JOURNAL OF THE
CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Providence, Rhode Island

November 6, 1967

The Convention was called to order by Mr. Dennis J. Roberts, Chairman, at 2:25 P.M.

The roll of delegates was called; there were 70 present and 28 absent.

Absentees were Mr. Appolonia, Mrs. Barber, Mr. Bissonnette, Mmes. Capuano, Castiglia, Messrs. Colbert, Cunningham, DeCiantis, Dodge, Gallagher, Gallogly, Gmelin, Giguere, Gorham of Foster, Gorham of Scituate, Mmes. Lacroix, Lambros, Messrs. Martin, McKinnon, Moon, Mulligan, Murphy of Warren, Murphy of Coventry, O'Donnell, Stapleton, Steere, Toolin and Warren.

The names of the absentees were called.

On motion of Mr. Wexler, seconded by Messrs. Dolbashian and Cochran, the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed, on a voice vote.

The Chairman welcomed as guest at the Convention session Mr. Josep Tický, member of the Editorial Board of Mladá Fronta, (Daily newspaper fro Prague, Czechoslovakia).

COMMUNICATIONS

The Chairman announced receipt of communication from the Rhode Island State Grange transmitting a resolution opposing ratification of the proposed constitution.

The communication was read.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

At adjournment of the previous session there was pending on reconsideration the following:

CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS
(Proposal No. 20 Substitute C, 25, 26 Substitute B, 27 Substitute B, 28, 29 Substitute B, 30 Substitute B, 31 Substitute b, 32 Substitute B, 33 Substitute B, 34 Substitute B, 35 Substitute C, 36, 37, 39 Substitute A, 41 Substitute B, 155 Substitute D, 171 Substitute C, 190 Substitute B)

The Convention proceeded with consideration of written motions to amend previously offered.

The following written motion to amend was read:

"I propose to amend the proposed constitution by adding to the article on the Judiciary the following:

"The general assembly may provide by law for verdicts to be returned by juries in civil and criminal cases on the concurrence of ten members of a jury."

Stephen A. Fanning

The motion was debated.

Mr. Corcoran, seconded by Mr. Fanning of Cumberland, offered the following written motion to amend the motion to amend:

"I move to amend the amendment of Stephen A. Fanning by deleting the words 'and criminal' therefrom."

Edward B. Corcoran

The motion was read.

The motion was debated.

Mr. Wexler recognized on a point of order submitted that the motion was out of order because it was introduction of new material which had not had consideration in committee and through the general convention procedure.

The Chairman ruled that the motion was in order.

Mr. LaSalle, seconded by Mr. Cochran, moved that the motion to amend the motion to amend be laid on the table.

The motion to lay on the table prevailed on a division vote, 44 delegates voting in the affirmative and 12 delegates voting in the negative.

Mr. LaSalle, seconded by Mr. Cote, moved that the motion to amend be laid on the table.

The motion to lay on the table prevailed on a division vote, 48 delegates voting in the affirmative and 7 delegates voting in the negative.

The following written motion to amend was read:

"I move to amend Article XI by striking out Sec. 2 and substituting

therefore the following:

'Sec. 2. Every city or town may incur obligations and may issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, except that no obligation for the payment of money shall be incurred for current expenses unless such obligation is in anticipation of current revenues and is limited to one year. No obligations for the payment of money for a period of more than one year shall be incurred by any city or town unless it is approved by a majority of those local electors voting thereon at a general election. The General Assembly may by general law regulate the incurring of obligations for the payment of money and the issuance of bonds and other evidences of indebtedness by cities and towns, and may provide for special elections for the approval of such obligations.'

Dennis J. Roberts

At 3:03 P.M. the Chairman yielded the rostrum to Mr. Robert F. Pickard, Second Vice Chairman.

Mr. Roberts, seconded by Messrs. Bride, Kenyon and Mrs. Pulner, moved passage of the motion.

The following written motion to amend was read:

"I move to amend ARTICLE XI - OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT - by deleting section 9 thereof."

A. Norman LaSalle

Mr. LaSalle, seconded by Mr. Nathanson, moved passage of the motion.

Mr. Doris, seconded by Messrs. Cote, Bizier, and McGrath, moved that the motion to amend be laid on the table.

The motion to lay on the table prevailed, on a division vote, 38 delegates voting in the affirmative and 10 delegates voting in the negative with more than 3 delegates present and not voting.

The following written motion to amend was read:

"I move to amend ARTICLE XI in its entirety by substituting therefor the provisions of ARTICLE XXVIII - 'Home Rule for Cities and Towns' - as it appears in the present constitution of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations."

A. Norman LaSalle

Mr. LaSalle moved passage of the motion. The Chairman inquired whether there was a second to the motion. The Chairman ruled that the motion failed of a second.

The following written motion to amend was read:

"I propose the following amendment to the proposed new constitution:

"Article XIII
OF AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Line 9 Substitute 'three-fifths' for 'a majority'."
Edmund Wexler

Mr. Wexler, seconded by Messrs. Corcoran and LaSalle, moved passage of the motion.

Mr. Pickard questioned the advisability of proceeding when 51 votes were necessary for passage and the number of delegates present was so close to 51.

ADJOURNMENT

At 4:26 P.M. on motion of Mr. Wexler, seconded by Mr. Cochran, the Convention adjourned to meet on Monday, November 20, 1967, at 1:30 P.M. in the Chamber of the House of Representatives at the State House, on a voice vote.

August P. LaFrance, Secretary
Constitutional Convention

AMENDMENT

I move to amend Article XI by striking out Sec. 2 and substituting therefore the following:
Sec. 2 Every city or town may incur obligations and may issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, except that no obligation for the payment of money shall be incurred for current expenses unless such obligation is in anticipation of current revenues and is limited to one year. No obligations for the payment of money for a period of more than 1 year shall be incurred by any city or town unless it is approved by a majority of those local electors voting thereon at a general election. The General Assembly may by general law regulate the incurring of obligations for the payment of money and the issuance of bonds and other evidences of indebtedness by cities and towns, and may provide for special elections for the approval of such obligations.

Dennis J. Roberts

AMENDMENT

I move to amend the second sentence of Section 2 of Article XI by deleting the period and adding thereto the following:

" or unless otherwise provided by its charter adopted with the approval of the local electors."

John F. Doris, Kevin K. Coleman,
Thomas R. DiLuglio, Samuel C. Kagan, Thomas D. Pucci, Norman E. Bizier, Eugene Cochran,
Hugo L. Ricci, John P. Cooney, Paul F. Murray.

AMENDMENT

I move to amend Section 5 of Article XI by deleting the period, substituting a semi-colon and adding thereto the following:

"provided that no such incorporation, merger, dissolution or alteration of boundaries shall be effective without the approval of the local electors."

John F. Doris, Kevin K. Coleman,
Thomas R. DiLuglio, Samuel C. Kagan, Thomas D. Pucci, Norman E. Bizier, Eugene F. Cochran,
Hugo L. Ricci, John P. Cooney, Paul F. Murray.

AMENDMENT

I move to amend Article XI, Sec. 9 as follows: Change period at end of sentence to a comma and add the following:

"unless said charter specifically provides for the submission of all amendments and revisions to the qualified electors of said city or town for approval. In such instances, with the approval of the general assembly, the proposed amendments to or revision of said charter shall be submitted to the qualified electors at the next general election or at a special election called for said purposes with publication of the change as set forth in Section 7 of this Article."

Charles Nathanson

AMENDMENT

I move to amend Article XI - Of Local Government - by deleting Section 9 thereof.

A. Norman LaSalle

AMENDMENT

I move to amend Article XI in its entirety by substituting therefor the provisions of Article XXVIII - "Home Rule for Cities and Towns" - as it appears in the present constitution of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

A. Norman LaSalle

AMENDMENT

I Propose the following amendment to the proposed new Constitution: Article XIII - "Of Amendments"

Section 1. Line 9 Substitute "three-fifths" for "a majority".

Edmund Wexler

AMENDMENT

I move to amend Article XIII, Section 1, by striking out the words "a majority" in the second sentence of that section, and substituting therefore the words "three-fifths".

Robert F. Pickard

AMENDMENT

I move to amend Article XIII - Of Amendments - by striking out the words "a majority" in Section 1 and inserting the words "three-fifths" in place thereof.

A. Norman LaSalle

AMENDMENT

I move to amend section 4 of Article XIV by deleting the figure 6 and substituting therefor the figure 7.

John F. Doris, Hugo L. Ricci,

Thomas R. DiLuglio, Kevin K. Coleman, Samuel C. Kagan, Thomas D. Pucci, Norman E. Bizier, Eugene F. Cochran, Paul F. Murray

AMENDMENT

I move to amend Section 1 of Article XIV to read as follows:

Section 1. This constitution shall become effective upon approval by the people. The first election for general officers and members of the general assembly under this constitution shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, 1968.
