HYPOTHERMIA

Against the soft shoulder, the lover's head.

Against the hand, snow.

Against the warm breast, the baby's wet mouth, the lover's soft hand, the black clothing stretching to the shoulder.

Against the simple pleasure of the soft land, snow.

Against the land, a black house, a warm hand, a lover's pleasure, a black cat.

Against the simple, the land pleasures: a simple land lost in snow.

Against soft snow, a lost black cat: shoulder, breast, head, hand.
