By Richard Ratcliffe

Richard Murphy was re-elected president in the first meeting of the Faculty Senate last Wednesday. It was also learned that one bill passed by the Senate last spring was approved, while another was vetoed.

Elected along with Murphy were Dr. Theodore Bosack as vice president, and Father Paul Peterson, O.P., College President.

Later, during a question-and-answer session, President Murphy explained his action by saying that he did not want a certain amount of money allocated to one program, such as the liberal arts program.

Murphy repudied that Father Peterson misunderstood the focus of the bill. He said there is no mention of that specific program in the bill.

It was pointed out, however, that the athletic department is guaranteed $15,000 each year for incoming freshman scholarships. D'Arcy also pointed out that the athletic department does not always use all of the funds available to them for financial assistance.

He also said that 177 partial academic scholarships were awarded this year, amounting to $270,000 each year for incoming freshman.

D'Arcy denied that the athletic department is in serious trouble. He said that the athletic department is not in serious trouble, but that it is having academic difficulties.

The Senate feels the issuing of the movies is being done in a bad taste and affects the reputation of the university.

The Senate also feels that the further discussion is necessary.

The Dean's Office feels the mid-term reports are essential to the students because they do not meet economic standards.

Fr. Peterson, O.P., College President, said the decision to cancel Albertus was "justified," but "there's no way the movies are going to be cancele..."
A recent Providence College administration trip has recently been reported as heading towards careers in politics. John Celona, a senior at Providence College, graduate, won a surprising victory by upsetting the incumbent councilman in the town of Cummer, south of Providence, losing by about 200 votes. He lost by about 200 votes. Celona, not a novice to politics, demonstrated a strong campaign during the first week of February. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

Celona is also the president of the Providence College Democrats. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

A recent Providence College administration trip has recently been reported as heading towards careers in politics. John Celona, a senior at Providence College, graduate, won a surprising victory by upsetting the incumbent councilman in the town of Cummer, south of Providence, losing by about 200 votes. He lost by about 200 votes. Celona, not a novice to politics, demonstrated a strong campaign during the first week of February. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

Celona is also the president of the Providence College Democrats. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

A recent Providence College administration trip has recently been reported as heading towards careers in politics. John Celona, a senior at Providence College, graduate, won a surprising victory by upsetting the incumbent councilman in the town of Cummer, south of Providence, losing by about 200 votes. He lost by about 200 votes. Celona, not a novice to politics, demonstrated a strong campaign during the first week of February. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

Celona is also the president of the Providence College Democrats. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

A recent Providence College administration trip has recently been reported as heading towards careers in politics. John Celona, a senior at Providence College, graduate, won a surprising victory by upsetting the incumbent councilman in the town of Cummer, south of Providence, losing by about 200 votes. He lost by about 200 votes. Celona, not a novice to politics, demonstrated a strong campaign during the first week of February. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

Celona is also the president of the Providence College Democrats. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

A recent Providence College administration trip has recently been reported as heading towards careers in politics. John Celona, a senior at Providence College, graduate, won a surprising victory by upsetting the incumbent councilman in the town of Cummer, south of Providence, losing by about 200 votes. He lost by about 200 votes. Celona, not a novice to politics, demonstrated a strong campaign during the first week of February. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

Celona is also the president of the Providence College Democrats. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

A recent Providence College administration trip has recently been reported as heading towards careers in politics. John Celona, a senior at Providence College, graduate, won a surprising victory by upsetting the incumbent councilman in the town of Cummer, south of Providence, losing by about 200 votes. He lost by about 200 votes. Celona, not a novice to politics, demonstrated a strong campaign during the first week of February. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.

Celona is also the president of the Providence College Democrats. His chief duty is to take care of the overflow from Father Peterson's desk. He is also secretary on the Committee on Administration, head resident at Providence, and a full-time professor. He teaches religion and is a member of a Western Civilisation team. His dissertation was "Paul Tillich: Idea of the Church." One important document that came out of his committee was the Student Bill of Rights. This document, he said, fundamentally stayed the same for the last few years.
The following is Dean's List for the spring semester of the 1975-76 school year. In order to be honored, one must attain a cumulative point average of at least 2.50, and have no mark below C. A total of 976 students were listed last semester: 589 men and 387 women. Last spring, 907 students achieved that status.

Wednesday, September 22, 1976

Pane* D. Alexakos, Nance* Lynn Alfano, Joseph Norbert Allen. Joseph so honored, one must attain a

Christopher Gardner Bishop, Bryan Loretta Bacon, Robert J. Baldwin, Nancy Lynn Celic. Paul George Michelle Deniae Caouette, John

Jeffrey Peter Doran, James Francis Drew Cuddy. Gerard A. Cyr, Kenneth Edward Joseph II. Michael An­

Joseph Fogarty Jr., Henry Charles Christopher Philip Gssbarro, John Linda  Marie Haas, Robert Jude Gi beau It Angela Elisabeth Gors,

Robert Anthony Cod  ag none, Grace Richard  Grenier, David  Andrew Haertel, Joseph Edward Hanly,

Lauretta Antonletta Llnardo, Kelly, James Thomas Kenney Jr., Richard Dolor Jette, Jocelyn J. Joseph Iwuc, Alan John Jacobs,

Anne Harrison. Gerard A. Hebert, Richard James Isacco, John Anne Harrison. Gerard A. Hebert,

Elisabeth Jean Mercuric Arthur Joel Louis Scolio, Denlse Marie

Harty. Michael S Heath. Deborah Gray, Timothy James Griffin, Cheryl Gallagher. James Leslie i audielle,

Michael  Paul Rekrut, Linda Kay Petropoulos, Susan A. Polak, Alan Murray Elizabeth Whinn, Kenneth E. Fuller. Donna MarybeUi Nicole Marcey, David Alan

Joanna Mort, John Reagan Mullen, Hugh Francis Pelletler. Irene Rodriguez, Susan Elizabeth Rhodes, Paula Marie Rickenby, Mary Elizabeth Winn.

Christine Triflet, Joseph Dynemic Timothy Doran, David Michael, Peter John Beatty. Stephen Charles Boyle,

Robert James Teyaw, Patricia Anne Young, Joseph J. Richard Birtcher. Robert Remy, Frederic Alan

Arlene Frances Sablno, Donna Marie Paula Rodgers, Alfred Rotondo,

Mary JoAnnMcIntosh. AnnMarie Martinello. Joan Maria Michael  Allen. Joel Sanford Aronson,

Theresa Ann Suffoletta, Cornelius Charles Seaver, Nancy Louise Seaver, Ann Ruey, Scott  Andrew  Rltch,

Michael  Thomas Napolltaoo, Robert James Tevyaw, Patricia Anne Young, Joseph J. Richard Birtcher. Robert Remy, Frederic Alan

Arlene Frances Sablno, Donna Marie Paula Rodgers, Alfred Rotondo,

Mary JoAnnMcIntosh. AnnMarie Martinello. Joan Maria Michael  Allen. Joel Sanford Aronson,

Theresa Ann Suffoletta, Cornelius Charles Seaver, Nancy Louise Seaver, Ann Ruey, Scott  Andrew  Rltch,
I am not a product of this place, said Cote. It is clear that the philosophy of the PC program, especially the requirements of DDC and Foundations of Modern Science, means that "an uneducated business person" is socially better equipped than the straight business program graduate. Also, Cote claims he has been recommended by his own children to "this type of school.

Selling oneself is vital. Knock on doors, be pushy, yet admirably aggressive.

However, openings are not keeping up with the number of accounting majors. 23 to 25 per cent of the student population is in accounting. "Competition is getting keener," and again Cote advises for more qualified accounting majors.

The Big Eight accounting firms make appearances at PC in hopes of recruiting eligible seniors. 20 per cent of PC accounting majors were made offers by the Big Eight last year.

Unfortunately, many of the recruiters who visit the campus are not even interested in the students. Inept recruiters are sometimes sent in lieu of busy professional recruiting firms. Many of the recruiters may overlook qualified candidates who do not recognize hidden potential.

"Well-marketed management majors are eligible for employment in positions that require more skill, general well-roundedness, and practical skills. General well-roundedness is a good interest, not a practical skill."* Cote cites as an example of a recent accounting student who was offered a job in Massachusetts before receiving her diploma. The student was recommended by her employer, who noted her "good interest."* Dr. Edward Lynch, director of the Counseling Center, presents the following figures: 27 per cent of the graduating class is employed by June; 25 per cent are accepted into graduate school; 25 per cent are working part-time employment, or are talking with unemployment agencies, or are communicating with the Counseling Center; 26 per cent are undecided as to whether to work; attend graduate school, travel, or accept a job with a lesser income than anticipated.

However, these figures are not 10 per cent accurate, due to the fact that not all of the graduating students register with the Counseling Center.

Sixty to sixty-five per cent of the graduating class registers with the Career Planning Service at the Center. Currently, the highest wages are dished out to accountants.

Dr. Lynch also recommends that graduates with business studies also take computer science to be an expanding field.

As a word of final advice, Mr. Cote recommends that incoming freshmen take courses of interest, and appliance to the job market. "Selling oneself is vital. Knock on doors, be pushy, yet admirably aggressive." *

The Student Congress is a 42 member organization with specific jobs to do; sharing a common interest, to work as a unified body to propose and support changes which benefit Providence College, and object to any proposal which will adversely or indirectly diminish Providence College," stated Stephen Sanford, president of Student Congress, in his opening address on Sunday night.

Having obtained their goal of last semester "to gain self respect as a strong organization and to represent our constituent body," the Student Congress will begin the year by making available to both resident and non-resident students a personal property insurance plan.

This plan provides $1,000 worth of coverage for $40 with $100 deduction. It insures all possessions from fire, theft and vandalism.

Father John McMahon, assistant vice-president for student relations, spoke to the Congress concerning the mailbox situation which was not remedied.

He explained that last year freshmen commuters had to pick up their mail at a special mail room (ticket room). The new mail box has been installed for the late last semester and did not arrive until August.

When they finally arrived, they were received out of order. Students working in the mail room are trying to straighten out this problem, but they do not know what they would be happy at.

Congress Unifies

Congress membership continued to grow as Nominations for freshman officers were received out of order. When they finally arrived, they were received out of order. Student Congress officers are trying to straighten out this problem, but they do not know what they would be happy at.

Congress officers are trying to straighten out this problem, but they do not know what they would be happy at.

Congress officers are trying to straighten out this problem, but they do not know what they would be happy at.
Eighteen men and seven women have been added to the faculty of Providence College for the 1976-1977 academic year. This is a decrease of four from the previous academic year.

According to Dr. Paul K. Thompson, vice-president of academic affairs, the 25 newly-hired faculty members consist of 12 full-time and 13 part-time professors and instructors. While 25 people have been added to the faculty of PC, Dr. Thompson commented, "It would be inaccurate to say that the faculty of Providence College has been augmented." The reason for this is that another 15 faculty members are either taking sabbaticals or leave of absence.

When evaluating the new faculty positions, the following hiring procedure is generally used: first, Dr. Thomson meets with the department chairperson to find out how many full or part-time faculty members need to be hired. Then Dr. Thomson and the vice-president of business affairs study the proposed faculty plan and determine the amount of money available for hiring new faculty members. After this is done Dr. Thomson returns to the department chairperson with the necessary financial information. Ads are then placed in professional journals.

Criteria for hiring are based upon academic qualifications and evidence of teaching ability. Prospective faculty members are often asked to conduct a class or seminar.

The following is a list of the new faculty members at PC:

- Francis F. Breen, M.A., Ph.D., Boston College, assistant professor of economics.
- Robert E. Burns, M.A., University of Massachusetts, special lecturer in business.
- James M. Carlson, M.A., Arizona State University, Ph.D. candidate, Kent State University, instructor in political science.
- Gerard P. Dandrow, M.A., University of Rhode Island, special lecturer in special education.
- Thomas A. Dwyer, M.B.A., St. John's University, instructor in business.
- Julia DiMartino, D.Litt., University of Rome, special lecturer in Italian.
- Cenal A. Ekin, M.B.A., Michigan State University, Ph.D., Academy of Economic and Commercial Sciences (Adana, Turkey), assistant professor of business.
- Geraldine Faris, M.S.W., University of Connecticut, School of Social Work, special lecturer in social work.
- Jeffrey A. Gald, M.S.S.W., Boston University, instructor in social work.
- David C. Garden, M.A., Ph.D. candidate, Brown University, special lecturer in DWC (history).
- Donald R. Kebo, Rev., M.A., University of Louvain, Ph.D., Institute Supérieur de Philosophie, University of Louvain, special lecturer in DWC (philosophy).
- Monica Hauser Laruan, M.S., Georgetown University, special lecturer in DWC.
- James F. MacDonald, M.B.A., Bryant College, special lecturer in business.
- Linda F. Miller, M.A., Brown University, C.A.G.S., University of Rhode Island, special lecturer in social work.

Arun K. Mukhopadhyay, M.A., University of Calcutta, M.A., Ph.D. candidate, Brown University, instructor in economics.

Sarah C. O'Dowd, M.A.T., Ph.D., Brown University, special lecturer in linguistics.

George F. Sawaiy, M.A., Ph.D. candidate, Brown University, instructor in economics.

Mary Anne Sedey, M.S., Ph.D., University of Massachusetts, assistant professor of psychology.

Fred C. Shifflebon, Ph.D., candidate, Southern Illinois University, instructor in chemistry.

Luis Valente, Ph.D. candidate, Brown University, instructor in Portuguese.

Sex Seminars Scheduled

By Celia Kettle

A series of films, discussions, and lectures concerning human sexuality will be held from Monday, September 27 to Wednesday, September 29, in '64 Hall.

The project entitled "Forums on Sexuality," is being coordinated by the Chaplain's Office and the Women's Liaison Committee of Providence College.

Sister Kathleen O'Connor, O.P., who is a member of both groups, is the principle coordinator for the event.

The Women's Liaison Committee of Providence College was established by Father Thomas Peterson, O.P., president of Providence College, and the school went on. It was established to be a consulting body of student and faculty members in the transition of becoming coeducational.

The women students have made it clear to the committee that they feel some type of sex information is necessary on campus. The idea was able to become a reality with the aid of the Chaplain's Office.

At 4:00 p.m. on Monday, September 27, the keynote address will be given by Rev. Richard Dantenteiner, Chaplain at Brown University, and Carla Hanson, social worker and teacher at Brown University in the Human Sexuality Program. The talk will be followed by films and discussion.

On Tuesday, September 28, the program begins at 2:00 p.m. with a lecture given by Dr. Robert Krasser of PC's biology department, on the "Human Body: Male and Female." At 7:00 p.m. there will be a panel on sexual morality given by Mr. Edward Neil, Father Terence Keegan, O.P., chaplain of Providence College, and Father John Reid, O.P. Following this there will be lectures on birth control, given by Father Jonathan Everard of Brown University, and moral theology, given by Father Jordan Grant.

There will be a panel on homosexuality at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 29, Dr. James Prochaska from URI, and Father John F. Cunningham, O.P., will be presiding.

At 3:30 p.m. a presentation entitled "Love and Communication," will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Miller. There will also be a repeat of the sexual morality program.

At 7:00 p.m. there will be a panel discussion on abortion. Dr. Mildred Jefferson will discuss the social aspects of abortion, Mr. Hugh Madden, the legal aspects, Dr. John Murray, the medical aspects, and Father John McManus, O.P., director of student affairs, the moral aspects. The finale will be a film on contraception and birth control, "The Story of Eric." Dr. Kathleen Bert, daughter of Mrs. Helen Bert, PC's athletic director, who is one of the few female gynecologists in the United States, will also be present to speak and answer questions.

Should you sip beer or what?

By Celia Kettle

Ahah! That's the best way to enjoy Bud's rich Beechwood Aged flavor and aroma.

"Beer Talk"

"Beer Talk" by Celia Kettle.

Should you sip beer or what?

Sip...by sip...

by sip. That's one way to drink beer — and it's fine.

1. When it's Budweiser, why not try a good, hoppy drink?

2. But when it's Budweiser, why not try a good, hoppy drink?

3. Of course, long swallows might empty your schooner sooner...

4. Of course, long swallows might empty your schooner sooner...

5. Of course, long swallows might empty your schooner sooner...

but look at the bright side: it sure was great while it lasted!

Get a free copy of the Budweiser "Beer Talk" Booklet.

Write "Beer Talk," Anheuser-Busch, Inc., St. Louis, Mo. 63118

LOWER LEVEL SLAVIN CENTER

September 27-29
Booze Blackens College Campus

Have you ever noticed the Providence College campus on any given Monday morning? Did you ever wonder where all of those Miller and Schlitz beer bottles and cans come from? Most of us have never actually given it much consideration as we are usually too busy getting in class to be troubled with the state of the campus.

However, our complacent attitude towards drunkenness can be a major reason for the condition that the campus is in after every weekend. Not to mention the damage that students do to school property ran into the thousands, he simply can employ students.

But I think we are getting a little desperate if this is the only way we can employ students.

Consider this, the school has now employed four students to clean just the outside of Stavin Center Monday through Sunday. Along with this crew are two more students whose whole job it is to walk the campus picking up beer cans and beer bottles. Maybe this is a great way to add students to the financial aid payroll but I think we are getting a little desperate if this is the only way we can employ students.

Finally, I refer to the action that the president of the University office put into such shows.

Albertus Magnus 198, an ideal location for the films, will probably never again be used by the College for student movies. The attention focused on the entire affair, which has been running since last January, has probably never again be used by the College for student movies. The attention focused on the entire affair, which has been running since last January, has never been faced in quite the same way. Schorr was merely divvying in that time-honored journalistic game of getting the story first.

He obtained the report from someone after the House select committee voted to publish it. Schorr reported on parts of the report before it was released. Six days later, perhaps in a knee-jerk reaction to the sensation of Schorr's revelations, the entire House decided to keep the document secret.

Obviously, this left Schorr up the proverbial creek. And so far, he has stood fast. Had he released the name of his source, the entire journalism field would suffer. The most precious possessions of a journalist are his sources. Schorr could have done more than hard his professional standing.

Though Schorr isn't in jail, others have been jailed in defense of the first amendment. Four newspapermen for the Fresno (Calif.) Bee have been incarcerated indefinitely for the same reason Schorr is being persecuted. It seems their first right is the right to do just that.

We hope CBS will allow Schorr (who is on leave of absence) to take back his job when the matter is settled. Such a public, principled fighter for an idea and a profession deserves, at the least, to be paid for his labors.

Miles of Aisles Annihilate Smiles

Although the fate of the B.O.G.'s film series is still up in the air, it is hard to be neutral on the affair.

Who can condone the blatant rowdism presented at Wednesday's fixture? Surely, no sane, social being can.

The Providence College B.O.G. has presented a consistently fine schedule of films in recent years. Yet, as its budget is increased, and it is able to afford more recent, more popular films, most patrons are less appreciative of the effort put into such shows.

The Board of Governors might appeal for another chance, but the truth is, a second chance has already been liberally handed to the students. Neither the B.O.G. nor the administration is at fault.

The students are the spoilers. Not all of them are irresponsible, to be sure, but one must also take into account the fact that the campus is a public place where people of all ages are invited to come and enjoy the facilities.

However, take notice; even if you weren't yelling and throwing beer around Wednesday night, you are still at fault. If you want movies, don't stand back and click your tongue. Peer pressure is hard to be neutral on the entire affair.

Joanne Flannery

Helpless are9s

The Editorial Board would like to welcome the College for its attempt to facilitate the handicapped, especially the non ambulatory student.

During the summer the physical department of Providence College built ramps leading to the entrance of Aquinas Hall. Once a major problem for those students who were confined to a wheelchair, it is now possible for all students at PC to enter into Aquinas Hall.
Barnes to Speak

The Providence College Anthropology Division will sponsor a lecture on the Mississippi Mound Builders, a little known American Civilization that flourished and disappeared long before 1800. At 8 p.m., Thursday, September 23, in Apogee Lounge.

According to Dr. Lynda T. Magee, director of Providence College's anthropology division, the latest finds indicate that this civilization was very widespread. Many of the mound builders' sites are located along the inland water routes of the Gulf of Mexico, and will close one month later. The presentation will include several confessions and a discussion of the main interest among people who have gone to the theatre, and to ignore new interest among people who have never attended a Trinity Square play! Also, perhaps, to bring in a little more interest among people.

Baldpate has been a big hit in the past for the company. Cohens's link with Providence played a role there. If the play and the company isn't right, there's nothing a matter of course that wouldn't have any effect on it.

The play begins with a dandy little audio-visual display: slabs, featuring oval portraits of the stars, to the accompaniment of the opening music, and then some footage of George M. right here on the Providence City Hall steps.

The action starts with novel William Hallowell Magee, who is a button-up businessman, visits a fancy resort hotel in the middle of winter, to attempt to write a novel within 24 hours and then win a bet.

The title comes in because the hotel, on top of a mountain in a raging storm is a perfect storm for Baldpate, and there is just one key to get there, and it can't be sold.

Magee receives unexpected company -- robbers and cheats. It develops into a bizarre bit part as the fashion for Baldpate is such a fun comedy spoof is the very sort of mysteries that

Hello, Muttha - Hello, Fodda

Dear Mom and Dad,

The weather is nice here, and I hope it's the same there.

I am fine. How are you? The weather is nice here, and I hope it's the same there.

By Kathy Hansen

Dear Mom and Dad,

The weather is nice here, and I hope it's also the same there.

I am fine. How are you? The weather is nice here, and I hope it's also the same there.

I am fine. How are you? The weather is nice here, and I hope it's also the same there.

By Kathy Hansen
Poetry and Perel

By Jane Hickey

Have you ever been to a poetry reading? If your answer is no, you conjure up visions of a tedious event. But if poetry at all professionally as possible.

Booms also noted that some attempt would be made to adjust and improve the sound system in Albertson. He said that he has received a promise of cooperation from Desautels of the audio-visual department in this matter.

The selection of the movies was determined with a few important points in mind. Booms said that too much money had been lost last year because of cancellations and the unavailability of certain films. This year's calendar is aimed at pleasing different tastes in movies, hopefully with something for everyone. Also, an effort will be made to attract freshmen to the campus cinema by strengthening the emphasis on publicity.

By Steve Maurano

This semester the Board of Governors film schedule includes a few cinematic jewels and many worthwhile efforts. September 22 offers the excellent Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid (1969), the film which gave the world the winning team of Paul Newman and Robert Redford. Directed by George Roy Hill (The Sting, 1974) expertly recreates the fading old West days of outlaw past and present.

The film also includes the Oscar-nominated song “Keep Fallin’ on My Head” by Bart Babich. Perhaps the best thing about the film is the clever script by Williams Goldman, which contains one of the best surprise endings of all time. The Four Musketeers (1975) which will be shown on September 29 is a film made from edited segments of the popular BBC comedy show. Monty Python devotees will be pleased to see one of the best segments from this show. Included are: The joke that kills, the game of blackjack, and of course, the immortal Lumberjack song.

George Luca’s American Graffiti (1972) on October 6 is one of the better films this year. It is particularly suspenseful, but not what one smells in her performance. Featured are: The joke that kills, the game of blackjack, and of course, the immortal Lumberjack song.

On Tuesday, November 16, Dr. Edward McCrorie is scheduled to read. A member of PC’s English Department, he has written and edited several books of poetry, including one of the foremost poets in contemporary society, highly respected by both blacks and whites. A rehabilitated former prison inmate, he overcomes a drug problem, a problem he is currently working on and that he should be encouraged to do so. He is an excellent poet and a very sensitive poet, he speaks poetry to all people who feel oppressed.

Knight will be the recipient of a Guggenheim Fellowship in 1974 and was poet-in-residence at Harvard University and Lincoln University in Missouri. He has edited several anthologies and continues to edit several poetry magazines. His books include Poems from Prison (1969), Broadside Press. His latest book, Born of a Woman, is due to be released this year.

Butch Cassidy: The Classic

By David M. Germain

This semester the Board of Governors film schedule includes a few cinematic jewels and many worthwhile efforts. September 22 offers the excellent Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid (1969), the film which gave the world the winning team of Paul Newman and Robert Redford. Directed by George Roy Hill (The Sting, 1974) expertly recreates the fading old West days of outlaw past and present.

The film also includes the Oscar-nominated song “Keep Fallin’ on My Head” by Bart Babich. Perhaps the best thing about the film is the clever script by Williams Goldman, which contains one of the best surprise endings of all time. The Four Musketeers (1975) which will be shown on September 29 is a film made from edited segments of the popular BBC comedy show. Monty Python devotees will be pleased to see one of the best segments from this show. Included are: The joke that kills, the game of blackjack, and of course, the immortal Lumberjack song.

George Luca’s American Graffiti (1972) on October 6 is one of the better films this year. It is particularly suspenseful, but not what one smells in her performance. Featured are: The joke that kills, the game of blackjack, and of course, the immortal Lumberjack song.

On Tuesday, November 16, Dr. Edward McCrorie is scheduled to read. A member of PC’s English Department, he has written and edited several books of poetry, including one of the foremost poets in contemporary society, highly respected by both blacks and whites. A rehabilitated former prison inmate, he overcomes a drug problem, a problem he is currently working on and that he should be encouraged to do so. He is an excellent poet and a very sensitive poet, he speaks poetry to all people who feel oppressed.

Knight will be the recipient of a Guggenheim Fellowship in 1974 and was poet-in-residence at Harvard University and Lincoln University in Missouri. He has edited several anthologies and continues to edit several poetry magazines. His books include Poems from Prison (1969), Broadside Press. His latest book, Born of a Woman, is due to be released this year.

One of the best films this year is Walking Tall, Part II (1975) on October 26. This superb sequel of the first film to walk for the law is the strength of the film. It should be no surprise that it is one of the better films this year.

October 13 has Monty Python’s Time and the Conways which will be shown on Thursday, December 8. The final film on December 8 is Walking Tall, Part III (1975) which will be shown on Monday, December 12. The final film on December 8 is Walking Tall, Part III (1975) which will be shown on Monday, December 12.

Booms expects the most popular film of the semester will be Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid (1969), which will be shown on November 17. Other films that should attract large audiences include Monty Python’s Time and the Conways (1972). The title of the film is the title of one of the major，well-known films that will be shown on Thursday, December 8.

Perel describes her as an “award-winning author of many controversial and innovative plays.” Her plays have been produced in Europe, Asia, and the US and have been seen several times and in several countries. She is a very successful actress, and has been well known for her Channel commercial work. She has won several “Oscars,” Village Voice Drama Awards, Drama Desk Awards, and has received a New York Drama Critics Circle Award.

In addition to two collection of plays, she has written five books of poetry, her most recent publication is Creation Poems, Black Sparrow Press, 1974.

Nancy Sullivan, a teacher at Rhode Island College, will read on Thursday, December 5. Perel describes her as the “actress and excellent poet, she will be an interesting and absorbing reader.” She encourages any actors or anyone interested in acting to come to hear her read. Sullivan is a member of the New York Theatre Workshop, and is currently a sponsor of Women’s Interest Center, Inc.

See POETRY Page 10

NEED HELP?

- Falling Behind in Classwork?
- Come to the UMCUR Center
- For Free Help.
- NOW OPEN

Ground Floor of Guzman Center
- HOURS
- Monday-Thurs 1-5 and 6-9 p.m.
- Friday 1-5 p.m.
Question: There are two ways to buy quality sound systems.

(A) Use slide rules, oscilloscope, callipers, calculators, decibel meters, ear plugs and spend the next four years searching and researching what’s best in ohms, amplifiers, tuned ports, tape players, toggle switches, muting, tweeters and woofers, hertz’s and other assorted intricate details, or,

(B) Get a Zenith Allegro Modular Sound System, and enjoy the best in sound.

Zenith’s Allegro modular stereo systems allow you to choose your level of electronic sound sophistication, ranging from a simple AM/FM/Stereo Tuner/8 track cartridge combination to a full feature AM/FM/Stereo Tuner/Automatic Changer/Play-Record 8 track/Quadraphonic system. Full range of versatility in a full range of prices.
Dance With Me" and "Still the Pat Lupo led the band in singer J.C. Cafferty and bassist delighting the audience with their Brown invaded the school for a night as Orleans and Beaver right direction last Saturday roll numbers. Their rendition of number-one band, opened the excitement and some good old-house in Alumni Hall, provided reputation took a giant step in the Glittering Orleans Show Proves They Belong Providence College's concert Beaver Brown, Rhode Island's The biggest selection got it All in one place.

If ordered on the hour we do not deliver. We seek a permanent representative on campus. Sell the world's finest hand-knitted ski cap - watch cap. Hand-knitted in official school colors, or any other choice of colors. 23 different designs. 118 colors and yarns. 15 percent commission. Sorry, only one rep per campus. Sell fraternities, sororities, alumni assoc., local stores, and others. We seek a male or female student - reliable. We sell official school colors, or any other choice of colors. 23 finest hand-knitted ski cap - watch cap. Hand-knitted In Inc. 9032 West Pico Boulevard, Los Angeles, California 90035.

The Four Winds" displayed good musical style and a touch of the theatrics that is so much a part of the "Brown's" act. Their offering of "That's Why Lovers Have the Blues" was classic in its rhythm and blues style. Beaver Brown closed his set with an excellent arrangement of "Kosala," a popular Springsteen tune. Although Beaver Brown was good (as they usually are), the crowd response was somewhat subdued. This was understandable because of the fact that a majority of students were not familiar with their music. They are now.

However, the real story of the night was Orleans. When they hit the stage and launched into "Let There Be Music," they brought the crowd to life almost immediately. Their set was spaced with a little bit of everything: quiet, mellow songs by John Hall, swinging guitar and organ solos by Hall and Larry Hoppen, and an incredible sense of versatility exhibited by the entire band. Many times, organist Hoppen would switch to the guitar while guitarist John Hall moved to the drums, leaving drummer Wells Kelly to play the keyboards. Every combination clicked well, with each musician proving himself adequate or better on all instruments.

Perhaps the most pleasing aspect of the entire concert was the quality of Orlean's vocals. Seldom, if ever, has any group combined harmonies with such a positive result. Renderings of "Dance With Me" and "Still the One" (which brought the audience to its feet) were excellent vocally, and had an almost studio sound. But the most important fact is that Orleans is good live, unlike so many other bands who glisten behind the facade of a studio, only to fall apart before a live audience. Orleans did anything but fall apart. They proved themselves to be exciting, colorful, and ready to claim their position at the top.

The last reading on Tuesday, May 3 will present PC's student poets. Perel feels this reading will provide a fascinating opportunity for faculty and students alike to see what talents our own community has in its midst. Perel is proud of the many fine writers here who are working hard to improve their poems and knows that others should share in what they do. All readings take place in Aquinas Lounge at 8 p.m. All students and visitors are welcome to join these free evenings of fine poetry. Wine and cheese will also be served. Perel encourages anyone who has never been in a poetry reading to come and dispel the myth of a bizarre and stuffy atmosphere. She wishes to thank the English Department and the Administration for its support of the series. She also encourages anyone who feels strongly about this event and wants to see it continued to make this desire known to the Fine Arts Committee of the BOG in hopes that it will sponsor the series in the future.

The House of the home-made pizza formerly of the East Side. If ordered on the hour we do not have a service charge!... 1040 Chalkstone Ave. 621-9000

★ Assorted Pizzas
★ Assorted Grinders
★ Fried Chicken
★ Seafood
★ Italian Dinners

DELIVERY 6 P.M. — 2 A.M.

Jimmy's Pizza
1040 Chalkstone Ave.
Providence, R.I.
3 things that every college student should know:

1. You can SAVE $5 on this slide-rule calculator

   SALE 14.99
   Regular 819.99

   a. An 8-digit slide rule calculator can make the difference in the speed and accuracy with which you solve complex problems. Work square roots, squares, reciprocals instantly. 4-key memory lets you work 2 problems at once. Has percent key, floating decimal and large green digital display. With case. Runs on batteries (included). Optional adapter available.

   b. Reg. 821.99. Full slide-rule calculator with scientific notation, 4-key memory. Runs on batteries (included). Optional adapter available 19.99

2. You can SAVE $40 on our Electric 1 typewriter

   SALE 99.99
   Regular 8139.99

   Term papers, lab reports, essays—it's hard to reduce your typing load, but you can make your job easier with Sears Electric 1 portable. Has wide 12 inch carriage with pre-set tab positions for fast column work. With 3 different repeat keys, standard pica type. Typewriter cover included.

3. You can SAVE $5 on Sears carry-pack shelving

   SALE 99.99
   Regular 814.99

   Don't limit yourself to dorm room furniture. Expand your storage space with Sears 4-shelf steel shelving unit. Walnut-color unit will accommodate stereo equipment, records, books. Has adjustable shelves, decorative end panels. Comes unassembled.

Sale prices in effect through October 2, 1976

Ask about Sears Credit Plans
SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO. Available in larger Sears Retail Stores and Catalog
"We've Come A Long Way"

Continued from Page 1

This team is hoping for a good scholarship and basketball's either. I'm cognizant of explains: about scholarships. Mrs. Bert have to be ironed out, however. concerned is fantastic."

Still, the attitude of everyone just want the women treated place in the financial picture. We of our requests. But we haven't that this will be a rebuilding year. returning people. It's safe to say made any unreasonable demands

"No one has ever refused any..." The president exuded that he was delighted that such a prestigious institution as Columbia University was willing to enter into a cooperative program with PC. He suggested that PC should try to see if it could enter into other cooperative programs in areas besides engineering. He also discussed the possibility of establishing a faculty exchange program between PC and the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland.

The president also declared "PC is as big as it should get". However, the 1977-78 competition for graduates abroad under the Mutual Educational Exchange Program (Fulbright - Hays) and by foreign governments, universities and private donors, will close shortly.

Application forms and further information for students currently attending Providence College may be obtained from J.C. Kennedy, located in Library 339. The deadline for filing applications is October 12.

Grant Forms

Nearly Due

The 1977-78 competition for graduate study abroad under the Mutual Educational Exchange Program (Fulbright - Hays) and by foreign governments, universities and private donors, will close shortly.

Application forms and further information for students currently attending Providence College may be obtained from J.C. Kennedy, located in Library 339. The deadline for filing applications is October 12.

AUDIO CAN MAKE MONEY FOR YOU!

Set audio equipment at your college. No investment. Expect sales now and incentive programs provided. Over 60 top brands, including autophiles: Focal, Auto-Dale, Whistler. 325 Pauk Ave Washington Township. N.J. (908) 697-2551. 10% off. Attention Alarm Marky

casual corner

offers you
20% OFF

On purchase of: regular priced merchandise at any of the following CASUAL CORNER stores:

DOWNTOWN PROVIDENCE
WARWICK MALL
LINCOLN MALL

College I.D. required. Expires Oct. 12, 1976

"We've Come A Long Way"

Continued from Page 1

This team is hoping for a good scholarship and basketball's either. I'm cognizant of explains: about scholarships. Mrs. Bert have to be ironed out, however. concerned is fantastic."

Still, the attitude of everyone just want the women treated place in the financial picture. We of our requests. But we haven't that this will be a rebuilding year. returning people. It's safe to say made any unreasonable demands

"No one has ever refused any..." The president exuded that he was delighted that such a prestigious institution as Columbia University was willing to enter into a cooperative program with PC. He suggested that PC should try to see if it could enter into other cooperative programs in areas besides engineering. He also discussed the possibility of establishing a faculty exchange program between PC and the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland.

The president also declared "PC is as big as it should get". However, the 1977-78 competition for graduates abroad under the Mutual Educational Exchange Program (Fulbright - Hays) and by foreign governments, universities and private donors, will close shortly.

Application forms and further information for students currently attending Providence College may be obtained from J.C. Kennedy, located in Library 339. The deadline for filing applications is October 12.

Grant Forms

Nearly Due

The 1977-78 competition for graduate study abroad under the Mutual Educational Exchange Program (Fulbright - Hays) and by foreign governments, universities and private donors, will close shortly.

Application forms and further information for students currently attending Providence College may be obtained from J.C. Kennedy, located in Library 339. The deadline for filing applications is October 12.

AUDIO CAN MAKE MONEY FOR YOU!

Set audio equipment at your college. No investment. Expect sales now and incentive programs provided. Over 60 top brands, including autophiles: Focal, Auto-Dale, Whistler. 325 Pauk Ave Washington Township. N.J. (908) 697-2551. 10% off. Attention Alarm Marky

casual corner

offers you
20% OFF

On purchase of: regular priced merchandise at any of the following CASUAL CORNER stores:

DOWNTOWN PROVIDENCE
WARWICK MALL
LINCOLN MALL

College I.D. required. Expires Oct. 12, 1976

"We've Come A Long Way"

Continued from Page 1

This team is hoping for a good scholarship and basketball's either. I'm cognizant of explains: about scholarships. Mrs. Bert have to be ironed out, however. concerned is fantastic."

Still, the attitude of everyone just want the women treated place in the financial picture. We of our requests. But we haven't that this will be a rebuilding year. returning people. It's safe to say made any unreasonable demands

"No one has ever refused any..." The president exuded that he was delighted that such a prestigious institution as Columbia University was willing to enter into a cooperative program with PC. He suggested that PC should try to see if it could enter into other cooperative programs in areas besides engineering. He also discussed the possibility of establishing a faculty exchange program between PC and the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland.

The president also declared "PC is as big as it should get". However, the 1977-78 competition for graduates abroad under the Mutual Educational Exchange Program (Fulbright - Hays) and by foreign governments, universities and private donors, will close shortly.

Application forms and further information for students currently attending Providence College may be obtained from J.C. Kennedy, located in Library 339. The deadline for filing applications is October 12.

Grant Forms

Nearly Due

The 1977-78 competition for graduate study abroad under the Mutual Educational Exchange Program (Fulbright - Hays) and by foreign governments, universities and private donors, will close shortly.

Application forms and further information for students currently attending Providence College may be obtained from J.C. Kennedy, located in Library 339. The deadline for filing applications is October 12.
PC Fall Sports Have Arrived
Jim McPherson, quarterback for PC, player profile, 26-year old Jim Rabadan, dropped out and entered the Navy. "Entering the Navy in 1969 did a lot for me. Although it wasn't always a lot of fun, I could see how it was helping. It was better organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." While in the Navy, Jim Rabadan travelled the Caribbean and Mediterranean seas and was stationed in South America for a while. "Playing soccer in South America, Jim recalls," was quite a bit different. "It wasn't as organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." Jim McPherson, quarterback for PC, player profile, 26-year old Jim Rabadan, dropped out and entered the Navy. "Entering the Navy in 1969 did a lot for me. Although it wasn't always a lot of fun, I could see how it was helping. It was better organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." While in the Navy, Jim Rabadan travelled the Caribbean and Mediterranean seas and was stationed in South America for a while. "Playing soccer in South America, Jim recalls," was quite a bit different. "It wasn't as organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." Jim McPherson, quarterback for PC, player profile, 26-year old Jim Rabadan, dropped out and entered the Navy. "Entering the Navy in 1969 did a lot for me. Although it wasn't always a lot of fun, I could see how it was helping. It was better organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." While in the Navy, Jim Rabadan travelled the Caribbean and Mediterranean seas and was stationed in South America for a while. "Playing soccer in South America, Jim recalls," was quite a bit different. "It wasn't as organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." Jim McPherson, quarterback for PC, player profile, 26-year old Jim Rabadan, dropped out and entered the Navy. "Entering the Navy in 1969 did a lot for me. Although it wasn't always a lot of fun, I could see how it was helping. It was better organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." While in the Navy, Jim Rabadan travelled the Caribbean and Mediterranean seas and was stationed in South America for a while. "Playing soccer in South America, Jim recalls," was quite a bit different. "It wasn't as organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." Jim McPherson, quarterback for PC, player profile, 26-year old Jim Rabadan, dropped out and entered the Navy. "Entering the Navy in 1969 did a lot for me. Although it wasn't always a lot of fun, I could see how it was helping. It was better organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." While in the Navy, Jim Rabadan travelled the Caribbean and Mediterranean seas and was stationed in South America for a while. "Playing soccer in South America, Jim recalls," was quite a bit different. "It wasn't as organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." Jim McPherson, quarterback for PC, player profile, 26-year old Jim Rabadan, dropped out and entered the Navy. "Entering the Navy in 1969 did a lot for me. Although it wasn't always a lot of fun, I could see how it was helping. It was better organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up." While in the Navy, Jim Rabadan travelled the Caribbean and Mediterranean seas and was stationed in South America for a while. "Playing soccer in South America, Jim recalls," was quite a bit different. "It wasn't as organized and probably most importantly, I was growing up."
The Saga of Sly... and He Was No Need To Cry Friar Fans...

Look For A Great Year With Soup, Joe & Co.

Limited Practice Equals Limited Success

By John Mullaney

After just one practice round of golf, PC coach, Joe Prisco had to select seven golfers from a hoard of newcomers to participate in a match against UMass, URI and Bryant at the Point Judith Country Club last Thursday afternoon. As a result, PC finished in third place behind URI and UMass respectively.

Father Lennon Wins

By Al Palladino

Father Joseph Lennon, OP, vice-president of Community Affairs at Providence College fired a six-over-par 77 to win the medal in the Rhode Island Golf Association's Senior Championship. Father Lennon, who celebrates his fifty-seventh birthday today, carded three birdies, three bogies, and three double bogies over the 6,137-yard Agawam Hunt layout. His birdies came on putts of six, 10 and 12 feet.

Fr. Lennon now advances to the match play portion for the senior championship. Finals will be held on Friday.
Jersey Whips Friars, 28-13

By Al Palladino

Providence, doomed by some costly mistakes, lost its home opener Saturday, at Hendrickson Field. Jersey State scored with 13:40 left in the second half.

PC went on the board first on a one-yard run by Mark Tidwell for a 7-0 lead. The rest of the first half was an even struggle. Jersey State scored with 1:47 left in the first half but Mike Sanzarro missed a 25-yard field goal. The second half was a complete nightmare for the Friars. On their first play from scrimmage, Tidwell fumbled a handoff and a slick pass. From ten yards out he quickly turned to his left and boomed a shot into the upper right-hand corner of the net.

The Friars passing game sharpened up a little bit but there were still a few laps. The offense started to click near the end of the half and Kevin Brouillard, Murphy and Sanzarro came close to adding to PC's 1-0 edge but their efforts fell short and the half ended.

The Friars led 2-0 at the 0:50 mark of the second half. Once again Rabadan was the one responsible. There was a scramble in front of the Merrimack goal and Rabadan slammed a knee ball into the left corner.

Then, in the 9th minute, Rabadan completed the hat trick by taking a pass from Roman and driving in a quick shot past a dazed Fisher. Behind 3-0, Merrimack started to throw their weight around. It became a very physical contest resulting in a few minor injuries. But luckily the two officials kept things pretty much in hand and there were no major incidents.

With the game well out of reach, Merrimack continued to add to the score. PC had the lowest possible total, 4-0. The sophomore goalie had the only other really solid performance of the game. His next save came on a shot by Jim McCarthy in the 44th minute to ice the 4-0 triumph.

By Mark Higgins

Paced by Jim Rabadan's three goals, Providence sank Merrimack 4-0. The sophomore goalie had the only other really solid performance of the game. His next save came on a shot by Jim McCarthy in the 44th minute to ice the 4-0 triumph.

The PC cross country team outdistanced runners from four other New England schools in the first meet of the season.

PC had the lowest possible total, 4-0. The sophomore goalie had the only other really solid performance of the game. His next save came on a shot by Jim McCarthy in the 44th minute to ice the 4-0 triumph.