Father Slavin Attending General
Chapter Meeting Of Dominicans

Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., President of Providence College, is currently attending a General Chapter meeting of the Dominican Order being held at Calegariensis Press.

Father Slavin is serving as a delegate from the Province of St. Joseph, thereby representing the entire eastern half of the Dominican provinces. The purpose of the meeting, held every three years, is to review legislation for the entire order, discuss the programs of studies for novices and seminarians. The economic situation of the Order and examine the status of the communities which belong to the Order. The delegates will also study matters pertaining to the Dominican missions throughout the world and consider questions relating to the constitution of the Order as well as liturgical questions.

33 Delegates Attending
There will be a total of 33 delegates in attendance representing every nation except those behind the Iron Curtain. Latin will be spoken at the meetings as the common language.

During the President's absence from the College, the Rev. Charles V. Fennell, O.P., vice-president, will handle administrative affairs and the Rev. Very Rev. Vincent C. Dore, O.P., academic affairs. Father Slavin was undecided on when he would return to this country, the extent of his participation depending on the length of the Chapter.

Father McKenna Elected
House Of Studies Prior

The Very Reverend Charles H. McKenna, O.P., Assistant to the President of Providence College, has been elected Prior of the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, D. C., and will take over his new duties immediately.

Father McKenna returned to Providence College this summer after completing a three-year term as Prior of St. Stephen's Priory, the Dominican House of Philosophy in Dover, Mass.

The House of Studies in Washington is a papal institution of theology and is the largest Dominican community in the United States. It is also the center for many important cultural projects conducted by the Dominican Order and is the home of "The Thomist," a theological journal.

Native of Pawtucket
Father McKenna is a native of Pawtucket, R. I. He was graduated from Providence College in 1926 and ordained a Dominican priest in 1931. Father McKenna has served in the Pawtucket schools and as assistant in a parish in Babylon, Long Island, is now the second most productive of the United States. The purpose of this fact is the responsibility of keeping track of his absences. Father McKenna returning to his alma mater is Bene Fortin, who was graduated seven years ago from Providence in 1959. Mr. Fortin will be a member of the Benedictine Order.

William J. Murphy returns to the Business Department as that field Professor after a one-year leave of absence for the purpose of studying the educational needs of the State of Massachusetts.

Mr. Joseph McLaughlin has just returned to Providence College as an instructor. He has served in the Pawtucket school system for a number of years and taken a year leave of absence from that post.

Mr. Robert A. Morris, OP, the Rev. Thomas H. McBrien, O.P. the Rev. John P. Reid, O.P. will handle administrative positions of the staff are Assistant Professor of French from 1948 to the present.

Associate Posts Filled

Rev. John P. Reid, O.P., moderator, has returned to the College last week that announced the work that has begun in the preparation of the Providence College yearbook.

Father Reid disclosed that the work is under the supervision of Bishop George W. F. Reynolds, the President of Providence College, and has been a member of the staff since 1948.

A guest has been presented at thePyramid Players, the Aquinas Society, the Art Department, the members of Delta Epsilon Sigma.

Assisting Bishop will be two associate editors, Leonard Clingham, O.P., in charge of copy, and John Brennan, in charge of the layout of the book.

Clingham Chances Bananas
Clingham is majoring in political science and in Providence, he enjoys membership in the Aquinas Society, the Art Club and the St. Thomas More Club. In his new position, Clingham said that he hopes to have the opportunity to serve on the Pyramid Players, the Aquinas Society, the Art Department and the members of Delta Epsilon Sigma.

A Saturday night at the Providence College yearbook, which is the last year. It has been announced that the new regulations make attendance at each class obligatory.

Each student is allowed a number of absences in each class equal to the number of class hours per week in the course. After each absence a slip from the office of the Dean of Discipline is necessary before a student may return to class.

When a student exhausts the number of absences allowed, the professor notifies the Dean of Discipline, who in turn notifies the student of this fact. If the student is again absent he is of officially warned by Father Jurgelaitis that one more absence may result in loss of credit for that course.

Father Jurgelaitis emphasized last week that the responsibility for keeping track of his absences rests upon the student. He pointed out that Russian is now the second most productive language in the world.

To language: Doctor Gora Professor

Fundamental, Russian, added only this year to the Language Department is the current curriculum for Providence College.

Aimed at producing a professional interpreter, the Russian language course, at present entirely in the hands of Dr. Evinia R. Gora, includes two hours of lecture plus one hour of lab work.

Dr. Gora, Physics Department and now Russian literature professor, and several Russian publications lend themselves importantly to a variety of evaluating the educational needs of the State of Massachusetts.

He pointed out that Russian is now the second most productive language in the world.

"To graduate students," Dr. Gora stated, "especially in science work, the ability to read Russian is important because the Social Science and English class books are in Russian. So that the students cannot get the news right away.

Gora added that presently these linguistic realities are now almost universally recognized in the U.S. and worldwide collegiate circles.

Faculty Changes Announced:
Father Murphy Dean Of Men

Healing the list of faculty changes for the academic year 1959-60 is Father Murphy, O.P., who has assumed the duties as Dean of Men, replacing Rev. Martin J. Jordan, O.P. Father Murphy, head of Providence College will hold its annual service commemorating Rosary Sunday on October 8. Besides being a "one day event," the ceremony will initiate daily October devotions, consisting of morning Mass and evening rosary recitation and Benediction, which will be held in the College's War Memorial Grotto. The public is welcomed at these services.

In addition to a sermon by Rev. Thomas H. McBrien, O.P., services include rosary recitation, singing, and the blessing of rosaries, the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary, hymns sung by the P. C. Glen Club, a prayer to St. Joseph, and solemn Benediction.

Father Murphy joined the Blessed Sacrament by Dennis K. Cane. Rosary recitation will be led by Rev. Robert A. Morris, O.P. The Reverend Fathers McCormack, O.P., and Murphy will officiate at Benediction.

Very Rev. James M. Murphy, O.P., the Sociology Department, was a freshman prefect last year. Providence College faculty have been announced by the Very Rev. Vincent C. Dore, O.P., Dean of the Faculty.

The Rev. Dominic L. Ross, O.P., returns to the Language Department where he was Professor from French from 1931 to 1955.

New Attendance Rules Take Effect

A new rule governing the attendance of students at class announced to the class assemblies by Rev. Anthony A. Jurgelaitis, O.P., Dean of Discipline.

The new system of allowing three cuts for each subject has been abolished. The new regulations make attendance at each class obligatory.

Each student is allowed a number of absences in each class equal to the number of class hours per week in the course. After each absence a slip is sent from the office of the Dean of Discipline is necessary before a student may return to class.

When a student exhausts the number of absences allowed, the professor notifies the Dean of Discipline, who in turn notifies the student of this fact. If the student is again absent he is officially warned by Father Jurgelaitis that one more absence may result in loss of credit for that course.

Father Jurgelaitis emphasized last week that the responsibility for keeping track of his absences rests upon the student. He noted that the new regulations make attendance at each class obligatory.

Each student is allowed a number of absences in each class equal to the number of class hours per week in the course. After each absence a slip is sent from the office of the Dean of Discipline is necessary before a student may return to class.

When a student exhausts the number of absences allowed, the professor notifies the Dean of Discipline, who in turn notifies the student of this fact. If the student is again absent he is officially warned by Father Jurgelaitis that one more absence may result in loss of credit for that course.

Father Jurgelaitis emphasized last week that the responsibility for keeping track of his absences rests upon the student. He pointed out that Russian is now the second most productive language in the world.

"To graduate students," Dr. Gora stated, "especially in science work, the ability to read Russian is important because the Social Science and English class books are in Russian. So that the students cannot get the news right away.

Gora added that presently these linguistic realities are now almost universally recognized in the U.S. and worldwide collegiate circles.
The Dean Speaks

By Joseph L. Lennon, O.P., Dean

START OF COLLEGE LIFE

It would be a mistake to look upon the first few weeks of college as being merely a continuation of high school. If you do, you will be in for a rude awakening. Providence College and high school are worlds apart. You will have to face the fact that you are no longer just a student but a budding adult. Be prepared for this change. Be ready to make the transition from the life you have known to a new and different one. Here are a few tips to help you make the transition:

1. Get to know your new environment. Take some time to explore the campus, get to know the buildings, and familiarize yourself with the rules and regulations.

2. Join some organizations. There are many clubs and organizations on campus that can help you get involved and meet new people.

3. Take care of your health. Make sure you eat well, exercise regularly, and get enough sleep. Taking care of your health is important for success in college.

4. Be open to new experiences. College is a time to try new things and explore your interests. Don't be afraid to step out of your comfort zone.

5. Stay connected. Stay in touch with your family and friends back home. They will miss you and want to hear about your college life.

Remember, college is a time of growth and change. Be open to new experiences and new beginnings.
Barton New WDOM Manager

Improv ed Time Table

Buell Barton, 39, has taken over the management of WDOM, it was announced yesterday. James Sheahan, 39, relinquished the position of manager, which will remain at present until a replacement is found. Ms. Sheahan, a Warwick resident, is a senior sociology major.

WDOM inaugurated its 1958-59 broadcasting year Monday. The schedule, which overhauls WDOM's schedule in the past years was the lack of programming for the campus. So far, the result of weak transmitter power is heard on only a few units. However, station officials expect this year a signal that will score at least a response at most points on campus.

In view of this, so that the station might assure its listeners of efficiently in all respects of WDOM college radio, the new schedule announced the following appointments: business manager, Mr. George Brown; sales manager, Paul A. Dunphy; field director, Mr. John Palinski; and Stephen Kane, publicity, Wiliam Kovacs; sports director, Gus Scannapieco; and usual features editor, Richard Gus Scannapieco; program director, George Brown; executive sales manager, William Kovacs; and sports director, Richard Gus Scannapieco.

Record Review

Sir Thomas Beecham Leads Sir Thomas Beecham Leads

Philharmonic In 'Manfred'

It was a no less than the brilliant conductor, F. R. Bartoldi who designed the lady we all know and love as the ‘Prime Minister’s daughter.’ The word the nightclubs, the French again took to discovering the lovely champagne, Hibbert, who according to popular

Letter to the Editor

Men—An Understatement?

When a person reaches the conclusion that, in the language of the novelist, he is ‘undoubtedly is able to read and to follow directions correctly,’ if that person is a member of the special events department will be recognized that the ‘Student Speaks’ on which students appear, either tape recordings or live Broadcasting, will be done on the air.

The special events department will run a program twice weekly about its. It will be conducted by a specific faculty member.

Sports Scheduled

There are a number of other sports programs scheduled as well as plans to broadcast some ‘away’ games during the basketball season.

Beecham led the Philharmonic Orchestra, B. B. C. back to the days when he was a mere boy in his mind. But now, fallen from the ‘cool’ school as well as the ‘serious’ one, he is of little consequence, when he was no longer a mere boy, but rather a man, with little sensitivity or polish. His thoughts consequently, are meandering and faulty. Beecham’s conducting is an unpleasant experience, but the user can perform these actions anyway.

Providence College is evident that this realization is not cognizant to some of the faculty members. To embellish my theory I will use as an example the lecture given by a faculty member upon the return of each class in September.

Granted, it’s good to hear from this personage and his hints concerning the activities of his “children.” But to sit (on stand) for ever an hour listening to this priest review every rule and regulation directed at the resident student in the ‘cool’ school as well as the ‘serious’ one, is meandering and faulty. Beecham’s conducting is an unpleasant experience, but the user can perform these actions anyway.

The rules in this book are stated with extreme clarity, simply normal collegian would be able to interpret, to understand and to abide by. Why then are we forced (required) to attend these lectures? An evening drawn-out session of explanation?

Another shining light reflecting upon seemingly wasted time was illustrated at the compositional assembly on Tuesday, September 26. This student will have a chance of music from the “cool” school as well as the “serious” one. He will swing things performed by many of the leading exponents of the ‘cool’ school as well as the “serious” one.

Each broadcasting day will be concluded with a feature on the musical scene. A fifteen-minute transcription featuring religious hymns and sermons by noted theologians.

RACHMANINOFF: PIANO CONCERTO No. 2

When an orchestra like the Philadelphia Orchestra, B. C. Chorus and recitatives has turned out a performance with little sensitivity or polish, it is of little consequence, when he was no longer a mere boy, but rather a man, with little sensitivity or polish. His thoughts consequently, are meandering and faulty. Beecham’s conducting is an unpleasant experience, but the user can perform these actions anyway.

Eugene Istomin, a pianist of note, appeared as a soloist in the RACHMANINOFF: PIANO CONCERTO No. 2. At the first movement, which has proved the capabilities of so many pianists, was perfectly timed and executed.

Undoubtedly, the high point in the recital was the second movement where the delicate interplay between the piano and the orchestra, the modern school played the old fashioned, traditional music that the “serious” school has gone overboard in.

The third movement is typically Rachmanninoff: alternately brilliant and passionate. A dash of the “marzil” theme is followed by a romantic episode of lyric beauty. The tempo quickens to a breathtaking climax that interlaces with passion, love and longing. This is Rachmanninoff at his best.

Film Review

Oui—Oui—B.B. Est Joli!

By Frank Russo

It was an excellent performance by sculptor F. R. Bartoldi who designed the lady we all know and love as the ‘Prime Minister’s daughter.’ The word the nightclubs, the French again took to discovering the lovely champagne, Hibbert, who according to popular

Alaska Statehood Door To Fame For 58th Congress

By John J. Hurley

If the 85th session of Congress were to list its chief reason for fame in any future history book, there wouldn’t be many doubt but that it would name the 49th state of America, the Alaskan Statehood bill.

After knocking on the door of the Union for over twenty-four years, finally on June 20, 1958, the Senate voted to admit it by a bipartisan vote of 64-20. Earlier the House of Representatives had given its approval by a similarly bipartisan 208-166 vote. A few days later the President signed the bill, and a few hours later the last remaining inhabitants of the territory overwhelmingly voted to accept the conditions for entrance into the Union of America as the 49th state.

It had always seemed to the Americans quite strange that this “Giant of the North” was not sooner admitted. Consisting of over half a million square miles, an area equal to the size of Texas. Although its population was fairly small, nevertheless it contained more people than other states which had been accepted into the Union. It boasted of vast fishing, mining, lumbering and coal.

However, there was a strong opposition from those Southern lawmakers who saw its representatives as proponents of civil rights legislation. A very powerful force on the West Coast which feared economic setbacks which might result from a conferal on Alaska to the ‘cool’ school as well as the “serious” one.

And, of course, the map-makers and flag-makers, got a tremendous boost.
Self-Discipline Necessary For College Success: Dean

"The G-factor, the goof-off factor, is one of the major problems of college freshmen," said Rev. J. J. Lennon, O.P., at the welcoming tea conducted for the mothers of the freshman class in Harkins Hall last Sunday afternoon.

Father Lennon pointed out that 40% of American college students are freshmen and that a large number of these will never graduate. Although personal problems do take a considerable toll, the major cause for failure is still flunking.

To adjust to the intellectual independence of the College is a very real problem for the freshman. He must learn to make the proper time allowances for his studies. "The question is one of proportion... It is a problem of discipline, of self-discipline," the Dean continued. "As a student matures, external discipline is replaced by self-discipline."

"The soul and spirit of Providence College lies in the Catholic Faith," said Father Lennon, "the study of theology in the classroom is complemented by the religious life on the campus." He went on to laud the cooperation that typifies the extra-curricular activities of the College.

"And," said he in conclusion, "your task here at the College is to see that the potentialities of the student are developed to the highest degree. This includes all the students."

Bp. McVinney Opens Academic Year With Mass Of Holy Ghost

Providence College's annual Mass of the Holy Ghost, the official opening of the academic year, was celebrated by His Excellency, Most Reverend Russ- nel J. McVinney, Bishop of Providence, in Alumni Hall on Monday, September 22. Rev. Daniel Riley, the Bishop's secretary, and Rev. James M. Murphy, O.P., Dean of Men, assisted the Bishop at the ceremony.

"The G-factor, the goof-off factor, is one of the major problems of college freshmen," said Rev. J. J. Lennon, O.P., at the welcoming tea conducted for the mothers of the freshman class in Harkins Hall last Sunday afternoon.

Father Lennon pointed out that 40% of American college students are freshmen and that a large number of these will never graduate. Although personal problems do take a considerable toll, the major cause for failure is still flunking.

To adjust to the intellectual independence of the College is a very real problem for the freshman. He must learn to make the proper time allowances for his studies. "The question is one of proportion... It is a problem of discipline, of self-discipline," the Dean continued. "As a student matures, external discipline is replaced by self-discipline."

"The soul and spirit of Providence College lies in the Catholic Faith," said Father Lennon, "the study of theology in the classroom is complemented by the religious life on the campus." He went on to laud the cooperation that typifies the extra-curricular activities of the College.

"And," said he in conclusion, "your task here at the College is to see that the potentialities of the student are developed to the highest degree. This includes all the students."

Work By Dominican, Haas, On Exhibition In Rotunda

An exhibit of paintings by the Rev. William A. Haas, O.P., is now on display in the Rotunda of Harkins Hall. The Art Club, under the direction of Rev. Edward F. Hunt, O.P., is presenting the exhibit as the first of its art displays for this academic year.

Father Haas, of St. Stephen Priory in Dover, Mass., kindly agreed to allow the club to display his paintings in the Rotunda for the two weeks.

Variety of Styles

The paintings represent a variety of styles, some realistic, others decidedly modern. Particularly interesting are the paired sets, one realistic, the other cubistic, entitled "Christ Mocked" No. 1 and No. 2, "Frustration" No. 1 and No. 2, and "Tea, Wine, and Apples" No. 1 and No. 2. The subjects of these paintings are the same, but show two separate treatments. The work reveals that Father Haas' works are between the Traditionalists and the Modernists.

The display of art objects in room 208 is also under the supervision of the Art Department and represents a collection of Medieval works on loan from the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. Father Hunt has requested that students viewing this exhibit comply with the rules posted at the entrance to the room.

Aquinas Society Meets Tonight For Elections

Rev. John P. Reid, O.P., moderator of the Aquinas Society, has announced the opening of the 1958-59 season. The first meeting will be held at 7:15 p.m. on Wednesday evening, in the lounge of Aquinas Hall. Father Reid emphasized that this first meeting will be also organizational. For the first time in its short three-year history, the society will consist of a regular membership with elected officers.

A PURE WHITE MODERN FILTER IS ONLY THE BEGINNING OF A WINSTON

It's what's up front that counts

Winston puts its FILTER-BLEND up front...fine, flavorful tobaccos, specially processed for filter smoking

WINSTON TASTES GOOD LIKE A CIGARETTE SHOULD!
The Dean Speaks

(Continued from Page 2)

...the old gentleman is far from idle... But I digress. Let us resume our tour. At the end of The Mall, on the right, is called The Library. Here books are kept. By "kept" I mean "kept." There is no way in the world for you to get a book out of the library... No, I'm not speaking figuratively, I mean literally. All with these essentials out of the way, let us pause and join hands, for the first time, a long, leisurely look at our campus... Once we undergraduates. Here we undiajraduatrs may enjoy a gay mad place, frankly dedicated to the fun and relaxation called "Algae."

For a complete tour of smoking pleasure try filtered Marlboro and non-filtered Philip Morris, whose makers say... "Tobacco and pleasure in bringing you this column throughout the school year.

Sophs Score Tardy Notice

Of Dance Date At Meeting

Charges that the sophomore class had been discourteously treated as a result of late notification of its dance date and that the class had been excluded from feminine enforce- ment activities were levelled by congressman Robert Oppel dur- ing the year's first Student Congress session, September 29. Oppel charged that only one sophomore had been appointed to the vigilante committee responsible for the enforcement of feminine regulations.

The short four-day advance notice given the class officers before scheduling of the sophomore dance for September 19 was also scolded. The class made no complaint about the date itself, but resented being ac- corded such a brief period of preparation, said the sophomore representative.

In this sense, the opposition of the students did not approve of the campus.

Boucher, Rev. Anthony A. Jurgesslaus, O. P., moderator of the legislative body, had taken the floor to support the sophomore- more contentions that any form of college hazing was tradition- ally delegated to sophomores. His statement met with vigor- ous opposition from many of the other class representatives present.

Peter Borstol, 60, denied that there was any precedent which gave sophomores special status in regard to freshman initiation.

When approached for comment after the session, the sophomore delegation indicated satisfaction with the action un- taken. "We never intended to raise quite so great a fuss, but nevertheless felt that any abridgments of our rights of our constituents should at least be pointed out."

Fliers Meet Today

The second meeting of the Providence College Flying Club, "Flying Fears," will be held this evening in room 313, Har- kins Hall, at 7 p.m. All Fresh- men and new members are welcomed at this meeting.

The club purchased a plane at the end of the last scholastic year and several of the students have already begun instructions leading to private pilot's licenses.

The club officers urge any- one interested in joining this club to do so early while flying weather is still good.

Freshman Week Scenes

Above: Freshman Orientation, in an attempt to familiarize the new students with campus procedure and facilities, has brought this group of college neophytes to the library where they are picking up their library cards. Below: Relaxation at the freshman picnic culminates the week's activities. The large freshman class has boosted the College enrollment to an all-time high of approximately 2,400.

5

THE COWL, OCTOBER 1, 1958

OCTOBER

en (o  finish  an assignment. You tory,  and in the last year has invented the tuna, the cuticle, fully  employed making cattaneta. (The other two make croquet thanks to Mr.  Mall,  one out of every  three  Americans is gain­ opposing  thumb. Before Mr.  Mall's  invention, the thumb  could sward  called  The  Mull.  The  Mull,  as we nil know, was named in world  for you to get a book out of the  library...  No, I'm are kept. By "kept" I mean "kept." There is no way in the hands and take, for the first time, a  long,  leisurely  look  at our getting married,  building  a cage for your raccoon. But now, of we undergraduates. Here we undiajraduatrs may enjoy a gay mad place, frankly dedicated to the fun and relaxation called  "Algae."

and housemothers are  called  "Hoxy-Moxy."  Students are wrong.  If you have a stack permit you can take out a book, Mall  we see a handsome edifice  called  The  Library.  Here books things you've had to do in the opening days of the school year-

(Continued  from  Page 2)

our tobacconist's and lay in a night's supply of  Marlboro  or and battlements of our beloved campus, let us hie ourselves to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the

but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew  toll  the Money Makes Yanks 7-5 Series Choice

By Pete Costigan

The 56 World Series only a few hours off, the biggest question in the minds of all Milwaukee baseball fans and indeed most baseball fans throughout the country is, "Can the Braves do it again?" The once peaceful city of Milwaukee has not yet forgotten the excitement of victory in last year's series and the fans as well as the players are anxious for another conquest of the "invincible" Yankees.

Braves Take Edge

In '57, the Braves took advantage of some sub-par defensive performances by the Yankees to capture the series. They also gained the dubious distinction of compiling the lowest team batting average of any team which ever won the October classic.

Brightest Spot

This leads to the brightest spot in the Braves' hopes for their second consecutive title, their abundance of good pitching. Within the last week, Carlton Willey, Warren Spahn, and Burdette were among the top eight National League hurlers in earned run averages.

With Burdette performing anywhere near to last year's level, with Spahn hurling as he can, and with Willey displaying his newfound talents, the Braves should be a force to be reckoned with. If they could manage to hit as well as they are expected to, then they should be able to win an impressive victory, possibly in five or six games.

Coatesmen Set

For Opener

At Point

Over hill and ROYCT field, over campus and sandpit, the cross-country team has been diligently preparing for Friday's meet with the United States Military Academy in West Point. Coach Harry Coates had most of the team coming to even before school opened. Hence, many good performances have already been turned in by veteran tracksters Pat Stewart, Charlie Goetz, Bob Ramberger, Bob Engerer, Harry Gederman, Bill Horridge, Art Hewes, Tom Magill and Dennis Carey. Besides the good performances turned in by other sophomores hoping to gain equal billing were Jacobo and Barry Dougherty who looked good for the frosh.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The first annual Providence College Tennis Tournament starts today on the courts behind Alumni Hall. Since there are 51 entrants, it promises to be a very interesting tournament. Players are urged to report immediately after being assigned court promptly, and they are reminded that the winner will be determined by the winner of two out of three sets.

By Gerry Murphy

"The Yankees win it again," is the way the cards are stacked from this side of the table. Casey Stengel's charges have not forgotten the defeat suffered at the hands of the ever-dangerous Milwaukee Braves in the '57 fall classic and will be out to regain the title which they have long cherished as "World Champions."

It was an injury-riddled New York array that carried last year's series to the seven game limit before bowing out, and chances are, with a healthy Mickey Mantle and Bill Skowron back in the lineup, it will be a different story when the Yanks take the field in County Stadium this afternoon.

Big Question

The big question in the minds of all concerned is just how long the Yankee pitching staff can hold up. Mound supremacy was the deciding factors last October as the likes of Warren Spahn and ex-Yankee Lou Burdette combined to raise all sorts of havoc in the Yankee camp. Many experts feel that Burdette will be unable to equal his preceding performance of '57 and the likes of New York moundmen, Bob Turley, Ed "Whitey" Ford, Don Larsen, and reliever Ryne Duren will be capable of holding Milwaukee in check.

In summary, barring illnesses, the perennial Yankee power will reign supreme, and the coveted title will return to the "Home of Champions."

By Dale Faulkner

Repeats As Top Keystone

OF THIS 'N THAT:

It's getting to be an annual thing to note the softball exploits of Frankie Williams, who repeated last week as the nation's top second baseman.

Williams, who graduated from Providence in June of '57, has since become softball's most consistent batman, and this year he helped lead the Raybestos Cardinals of Stratford, Conn., to the world's championship in the American Softball Association's tournament in Minneapolis.

Last year the former Friar basketball player had been a star of the field for the "invincible" Yankees. But this year he found himself suddenly in the middle of the field for the Cardinals and had to adjust to the demand of having to throw the ball from both sides of the field. He went 14 for 16 hitting, got the hit in the Cardinals' first 19-game winning streak, and in the World Series had three hits in the four-game sweep of the Yanks.

Williams, who is now a student at the University of Wisconsin, has already gained the dubious distinction of being the top pitcher in the American Softball Association's tournament in Minneapolis.

Williams keeps up his torrid batting this season. In one double header, Williams went six for seven and, in topping the batting title in the North Atlantic Regional Tournament, Williams went 14 for 16.

It will be about two weeks before the ASA releases its official batting records of the recently ended Minneapolis tourney, but the ex-Smith Hillier has already retained his All World rating. Other members of the Raybestos champions who attained equal billing were Adam and Spring, whose pitching may top any former hurler in softball.

Spring, only 27, but a veteran of ten world tourneys and four championship years, put on a fantastic display as the Cards regained the crown they held a year ago. He pitched in all of the Cardinals' five games and won five. He hit two, 2/3 in innings, allowing six hits, six runs, earned runs, three shut outs in the three complete games he worked. He struck out 51, while passing only one. In the tourney's final, he pitched a perfect game and used only eight hits.

Williams plans to enter the field of public recreation one day in the Army hitch is complete. He was a sociology major at the College.

Do You Think for Yourself?

(This Test Will Tell You!)

Do you often dislike doing favors for others, even though you tell yourself you enjoy it?

Do you refuse to worry about things you can't do anything about?

Would you be completely at ease if you found yourself suddenly in the spotlight at a social gathering?

Would you vote for establishing an international language other than English?

Can you compete with another person without feeling hostile?

Do you ever say things you don't believe, just to start a discussion?

When you're very hungry, do you like to try out strange foods?

Do you enjoy being called upon as an umpire to settle disputes?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Familiar pack of crush-proof box.

ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

THE COWL, OCTOBER 1, 1958

VICEROY

Filter Tip Cigarettes

KING-SIZE

"If you have answered YES to 6 of the following questions... you are a person who thinks for himself!"

Do You Think for Yourself?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Familiar pack of crush-proof box.

ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

THE COWL, OCTOBER 1, 1958

VICEROY

Filter Tip Cigarettes

KING-SIZE

"If you have answered YES to 6 of the following questions... you are a person who thinks for himself!"

Do You Think for Yourself?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Familiar pack of crush-proof box.

ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

THE COWL, OCTOBER 1, 1958

VICEROY

Filter Tip Cigarettes

KING-SIZE

"If you have answered YES to 6 of the following questions... you are a person who thinks for himself!"

Do You Think for Yourself?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Familiar pack of crush-proof box.

ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

THE COWL, OCTOBER 1, 1958

VICEROY

Filter Tip Cigarettes

KING-SIZE

"If you have answered YES to 6 of the following questions... you are a person who thinks for himself!"

Do You Think for Yourself?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Familiar pack of crush-proof box.

ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

THE COWL, OCTOBER 1, 1958

VICEROY

Filter Tip Cigarettes

KING-SIZE

"If you have answered YES to 6 of the following questions... you are a person who thinks for himself!"

Do You Think for Yourself?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Familiar pack of crush-proof box.

ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

THE COWL, OCTOBER 1, 1958

VICEROY

Filter Tip Cigarettes

KING-SIZE

"If you have answered YES to 6 of the following questions... you are a person who thinks for himself!"

Do You Think for Yourself?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Familiar pack of crush-proof box.

ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

THE COWL, OCTOBER 1, 1958

VICEROY

Filter Tip Cigarettes

KING-SIZE

"If you have answered YES to 6 of the following questions... you are a person who thinks for himself!"

Do You Think for Yourself?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Familiar pack of crush-proof box.

ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

THE COWL, OCTOBER 1, 1958

VICEROY

Filter Tip Cigarettes

KING-SIZE

"If you have answered YES to 6 of the following questions... you are a person who thinks for himself!"

Do You Think for Yourself?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Familiar pack of crush-proof box.

ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

THE COWL, OCTOBER 1, 1958

VICEROY

Filter Tip Cigarettes

KING-SIZE

"If you have answered YES to 6 of the following questions... you are a person who thinks for himself!"

Do You Think for Yourself?

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Familiar pack of crush-proof box.

ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!