Musical Comedy Rehearsals Speed Up As Opening Near

"The Student Quints," musical-comedy, to be presented Thursday and Friday evenings, April 30 and May 1, in Harkin's Hall is at last rounding into shape. The performances will begin April 24. Macdonald is general chairman.

College Setting The show, under rehearsal for quite some time, went into production last Monday and is now in the finishing process. The script, written by E. Randolph Hughes, concerns the trials and misfortunes of a quintet of college girls who are trying to resist the persuasions of publicity by the time the scene shifts to give the spot to the dance choruses which conformed to a tap chorus and a dancing chorus which was tremendously popular. A corps of tap dancers, under the direction of Dick Rand some competition in the dance of the evening. A chorus singing will be featured in the performance. The show has been taken all the way through the dance and chorus numbers.

Male Chorines Feature Humorous and Light Student Play

A radio broadcast over station WJAR will be given by the college orchestra of the "Student Quints" Saturday from 4:15 to 4:45. Archie Macdonald is in charge of the broadcast and will act as master of ceremonies and announce.

Orchestral selections from the musical comedy will be given by the orchestra under the supervision of Rev. Father Grogers, O. P., and under the direction of Joseph Devenish. "College Road," "Always Tomorrow," "I'm Putting Love Songs to Myself," "Heaven Bound," and "Yearning," are among the numbers to be heard in this broadcast.

Too Many Cliques Danny Murphy to Play at Promenade

UNUSUAL FAVOR MAKES COMING AFFAIR INVITING TO PROMENADE

The Junior Prom Committee, has selected Dan Murphy's orchestra, bailing from Manchester, New Hampshire, to play at the annual promenade, May 14. Dan Murphy and his orchestra have recently completed an engagement at the ramblin' Ballroom in Boston. He was as enthusiastically received there, as he was at the Tozem Pole at Nor- embaga Park last summer. Prior to this he played at the Arcadia Ballroom in New York City.

Tubby Randall Featured Known throughout New England as the leader of one of the outstanding dance bands, Dan Murphy's orchestra have forty with novelty presentations featuring Tubby Randall and The Musical Skipper. Under Murphy's leadership, his band, have maintained a high regard in the favor of dance-band listeners with the success when they were engaged by a Boston concern to produce an advertising program over one of the major Hub stations, on an inter-city presentation.

The Spring Frolic sponsored by the Sophomore Class of Providence College in Harkins Hall last W. E. O., and under the direction of Joseph Devenish, was on the hill last year against the Crusaders Favored Over P. C. in Hendricken Field Game. The Crusaders opened the year with an upset of Holy Cross, but lost to the Cardinals in a grand display of good baseball lost out in the ninth to 2 to 1. Roy Bronzine and Paul Rennell of Harkins Hall divided the work. The former was on the hill last year against the Friars and will probably pitch again this year. Next the Crusaders will meet the January 28 (Continued on Page 6)

We are very thankful indeed if you would kindly publish the enclosed in your paper.

The whole community of our house just went through a great trial that began about two weeks ago when we moved into a new place. Our former house, which was our home for many years, was destroyed by fire. The new house is not yet completed, and the sisters have been very busy with the construction work. The weather has been very bad, and we have had to work in the rain for several days. Nevertheless, we are very grateful for the assistance we have received from our friends and neighbors. We hope to be able to move into our new home as soon as possible.

P. C. Loses Three; Wins Two on Tour

The Providence Diamond forces opened their campaign in Brooklyn by splitting a twin bill downing St. John's University 4 to 3 in the opener, and then bowing 7 to 2 to Long Island University. It was the intercollegiate double-header, in which one team met two opponents in the same afternoon.

Making his varsity debut Frank Zavadzskis, Sophomore from Cleveland, hurled fine ball for the Friars.

The score:

The Friars defeated the St. John's University nine, 7—2, in a nine-inning thriller. Frank Zavadzskis pitched the last three innings. Charlie Gallagher, with three hits for a perfect day, and Ralph Coleman with three in four trips to the plate accounted for six of Providence's nine bingles. The victory for C.C.N.Y. was its first in history over Providence City College.

FOR DIGESTION'S SAKE—SMOKE CAMELS

Hurry, worry, and strain tend to interfere with normal processes of digestion. Actually slow up the flow of the digestive fluids.

It is a scientific fact that smoking Camels helps to keep digestion on its proper course, through restoring and increasing the flow of the fluids necessary to good digestion. Done well! Smoke a Camel. You sense a comforting "lift," a feeling of well-being, as you enjoy the delicate fragrance of your Camel. Camels open a new world of pleasure, where mildness and rare flavor reign supreme.

You can smoke Camels steadily. They never get on your nerves or tire your taste. Camels set you right! A RARE PLEASU'RE. Leisurely diners enjoy

A RARE PLEASURE. Leisurely diners enjoy your company at Jacques French Restaurant, nationally famous cafe in Chicago. Here soft lights and impeccable service give the perfect setting for such dishes as Baked Oysters la Jacques and other specialties of the house. And Camels add the final touch to dining. "Camels are most popular here," Jacques himself observes. "They are clearly the favorite with those who know fine living."

SOME MORE VERSE

The following keeps running through my mind, why I don’t know, but here it is:

The girl I left behind me
For she was not at all. For
If she ever will keep me
There'd be sure to pay.

And shout your blues unto the wilds,
And shout your troubles to the wind,
You'll be all over but the shotin’ when this appears in print, there will be
A few things hereabouts. Some- thing I think that actually there are only a dozen or so fellows up here.

The Rev. Nicholas Hugh Ser- ror, O.P., M.S., will deliver a lec- ture in the Providence College Auditorium under the auspices of the Blackfrisk Guild on Mon- day evening, April 27. The elec- ture will be supplemented by “Overtones,” a one act play writ- ten by Alice Gerstenecker.

Father Serror was born in Providence, September 15, 1896, and received his early schooling in this city. Upon graduating from high school he entered the field of journalism, and for some time was a reporter for the New York Times. On August 16, 1928, he entered the Dominican Order and was ordained June 4, 1934. Father Serror has been an indefatigable worker in scientific research. In 1935 he received an M.S. degree from Catholic University. He has made original contributions to the science of biology, and is at present connected with the biolog department at Providence College.

During the past few years he has become interested in the activ- ities of the stage and has co- operated with the work of the Blackfrisk Guild. I am told that he will discuss the influence of Catholicity on Modern Drama.

The cast for “Overtones” in- cludes Marie Boucher Norton, as Margaret, and greatly the influence of Catholicity in Modern Drama.

The affair on Monday is the last chance for the “Overtones” cast before it goes on the road, and their performance is bound to be the toast of the college. The audience will have a chance to see the play as it was presented in the Providence College by the Blackfrisk Guild.

Baseball Team Completes Tour

Temple Goes Southpaw

The Holy Cross team that plays here tomorrow is said to have as good a club as last year's sojourn one of the Friars asked one of the athletic stars, who was stopping at the same hotel, did he play baseball?...

The boys tell this one on Frankie Zavadkis, and it took place after dark. The Sweet Ad-o-line chorus are causing the faculty plenty of trouble with their antics. So far they've evaded apprehension but last Saturday afternoon (they (lads) almost met the provo- vators Waterloo. Fortunately for them they heard three members of the faculty planning an ambush so they upped and scammed. It's a good thing they happened to meet coming down the ele- vator shaft toward. When any of them do get caught they're for a long ride themselves. It won't be up and down though.

The Student Quinns

You hope you and I are the only two who shows up any shots as show as they were played at the Soph dance Wednesday night. It's rumored that the fan dance chorus therefrom will strut on one or two of the local girls. The group before the show goes on. And after all, the show must go on.

EASY ON THE EYES

The New York branch of the Association for the advancement of Nocturnal Somnolence after a hurried conference last week announced that in the future New Yorkers will be provided with emergency lights which will automatically switch on the telephone ringing at unseemly hours. This improvement will forestall any such incident as occurred during the Easter holidays.

Providence Confident

Providence on the other hand has been none too fortunate. The pitchers have been for the most part uncertain and the batters have failed to produce when hits counted. The club is a good ball club but it has yet to click consistently; man for man it pretty nearly matches the Cross and if pep and confidence mean anything the boys will go to town, and against Holy Cross.

Cusick Comes Home

Batteries for the Cross will probably be Bruninghaus and Joe Cusick with Sherry, Zavadkis, or Collins, Reid the probable picks of Jack Egan. Joe Cusick grew up within a stone's throw of our Campus and comes back to his native habitat as one of the finest of a long list of great leaders of the Purple. Cusick is tops and will probably follow the footsteps of Jack Barry, Bill Carrigan and a host of others to the Big Show. There are just enough uncertainties about this game tomorrow, to make it a great battle.

Hey You Thirty-Niners!

As Treasurer of the class of '39 I have the unpleasant duty to remind you that all have not yet paid their class dues. And I am authorized to make the announcement that those who do not pay their dues by May 22, this year, will be ineligible to participate in any Sophomore activities. Yours for the Half, Charles Thomas Flynn, Treasurer.

As the End Draws Nigh

On a golden bed,
Ever majestic despite its sad plight,
A once mighty head
Droops low to the on-coming night.
As its life parts,
Might the splendor of a heavenly spell,
All earthly hearts
Softly beat in their saddened cells.
Ever gallant it dies,
Greater now as it draws its last breath;
Can man not rise
To such heights face to face with death?
As the end draws nigh
Not fear but sweetest peace appears,
May we not try
For such as we end here our years?
