Worcester June 14th 1848.

Mr. Emerson

Dear Sir

Yours

of the 12th is received.

In regard to the Skillet Coates I think we have some spare ones at the Shop; and if so will send some.

If you want any more castings you can get them here cheaper and I think then in N.Y.

You will save on freight and will not get any imperfect ones sent you. We paid for quite a number that we received from N.Y. that were worthless and delivered some that was not fit to carry out.

We have made arrangements to have the best iron put into them.

If you write me again which I hope you will please put in the A to my name there are so many John Bakers that my letters get opened as was the one that you sent I pay freight on express a quarter
John A. Baker

I think the man that is doing them will do it He is just started into the foundry business is a square man and seems anxious to the right thing I think the remark you made about Rankin Fiddling &c. was about right I do not believe any man can get 24 good orders per day and follow it as they claim they did The way of it was that called every name they got on there look good that is before they delivered any But they no doubt have discovered there mistake before this I hear of quite a number of the boys that have pleyed out on this. I suppose Haskins told you of them
We have taken up our dead in fact considered it the only way to get out of it whole
I enclose the check are you Please remember me to the boys J. A. Baker
