protected and shielded by the civil right action. Possibly new legislation should be enacted.

Student Prefect System

Student discontent with the rules and regulations that govern campus residence has been a major issue at Providence College and many other institutions for some time. This trend has developed at most colleges which has increasingly shifted the maintenance of dormitory discipline from stringent sets of rules to an emphasis on personal contact and example. This has in turn been followed by the exercise of individual responsibility. This idea is the student prefect system.

The student prefect system is familiar to the student of modern history. It has paved the way for the advance of democracy. The system developed nearly half of the globe.

Most Americans steadfastly agree that Communism could not possibly invade our beloved country, but we are presently sitting on a powder keg of rebellion which could at any moment explode.

The student prefect system is a mixture of order and control through personal contact and example not by the exercise of individual responsibility which should be non-existent.

The necessity of the existence of such a program has been the lack of a fall sport to fill the void before the basketball season starts. Nevertheless, as in case of the weather, there was much talk and little action.

Lost Fall however, several interested students initiated a drive to establish a Club Football program. Club Football is a student managed organization which receives no financial assistance from the College. In order to assure success for the program, it was essential that the Football Club procure $10,000 in capital. Because of this seemingly insurmountable obstacle, several camps, including the College administration and an element of the Sports Department of a local newspaper showed the project as a force. Despite such odds, the Football Club has had the last laugh. Various fund raising projects have made Club Football a reality at Providence College.

It now appears that the administration is trying to save face by tossing another obstacle into the path of success. Approximately sixteen football players have been affected by the refusal of the Dean's Office to make schedule revisions for individuals who have a conflict between their class schedules and practice sessions.

The argument presented by the administration is that schedule adjustments are made only for varsity athletic clubs. While it is true that Club Football is not a varsity sport, consideration should be given to the fact that the Football Club is an intercollegiate program under the sanction of the NCAA, and that unlike intramural clubs, the Football Club represents the College as a whole, and should be treated accordingly.

It is too much to ask for some cooperation from the administration.

Women on Faculty

It seems strange that the absence of women from the undergraduate school faculty of Providence College was so little questioned in the past. Fortunately, the need to debate the issue in the future has been precluded by the Committee on Academic Rank and Tenure.

We commend the Committee for appointing three women to the faculty, the first to teach undergraduate courses here. At the same time we welcome Mrs. Roland Foltz (German), Mrs. Carlos M. Angulo (Spanish) and Miss Roseanne Vaile, a graduate assistant in the English Department, to the Providence College community.

Dr. Paul van K. Thomson, Vice President for Academic Affairs and chairman of the committee, has said that qualifications, and not sex, are the determining factors in the acceptance of faculty members. It is not inconsistent that a nun or religious brother will be on the faculty in the future, he said.

We view the committee's attitude—and more especially, its recent action—as a sign of the growth Providence College is now undergoing.

Positions are open for writers interested in reviewing books, plays, movies, etc. Join the Cowl!
New Faculty Appointments
Number Thirty At College

The appointment of 24 new faculty members fills the Dominican priests at Providence College was announced by Dr. Paul van K. Thompson.

Mrs. Maria L. Angulo will be a professor of sociology. A native of Madrid, Spain, she received her B.A. from Pontes brooke College and her M.A. from Brown University in 1966.

Robert J. Atkison, instructor in business. A graduate of Marylan college, he received his M.S. from the University of Rhode Island. Since last year he has been an inventory control a employee of the Tide Inc., of Attleboro. He is a na tive of Central Falls.

Theodore N. Bunnell, assistant professor of psychology. He holds his bachelor's, master's and several degrees from Brown University.

Rev. Richard C. Boulet, O.P., visiting professor of religious studies. Since 1965 Father Boulet has been professor of theology at Immaculate Concep tion College, Washington. A 1954 graduate of Providence he holds a doctorate in theology from the University of Mon treal.

Duane F. Bruce, instructor in English. A graduate of Siena College, he received his M.A. in June from the University of North Carolina.

John J. Cullen, instructor in psychology. A graduate of Mer imine College, he received his M.A. from Assumption College in June.

George P. DeGeorge, instruc tor in French. He is a graduate of St. Francis College (N. Y.)
and holds his M.A. from City College of New York.

John J. Depp, instructor in English. He holds his M.A.
from Northern Illinois Univer sity and his M.B.A. from Loyola Univer sity of Chicago and received his B.A. from the University of Illinois.

Rev. J. C. Driscoll, O.P., joins the religious studies depart ment. He has taught at La Salle College and Marist College. He is a graduate of Ohio State Uni versity.

Louis C. Emond, instructor in English. He holds his B.A. and M.A. from Providence Col lege.

Rev. Giles R. Dimock, O.P., joins the religious studies depar ment. He has been a signed from the Dominican House of Studies, Washington, where he completed his theol gy training. He holds his A.B. from St. Stephen's College.

Michael F. Filippelli, assist ant professor of business. He has been a auditor and ac countant at Brown University since 1962. Since 1960 he has been an instructor at the Univer sity of Rhode Island. He holds his B.S. from Providence College and his M.B.A. from U.C.C.

James F. Flanagan, instructor in sociology. Since 1952 he has been a training supervisor at the state department of Social Welfare. He holds his B.A. from Providence College and his M.S.S. from Boston Uni versity.

Rev. William R. Gannon, O.P., comes to the department of religious studies. He has been associate professor of the ology at Aquinas College, Grand Rapids, for the past 5 years. He has also taught at Alfred Magnar大学 and Marymount University.

Mrs. Siegrun Folrer, instruc tor in German. A native of Ger many, she has taught at Henry University since 1965. She holds a B.S. from the University of Rochester and an M.A. from the University of Kansas.

Christopher E. Hewitt, instruc tor in sociology. A native of Staffordshire, England, he holds his B.S. from the School of Advanced Studies in Economics. He received his B.A. at Brown University where he is a doctoral candi date.

Joseph T. Krysz, Jr., instruc tor in computer science. For the past year he has been a member of the technical staff of Computer Sciences Corp. of California. He holds his B.A.
from Providence College and his M.S. from Purdue Univer sity.

Richard A. Lambe, assistant professor of political science.
He holds his A.B. from San Diego State College and his M.A. from Brown University where he is a doctoral candidate.

Rev. Richard A. McAllister, O.P., instructor in art. He holds his B.A. from Providence Col lege and his M.A. from Johns Hop ton's School of Advanced Inter national Studies.

John A. Ridge, assistant profes sor of political science. He is a former instructor at the University of Florida and is now in the Philippines under a Ful bright Program. He holds his B.A from Heidelberg College and his M.A. from Johns Hop ton's School of Advanced Interna tional Studies.

Frederick A. Ruggiero, O.P.,
instructor in theology. A native of Providence and his M.B.A. from Wayne State University.

Michael V. Mettels, instructor in history. A graduate of Seton Hall University, he holds his M.S. from Notre Dame and is a doctoral candidate at New York University. He has worked
(Continued on Page 7)

Fr. Cunningham Announces
New Disciplinary Regulations

The Providence College band will lift emphasis this year from activity at sporting events and public functions to work in the band. The new members of the quality needed for concerts, the band is con ducting a drive to attract seri ous musicians.

Last year, the band presented concerts in connection with Parents Conference and will con continue this year with a program of concerts. Mr. Joseph Conte, director of the band, hopes that the band will become a cultural asset to the college in the fu ture. For the coming year, Mr. Conte has been engaged to con duct three concerts, one of which will be pre ceding Christmas. In addition to these concerts, the band will continue their function at home basketball, hockey, and softball games.

Mr. Conte is an alum of Brown University and has studied music at the Langy School of Music in Cambridge, Rhode Island College, and the Uni versity of New Hampshire. He were awarded his degree by the direc tor of the R. I. Philharmonic Orchestra, the R. I. Youth Or chestra, the Providence Porti cut Symphony, and the St.
Xavier High School Band. For the coming year, Mr. Conte has designated Dennis Perrino as band commander and Michel Carter as executive officer, both sen iors.

Membership in the band is open to all students and not restricted to those in the R. O. Fraternity. For persons interested in joining the band or obtain ning further information may send a letter to Mr. Conte any Wednes day at 2:00 p.m. in Donnelly Hall.
Dear Editor:

As alumnus of Providence College, it saddened us to read about the puerile and surreal fasce staged recently by the administration because this type of behavior is not consistent with the traditions and heritage of our institution. The problems the student faces in and out of the classroom are great enough without the need to focus attention on the length of someone's hair, a condition that should be one of the least of our worries and which has absolutely nothing to do with the exchange of information or the expression of personal perspectives. (Nor does the length of one's hair have anything to do with highway mishaps though operating under severe stress.)

The administration once again revealed that it cannot distinguish between substance and style. Elder statesmen single out as its first allegiance not to the student and the alumni, but to the man person but to opinions of the interviewer from IBM and the economic progress which the government has contributed to the undermining of the traditional values of Nationalism. The jobs in the rural areas are leaving the farms and going to cities. For these reasons the development of shanty towns has helped to create problems of government and rampant prostitution.

Mr. Friedman stated that the government of Nationalist China is "police state." To show this, Mr. Friedman gave an eye-witness report, saying "everyday at nine o'clock workers disappear to go to production conferences which are really propaganda meetings. They lead such little hysterics which contain the writings of Sun Yat-sen, and then listen to what Chiang Kai-shek is saying."

Mr. Friedman believes that Chiang is hoping to recapture the past glories by perpetuating traditions, but because of the economic development of the country the changes are coming anyway. "By engaging economic development," said Mr. Friedman, "we have been able to capture the past glories indirectly engendered. A new society, different in the traditional one, is being formed whether Chiang wants it or not."

Sincerely yours,

Stephen J. Fortunato, Jr.
"65

Campus Representative

Mr. Zygmunt Friedman
Spends Summer in China

Dear Editor:

I am writing this note hoping that you will print it in one of your columns. It is a matter of fact that I have just returned from the P.C. campus, where I came to love that place, and it stands for and the people (students, faculty and administration) that make it a living reality.

One cannot really appreciate the greatness of an experience until that experience blends in with other living memories and freed from the pressure of what reality it gets the chance to be studied, and realized as a thing of the past.

One of the greatest experiences of my life as a younger instructor has been that of teaching at the University of Wisconsin. Through "proper channels," I got the chance to realize that there are many dissimilarities between Ibsen and Chekhov.

I hope that the administration, my fellow faculty members and the students at P.C. will continue to have very fond memories from my work there.

George Pan
Piperopoulos
U. of Marseilles
European Div.

Vogelweh Army Ed. Center

Geb. 2762, West Germany

Dean's List Released
For Past Semester

Following is the Dean's List for the following semester:

CLASS OF '68

Raymond P. Boyne, Norman A.

Bullock, John L. King, John M.

Bourne, Kenneth L. Fouquet, Robert

Dyson, Robert A. Luce, Robert M.

Pratt, Robert E. Kapp, Richard L.

Raulston, Donald L. Dellos, John J.

Sargent, John F. Tauer, James M. Herbig

Walker, John A. Boulanger, Richard A.

Walker, J. Michael Mathews, Thomas J. Berculla

Ward, Richard A. Bush, Eugene A. Osmond

Wiberg, James D. Dever, Thomas D.

Wyatt, Roger M. Dufour, Richard H.

Zamperini, John B. Raymond, Cestas

Zhukovitz, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.

Zumbarth, Nathan D. Rourke, Richard C.
College Names Staff
To New Appointments

The appointments at the College of a Library Director, a Director of Publications and a Director of the Annual Giving Programs have been announced by the Rev. William Paul Haas, O.P.

Joseph H. Doherty of Newport, R. I., has been named library director. Arthur C. Mattos of Tyverton, R. I., was named director of publications and William T. Nero of East Providence was named director of annual giving programs.

Mr. Doherty, a Boston native, has worked in the New York Public Library System for the past 11 years. He has served as reference librarian, assistant curator, assistant branch librarian, and branch librarian in various New York public libraries. He taught at HATCH Preparatory School, Newport, from 1952 to 1954.

He attended Boston College and received his A.B. in philosophy from Fordham College. He holds an M.A. in English and a master's degree in library science from Columbia University.

Mr. Doherty is a former president of the Rhode Island State Association of the Public Libraries of New York.

One of Mr. Mattos' primary accomplishments will be the planning for the administration of the magazine "Providence." He is currently director of the library scheduled for completion by 1965.

Mr. Mattos is married to the former Mrs. William F. Mattos of Newport, R. I. The couple and their two children live at Bluebird Cottage, Wellington Avenue, Newport.

Mr. Mattos has a 1963 graduate degree in Providence College. For the past four years he has taught at La Salle Academy, Providence. He attended Rhode Island College's graduate division in 1962.

As director of publications Mr. Mattos will have general supervision of the college's publications program. He will also edit the College's newsletters and publications.

Mr. Mattos graduated summa cum laude from Providence. While an undergraduate he was a member of the Delta Epsilon Sigma Honor Fraternity and was executive editor of the "Cowl." Mr. Mattos attended the University of Maine, St. Vincent College, and St. Bonaventure University.

Mr. Nero was district director of the Muscular Dystrophy Association for Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts from 1963 to 1968, and has also worked for the Rhode Island State Employment Service and the State Department of Social Welfare.

A native of Providence, Mr. Nero attended La Salle Academy and St. Michael's College (Vt.). He received his A.B. degree from Providence College in 1955. He is a member of the Providence Independence Council, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Nero is married to the former Anne M. Campbell of Providence. The couple have five children and reside at 434 Hommock Drive, East Providence.

Donnelly Hall...

(Continued from Page 1) medially appoint a recreation committee, which will actually work with the Administration in the management of the student activities.

One of the first tasks of this committee, Mr. Newlin indicated, will be to consider what type of stereo system and records should be in the Donnelly Hall Music Room. Another task would be to coordinate, with the Student Affairs office, such programs as the use of the two conference rooms which are provided for various meetings, etc.

By "BUTCH" FLAHERTY

A visit to the Placement Office on opening day found Ray H. T. Thibeault, assistant to the president, processing the many applications of Seniors who are currently registered and looking over the many applicants who are still on the way. It is a busy spot.

In a follow-up summary they received a "substantial assist­ance." He is confident that the class of '68 will not only sur­pass that record, but could even pass that record, but could even pass that record, but could even pass that record, but could even... (continued)

One of Mr. Doherty's primary accomplishments will be the planning for the administration of the magazine "Providence." He is currently director of the library scheduled for completion by 1965.

Mr. Mattos graduated summa cum laude from Providence. While an undergraduate he was a member of the Delta Epsilon Sigma Honor Fraternity and was executive editor of the "Cowl." Mr. Mattos attended the University of Maine, St. Vincent College, and St. Bonaventure University.

Mr. Nero was district director of the Muscular Dystrophy Association for Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts from 1963 to 1968, and has also worked for the Rhode Island State Employment Service and the State Department of Social Welfare.

A native of Providence, Mr. Nero attended La Salle Academy and St. Michael's College (Vt.). He received his A.B. degree from Providence College in 1955. He is a member of the Providence Independence Council, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Nero is married to the former Anne M. Campbell of Providence. The couple have five children and reside at 434 Hommock Drive, East Providence.

Donnelly Hall...

(Continued from Page 1) medially appoint a recreation committee, which will actually work with the Administration in the management of the student activities.

One of the first tasks of this committee, Mr. Newlin indicated, will be to consider what type of stereo system and records should be in the Donnelly Hall Music Room. Another task would be to coordinate, with the Student Affairs office, such programs as the use of the two conference rooms which are provided for various meetings, etc.

Donnelly Hall...

(Continued from Page 1) medially appoint a recreation committee, which will actually work with the Administration in the management of the student activities.

One of the first tasks of this committee, Mr. Newlin indicated, will be to consider what type of stereo system and records should be in the Donnelly Hall Music Room. Another task would be to coordinate, with the Student Affairs office, such programs as the use of the two conference rooms which are provided for various meetings, etc.

By "BUTCH" FLAHERTY

A visit to the Placement Office on opening day found Ray H. T. Thibeault, assistant to the president, processing the many applications of Seniors who are currently registered and looking over the many applicants who are still on the way. It is a busy spot.

In a follow-up summary they received a "substantial assist­ance." He is confident that the class of '68 will not only sur­pass that record, but could even pass that record, but could even pass that record, but could even pass that record, but could even...

One of Mr. Doherty's primary accomplishments will be the planning for the administration of the magazine "Providence." He is currently director of the library scheduled for completion by 1965.

Mr. Mattos graduated summa cum laude from Providence. While an undergraduate he was a member of the Delta Epsilon Sigma Honor Fraternity and was executive editor of the "Cowl." Mr. Mattos attended the University of Maine, St. Vincent College, and St. Bonaventure University.

Mr. Nero was district direc­tor of the Muscular Dystrophy Association for Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts from 1963 to 1968, and has also worked for the Rhode Island State Employment Service and the State Department of Social Welfare.

A native of Providence, Mr. Nero attended La Salle Academy and St. Michael's College (Vt.). He received his A.B. degree from Providence College in 1955. He is a member of the Providence Independence Council, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Nero is married to the former Anne M. Campbell of Providence. The couple have five children and reside at 434 Hommock Drive, East Providence.

Donnelly Hall...

(Continued from Page 1) medially appoint a recreation committee, which will actually work with the Administration in the management of the student activities.

One of the first tasks of this committee, Mr. Newlin indicated, will be to consider what type of stereo system and records should be in the Donnelly Hall Music Room. Another task would be to coordinate, with the Student Affairs office, such programs as the use of the two conference rooms which are provided for various meetings, etc.

By "BUTCH" FLAHERTY

A visit to the Placement Office on opening day found Ray H. T. Thibeault, assistant to the president, processing the many applications of Seniors who are currently registered and looking over the many applicants who are still on the way. It is a busy spot.

In a follow-up summary they received a "substantial assist­ance." He is confident that the class of '68 will not only sur­pass that record, but could even pass that record, but could even pass that record, but could even pass that record, but could even...
Father Fitzgerald Dies Here Unexpectedly

The Rev. John V. M. Fitzgerald, O.P., who had been associated with Providence College for many years, died suddenly early Monday morning in his dormitory. Father Fitzgerald was 64. He had been a professor of sociology and political science here since 1938. He was also moderator of the Pyramid Students and the Sociology Club.

Father Fitzgerald was born in West Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on July 17, 1903; and died on November 11, 1967. He had been a professor of sociology and political science here since 1938. He was also moderator of the Pyramid Students and the Sociology Club.

Father Fitzgerald was born in West Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on July 17, 1903; and died on November 11, 1967. He had been a professor of sociology and political science here since 1938. He was also moderator of the Pyramid Students and the Sociology Club.

Father Fitzgerald was born in West Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on July 17, 1903; and died on November 11, 1967. He had been a professor of sociology and political science here since 1938. He was also moderator of the Pyramid Students and the Sociology Club.
Faculty Appointment...

Peter J. Trinchero, labora

Professor of Military Science, has

He holds his B.A. and M.S. from University. He holds his B.S. and M.S.

Michigan University.

James M. Norris, instructor

in English. He holds his A.B. and M.A.

James H. J. Morin, instructor

in political science. He holds his A.B.

University of Massachusetts.

B.A. and M.A. from Providence College.

versity of California, his M.S.

and M.S. from Providence College.

Xavier University since 1965.

James H. J. Morin, instructor

in history. He has taught at Colleges since 1965. He holds his A.B.

University for the Central Intelligence agency.

Robert Gaven, Basking Ridge, N. J.,

Convocation...

(Continued from Page 1) Funnily, the only way to get out of place these days to suggest that an essential principle of education is love and under standing. We start here with our turns to say what we are as men. We not put aside the ultimate ques tions in favor of superficial solu tions to society’s ills, however

But this shall not happen

here because we shall not forget what we are as men. We will shall give no less of our ourselves here and now to serve our fellowman for having smashed the wall of our inner capacity for true

self-giving comes only after we have seen ourselves for what we are and measured our feeble efforts against the generosity of God Himself. Society will al ways need men who are honest about themselves, who claim no superiority over their fellow men because they are intelligent enough to know what it is to be a man and to stand in some true relationship to God.

 actividad

ACTIVITY CALENDAR

Wednesday, September 27

Meeting of the Class of 1969—Albertus Magnus 100, 1:30 p.m.

AED Lecture, Dr. Robert Cramer—Aquinas Lounge

Camera Club Meeting—Donnelly Hall, 8:00 p.m.

Friars Club Meeting—Alumni Hall (r-201), 8:30 p.m.

Thursday, September 28

Big Brothers Meeting—Aquinas Lounge, 6:30 p.m.

Rifle Team Meeting—Alumni Shooting Range, 7:30 p.m.

Monday, October 2

Metropolitan Club—Aquinas Lounge, 6:30 p.m.

Jazz Club—Guild Room, 7:00 p.m.

Political Union—Donnelly Hall, 7:00 p.m.

New Haven Club—Raymond Snack Bar, 6:30 p.m.

BIG BROTHERS GENERAL MEETING THURSDAY 6:30 AQUINAS LOUNGE

Despite fiendish torture dynamic BIC Duo writes first time, every time!

BIC's rugged pair of stick pens wins again "Dyamite" Ball is devised for them

Get the dynamic

Duo at your campus store now.

BIC Fine Point Pen...the secret to better written letters &

"fiendish torture"

is a rugged pair of stick pens by BIC. The Duo is a pair of pens in 25 colors with instant dry ink. The "Dyamite" Ball pen is the hardest metal made encased in a solid brass nose cone.

Will not skip, clog or smear no matter what devilish abuse is devised for them by adiacent students.

Get the dynamic BIC Duo at your

campus store now.

Cadet Colonel E. McMullen
New ROTC Brigade Head

Lt. Col. Lawrence V. Tirona, Professor of Military Science, has announced the assignments for the Cadet Brigade for the academic year 1967-1968. The Brigade is under the direction of Cadet Col. Ernest E. Mc
Mullen, a senior from Norwich, Conn.

Assisting Col. McMullen on the Bridage Staff will be Execu utive Officers Lt. Col. Daniel Scotto of Pasticute, R. L. Major Richard E. Guibert, Woon
socket, R. L., Maj. Daniel F.
Gaven, Basking Ridge, N. J.

The First Battalion is headed by Commanding Officer Lt. Col.
Brian J. Onion of Osstville,
Mass., and Executive Officer
Maj. Thomas M. Farley, of Jack son Heights, N. Y. Commanding Officer of the Second Battalion is Lt. Col. Peter R. Connor of North Scituate, R. I. He will be assisted by Executive Officer, Maj. Raymond G. Erickson of Warwick, R. I.

K-12 Sponsor at Pershing Rifles Display

Mr. Esposito concluded by 祥ing that the social calendar for the year was successfuly started with the Psy

edelic Happening last Friday night. At this time, two more activities are planned for the upcoming months. The club will hold a Boatride on October 21 and a Thanksgiving Dance on November 22.

Mr. Esposito concluded by saying that all those interested in joining the club should regis ter in Alumni Hall cafeteria or in the Dillon Club office in Don nearly Hall.

Financial Aid Program Proposed by Educators

(Editors' Note: With the increase in the cost of quality education and the subsequent effect of higher tuition payments, many students are finding it increasingly serious burden to all students and particularly the poor. The following is a call to Providence College, The Cowa feels periodic publication of new financial programs that grow and ability regardless of his financial situation.

Increase the number of students from low-income families attending college. Help both public and private institutions to improve the quality of education by charging tuition closer to the full cost of education without government interference.

Provide relief for middle-income families, many of whom cannot afford to send several children to high cost universities.

Enable the disparities in opportunity for students from rich and poor states.

The report said: "No student borrower would have to worry about a large debt he could not repay. If he entered a low-income calling, or was unsuccessful in a normally affluent one, his obligation to the bank would decrease proportionately to his income for that period. Indeed, if a borrower's income fell below a certain level, e.g., because of illness, his obligation for the year might even be completely forgiven."

Instead of having to select a college within committing distance, such students for whom a widening of horizons is particularly beneficial could attend to study away from home, it added.

It cited the advantages of making more students responsible for their own education, the panel charged that the present system "tends to prolong adolescence" by making students financially dependent for their studies into their twenties.

"Most students regard higher education as something which somebody else gives them, rather than something they have to get for themselves," the report said.

The panel members besides Dr. Zacharias were Frederick J. Burkhart, president of the American Council of Learned Societies; Andrew M. Gleason, mathematician at Harvard University; Jacqueline Greenan, president of Webster College in St. Louis; John Hawkes, Department of English at Brown University; George G. Stern, Department of Psychology at Syracuse University; and John Noonan, business manager. The directors of the Club are Fr. M. Mays, of the Office of Science and Technology in the Executive Office of the President.

Strong opposition to the proposal was almost immediate in coming by the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges and the Association of State Colleges and Universities.

In a joint statement, these organizations called the plan a "Pandora's box of ill-considered ideas" and charged that its intent was to let society "abandon responsibility for the higher education of its young people and shift the cost to the students."

The statement went on to say, "in that most affluent nation in the world's history the panel asked the 'less affluent' to sign a life-indenture in return for the privilege of education.

Tryouts Held By Glee Club 18 Selected

The Providence College Glee club held tryouts for prospective members on Thursday evening, Sept. 21.

Father Leo S. Cannon, director of the C.P.G.G., and Brian Mullany, president, announced that eighteen new members were selected.

The new members from the Class of 1971 are: Kevin Robb, Arthur Belanger, Mike DiMaio, John Cashman, Dan Larkin, James Kinney, Richard DiPardo, Gary Evans, Kevin Fitzgerald, Joe DiMattina, Raymond Alves, and Tom Connelly.

New members from the Class of 1970 are: Raymond Moreau, Dan Terence, Wayne Warwick, Mark Grimes, and Bill Cooley.

John Lynch is the only new member from the Class of 1969. Officers of the C.P.G.G. for this year are: Brian Mullany, president; Jerry Pavao, vice-president; John Fisher, secretary; Dick Barnes and Bill Hanabiras; and John Noonan, business manager. The directors of the Club are Fr. M. Mays, of the Office of Science and Technology.

It was announced that rehearsals will be conducted on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings at six o'clock. Other preparations for the concert season are underway and will be announced at a later date.

THE COUNSELING CENTER

Is pleased to inform Legal residents of Rhode Island that it has currently available itself, on their behalf, of the services of the Of the R. I. Division Of Vocational Rehabilitation, which agency is prepared to sponsor Medical—psychiatric and Psychological care with community Physicians of the student's choice.

On recommendations from our office.

SELF REFERRALS ARE WELCOME AND CONFIDENTIAL

EDWARD C. BRENNAN
Director of Counseling Center
Highlights of '66-'67 Varsity Athlete Season

Success, disappointment, happiness and heartbreak—all characterized the 1966-1967 athletic season at Providence College. The Friars improved on last year's record and golf all came through with many fine finishes.

With the incomparable All-American Jim Walker leading the way for the Friars, a 21-7 record and their ninth consecutive 20 game season under Coach Jake Maguire, the Friars received their fifth N.I.T. bid and proved to all in the New England's that they were again recognized as the leading college team in the region.

The Friars, who also participated in the NCAA, the IC4A's and the ECAC, have proved to be one of the finest teams in the nation. The Friars also suffered some bad luck when Phil McMurray who was seventh in the race at the time was forced out with severe stomach cramps after about 2% miles. Other finishers were Ron Loughlin (4th), John Rembo (10th), and Brian Wooliel (12th).

The Friars are strong in their first three men, but must find a fourth and fifth man that can be counted on to give them hope to have a winning season. Like most Friars, they are now looking for their first victory next Saturday in a quadangular meet against Harvard, Rutgers, and Central Connecticut at West Point.

Freshmen Thirlclads Lose To Crimson Tide, 25-33

The Freshmen cross-country team lost their opening meet last Saturday to Harvard by the score of 25 to 33. The Freshmen had a good battle for 24 miles, but ran out of gas in the last half mile. They also suffered some bad luck when Phil McMurray who was seventh in the race at the time was forced out with severe stomach cramps after about 2% miles. The Freshmen were led by Christ Shultz who finished second. Other finishers were Ron Loughlin (4th), Joe Delaunay (5th), John Rembo (10th), and Brian Wooliel (12th).

The Freshmen are strong in their first three men, but must find a fourth and fifth man that can be counted on to give them hope to have a winning season. Like most Friars, they are now looking for their first victory next Saturday in a quadangular meet against Harvard, Rutgers, and Central Connecticut at West Point.

X-Country

Continued from Page 10

The annual PCIAA Tennis Tournament closed its registration yesterday on an official basis, but late entries should be accepted if submitted today. A record of your class schedule and time available to play must be included.

Registration for the Intramural Football League closes this Friday, September 29. Each club must submit a roster of not more than 20 players, along with their times that their team will be able to field a full squad.

Referees for the league are needed, and all those who enjoy taking up the challenge of refereeing should contact Pete Louthis as soon as possible.

The annual PCIAA Tennis Tournament closed its registration yesterday on an official basis, but late entries should be accepted if submitted today. A record of your class schedule and time available to play must be included.

Registration for the Intramural Football League closes this Friday, September 29. Each club must submit a roster of not more than 20 players, along with their times that their team will be able to field a full squad.

Referees for the league are needed, and all those who enjoy taking up the challenge of refereeing should contact Pete Louthis as soon as possible.

The annual PCIAA Tennis Tournament closed its registration yesterday on an official basis, but late entries should be accepted if submitted today. A record of your class schedule and time available to play must be included.

Registration for the Intramural Football League closes this Friday, September 29. Each club must submit a roster of not more than 20 players, along with their times that their team will be able to field a full squad.

Referees for the league are needed, and all those who enjoy taking up the challenge of refereeing should contact Pete Louthis as soon as possible.
The premiere edition of the Providence Friars football will make its debut on Friday afternoon when it has a scrimmage with the Brown Elms. The intramural season opens a week later with a home contest against New Haven.

For the past two weeks approximately 35 aspirants for the team have been plying their craft to the newly acquired Elmhurst property for practice sessions under the guidance of Head Coach Dick Lynch and his assistants. The intramural coach is hampered by lack of sufficient equipment and ground with decent footing, the team, nevertheless, has begun to take shape.

The offensive timing is becoming sharper each day, and the defensive unit has maintained steady progress as well. As of now there is no definite starting team, but there are a few names which are sure to be on the first line-up card. Paul Simon, a senior from New Bedford, Mass., will be at one of the offensive tackles. His speed, size and sense make him an almost certain starter. Paul has proved to be a good ball handler and he throws on the money. The defensive unit is led by the Robey Brothers, Paul and Phil, and Dick Saukas.

Other names to watch are Paul Denva’a, Dit and Martin, Joel Dowell, John King, Mike Eagan John Champeau and Jim Murray.

One of the problems facing the Friars will be the depth of their unit. Unlike a varsity sport there will be some difficulty in knowing what to expect from the opposition. Coach Lynch hopes to alleviate this by scouting the opponents. This, however, will take some doing.

In typical Providence tradition, this team is showing a wealth of spirit. This is evidenced by the boys who came back to school with a few extra pounds, but due to regular practice, much of this has been taken to prevent a recurrence.

General consensus places the New Haven Elms in the role of pre-season favorites for ’67. The Friars will be a surprising one, although he should have competition from a newcomer to the squad, Greg Hayward. Paul Simon has proved to be a good ball handler and he throws on the money. The defensive unit is led by the Robey Brothers, Paul and Phil, and Dick Saukas.

The Friars back sharpen their timing on offensive plays in preparation for the long-awaited debut this Friday.

Gaven, Olsen Selected 1967 Cross-Country Co-Captains

Another Fall sports schedule is about to start here at Providence College. The P.C. Cross-Country team will usher in the new year with a traditional new look.

Providence sport fans can once again look forward to a rewarding campaign. The harriers this year are led by seniors Dan Gaven and Larry Olsen, newly elected co-captains. Together, Olsen and Gaven give the Friars a strong nucleus for another championship team.

The harrier co-captains can stake one important claim to the leadership position that they have been assigned. This is experience for which there is no substitute. Olsen and Gaven both ran the cross-country schedule last year and, in the Greenwood, greened many Paul their followers. Coach Hanlon labels this year’s captains as “consistent point getters.”

Dan Gaven, who hails from Rooking, N. J., is in his fourth season with the Friars. His biggest asset is his consistency. Dan placed among the top finishers in almost every meet last year. Hanlon tabs Gaven as an outstanding leader. “Gaven has the confidence and leadership we’re looking for.” Even more important is the experience he gained during the America’s indoor track season last winter.

In typical Providence tradition, this team is showing a wealth of spirit. This is evidenced by the boys who came back to school with a few extra pounds, but due to regular practice, much of this has been taken to prevent a recurrence.

General consensus places the New Haven Elms in the role of pre-season favorites for ’67. The Friars will be a surprising one, although he should have competition from a newcomer to the squad, Greg Hayward. Paul Simon has proved to be a good ball handler and he throws on the money. The defensive unit is led by the Robey Brothers, Paul and Phil, and Dick Saukas.

The Friars back sharpen their timing on offensive plays in preparation for the long-awaited debut this Friday.

Regional Clubs Prepare For Intramural Football

The 1967 Intramural Football League will commence with its fall extravaganza next week. Although it would be difficult for anyone to match the American League scramble, this year’s team plus the history of annually tight skirmishes, should come quite close.

Albertus Magnus was victorious last year, as was expected, but were hard pressed to notch up the season’s finale by Met B. New Haven Elms and the Beantown Bombers. Multiple thrills and highlights were in abundance with each crucial contest. Albertus Magnus, seemingly headed towards an undefeated record, is stunned by upset-minded Western Mass. A.

The Albertus loss set the stage for their dramatic en-counter with Met B, the miracle team of ’66. Albertus and Met traded two touchdowns, but the overall excitement was further enhanced by the fact that the majority of the second half was played under the stars. The Mets came within inches and a finger tip of scoring the deciding touchdown, but poor execution resulted from the pitch black atmosphere.

The New Haven Elms, on top most of the year, lost a heart breaking one point decision to Albertus. The Elms also came within inches of pulling an upset, but a clutch Albertus interception choked the Elm scrimmage.

The infamous Scol-ary League, free-for-all, symbolized the intensity most associated with the hearing, the heat of action. Obviously a sore spot to the integrity of intramural competition, action has been taken to prevent a recurrence.

General consensus places the New Haven Elms in the role of pre-season favorites for ’67. The Friars will be a surprising one, although he should have competition from a newcomer to the squad, Greg Hayward. Paul Simon has proved to be a good ball handler and he throws on the money. The defensive unit is led by the Robey Brothers, Paul and Phil, and Dick Saukas.

Head Coach Dick Lynch, on the left, discusses strategy with his assistant, Chet Hanewich, as the P.C. football squad awaits its scrimmage against the Bruins at Brown this Friday.

Harriers Fall to Harvard In Season Opener, 20 to 35

Last Saturday afternoon at Franklin Park in Boston, the Friar cross-country team went down to defeat at the hands of a strong Harvard squad. The Crimson’s blistering early pace combined with mental mistakes by the Friars enabled them to hand the black and white a 20-37 defeat. This was the first loss to Harvard in three years, and the first time that they have lost to a team other than Army in the last three seasons.

At the finish it was Harvard taking the first four places and an easy win despite Providence getting five men in before the fifth Harvard runner who finished tenth. The first Friar finisher was sophomore Marty Robb in fifth place who ran 28:46 for the 5.8 mile course. He was followed across the line by Larry Olsen, Tom Molloy, Bob Crooke, and Pete Brue who captured the next four places. Other runners for P.C. were John Grange (11th), Tom Dunn (14th), Dan Gaven (15th), Ray LaSonte (17th), Bob Haile (16th) and Kevin Mirek (20th).

The only good points that could be seen in this meet were the fine running of Sophomores Marty Robb and Tom Dunn. (Continued on Page 9)