James Cameron

Yours of yesterday, I have this morning received. I was greatly surprised to hear from you as I could not imagine what was the cause of your silence but it is now all right my wife and myself have often wondered how your life was getting along and I am very glad to hear that you are better.

My wife has been quite sick since I wrote the last but is now quite well again

It would not be possible for me to go with you on your Western Trip. As now, my busy Season is coming on. And, I want to be sure your remarks about Father's shoes, you have to be sure. I am disgusted with the whole and do not care a snap about either party. Officers is all what they want.

was at Ann R.I. I saw my name as a delegate to the Cambridge Convention. If so I never heard of it before. I was a delegate from Bond of Tenn

I was a delegate from Mass. & Va. to the Dickens Convention at Samuel May and also chosen as a delegate to Pittsburg but I thought it proved not pay to go and I stayed at home

Michael R. Lach is being at Elm Grove Minn so you will not get from him. I do not know of anything more to write so I will close by wishing to be remembered to Mrs C & the boy and that you may have a pleasant journey west & that I may soon hear from you

Yours in haste
John H. Ryan
