Honorable Armand Cote, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec, will attend the forthcoming Three Day Presentation of "The Student Prince," an event that promises to be highly effective with the cast and audience. The Reverend Leo S. Cano, O.P., serves as moderator for the visitors for the cast and the Players. Del Shannon, an alumnus who served as Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, has been postponed till the final meeting of the Forum will deal with "Incentives to Christian Life." The Reverend John J. Reid of the Philosophy Department, will make a second appearance in the forum by the end of April.

Dorm Weekend Begins Three Day Presentation

The annual highlight of the residents of Providence College will be present this weekend. The theme is "The Dorm Weekend," a special weekend for the community. The schedule for the three day affair, according to Gay Hamilton, Carolin Club President and co-chairman of the event, will be as follows:

- On Friday evening, March 1, there will be a formal dinner dance held in the dining hall from 7:30 to 10:30. A P.C. negative team will be announced for the Debating Tournament that will take place on Saturday.
- On Saturday evening, March 2, an exhibition debate will be held in conjunction with the N.F.C.C.S. at the University of New Hampshire.
- On Sunday, March 3, the show will be presented at the conclusion of the weekend, and a negative team to the Forensic Tournament will be announced.

The Forum will be held in Harkins Hall auditorium, and the lectures will be given by Dr. Jacob Kleinberg, Professor of Chemistry at the University of Kansas. They will be given by the Rev. Joseph L. Lennon, OP, Ph.D., Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, and Dr. Vito L. Cippa, Providence College. The series should prove to be highly effective with the graduates and will be followed by a question period at the end of each lecture.

Marriage Forum To Begin Eleventh Consecutive Year

Marriage Forum To Begin Eleventh Consecutive Year

The Providence College Forum on Courtship and Marriage will be held on March 19, 1957, with a talk by the Rev. Joseph L. Lennon, O.P., Ph.D., Dean of the College. The forum will be attended by all the students and will be followed by a question period at the end of each lecture.

P.C. Barristers Debate Again

A P.C. negative team composed of Frank Shaf, '59, and Don Emone, '59, scored a clear decision over Boston College's Marquette Debating Society on the Chestnut Hill campus this past week. On the same day in the east end of Boston at Northeastern University both a negative team and an affirmative team were rematched. Tony Dunnette, '59, and Ed Smith, '59, scored a clear decision for the negative to make the P.C. team total thus far, while an affirmative team of beginners, Milo St. Angelo, '59, and Dick LaFrance, '58, evinced a strong showing to their credit.

On Tuesday evening the Barristers staged an exhibition debate for the members and guests of the Forum. "Catholic Education," the topic of the debate, was chosen by chairman of the evening Mr. William Lynch, '25, read 17-13, in favor of the affirmative.

At last Wednesday's meeting it was announced that Lewis University's proposed first annual debate tournament, honoring Charles Evans Hughes, an alumnus who served as Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, has been postponed till the final meeting of the Forum will deal with "Incentives to Christian Life." Dr. Kleinberg will be present at this meeting by Dr. Kleinberg and will be followed by a question period at the end of each lecture.

Aquinus Society Discussion Series

The Aquinus Society will meet this evening at 7:30 in the lounge of Aquinas Hall. The theme of the forum will be "Aquinas Society Discussion Series." The series of lectures will be taken by chemistry students at all levels of instruction in addition to these classes. The forum will be held in the forum by Dr. Kleinberg and will be followed by a question period at the end of each lecture.

Legislative Lethargy

National legislation is indeed a topic of prime importance and necessity. A nation as great as ours needs legislation and legislators of a high caliper. In addition to this, a spirit of prompt action must prevail. Resolves concerning important legislation must be decreed.

A notable instance of such inactivity is the indecision of the Catholic, anti-Naplan king Over­

What is the lack of initiative in our national legislation? Is it to be chalked up to lack of leadership in the respective state capitals? Is it the lack of the right kind of leadership? Is it due to the fact that we are not aware of the importance of such legislation? Is it due to the fact that we are not informed about the implications of such legislation? Is it due to the fact that we are too busy with our daily affairs? Is it due to the fact that we are too occupied with other matters?

Spiritual Assistance

Life at its best with its trials and tribulations is not an easy proposition. The path through life is not smooth and easy. There are ups and downs, and we need to have a strong faith in order to overcome these difficulties.

Solutions are needed NOW. By soluting the problems, we can prevent further deterioration of the situation. Solutions can be found by analyzing the situation and identifying the root cause of the problem. Once the root cause is identified, solutions can be developed.

It is important to note that solutions are not always easy to find. They require a lot of effort and resources. However, it is important to keep trying and never give up until a solution is found.

Round and About

Nebulous Notions

By PAUL F. CRANE

Here are a few questions in the area of jazz:

- How many jazz clubs does Providence College have?
- How do these clubs compare to the clubs at other universities?
- What is the typical attendance at these clubs?
- What kind of impact does the presence of these clubs have on the student body?
- How do these clubs promote the understanding of jazz among students?

In Defense of This Thing Called Jazz

BY JOHN ENCCELL

There have been a few articles and an illustration published in this newspaper, written not as a formal study of jazz but as more or less an informal commentary on the way and why of jazz might result from the series. A difficulty arises when treating a subject with the proportions of jazz because there are so many traditions and schools of thought, and it is hard to do justice to all of them. My presentation of the various forms of jazz and artists was intended to be only a preliminary outline.

It would be of no use to attempt to compare one form with another at any rate valid conclusion. Also, any enumeration of musical structures, well-known jazz forms, and so forth, would lead to confusion and deviate from the primary purpose of the series—to give information.

There will be no more formal articles on jazz as such. However, it is my desire that any persons who might have an inquiry about anything connected with jazz and additional information on the Cowl. It is preferable that any questions avoid issues that would in­ roll on the ground and in the world—

hence the letter.

The Real Thing

School spirit is an intangible thing, but one that is necessary in a well-balanced college. Home game Thursday, Thursday night possessed a strong affection for his school, for he is not willing to do his best for Ana, Mater, and hard work. The proportion between those that indude in word arduously (for a worse­ worth of sacrifice) and the number of those that (in a good cause) contribute in proportion to the district required to be done and to the extent of the work.

It is also praiseworthy to note that when the cards are down P.C. comes through in his role as the real important fight, the fight in life.

The most burning question on the international scene today is that which concerns the peace or war of Israel. Secretary Dulles has stated for the United Nations the fact that his attempt to persuade Israel to withdraw from the Gaza and Sinai Strip area was a failure and he was advised against the voting of sanctions. He felt that through this step might possibly help to achieve a peace solution; it might, on the other hand, drive Israel into a corner.

Israel wants the assurance of the United Nations and the West that the Egyptian blockade of the Gulf of Aqaba and other belligerent acts will cease. This is not likely to be obtained in the immediate future. It will take a long time to reach a settlement.

At least it is a start in the right direction, and shows the world the willings to discuss anything it will help to cause the peace.
In Passing

In the course of our brief stay here, we have always been struck by the six large portraits of angels in the reading room the library. Last week, we took our notebook in hand and ventured forth to learn what we could about their age and history. So far we have arrived at the conclusion that no one is really certain of their history prior to the First World War. When the charity for the college was granted, the Dominicans community throughout the world asking for any contributions were in the form of "objects d'art" and all of them were sent to one place, presumably the motherhouse in Rome. When all the gifts were assembled, the collection was catalogued and shipped to the United States. The catalog was sent on a separate ship which unfortunately was a victim of a hurricane warfar so the art collection was received without any identification of the various pieces.

The pictures in point are in frames that look antique. As a matter of fact, we expect they will someday break the silence of their home by falling apart of their accord. The artist's signature on each is "Gall". "Can anyone identify the gentlemen?"

We cannot content ourselves to let the matter rest, and will report to you the results of further inquiry.

(AFP) — Several "false" rumors that the school would move to Emporia, Kansas, because of a water shortage at the site of their present location is actually "antique. A neutral campus newspaper is a powerful labor for training report writers. An assembly newspaper has a noble tradition of championing the cause of good government and public interest. The history of American journalism is filled with the stories of brave publishers who have dared to take sides and be discovered by some man who has brought honor to journalism.

"But college officials labeled as "saints". At one time, when Father de Marchi, author of the book, "IT'S TOASTED" TO TASTE BETTER, a Carmelite nun in a convent in France, didn't feel a certain pride at being the father of such a diehard, he replied: "Our Lady promised in the apparition that she would offend powerful persons, the dean would take the rap."

The board's main duty is to protect the newspaper from censorship and to ensure that the paper's work in a single sentence: "We are all the editors of the "OLD BRUIN" and numerous other colleges' news- papers have had a lucky strike.

Also, if something does take place on campus which is pertinent and explosive, it will be handled neutrally by the newspaper's editor and numerous other colleges' news- papers have had a lucky strike.

Magnification of relatively unimportant events to the point of over- shadowing events of greater significance can only be combated by editing carefully. We could call the "Relative Standard of Importance". Also, if something does take place on campus which is pertinent and explosive, it will be handled neutrally by the newspaper's editor and numerous other colleges' news- papers have had a lucky strike.

The meaning of any newspaper is clear when it must take a back seat to the paper's work in a single sentence: "We are all the editors of the "OLD BRUIN" and numerous other colleges' news- papers have had a lucky strike.

What's An Editor's Job?

We wonder what the great Emporia editor, who was seldom neutral about important issues, would say, if the dean of this college told him to take sides. The lighting of the Alumni Hall will be turned on for the second meeting of the season between the Boston College Eagles and the Friars. The two squads met previously, February 2 on the neutral floor of the Brown University Frosh, Behind Di Masi for the men's 18 tallies. Joe Barile was the top scorer for the Friars while high scoring Mike Roach was the second leading scorer. The two clashes have come together 6 times, each team winning one game and tying 3.

In the Norwich contest the Friars could not get untracked until the third period, as five penalties allowed the Norwich defense to build up a 3-0 lead. Friars Top Fairfield; Bow To Cross

Pascale's 3 Leads Scored 27 of 30

With a strong second half emerged by Mike Pascale's 31 points, the Friars basketball team overpowered their winning ways with a 71-63 victory over the Crusaders.

Providence jumped to a quick 8 margin, but the Conn. club rallied and soon led 11-10. The lead switched back and forth before the half, but before Pete Schweinert tied the score with three point play. The Friars built up a 10 point advantage during the second quarter and went off a brief Fairfield rally to insure victory.

Postal Rifle Meets

From the squad proved to be a worth-while move. Every hand was needed to fill John's shoes. How about a real send off this Saturday night for Ritch away games Ritch has been a story in himself. Few people realize the difficulty is not blessed with all the abilities other fine ballplayers possess. The advantage is the other one. In the long run, Coach Eccleston's decision to cut no one is the other way. Ritch was purchased from the Red Sox in the '30s. Topping and Webb may have been the quickened his pace in the first 100 yards and finished strongly in second place. The point result and high jump were two such events in which Bates took every place unopposed.

The outstanding point contributors of the Friars were once again Ed Aron, Bill Holan, and Don Fasy. Aron broke his own cage record in the shot put with a weight of 56 ft. 6 in., for first place. To this he added a first in the discus throw. Fasy toppled in victory in the mile run with a clocking of 10 minutes 33 seconds. Bill took the lead from that start and increased it with each succeeding circuit of the ten and one half laps of the mile track. Teammate Dennis Carey finished second in the mile. Don Fasy spot to victory in the 45 yard high hurdles for the Friar's third first place.

As the mile run, Gerry Cerrado finished strongly in second place and seemed that he had allowed the leader to assume too great a lead, for he quickened his pace in the last stretch. The leader simply ran out of race before he could overtake the leader. He also finished second in the 300 yard run.

Jim Baker ran a good 600, but the boys from Bates were scampering in this race and he had to be content with a third place behind the two leaders. Jim had the winning time of 1:14.6. Tom Costello took third in the 200, but the winner Rudy Smith of Bates smashed the record in taking this event. Smith won with a winning time of 22.6. He was the man who turned in the good 600 time, but he didn't stop here, as he won the 40 yard dash too.

For Providence it was the same old story, often repeated not enough men, superficially fielded men. In several events the Friars came one to enter, and thus had to give away all the points. The point result and high jump were two such events in which Bates took every place unopposed.

Don Fasy spot to victory in the 45 yard high hurdles for the Friar's third first place.

As the mile run, Gerry Cerrado finished strongly in second place and seemed that he had allowed the leader to assume too great a lead, for he quickened his pace in the last stretch. The leader simply ran out of race before he could overtake the leader. He also finished second in the 300 yard run.

Jim Baker ran a good 600, but the boys from Bates were scampering in this race and he had to be content with a third place behind the two leaders. Jim had the winning time of 1:14.6. Tom Costello took third in the 200, but the winner Rudy Smith of Bates smashed the record in taking this event. Smith won with a winning time of 22.6. He was the man who turned in the good 600 time, but he didn't stop here, as he won the 40 yard dash too.

The outstanding point contributors of the Friars were once again Ed Aron, Bill Holan, and Don Fasy. Aron broke his own cage record in the shot put with a weight of 56 ft. 6 in., for first place. To this he added a first in the discus throw. Fasy toppled in victory in the mile run with a clocking of 10 minutes 33 seconds. Bill took the lead from that start and increased it with each succeeding circuit of the ten and one half laps of the mile track. Teammate Dennis Carey finished second in the mile. Permanently Dead
Stop wondering if Winnie Winkle's husband will ever return. Martin M. (Mike) Branner, creator of Winnie Winkle, told students during a recent visit at University of Kansas, Lawrence, that the man is permanently dead.

"I killed him once and I had to bring him back," the cartoonist said, according to the DAILY KANSAN. "I submitted to public pressure, but I'll never do it again. I didn't want her to get married in the first place, and I wouldn't have done it if I hadn't had permission from the syndicate to kill him on the following Friday."

Can Snow Job Supplement Income?

(ACP) — Can students supplement their income by shoveling campus snow? Not at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, decided scholarship and self-help officials.

"Major problem would be organizing the crews, especially if the snow should fall late at night," reported the BROWN AND WHITE. Getting 11 students out of bed at 5 a.m. or asking them to stay on campus for a weekend to shovel would be difficult, too, think the officials. They add that more steady, lucrative jobs are available.

Union City, N. J.—"The Eisenhower Doctrine is exactly what is needed" to halt the Communist advance into the Middle East, Rev. Ralph Gorman, C.P., editor of The Sign, national Catholic magazine, declared in a signed editorial in the magazine's March issue published here today.

Father Gorman points out, "It is perfectly stupid to tell the Reds, as we have so often the past, that we will do everything to oppose them — short of war. That's all we go ahead they need."

The Eisenhower Doctrine, according to Father Gorman, "states clearly and firmly that U. S. military forces will meet any Red aggression in the Middle East. It puts the Reds on notice that they are not to take advantage of winning British and French power by moving in. If they try to do so, they will find that the 'vacuum' has been filled by American military might."

The editorial also points out that the President gave the Kremlin "another jolt in his recent budget message when he referred to atomic support commands that are being established as part of our defense effort."

"This remark made the Reds hopping mad," says Father Gorman. "President didn't spell it out for them, but they knew what he meant. The President didn't spell it out for them, but they knew what he meant. The President didn't spell it out for them, but they knew what he meant. The President didn't spell it out for them, but they knew what he meant."

The Red Four Prom . . .

is now nine weeks remaining before the Prom date. A payment of two dollars per week for six weeks would be the easiest way possible to pay, enabling the student to raise a minimum of three weeks. Another possibility would be to pay one dollar a week for a half of eight of the nine weeks. Payments towards the twelve dollars may be made on each Thursday for their turn at the paddle. But when it comes to organizing the operation, most of the students stay away. Those who have applied for the ping pong tourney should talk the situation up with their netted friends.

The boxing and general conditioning course is in full swing. Because the intramural field at the college.

Although this power is not in evidence any more than it was five years ago at the college, we think.

Junior Education vs. Senior Education. Anyone who wants to join in the fun, can join in the fun, can join in the fun, can join in the fun, can join in the fun.

There is still a movement on to get a table tennis tournament going. Every day Alumni Hall finds a sizeable group of men waiting in line for their turn at the paddle. But when it comes to organizing the operation, most of these students shy away. Those who have applied for the ping pong tourney should talk the situation up with their netted friends.
