Congress Requests Holiday; Rejected by Administration

Providence College's Administration has recently rejected a Student Congress request for suspension of classes on Dec. 5, the day following the Providence College vs. St. John's University basketball game. However, further negotiations for the holiday were being considered as this paper went to press.

Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., President, expressed that the Administration could not grant this request.

"I am sure that the reasoning of the Committee was based on the fact that you are just returning from a long Thanksgiving holiday, and it would mean establishing another long weekend since classes are suspended on the holy day, Decernber 8." stated Father Slavin.

Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., President, remarked that "it justly deserves." The Bishop of the diocese generally requests during bis twelve years as Bishop of Brooklyn.

Boucher further observed in his letter that a large attendance would help spread the College's name and also give the basketball team "the backing it justly deserves."

The primary reason prompting this was "to insure a large attendance at the Providence College vs. St. John's University basketball game to be held in Madison Square Garden on December 4." stated Arthur Boucher, Congress president.

Boucher further observed in his letter that a large attendance would help spread the College's name and also give the basketball team "the backing it justly deserves."

Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., President of Providence College, will be presented an honorary degree of Doctor of Science by St. John's University on Nov. 6.

The Bishop of the diocese generally requests during his twelve years as Bishop of Brooklyn.

Boucher further observed in his letter that a large attendance would help spread the College's name and also give the basketball team "the backing it justly deserves."

The primary reason prompting this was "to insure a large attendance at the Providence College vs. St. John's University basketball game to be held in Madison Square Garden on December 4." stated Arthur Boucher, Congress president.

Boucher further observed in his letter that a large attendance would help spread the College's name and also give the basketball team "the backing it justly deserves."

Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., President of Providence College, will be presented an honorary degree of Doctor of Science by St. John's University on Nov. 6.

The degree will be presented in conjunction with the dedication of two buildings on the St. John's campus and will be presented by the Rev. Dr. Bryan M. McKeeve, Catholic Bishop of Brooklyn.

Others receiving honorary degrees will be Prof. Eugene Maximilian Gelling of St. John's. the Rev. Laurence A. McInerney, President of Fordham University. Brother Augustine, Vice-President of St. John's, and Dr. Silas A. Silver of the New York City Board of Education.

Dominic F. Musnile, chairman of the State Regents license committee and of the State Nurse Resource Committee.

Distinguished Military Student badges were presented by Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., President, to fourteen senior ROTC cadets before the assembled cadet brigade on Tuesday, Oct. 28.

This award is based on scholarship, high moral character, leadership in ROTC and other campus activities, and marked military aptitude.

In making the awards, Father Slavin congratulated the recipients on their achievements and noted that though the cadet brigade was smaller than in past years, reduced numbers for the present corps.

The construction of nuclear reactor devices designed to provide electric power is a visitor, walking through the vehicle, will learn about O.R. research, processing, and production of uranium. The structure of the atom and the process of fission are explained.

A push-button operated model of a nuclear power plant such as the one that powers the "Nauticus" is included. The animated nuclear reactor is accompanied by a recorded explanation of its operation.

There are panels explaining the role of radiation and a radiograph.

Other panels illustrate some of the hundreds of uses of radiation in the fields of medical research, industry, agriculture, and basic research.

This exhibit was produced for the A.E.C. by the Museum Division of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies.

Symbolic Crest Awarded Prize: Artist James Becker Captures First

A mobile "Atoms for Peace" exhibit produced by the Atomic Energy Commission will visit the campus Nov. 13 from 8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. according to Very Rev. Vincent C. Doyle, President of Providence College.

This free exhibit is one of five "Atoms for Peace" mobile units now touring the country under the sponsorship of the National Junior Chamber of Commerce with the cooperation of the National University Extension Association.

Visitors to the exhibit will obtain a comprehensive picture of the many ways in which the peaceful atom is playing a more and more important role in our everyday life. The exhibits, some of which are unique, are described by the spectator himself, explain research and development in the atomic energy field, ranging from the mining and refining of radioactive ores to the fabrication of nuclear reactor devices designed to provide electric power.

The shield was chosen from a total of eighty-eight entries in the contest sponsored by the blazer committee.

The design chosen consists of a silver triangle on a gold background, signifying honor. Diagonally across from the triangle and also on a gold background is a dog carrying a torch. This symbol is continued (Continued on Page 4).

Militia Day Tuesday

Armistice Day Wednesday

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE, PROVIDENCE, R.I. NOVEMBER 5, 1958 10 CENTS A COPY
Hurley Solves Drill Field Puzzle—Dirt Used in New Dorm
By John J. Hurley

At graduation time next year, the new dormitory of the College campus, running along Madison Avenue, will be the site of the College's annual assembly. The house is already demonstrated scholastic achievement, should be provided.

However, once each week in the year we have made the Dean's List for the previous semester. If marks are unaffected, as we suspect they will be, it should be a simple matter to allow only three unexcused cuts. For at least a little bit of intelligence is needed for all moral living. We believe that he would make prudential use of his liberty. The poor student and the untried freshman, on the other hand there is the exceptionally good student, who seldom misses class, and who gets excellent grades. On the other hand, there is the exceptionally good student, who seldom misses class, and who gets excellent grades. On the other hand, there is the exceptionally good student, who seldom misses class, and who gets excellent grades.

We believe that this system now in effect could be improved, to say the least. We understand the Administration's desire to protect the poor or imprisoned student, but we do not feel that the present system is the best.

In this regard, there are two elements to consider. First, there is the student who, if given his liberty concerning absences, would seriously handicap himself by overcutting. On the other hand there is the exceptionally good student, who seldom misses class, and who gets excellent grades.

We believe that this system now in effect could be improved, to say the least. We understand the Administration's desire to protect the poor or imprisoned student, but we do not feel that the present system is the best.

In this regard, there are two elements to consider. First, there is the student who, if given his liberty concerning absences, would seriously handicap himself by overcutting. On the other hand there is the exceptionally good student, who seldom misses class, and who gets excellent grades.

We believe that this system now in effect could be improved, to say the least. We understand the Administration's desire to protect the poor or imprisoned student, but we do not feel that the present system is the best.

In this regard, there are two elements to consider. First, there is the student who, if given his liberty concerning absences, would seriously handicap himself by overcutting. On the other hand there is the exceptionally good student, who seldom misses class, and who gets excellent grades.

We believe that this system now in effect could be improved, to say the least. We understand the Administration's desire to protect the poor or imprisoned student, but we do not feel that the present system is the best.

In this regard, there are two elements to consider. First, there is the student who, if given his liberty concerning absences, would seriously handicap himself by overcutting. On the other hand there is the exceptionally good student, who seldom misses class, and who gets excellent grades.

We believe that this system now in effect could be improved, to say the least. We understand the Administration's desire to protect the poor or imprisoned student, but we do not feel that the present system is the best.

In this regard, there are two elements to consider. First, there is the student who, if given his liberty concerning absences, would seriously handicap himself by overcutting. On the other hand there is the exceptionally good student, who seldom misses class, and who gets excellent grades.

We believe that this system now in effect could be improved, to say the least. We understand the Administration's desire to protect the poor or imprisoned student, but we do not feel that the present system is the best.

In this regard, there are two elements to consider. First, there is the student who, if given his liberty concerning absences, would seriously handicap himself by overcutting. On the other hand there is the exceptionally good student, who seldom misses class, and who gets excellent grades.
A Co-Education Opinion At P.C.

By AL TENN, '59

P.C. as a coeducational institution has been a rash of recordings of this,class, and for increased attendance. Also, the need of importing girls from foreign countries. If such an introduction is planned, I hope that it is initiated before my graduation.

KEVIN STURBS, '92

Definitely in P.C. there should have been co-ed considering long ago. Not only would it provide a lift to the individual morale, but there would be a definite spark in campus life. There would be a need for the importation of girls from foreign countries. If such an introduction is planned, I hope that it is initiated before my graduation.

Players Appointments

By Greg English

Players announced for slightly Delinquent were announced as follows:

Inquiring Reporter Polls

By Maurice Cagnon

The cooperation of the student body and the library is a member, the library but the students who have a right to those books are to be kept in mind that not the library but the students who want to accept. This picture is not a success. If you can ever come as close to it as possible, you must breathe the air of Siberia, never for one moment. A man needs to be sitting in a humpy, cramped seat of a hot movie house. So it is the act of Schell that one lives reality, not views it, because she too lives it, not acts it.

The Last Bridge

"The Last Bridge" is a magnificent object lesson of the story of the basic love and correspondence between their togetherness and unity even when apparently hate existed. In an ironic tale of war and disaster, Jeanne Moreau won the Cannes Film Festival Award for best actress as no surprise.

Beautiful and Proud

"The Proud and the Beautiful" is a film unusual first because it is a joint Franco-Mexican effort with the customary touches of the wolf, Lemming and women, just amazing. Not to be missed!!

Gift of Old Dominion Fund Adds To Library Shelves

By Greg English

The library uses an established budget to carry on its books and currently receives about 250 periodicals.

"Last year at this time only 60 per cent of those entitled to library cards had picked them up. This year, however, over 90 per cent have. There is a great increase in the actual circulation of books this year," stated Father Hogan.

Speaking about other problems, the librarians also stated, in an effort of daily use, that is essential to the regulation of the book to be there. The librarians stated that they would maintain silence especially when the books were brought. Also, in order to prevent the noise, worthless passes should be kept in mind that not the library but the students who have such access "would be in the picture for the future." The library has an established budget to carry on its books and currently receives about 250 periodicals.

Desert, but its musical score is possible, he must breathe the air of Siberia, never for one moment. A man needs to be sitting in a humpy, cramped seat of a hot movie house. So it is the act of Schell that one lives reality, not views it, because she too lives it, not acts it.

"The Last Bridge" is a magnificent object lesson of the story of the basic love and correspondence between their togetherness and unity even when apparently hate existed. In an ironic tale of war and disaster, Jeanne Moreau won the Cannes Film Festival Award for best actress as no surprise.

Beautiful and Proud

"The Proud and the Beautiful" is a film unusual first because it is a joint Franco-Mexican effort with the customary touches of the wolf, Lemming and women, just amazing. Not to be missed!!

Gift of Old Dominion Fund Adds To Library Shelves

By Greg English

The library uses an established budget to carry on its books and currently receives about 250 periodicals.

"Last year at this time only 60 per cent of those entitled to library cards had picked them up. This year, however, over 90 per cent have. There is a great increase in the actual circulation of books this year," stated Father Hogan.

Speaking about other problems, the librarians also stated, in an effort of daily use, that is essential to the regulation of the book to be there. The librarians stated that they would maintain silence especially when the books were brought. Also, in order to prevent the noise, worthless passes should be kept in mind that not the library but the students who have such access "would be in the picture for the future." The library has an established budget to carry on its books and currently receives about 250 periodicals.

Desert, but its musical score is possible, he must breathe the air of Siberia, never for one moment. A man needs to be sitting in a humpy, cramped seat of a hot movie house. So it is the act of Schell that one lives reality, not views it, because she too lives it, not acts it.

"The Last Bridge" is a magnificent object lesson of the story of the basic love and correspondence between their togetherness and unity even when apparently hate existed. In an ironic tale of war and disaster, Jeanne Moreau won the Cannes Film Festival Award for best actress as no surprise.

Beautiful and Proud

"The Proud and the Beautiful" is a film unusual first because it is a joint Franco-Mexican effort with the customary touches of the wolf, Lemming and women, just amazing. Not to be missed!!

Gift of Old Dominion Fund Adds To Library Shelves

By Greg English

The library uses an established budget to carry on its books and currently receives about 250 periodicals.

"Last year at this time only 60 per cent of those entitled to library cards had picked them up. This year, however, over 90 per cent have. There is a great increase in the actual circulation of books this year," stated Father Hogan.

Speaking about other problems, the librarians also stated, in an effort of daily use, that is essential to the regulation of the book to be there. The librarians stated that they would maintain silence especially when the books were brought. Also, in order to prevent the noise, worthless passes should be kept in mind that not the library but the students who have such access "would be in the picture for the future." The library has an established budget to carry on its books and currently receives about 250 periodicals.
\textbf{Campus News Briefs}

\textbf{Glee Club} The Glee Club and the ROTC Band will sponsor a dance at Harkins Auditorium on Friday, Nov. 7, at 8 p.m. Music will be provided by the college orchestra and Friars under the direction of John Turrieci.

\textbf{Friday Night Dance} A formal dance sponsored by the college will be expounded from the Friday night dance of Oct. 31 sponsored by the School. There were fifty members of the freshman class. Mr. Thomas T. Boucher provided a dance which was so fine that it has become the custom to have a dance on the first Friday night of each month. The dance was sponsored by the Sophomore Society and was the most popular of the month. The dance was so popular that it became the custom to have a dance on the first Friday night of each month.

\textbf{Workshop Drama} The workshop program was inaugurated this year to give each member of the organization an opportunity to study the various aspects of the theater including production and dramatic technique.

\textbf{Junior Prom} Les Elgart and his orchestra will appear at the Junior Prom as the result of the election held last night. Approximately 80 per cent of the junior class participated in the election. canned Bill McLaughlin on the piano and Bob Lehwitt, the co-chairman of the band committee.

\textbf{Aquinas Society} Following along its newly adopted schedule, there will be no meeting of the Aquinas Society this week. However, next Wednesday evening, Nov. 12, the Society will meet as usual in the Louke Auditorium in Harkins. Father Cunningham will lead a discussion of a first book in Aristotle's "Politics."

\textbf{Junior Placed: "Pygmalion"} Junior class members were informed of the progress made in date by the ring committee at a class meeting held Oct. 28.

\textbf{The Cowl} The workshop program and dramatic technique are of a Salesman"

\textbf{Partial Ring Choice} Junior class members were informed of the progress made in date by the ring committee at a class meeting held Oct. 28.

\textbf{President Thomas J. Grady} president of the College, and Jack Sears told the approximately ninety men present that thus far nothing conclusive has been decided. He added that this information will be released to the class as something definite is decided.

\textbf{Closed Retreats Begin} Fifty-three students have signed up for the first in a series of weekend retreats. The retreat was held on the weekends of January and February at Savio's Retreat House. Rev. Dennis C. Kane, O.P., was the Retreat Master.

\textbf{Elmhurst Men's Shop} 417 SMITH STREET

\textbf{SPORTSWEAR—JACKETS—SHOES—SLACKS}

\textbf{POLISHED CHINOS—VAN HEUSEN SHIRTS}

\textbf{TIES—UNDERWEAR RAINWEAR}

\textbf{Free Alterations} Open Thurs. & Fri. nites

\textbf{We CATER TO STUDENTS}

\textbf{ANYONE FOR FOOTBALL?} When Pancho Siggins, sophomores, pale and sensitive, first saw Willa Ludlow, freshman, little as a box and nosy as the dawn, he hemmed not; neither did he haw. "I adore you," he said. "You are sore beset. When a fellow needs a friend, when the heart is sore, then he hath his sorrows, too."

"Thank you," said Willa, "flinging her upon her face modestly. "What position do you play?"

"Position?" said Pancho, looking at her askance. (The slyness of the fowl had not yet left her eye.)

"On the football team," said Willa.

"Football!" sneered Pancho, his young lip curling. "Football is violence, and violence is the death of the mind. I am not a football player. I am a poet!"

"So long, hunter," said Willa.

"Wait!" cried Pancho, clutching her damask forearm. She placed a foot on his pelvic and wrenched herself free. "I only go with football players," she said, and walked, shimmering into the gathering dusk.

\textbf{Shaw And Miller} Scenes from "Death of a Salesman" and "Pygmalion," presented on October 29, 1958, were this season's first workshop productions of the Pyramid Players.

After the presentation of the scenes, a critical discussion was held. The cast was composed of forty members of the organization. Scene directors, actors and actresses were questioned on the scenes, a critical discussion was held. After the presentation of the scenes, a critical discussion was held. The cast was composed of forty members of the organization. Scene directors, actors and actresses were questioned on the scenes, a critical discussion was held.

\textbf{Workshop Drama} The workshop program was inaugurated this year to give each member of the organization an opportunity to study the various aspects of the theater including production and dramatic technique.

"It is the hope of the Players that the workshop program will aid us in presenting superior dramatic productions here at the College," commented Mr. Thomas T. Boucher, president of the organization.

Concerning the discussion, Mr. Boucher stated that "we feel the critical discussion is almost as important as production itself. Even those members who are not directly concerned with the production can profit from the ideas presented and can have their own questions answered.

Father Morris also continued his lectures on the dramatic technique. His lectures were greatly appreciated by the members of the organization.

The workshop leader, Art Boucher, said that the workshop program will be held last week.

\textbf{Junior Placed: "Pygmalion"} Junior class members were informed of the progress made in date by the ring committee at a class meeting held Oct. 28. Grady told a Cool reporter after the presentation of the scenes, a critical discussion was held. After the presentation of the scenes, a critical discussion was held. The cast was composed of forty members of the organization. Scene directors, actors and actresses were questioned on the scenes, a critical discussion was held. After the presentation of the scenes, a critical discussion was held.

President Thomas J. Grady pronounced the class members to be placed in room A-100. Albertus Magnus Hall. Ring committee members and Jack Sears told the approximately ninety men present that thus far nothing conclusive has been decided. They added that this information will be released to the class as something definite is decided.

President Thomas J. Grady pronounced the class members to be placed in room A-100. Albertus Magnus Hall. Ring committee members and Jack Sears told the approximately ninety men present that thus far nothing conclusive has been decided. They added that this information will be released to the class as something definite is decided.

President Thomas J. Grady pronounced the class members to be placed in room A-100. Albertus Magnus Hall. Ring committee members and Jack Sears told the approximately ninety men present that thus far nothing conclusive has been decided. They added that this information will be released to the class as something definite is decided.

\textbf{Closed Retreats Begin} Fifty-three students have signed up for the first in a series of weekend retreats. The retreat was held on the weekends of January and February at Savio's Retreat House. Rev. Dennis C. Kane, O.P., was the Retreat Master.

The retreat will begin Friday evening and will continue until Sunday afternoon. Room and board will cost each retreatant $10. Transportation will be provided by means of a bus which leaves the rear of the Aquinas Hall at 6:00 p.m. and returns one there. Sunday. Cost of transportation will be one dollar.

Other retreats have been announced by Rev. Thomas Mc-

\textbf{Blazer} (Continued from Page 1) negatively affected the mood of St. Dominic. It was a segment, on a light blue background are these three white crosses, these stripes. The colors were taken from the Bishop's shield of the order of the society of Providence, since the order of the society of Providence were instrumental in the founding of the College. With this, on the same color field, is a white fleur-de-lis symbolizing the chapel of the order, merely their colors. The outside of the blazer is a field of black, emblems, symbols of purity and the Angelic Doctor, St. Thomas Aquinas, as the name is inscribed, with the word Veritas.

A Providence College Blazer will be awarded to Baker in recog-
Harrisers Prepare For New England's

Defeat Brown To Take Championship

On Monday, November 10, the border between the much determined Providence Cross Country team will journey to Franklin Field in Boston to compete in the New England Cross Country Championships. After capturing the R. I. State Championship in a three point upset victory over favored Brown fast Monday, the harrisers are determined to gain greater recognition.

There was a great feeling of optimism among the squad after the race. Coach Coates now feels that the Friars are definitely one of the top contenders for the coveted title if they display the same spirit and desire as was demonstrated Monday.

Hampered By Weather

In capturing the title, the Friars not only had to overcome the Bruins and Crusaders, but also the foul weather. The highly touted Dick Donahue once more demonstrated his ability by leading the team and taking him to victory in the New England ICA Championships last Sunday. In the race he captured first place 300 yards in front of Brown's hard charging Bobby Love and turned in the record setting time of 24.2 over the 4.3 mile course.

However, this expected performance did not overshadow the gallant efforts of Harrirers' Carey who scored the vital two points. Carey who led the Waltham. Rhode Island, school to the Eastern championship.

Boudreau Leads in Hockey Opener

By TOM DRENNAN

On December 2nd, the team will take the ice for the first time this season, under the leadership of captain George Boudreau.

The able senior from Cambridge, Mass., will, however, cast in a new role. Instead of his usual marking position, George will be at defense. For one who has scored over 29 goals in two years of varsity play, this is a task not to be taken lightly.

As George himself has said, "I had to learn a whole new position but I like it now."

The extra confidence gained under the leadership of captain George Boudreau led the team to its first place finish in the Rose Bowl in 1945, when hockey was first being introduced to that school. As for the future, he feels that his team is stronger than last year. St. John's, is out of the conference for the first time in 24 years, and the Friars will be determined to gain greater recognition in the New England IC4A Championships.

The ROTC rifle team fired its first pistol match of the year. The University of Vermont last Wednesday, October 29, compiling a team score of 1141, individual scores in this meet were: Jim Flanagan 288, Jim Bunker 241, Al Shammy 283, Bill Albtor 279, and Ron Grenier 275. The results of this match will be announced as soon as Vermont's score is received.

The varsity rifle team's first match of the season was held last Thursday against Brown University. Boudreau's Lynx Hall Range. Shooting under existing circumstances, the Friars fired a score of 1388 against Brown's 1355. The individual scores were: Al Shammy 284, Jim Flanagan 277, Jerry Gravel and Jim Bunker 276, and Bill Albtor 275.

Steel, Aloysius B. Begley, O.P., Director of Athletics, has announced that Robert Ambin, a sophomore, has been appointed rifle team manager.

Basketball Preview

Coach Joe Mullany

By PETE COSTIGAN

"We hope to do as well this year," were the words that Joe Mullany used to express his aspirations for his rapidly approaching fourth season as varsity basketball coach at Providence College. During a recent interview at Alumni Hall following a varsity practice, the former 1946 slated the Friars, compiling last season, many of their opponents this season will be stronger than last year. St. John's, is out of the conference for the first time in 24 years, and the Friars, when compiled a 13-6 record last season, will be a dominant factor in the Offensive and rebounding strength, he stated. In his own words, "DiMasi's spot is filled, but we have to avoid the possibility of losing the ball on a bad pass."

Jim DeLacria is tied with Faulkner for second place with 18 victories. The two tailenders, John Hurley and Pete Costigam have garnered 16 victories.

Hockey Preview

Better Fast Break

Rifle Contingent

Coach Joe Mullany

Defeat Northeastern

The previous Friday in warmng & for their first important meet, the Friars outran and humiliated Northeastern by the almost perfect score of 13-4. Charlie Goetz set a blustering pace for his third consecutive victory. In all there were nine goals with fine performances; but it was Dennis Carson who received the greatest total points needed for victory. Carey managed to fight off the challenge of Brown's Alan Osborne for eleventh place, thereby securing the title.

Finder Named Brandeis Mentor

Burlington, Mass., to the Eastern collegiate duel between Pitt and Indiana, the team wasVacated since last year's squad. For the past season, the Friars are determined to gain greater recognition in other sub-par performances.

"We have to be as strong as last year," these were the words that John Egan said to the national press. Egan has been appointed replacement for Ed Donohue, who captained and quarterbacked last year's squad.

In his own words, "DiMasi's spot is filled, but we have to avoid the possibility of losing the ball on a bad pass."

Seemingly looking forward to the day when the Friars will not have to worry about the ball being lost, the Friars are determined to pass up many possible fast breaks to avoid the possibility of losing the ball on a bad pass. For the past season, the Friars are determined to gain greater recognition in other sub-par performances.

The previous Friday in warmng & for their first important meet, the Friars outran and humiliated Northeastern by the almost perfect score of 13-4. Charlie Goetz set a blustering pace for his third consecutive victory. In all there were nine goals with fine performances; but it was Dennis Carson who received the greatest total points needed for victory. Carey managed to fight off the challenge of Brown's Alan Osborne for eleventh place, thereby securing the title.

Finder Named Brandeis Mentor

Burlington, Mass., to the Eastern collegiate duel between Pitt and Indiana, the team wasVacated since last year's squad. For the past season, the Friars are determined to gain greater recognition in other sub-par performances. Play this season, he said, "We got a lot of good breaks. We went into Quinticinto last year, looking for a ball game, and ended up winning a tournament. The extra confidence gained thereafter is something we should have been able to duplicate 15-0 record.

Carey who scored the vital two points. Carey who led the Waltham. Rhode Island, school to the Eastern championship.

Boudreau has made the switch without any complaints, which is typical of him. He is a well liked and equally well respected captain.

Helped Beat Brown

For Boudreau his greatest thrill came last when he scored two goals and an assist to lead PC over Brown in the season's finale.

"This year," he says, "we have the makings of a good team. With the Babbs twins, Dominique, and Kouchon out of zone defense and Fillion and Red O'Connor on defense we should be in good shape for the opener. O'Connor's injury hurt us, and I hope he mend in a hurry because he's a valuable man."

Hockey Family

George is from a hockey playing family, being the last of eight brothers to play for Cambridge Latin High School. At one time in his high school days, every player on the ice, save the goalie, was a Boudreau.

A Stab In The Dark

Jim DeLucia's only loss was Northwestern's triumph over Ohio State. The New Haven pace setter has gone against the surprising Wildcats over the year's squad never lost two consecutive games in succession can not build their offense without any complaints, which is typical of him. He is a well liked and equally well respected captain.

Helped Beat Brown

For Boudreau his greatest thrill came last season when he scored two goals and an assist to lead Brown over the Blue in the season's finale.

"This year," he says, "we have the makings of a good team. With the Babbs twins, Dominique, and Kouchon out of zone defense and Fillion and Red O'Connor on defense we should be in good shape for the opener. O'Connor's injury hurt us, and I hope he mend in a hurry because he's a valuable man."

Hockey Family

George is from a hockey playing family, being the last of eight brothers to play for Cambridge Latin High School. At one time in his high school days, every player on the ice, save the goalie, was a Boudreau.

DeLucia's only loss was Northwestern's triumph over Ohio State. The New Haven pace setter has gone against the surprising Wildcats over the year's squad never lost two consecutive games in succession can not build their offense without any complaints, which is typical of him. He is a well liked and equally well respected captain.

Helped Beat Brown

For Boudreau his greatest thrill came last season when he scored two goals and an assist to lead Brown over the Blue in the season's finale. Barring any unforeseen developments, four of his starting five will return this year: center, DiMasi; point-scorer has gone against the surprising Wildcats over the year's squad never lost two consecutive games in succession can not build their offense without any complaints, which is typical of him. He is a well liked and equally well respected captain.
The Dean Speaks...

(Continued from Page 2)

ble to help you become upright men. She offers you in the members of her faculty examples of upright living. She proceeds with you as a partner to participate in the devotional and worship life of the Church. She affects occasions for the practice of virtue on the playing fields, in the classroom, in extra-curricular functions, and in the social life of student activity. The whole liv­ing, breathing texture of the College is such that it is unfair to think that the campus are religious, reverential and conducive to honest living. Students, and the mental habitation acquired in the process, is something that theology should lead you to make the application of this wide-opened door to your student life for the sanctification of your soul. Thought usually ex­presses itself in action; knowledge of truth fosters application of truth.

Successful living demands the practice of the cardinal virtues. College is not merely a preparation for life after graduation; it is actually a special mode of living. To pursue effectively a life of learning you need the power of courage, justice and temperance. Courage, because everyone knows that learning is painful, that getting an education entails hardships; and this is what courage consists in: enduring pains and afflictions for a greater good (intellectual development). Justice, because by it you order your actions to the social group, whether it be in classroom, in residence hall, or in gymnasium. Moreover, in justice you give both teacher and classmate what is their due by shouldering a fair share of the burdens of instruction. Temperance, because there are so many allurements of sense that are much more tempting than the relaxing passivity of movies or television. The foregoing are some of the immediate pleasures for the sake of a greater good (education), is the task of temperance. "Every conquest of these immediate pleasures for the sake of a greater good (education), is the task of temperance, " writes Nietzsche, "is an example of upright living. She affords occasions for the practice of virtue on the playing fields, in the classroom, in extra-curricular functions, and in the social life of student activity. The whole living, breathing texture of the College is such that it is unfair to think that the campus are religious, reverential and conducive to honest living. Students, and the mental habitation acquired in the process, is something that theology should lead you to make the application of this wide-opened door to your student life for the sanctification of your soul. Thought usually expresses itself in action; knowledge of truth fosters application of truth.

In this very matter, however, the conscientious student sometimes feels victimized by the grading system and unjust injuries. He has kept his nose in the grindstone, plugging away at the books, withstanding enticements to "check it all up" and "good off" like some of his neighbors; but in spite of this steady output of energy, he ends up with a mark of a moron instead of the A or B he expected. Joe College, his head down, with quietly weeping eyes, is always on deck for a ball game, a dance or a party, is a real fellow-well-tempered in the bistro, and looks on the College and the world with a happy refuge from the army and earning a living; yet without strain or pain he comes up with the grade of a genius instead of the F of a loafer. This state of affairs can be excusing, if not downright discouraging. It smacks of unfairness.

But is it really? Without speculating on whether or not Joe College will get his punishment, by the complaint of student, I. M. Aplugger, are a few notions; strange, that for one whose curriculum includes philosophy and theology, he expects the professor to notice his diligence. He has, however, studied every one of his classes in an upright manner; a fact the professor is not aware of; and every one of his classmates expect no less. He is always on deck for a ball game, a dance or a party, is a real fellow-well-tempered in the bistro, and looks on the College and the world with a happy refuge from the army and earning a living; yet without strain or pain he comes up with the grade of a genius instead of the F of a loafer. This state of affairs can be excusing, if not downright discouraging. It smacks of unfairness.

Get the genuine article
Get the honest taste
of a LUCKY STRIKE

SPEAK THINKLISH! MAKE $25
Just put two words together to form a new one. Thinklish is so easy you’ll think of dozens of new words in seconds! We’ll pay $25 each for the hundreds of Thinklish words judged best—and we’ll feature many in our college ads. Send your Thinklish words (with translations) to Lucky Strike, Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Envelope your name, address, college or university and class.

Get the genuine article
Get the honest taste
of a LUCKY STRIKE

Product of The American Tobacco Company — “Havana is our middle name”