A Little Request
Chambers/Federman
A LITTLE REQUEST

In the long run, in the scheme of things, what kinds of things do you want a woman to do for you? he asked. And I replied, as things stand now, with the old bones weeping, and the muscles creaking, I would like a woman to kneel before me and untie my shoelaces.