Gratias

We, the members of the Class 1950, take this opportunity to express our sincere gratitude to everyone who in any manner has contributed to the social and financial success of our Junior Promenade. We especially wish to express our thanks to the following:

The Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O. P., President of Providence College, the Rev. Charles H. McKenna, O. P., our College Chaplain and director of our extracurricular activities, and the Rev. Edward P. Doyle, O. P., our Class Moderator, for their invaluable advice and assistance.

May you all enjoy yourselves this evening and may the memories of this Promenade last with you for many years to come.

350 COUPLES ATTEND GALA PROM FORMAL

QUEEN TO BE CHOSEN AFTER GRAND MARCH

Aminated by many critics as the greatest sax man of this generation, Charlie Barnet, who plays at the Providence College Junior Prom this evening, has attained a lofty position at the top of the musical ladder by his unfailing insistence on good music above every other consideration. Tonight's formal festivities will be highlighted by the Grand March at 11:00 p.m., led by the red-ashed committee members and their guests. Immediately after the Grand March the Queen of the Prom will be announced and crowned with appropriate ceremony. The lovely and beautiful first lady will be presented with a silver loving-cup as a memento of the occasion. The Queen's Court will also be chosen at this time.
