Springfield Dec 9th 1866

Dear Brother

Bours of the 4th came duly at hand and Joe has arived and is going to worke tomorrow I had hard worke to get him in after all the reason was the Col. Commanding gave Orders for the Foreman not to hier eney more men from outside but take the surplus hands from the Biting Shop but with some hard talking I got him in so that he will go to worke in the Morning it will be impossable to get you in just now but will keep my eye open for all chances for you I am sorry I should of liked to of had you you up here so that I could look at you once in a while

You seemed to be somewhat surprised at my boy well no wonder at it I did not believe that you could think it was mine but Joe said you you did it would be getting along rather fast for I have only been home eight months. it was Maggie's she died two weeks after it was born she named it after me Walter Cameron with the Pettis of and said if she died she wanted I should take it as my own I have done so and he is getting along first rate thas the stories about the Boy I dont know as I have ever news to write at this time. Oh when you see Alexander tell him their his going to be a Bronnett Shop I started he and I will make some inquiry about it and let him know by letter what they are going to do give him the Family's love and mine also Mary & Ida joins me in love to all.

From your Affectionate
Brother
Walter Cameron
