The Varsity Hop sponsored by the Monogram Club will be held Friday evening, May 13th, in Harkins Hall. The affair will be turned in their most creditable performance to date. As one of the basses of the P.C. Glee Club, Everett was more aware of the fact that trash is considered useful. The front of Harkins Hall is a landmark new to the college but well regarded! Tickets can be obtained from members of the club or at the Athletic Office. Bids are two dollars each.

The dancing is an annual affair sponsored by the club and the proceeds are used to buy monogrammed sweatshirts for men who earn varsity letters.

The annual ball of the Providence College Alumni Association will be held in the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel ballroom, Friday evening, May 20, 1949, from nine o'clock to two. This ball, which is usually held in February, was postponed this year because of a conflict of dates with the college and the sports reed of the college year. Students are urged to attend. The Varsity coaches and their wives will attend as honored guests.

The drawing for the Fida television set, which is being given as a prize by the Providence College Flying Club, will be held on May 20th. Tickets are ten cents each or three for a quarter. They are being sold by the club and so they were. The audience greeted their every song with thunderous applause and was especially delighted by the rendition of the Negro spiritual "Dey Boms," featuring Louise Murphy.

The P.C. Glee Club brought its 1948-49 concert season to a very successful close Friday night at a joint concert with St. Joseph's College of Portland, Maine. THE HOLY NAME

"The fidelity of Holy Name men at the altar rail on Holy Name Sunday," says the Dominican Calendar for 1949, "besides beginning a tradition of strength to themselves, is a source of edification in many a parish.

According to the Calendar "the Holy Name Society has for its object the increasing of man's faith in the divinity of Christ and the drawing of man closer to the Master through a good Catholic life." Both results can be obtained by becoming a Holy Name man and following the rule of frequent Communia in a body.

The Calendar says "Thousands upon thousands of our American people are utterly indifferent to all manifestations of the sacred mysteries, and respect rendered to God. Unclean speech, immoral plays and motion pictures are a veritable scourge to a nation that should be clean of heart." Membership in the Holy Name Society will bring with it improvement in the moral stature of the person who will strive for self-betterment.

Not only will he find himself spiritually strengthened for being a Holy Name man but he will work an influence on others. "His example," says the Calendar, "can and will be a powerful sermon to all who surround him in daily life."

COWL ERROR?
The Cowl made an error last week, typographical, that is. There isn't just an ordinary one that the average newspaper would make. It wasn't buried in the middle of page five or six where it would be easily missed. This particular one was in bold, black print for the world to see, and in seeing, to marvel at.

Yes, marvel, because when the Cowl makes an error, it's not just any old ordinary error but one that stands up and stares at the reader, just asking for attention. The Cowl meant to do it in a big way.

SOME APPLAUSE
Who deserves a pat on the back? The President, for his judicious management of a complex institution. Your faculty, for its continuous efforts at molding the mind and character of those under their charge? Without a doubt.

The student body? Why not allow itself as disciplined and profane as the last year's Veritas cover with its red gold letters Pope Pius XII appointed him a Domestic prelate. The Bishop of the Holy Name Society will bring with it improvement in the moral stature of the person who will strive for self-betterment.

The late laboratory hours have usually been considered as clean up" should be the motto. The Springfield Student has announced that Sam Donahue has been chosen for their Prom while Elliot Lawrence will provide the band at Holy Cross.

We found several of the April editions very interesting. The Brown Daily Herald published a fascinating one. After reading these issues from another school one wonders why it is that the COWL does not abolish April Fool's Day. Certainly P.C. does not have fewer days to wear Gowns than last year's. Although the gowns contain several features which are novel and interesting. It has one color devoted to a list of all the college activities to take place in the near future. Several of the other pages have a similar column and we wonder if such a feature could be profitably incorporated into the COWL.

The Boston University News recently complained in an editorial of what was described as the deplorable parking situation there. Brown also seems to have a similar parking problem. So you see, fellow sufferers, that we have plenty of the comradeship which misery loves.

Bishop McVeinney was a recent guest speaker at the Final Convocation of Rhode Island State College. The title of his address was "The Need of Philosophy and Ethics." He ended his speech with an exhortation and a promise. "As you progress in your knowledge of the world, discipline, never lose sight of your last minute break. This not only applied to professors but the students also. The Bishop emphasized the wide gulf that exists between the intellectual and the educational. The Bishop also complained of the lack of proper preparation of professors. It is not only knowledge but the wide gap that exists between the intellectual and the educational.

Brown Frosh Team Nips P. C. Tracksters In Tight Dual Meet

by Dick Boulet

Led by double winners Dan Walsh, Bill Keenan, and John McMullen, the Friars defeated the Brown yearling team, a stiff battle, 41 to 39, in a dual meet held at Brown Stadium on Saturday. The Friars almost won despite the fact that they had only twelve men. The only one of the four that was in the lead at one time while the Brain squad was superior in the four by 220.

The contest was a virtual walkover in the event of the day, the discus, but Brown swept the first three spots in this event to win the meet for first in this event.

Although the B.C. players for the eight leg of the class, sending Carroll to third. The other entries in the Brown yearling team a stiff battle. In the quarter, Casidy, who won the 440 and finished second to Keenan in the 880, along with Dave Lamont, was the main man for the Friars, going eight innings before being removed for a pinch hitter. Bill Keenan hurled the last four innings for first in this event.

To kick away the close ones. Faulty pitching and in aiding the Eagles considerably. Tom Keenan went the route in both games over the weekend. On Saturday afternoon they will probably get the Brown assignment in light of the great game he pitched against the Bruins a year ago. In that game he had held Brown to one run over the first seven frames when suddenly his arm went dead and he was sidelined for the remainder of the season.

Sunday, Tom Keenan, one of the Friars staff, will pitch against Villa- nova. The Wildcats and Springfield already have inflicted defeats upon PU earlier in the season.

The Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., President of the College, will deliver the opening address. After Father Slavin's address, a paper on "Some Physical Aspects of Microwave Propagation" will be read by Thomas Rogers, a graduate of the College in the class of 1943 who is an engineering student at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass.

A second paper will be delivered by J. Edward Casey. "The last paper in the administration experiments will be conducted and discussion meetings held. Election of officers will be held at a short business meeting. Father Murphy is in charge of arrangements for the meeting, assisted by members of the Physics Department."

The principal interviews, however, were those of the Junior Prom Students.

Placement Office: Alaska Openings

The Civil Aeronautics Administration has opennings for a number of qualified single men as aircraft communicators in Alaska, at starting salaries of $7218 a year, according to Maurice J. Timlin, head of the College Placement Office.

Successful applicants will be assigned to the 65 airways communication stations operated by the C.A.A. along Alaskan airways.

Men selected will be in line for eventual promotion to higher-grade jobs paying up to $4040. A year. Additional earnings are possible in all grades through authorized overtime beyond the 40-hour week, and through a 10 per cent night differential.

Basic qualifications for the job are the ability to transmit and receive international Morse Code at minimum speed of 30 words a minute, to touch typewrite at 35 words a minute, and 18 months of aeronautical communication experience or acceptable equivalent in education and experience. Slight code speed deficiencies may be allowed at the discretion of the appointing officer if it appears that they can be compensated during orientation training.

Applicants other than veterans must be between 18 and 40 and in good health, particularly in regard to hearing, vision and speech. Applicants should send Federal Application Form 52, obtainable at post offices and state employment offices, to the C. A. A. Aeronautical Center, P. O. Box 1802, Oklahoma City 1, Oklahoma.

Several weeks of orientation training will be given to the appointees at the C. A. A. Aeronautical Center in Oklahoma City before their travel to point of assignment in Alaska. Salary is paid while training. They will be expected to remain in government service in Alaska for at least 12 months following their appointment.

Fraternity, outstanding weight man, is counted on heavily to score in the discus, javelin, and javelin. Jerry Alexander is entered in his specialty, the javelin throw, and is expected to be right up there in the scoring. He is also entered in the high jump and broad jump. In the pole vault, John Shanley stands a good chance to place as he has been approaching the 13-foot mark in practice. Art Kavanaugh and Ed Foerter round out the field team. Kavanaugh is a high jumper and broad jumper while Foerter is entered only in the broad jump.

The same day, the Fresh track team travels to Boston to compete against Boston University, Tufts, Boston College, and Huntington. Walsh and Pender are in the dashes, and Cawley and Aldrich will compete in the quarter mile. Bill Keenan runs the 880 and pole vaults. Conder will participate in the mile run in the weight events. McMullen is the Friars' only chance in the discus and javelin. He also high jumps.

Last Wednesday afternoon, the Friars won a dual meet with Fair- field University, 56-31. It is Fair- field's first year in track competition, and the "veteran" P.C. squad had little trouble to win by a 35 point advantage.

Over one hundred advisers and staff members of sixteen public and private Rhode Island high school publications attended the second annual convention of the Rhode Island Intercolonial Press Association which was held in Harris Hall Saturday afternoon. The guests and the college delegates heard Mr. Robert Kerrenkott, editor of the Canadian national Catholic weekly, THE ENNSKIN, one of the featured speakers at the convention, speak of how the reporting of news has changed from the mere reporting of facts to the reporting of the reasons of the facts. "News today," Mr. Kerrenkott stated, "is not so much how but why." Drawing from a wealth of personal experiences and acquaintanceship with prominent leaders in world affairs, the former United Press bureau chief told the audience how new advances in news gathering and favorable consequences because of them. He further commented on the press as a propagandist agent saying that its effect is accomplished not by "a distortion of truth, but a choice of facts."

Following an address by the Rev. Robert J. Stavis, O.P., president of the college, who delivered greetings to the members of the convention, the delegates attended nine panel forums on the newspaper profession.

At the close of the general meeting, the college delegates held elections for the offices of the R.I.I.P.A. for 1949-50. Ortris Rogers, '50, Bryant College, Providence, was elected president; Patricia Byrne, '51, Salve Regina College, Newport, vice president; William Plummer, '50, Providence College, secretary; and Patricia McCarthy, '50, Rhode Island College of Education, treasurer.

Arthur Rogers, '50, Providence College, was general convention chairman assisted by Miss Byrne, M. Patricia DiMarino, R.C.E., and Frank Pritchard, Rhode Island State, who were members of the Speakers committee. Betty Hamilton Pryce, R.C.E. was in charge of the programs.
