Mammoth Parade Of Stars
To Take Place At Plaza Park

Narragansett Park will be the scene of a mammoth Penny Parade this Friday when the students in behalf of the new St. Dominic Savio Society, a group in the Center Peace Dale, R. I. Twenty-five thousand dollars in prizes including four new automobiles will be awarded to the lucky ticket holders. Many famous personalities will be present to provide the entertainment.

Flans call for the immediate and extensive renovation of the enormous barn of the newly acquired Garnimmo estate in Peace Dale. Single and double room accommodations for up to one hundred boys, a chapel, a dining room and kitchen, lounge and recreation areas will be provided. Football and baseball fields and other new athletic facilities will provide splendid opportunities for camping and hiking and nearby beaches and swimming.

There is a need for 260 volunteer workers from P.C. Anyone wishing to volunteer to work Friday night is asked to contact Fr. Casey in Aquinas Hall or any member of the Student Congress. Tickets for the prices are 25 cents with a book of 12 costing $3.00.

Owl Club Accepts Twenty-Six New Members

Twenty-six new members from the Freshman Class were recently received into the organization according to Arthur Payne, ’56, president.

This group along with the upper-classmen members will be hold Sunday evening, Oct. 2 at the War Memorial Grotto and his presence at the Mass of the Holy Ghost held also at the club.

The club, which annually highlights the achievements of the students has long been popular throughout New England and has appeared with such student groups as the Providence Club, St. John's of Hartford, Albertus Magnus College of New Haven, Conn.; Salve Regina College of Newport, R. I.; Mansfield of Hartford, Albertus Magnus College of New Haven, Conn.; Salve Regina College of Newport, R. I.; Mansfield College of New York City, N. Y.; Brooklyn College; and Trinity College of Washington have been in New London, Conn., Waterbury Conn., New Haven, Conn., Providence, R. I., and on several occasions here at the college.

T he Dominos, popular octet compiled of members of the club, will again be in attendance at the with the entire club.

Other speakers to include Payne, Ed D'Andrea, ’56, vice-president, Tony DeBardelaben, ’56, secretary, and Dr. Leo S. Cannone, M. P., Min., is de-retired.

New members include: Frank Bas-
nett, John Brennan, John Caraccioli, Welcome!!

To you who are beginning College Life, the Owl extends the greetings of all the upperclassmen. Your Freshman year is a year of orientation, and the upperclassmen are eager to pass on to you their wisdom of years to guide you. But you are the only one who can do the adjusting. "You are here. What are you going to do?" The decision must be your own.

May you have a full share in the academic and social activities of the College. As Freshmen, you may enjoy many combined studies and extra-curricular activities so that each will balance the other for the remainder of the opening year.

The Way!!

Practically every Catholic tries to invoke in his Rosary the Holy Rosary has become the Rosary. But because of our imperfect nature, we have often failed to use this noblest of prayers. With the coming of October, the month of the Holy Rosary, we can make another attempt. It is recommended that every student on this campus to say the Rosary at least once a day. We are sure that all will take advantage of them, for in that way you will enjoy once the religious benefits that you had hoped to gain when seeking admission to this Catholic school.

A Dream Fullfilled

When we left our beloved campus last Spring, we gave up everything, living, and breathing Gymnasium. That faded, long-awared structure was now shrouded in mystery. Hordes of trucks and hundreds of scurrilous laborers surrounded the huge brick and limestone structure, the center of what had once been the R.O.T.C. Drill Field. Yes, we had heard many wondrous things of the Gym, and the summer dragged while the long days ticked by as we awaited our return to the campus and a completed gymnasium.

Nobody expected to be disappointed, and nobody was. When we returned we found the underclassmen already at home in a gleaming lounge and cafeteria which reminds us more of the Country Club of Astoria than a student Union. And there was more! A Basketball court big enough for a baseball game, handsome and comfortable, with a ratio of 300 people, long gleaming marble corridors, offices, classrooms, even accommodations for visiting teams.

We who will be graduating this June, the completion of the Gymnasium marks another milestone in the history of a great and growing College. We can only remain silent and vivid and产值 and illustrations Alumni and our most worthy President for this wondrous building, and pledge that when we have left home in society there will be many more buildings and improvements on the Campus of Providence College.

Earth bears no balsam for mistakes;
Men crown the knave, and scourge the fool
That did his will; but Thou, O Lord
Be merciful to me, a fool!

Man Or Mouse?

Since the start of the school year the eye of the hardened upperclassman has noted a marked decline in the number of covered freshman men. It would seem that the class of 1935 has either found a heretic machismo in the use of head bandanas, or certain "rocky" elements of the group have the foolish idea of making a test case before the high court of the Student Congress. To the untrained observer, the campus appears well-ordered, peaceful, and entirely serene. Actually, however, there is tension prevalent in the halls and on the lawns of P. C. There haven't been any open clashes yet, no one has been shot at. The Student Congress President hasn't even been spirited away to a dark and mysterious dead-box lair, and a blood-stained hensie has yet to be pinned to the wall of the cafeteria.

Nobody likes to brewbe-at a freshman because his cranium fails to be swathed in black and white. Nobody likes to tell that hypothetical fresh man to cover his hair with shoes and keep his heads bare. In the long run, the burial or immolation of that little bit of the black and white hurts no one but you yourselves. "Your scarlet name of a great school on your shoulders. You are therefore, a badge of honor, showing in your college and esprit de corps. If the classes before you were there, and if our try League in the opposite hill can wear them, then there is no reason why you cannot wear them. The jockeys decorated freshmen don't mean the man on this campus, but the spoiled heir.

Mr. Rice and the Sportsmen

Dream Fulfilled

To those of us who will be graduating this June, the completion of the Gymnasium marks another milestone in the history of a great and growing College. We can only remain silent and vivid and产值 and illustrations Alumni and our most worthy President for this wondrous building, and pledge that when we have left home in society there will be many more buildings and improvements on the Campus of Providence College.

Earth bears no balsam for mistakes;
Men crown the knave, and scourge the fool
That did his will; but Thou, O Lord
Be merciful to me, a fool!

Man Or Mouse?

Since the start of the school year the eye of the hardened upperclassman has noted a marked decline in the number of covered freshman men. It would seem that the class of 1935 has either found a heretic machismo in the use of head bandanas, or certain "rocky" elements of the group have the foolish idea of making a test case before the high court of the Student Congress. To the untrained observer, the campus appears well-ordered, peaceful, and entirely serene. Actually, however, there is tension prevalent in the halls and on the lawns of P. C. There haven't been any open clashes yet, no one has been shot at. The Student Congress President hasn't even been spirited away to a dark and mysterious dead-box lair, and a blood-stained hensie has yet to be pinned to the wall of the cafeteria.

Nobody likes to brewbe-at a freshman because his cranium fails to be swathed in black and white. Nobody likes to tell that hypothetical fresh man to cover his hair with shoes and keep his heads bare. In the long run, the burial or immolation of that little bit of the black and white hurts no one but you yourselves. "Your scarlet name of a great school on your shoulders. You are therefore, a badge of honor, showing in your college and esprit de corps. If the classes before you were there, and if our try League in the opposite hill can wear them, then there is no reason why you cannot wear them. The jockeys decorated freshmen don't mean the man on this campus, but the spoiled heir.

Mr. Rice and the Sportsmen

Dream Fulfilled

To those of us who will be graduating this June, the completion of the Gymnasium marks another milestone in the history of a great and growing College. We can only remain silent and vivid and产值 and illustrations Alumni and our most worthy President for this wondrous building, and pledge that when we have left home in society there will be many more buildings and improvements on the Campus of Providence College.

Earth bears no balsam for mistakes;
Men crown the knave, and scourge the fool
That did his will; but Thou, O Lord
Be merciful to me, a fool!

Man Or Mouse?

Since the start of the school year the eye of the hardened upperclassman has noted a marked decline in the number of covered freshman men. It would seem that the class of 1935 has either found a heretic machismo in the use of head bandanas, or certain "rocky" elements of the group have the foolish idea of making a test case before the high court of the Student Congress. To the untrained observer, the campus appears well-ordered, peaceful, and entirely serene. Actually, however, there is tension prevalent in the halls and on the lawns of P. C. There haven't been any open clashes yet, no one has been shot at. The Student Congress President hasn't even been spirited away to a dark and mysterious dead-box lair, and a blood-stained hensie has yet to be pinned to the wall of the cafeteria.

Nobody likes to brewbe-at a freshman because his cranium fails to be swathed in black and white. Nobody likes to tell that hypothetical fresh man to cover his hair with shoes and keep his heads bare. In the long run, the burial or immolation of that little bit of the black and white hurts no one but you yourselves. "Your scarlet name of a great school on your shoulders. You are therefore, a badge of honor, showing in your college and esprit de corps. If the classes before you were there, and if our try League in the opposite hill can wear them, then there is no reason why you cannot wear them. The jockeys decorated freshmen don't mean the man on this campus, but the spoiled heir.

Mr. Rice and the Sportsmen

Dream Fulfilled

To those of us who will be graduating this June, the completion of the Gymnasium marks another milestone in the history of a great and growing College. We can only remain silent and vivid and产值 and illustrations Alumni and our most worthy President for this wondrous building, and pledge that when we have left home in society there will be many more buildings and improvements on the Campus of Providence College.

Earth bears no balsam for mistakes;
Men crown the knave, and scourge the fool
That did his will; but Thou, O Lord
Be merciful to me, a fool!

Man Or Mouse?

Since the start of the school year the eye of the hardened upperclassman has noted a marked decline in the number of covered freshman men. It would seem that the class of 1935 has either found a heretic machismo in the use of head bandanas, or certain "rocky" elements of the group have the foolish idea of making a test case before the high court of the Student Congress. To the untrained observer, the campus appears well-ordered, peaceful, and entirely serene. Actually, however, there is tension prevalent in the halls and on the lawns of P. C. There haven't been any open clashes yet, no one has been shot at. The Student Congress President hasn't even been spirited away to a dark and mysterious dead-box lair, and a blood-stained hensie has yet to be pinned to the wall of the cafeteria.

Nobody likes to brewbe-at a freshman because his cranium fails to be swathed in black and white. Nobody likes to tell that hypothetical fresh man to cover his hair with shoes and keep his heads bare. In the long run, the burial or immolation of that little bit of the black and white hurts no one but you yourselves. "Your scarlet name of a great school on your shoulders. You are therefore, a badge of honor, showing in your college and esprit de corps. If the classes before you were there, and if our try League in the opposite hill can wear them, then there is no reason why you cannot wear them. The jockeys decorated freshmen don't mean the man on this campus, but the spoiled heir.

Mr. Rice and the Sportsmen

Dream Fulfilled

To those of us who will be graduating this June, the completion of the Gymnasium marks another milestone in the history of a great and growing College. We can only remain silent and vivid and产值 and illustrations Alumni and our most worthy President for this wondrous building, and pledge that when we have left home in society there will be many more buildings and improvements on the Campus of Providence College.

Earth bears no balsam for mistakes;
Men crown the knave, and scourge the fool
That did his will; but Thou, O Lord
Be merciful to me, a fool!

Man Or Mouse?

Since the start of the school year the eye of the hardened upperclassman has noted a marked decline in the number of covered freshman men. It would seem that the class of 1935 has either found a heretic machismo in the use of head bandanas, or certain "rocky" elements of the group have the foolish idea of making a test case before the high court of the Student Congress. To the untrained observer, the campus appears well-ordered, peaceful, and entirely serene. Actually, however, there is tension prevalent in the halls and on the lawns of P. C. There haven't been any open clashes yet, no one has been shot at. The Student Congress President hasn't even been spirited away to a dark and mysterious dead-box lair, and a blood-stained hensie has yet to be pinned to the wall of the cafeteria.

Nobody likes to brewbe-at a freshman because his cranium fails to be swathed in black and white. Nobody likes to tell that hypothetical fresh man to cover his hair with shoes and keep his heads bare. In the long run, the burial or immolation of that little bit of the black and white hurts no one but you yourselves. "Your scarlet name of a great school on your shoulders. You are therefore, a badge of honor, showing in your college and esprit de corps. If the classes before you were there, and if our try League in the opposite hill can wear them, then there is no reason why you cannot wear them. The jockeys decorated freshmen don't mean the man on this campus, but the spoiled heir.
Successful Tips To Job Hunters

(For those who may be seeking part-time employment, we suggest you read carefully this article. Regional Congress President, Michael Fitzgerald, a Junior, majoring in English, will take control of the Literary Group, a division of N.F.C.C.S., at the first meeting of the year.

Former President Joseph J. Buckley, '56, will assume the position of Regional Literary Commission Chairman. His duties in this position are to assist all other colleges in establishing Literary Groups on campuses without them, and to re-activate existing groups. As such, Joe Fitzgerald hopes to establish an essay contest in an effort to further the development of literary art. Awards will be given to the best manuscripts submitted.

Regional Congress, to be held in April, is a literary workshop devoted to liturgical art. During the course of the year workshops will be held at Salve Regina, Sacred Heart, and Regina College. The regional topic is: Liturgical Piety through Sacred Scripture. Fitzgerald expressed the hope that the student will be exposed to an increasing interest in the organization.

Blessing Of Roses...

(Continued from Page 1)

Here they will be blessed, as a token of thanksgiving to Thee and of love and veneration for the ever Blessed Virgin Mary of the Rosary. Do Thou who hast granted them a sweet odor for our use and the easing of our lives, design now to bless them through the merits of Thy Holy Cross may they receive as great a benediction, that whosoever shall use them in their sickness, or whosoever shall keep them in their homes, may be healed. May the devil and his evil spirits depart and flee in fear and trembling from their homes and of all others glad to dwell those serving Three. Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

Frosh Mothers At Sunday Tea

Sunday afternoon at three o'clock the mothers of the Froshmen met in Hartman Hall for Tea. The event was sponsored by the Veridames of Providence College. The purpose of the affair was to acquaint the mothers with the school and each other. The Veridames is an organization made up of the mothers of the students and alumnae, and also women interested. This purpose is to further the interests of Providence College religiously, socially.

Joe Salvatore
States Plans

Michael Fitzgerald, a Junior, majoring in English, will take control of the Literary Group, a division of N.F.C.C.S., at the first meeting of the year.

Former President Joseph J. Buckley, '56, will assume the position of Regional Literary Commission Chairman. His duties in this position are to assist all other colleges in establishing Literary Groups on campuses without them, and to re-activate existing groups. As such, Joe Fitzgerald hopes to establish an essay contest in an effort to further the development of literary art. Awards will be given to the best manuscripts submitted.

Regional Congress, to be held in April, is a literary workshop devoted to liturgical art. During the course of the year workshops will be held at Salve Regina, Sacred Heart, and Regina College. The regional topic is: Liturgical Piety through Sacred Scripture. Fitzgerald expressed the hope that the student will be exposed to an increasing interest in the organization.

Frosh Exhibit...

(Continued from Page 1) with the routine, but necessary, medical exams, ROTC orientation, and the like. The social highlight of Freshman Week came on Friday evening at the Get-Acquainted Dance sponsored for the Freshmen by the Student Congress. The dance was declared the most successful informal dance held on the campus in recent years. As such, the Student Congress has: Liturgical Art.