To Honor Five
At June 7th Rites

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

MARGARET KELLEHER
MOST REV. JOHN HACKETT

PROF. F. M. ROGERS
DR. JAMES KILLIAN

TAG DAY PLANNED TOMORROW

The Providence College Youth Guidance Association, popularly known as the "Big Brothers," will have their Tag Day, Thursday, May 12. The collection will benefit the children at the Patrick J. O'Hourke Children's Center on Mount Pleasant Avenue.

The proceeds of this collection will provide a picnic for the children, Saturday, May 14. Club members anticipate the same cooperation that the student body gave them last year. Students' contributions then were responsible for the success of the picnic.

SCHEDULE OF EXAMINATIONS

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE, PROVIDENCE, R. I., MAY II, 1960

To Honor Five distinguished citizens at its forty-second annual commencement exercises on June 7.

Honorary Doctor of Law (LL.D) degrees are the Most Reverend John F. Hackett, O.P., Auxiliary Bishop of Hartford, Connecticut; The Right Reverend Manager Frederic G. Hochwalt, Executive Secretary of the National Catholic Education Association, who will deliver the commencement address.

Also receiving degrees are: Dr. James K. Billman, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Technological Institute of Technology; Dr. Jean Piper, George J. Rodgers, Professor of Romance Languages and Literature of Harvard University; and Miss Margaret Kelleher, R.N., State Director of Nursing Education of the State of Connecticut.

The Most Reverend Hackett was ordained a priest at Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, France by the Most Reverend Pius XI in 1924. After his ordination he served in the Diocese of Brownsville, Texas, and the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City before being called to the Diocese of Providence in 1940.

Faulkner Senior Of The Year

Dale P. Faulkner is the 1960-61 Providence College Senior of the Year. Faulkner received the clinching vote of his classmates as the student who best represented the College to the outside world. His name was selected after two other elections placing him in the campus limelight at the present time. He is chairman of the upcoming Commencement Baccalaureate and has been picked to deliver the Class Oration on Parents' Night.

Contention for the Senior of the Year honor had quickly narrowed into a three-cornered race between Faulkner, Grady, and Wilkins. Although the ballot was prepared by the faculty and distributed on an impartial basis, the final results were determined by the students through close and personal contact with them.

Faulkner is a former editor of The Cowl, having finished a term as editor-in-chief in January. He is also active in the campus administration of the senior year, having been elected class agent last year.

The New Haven lad's distinction comes concurrently with two other elections placing him in the campus limelight at the present time. He is chairman of the upcoming Commencement Ball and has been picked to deliver the Class Oration on Parents' Night.

The Providence College Youth Guidance Association, popularly known as the "Big Brothers," will have their Tag Day, Thursday, May 12. The collection will benefit the children at the Patrick J. O'Hourke Children's Center on Mount Pleasant Avenue.

The proceeds of this collection will provide a picnic for the children, Saturday, May 14. Club members anticipate the same cooperation that the student body gave them last year. Students' contributions then were responsible for the success of the picnic.

SCHEDULE OF EXAMINATIONS

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE, PROVIDENCE, R. I., MAY II, 1960

To Honor Five distinguished citizens at its forty-second annual commencement exercises on June 7.

Honorary Doctor of Law (LL.D) degrees are the Most Reverend John F. Hackett, O.P., Auxiliary Bishop of Hartford, Connecticut; The Right Reverend Manager Frederic G. Hochwalt, Executive Secretary of the National Catholic Education Association, who will deliver the commencement address.

Also receiving degrees are: Dr. James K. Billman, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Technological Institute of Technology; Dr. Jean Piper, George J. Rodgers, Professor of Romance Languages and Literature of Harvard University; and Miss Margaret Kelleher, R.N., State Director of Nursing Education of the State of Connecticut.

The Most Reverend Hackett was ordained a priest at Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, France by the Most Reverend Pius XI in 1924. After his ordination he served in the Diocese of Brownsville, Texas, and the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City before being called to the Diocese of Providence in 1940.

Faulkner Senior Of The Year

Dale P. Faulkner is the 1960-61 Providence College Senior of the Year. Faulkner received the clinching vote of his classmates as the student who best represented the College to the outside world. His name was selected after two other elections placing him in the campus limelight at the present time. He is chairman of the upcoming Commencement Ball and has been picked to deliver the Class Oration on Parents' Night.

Contention for the Senior of the Year honor had quickly narrowed into a three-cornered race between Faulkner, Grady, and Wilkins. Although the ballot was prepared by the faculty and distributed on an impartial basis, the final results were determined by the students through close and personal contact with them.

Faulkner is a former editor of The Cowl, having finished a term as editor-in-chief in January. He is also active in the campus administration of the senior year, having been elected class agent last year.

The New Haven lad's distinction comes concurrently with two other elections placing him in the campus limelight at the present time. He is chairman of the upcoming Commencement Ball and has been picked to deliver the Class Oration on Parents' Night.
Graduation Plans

Can You Face Up To This?

(Continued from Page 1)

Hackett became assistant pastor of St. Augustine Church of New Canaan, Connecticut, and in 1965 he was named assistant chancellor of the Diocese of Hartford. During the years from 1945 to 1963 he served in the position of vice-chancellor, secretary to the bishop, and chairman of the Archdiocesan Education Board.

He was consecrated Bishop of Norwich, Connecticut, on March 18, 1953. In 1956 he was named Vicar General. Bishop Hackett died January 1, 1959, after serving as Bishop for the Institute for nearly 10 years.

From November 1857 to July 1959 he was on leave from MIT, serving as Special Assistant for Science and Technology to President Eisenhower.

Doctor Kilian has also been the recipient of a number of honorary degrees. He received LL.D.'s from Bowdoin, Northeastern University, Duke University, Harvard, Tufts, Brandeis, and other institutions of higher education.

Professor Francis M. Kilgarin, professor of Romance languages and Literature of Harvard University, is also to receive an LL.D. degree from the College.

He is a student of the development of the Romance Languages and of Medieval literature, especially in France and Portugal. In the cause of his specialty he has travelled extensively in Europe, North Africa, and the Near East.

director of Nursing Education in the State of Rhode Island, Margaret Kilgarin, R.N., is also to be the recipient of an honorary LL.D. degree.

Miss Kilgarin was the first full-time state director of Nursing Education in Rhode Island and works with the Rhode Island Board of Nurse Registration and Nursing Education and departments of the University of Rhode Island for educational programs in nursing in that state. She is also a member and a member of the committee on the Board of Nursing Rhode Island League for Nursing.

BVC DONATES TO COLLEGE LIBRARY

The Blackstone Valley Club met Monday night at the LeFoyer Club in Pawtucket and elected to hold a picnic at Lincoln Woods on May 29. The picnic will be free to all paid members and also invited to bring dates.

The club elected to donate the rest of its treasury to the college Library Fund. This is expected to total $500. There is no stipulation on its expenditure.

President Don Bucklin states: "I believe that it is something that all regional clubs should do in order to aid the college"

Armed Forces Week

May 16-21 has been designated Armed Forces Week.

Prayers are requested for the members of the Armed Forces, all the BVOH cadets, and veterans at Providence College.

This is just part of an endeavor of the Blackstone Valley Club to diversify itself from just social events.

Dr. Paul Thomson Currently Working On Poet's Biography

Dr. Paul van K. Thomson, associate professor of English and director of the Honors Program, is currently at work on A Critical Biography of Francis Thompson.

Some interest in the poet's life has recently been prompted by J. C. Reid's biography, considered by many to be inaccurate and unfair. A recent copy of the Dublin Review asked for something other than a "worm's eye view" of the Irish poet.

Dr. Thompson, who wrote his doctoral dissertation on the poet's private notebooks and ---collations, has made considerable use of the Boston College collection of the poet's papers. Fr. Terence Connolly, S.J., head of "C.C.'s" collection, has expressed the desire for a true portrait of Thompson. Dr. Thomson expects to finish the book by the end of August.

 KNOW THESE FACES? **

Dr. Paul Thomson Currently Working On Poet's Biography

Junior Weekend Prom Termmed Huge Success

The Junior Prom Weekend was held last Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, with 250 couples in attendance.

The Weekend opened Friday evening with a jazz festival at the Roger Williams Park Casino, which succeeded in stepping completely out of character with the theme "High Society." The festival featured the Vibrato's, a popular group, and the Kingman Trio.

The Junior Prom Weekend proved to be a true portrait of Thompson. Dr. Thomson expects to finish the book by the end of August.

The music of Ralph Flanagan provided the entertainment for the Prom itself.

The queen of the Weekend was Ann Marie Dermontino from New Haven, Connecticut, the first young lady presented the traditional tiara and was crowned by Miss Kilgarin. Her escort was Michael Crescini, also of New Haven.

The Weekend opened with a Mass and a communion break before a program in which, where the couples heard Mr. Daniel McKinnon, President of the Institute for Catholic education in the State of Rhode Island. He is also a member of the Committee on Careers, Rhode Island League for Nursing.
BLAZER FITTING

The Student Congress blazer committee announced that the blazer fitting of the year will be Monday, May 16 in the Student Congress Office in Donnelly Hall.

A $5 deposit will guarantee early summer delivery.

ROTC Cadets Receive Awards; Review Closes Year’s Activities

Twenty-three ROTC cadets were honored and decorated in yesterday’s annual review ceremony.

The reviewing party, which inspected the ROTC Brigade consisted of the very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., President of Providence College; Mr. Harry H. Burton, Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army; and Brigadier General, Robert Kenny, Commanding General, 76th Division, U.S. Army Reserve.

The cadets and the awards received are as follows:

- Cadet Robert A. Dunham received the President’s Trophy for character and scholastic achievement.
- Cadet Thomas F. Morey, Jr., received the Army Reserve Award.
- Cadets Normand A. Trudeau, R. I. Admissions; General’s Trophy; and Pint Sgt. John Partridge; Sft. Lawrence Monir, received the PC Alumni Sabre Award; and Pint Sgt. John Partridge, received the PC Alumni Sabre Award.

The reviewing party, which inspected the ROTC Brigade consisted of the Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., President of Providence College; Mr. Harry H. Burton, Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army; and Brigadier General, Robert Kenny, Commanding General, 76th Division, U.S. Army Reserve.

In an announcement to The Cowl, the chairman urged that the tickets or payments for the tickets should be bought and placed early so that the orders for the dinners may be placed with the Sheraton Hotel.

This interested in being ushered at the dinners will be elected from the underclasses and should contact Charles McAre in the Rotunda at 10-40 for the remainder of the week.

REV. H. D. SCHNEIDER, O.P.

On Tuesday, May 21 in the Providence College Community Church at Harkins Hall at 4:45 p.m., three members of the faculty will celebrate low Masses commemorating their twenty-fifth anniversary of their ordination to the priesthood.

The celebrating jubilarians will be Fathers George C. McGregor, Edward L. Hunt, and Herman D. Schneider.

Mr. McGregor is completing his sixteenth year at the College in the department of physics. He received his bachelor’s degree in physics at St. Thomas Aquinas College, St. Charles and DePaul, where he obtained a Master of Arts degree in 1936.

He was ordained a Dominican in Washington, D.C., in 1936, and is the author of a text in high school Physics and Chemistry.

Mr. Hunt, born in Rapid City, S.D., and received his Bachelor of Science degree in 1939 from Catholic University and his Doctorate in Architecture from CU in 1938.

He was ordained in 1935 and a year later was assigned to the faculty of Providence College. Fr. Hunt has lectured extensively on art throughout New England and Rhode Island, and has written a number of articles on art throughout New England and Rhode Island.

Fr. McGregor is completing his sixteenth year at the College in the department of physics. He received his baccalaureate degree in physics at St. Thomas Aquinas College, St. Charles and DePaul, where he obtained a Master of Arts degree in 1936.

He was ordained a Dominican in Washington, D.C., in 1936, and is the author of a text in high school Physics and Chemistry.

Mr. Hunt, born in Rapid City, S.D., and received his Bachelor of Science degree in 1939 from Catholic University and his Doctorate in Architecture from CU in 1938.

He was ordained in 1935 and a year later was assigned to the faculty of Providence College. Fr. Hunt has lectured extensively on art throughout New England and Rhode Island, and has written a number of articles on art throughout New England and Rhode Island.

As a member of the athletic department, Fr. Schneider was the instrumental force in the establishment of hockey at the College. Under his supervision the sport has undergone a steady increase in popularity and importance in the College’s athletic and health program.

Father Schneider is a professor of German.

CRANSTON CLUB ELECTS

Monday evening, the members of the Cranston Club elected their officers for next year.

David W. Taft, a junior business management student, was elected president; Paul A. Barker, a junior math major, vice-president; Edward W. Traill, a junior political science major, secretary; Joseph C. Flynn, a junior biology major, treasurer.

George W. Gunther, a senior business management major, was named Sergeant-at-Arms.
There To Compare...

On this Friday, May 13, the circulation department received the final requests of articles by which the Cowl has received this year. Interested students may pick up copies of these exchange papers at the circulation desk this morning.

Our purpose in distributing this material from our exchange files is, quite simply, to enable our readers to compare PC's brand of college journalism with that produced by other institutions in the country. We think the wide range of format and coverage in the various publications will prove both interesting and enlightening.

Above all, we'd like to compare The Cowl with newspapers at other colleges of equivalent size. We think we can hold our own with any of them, but we'd be more than glad to hear your comments and suggestions.

Off Campus Off Base...

The Cowl is sorely distressed to learn that the regulation concerning room reservations slips will apparently be enforced without exception. The students hardest hit by the rigid enforcement of the regulation will be those students who need assistance most.

By Len Fried

Let's Reconsider...

The Cowl realizes the tremendous burden of keeping a huge institution financially sound. But it is almost universally taken for granted that in questions of difficulty, upperclassmen are given every possible consideration. Not so in this case unfortunately. A good number of more sophomores, and their parents, who could not or did not make the deposit. It is reported that the number of upperclassmen who will be forced to live off campus next year is well in excess of a hundred. Among these students are in debt to checks to wrap up financial matters for the year. And scores of upperclassmen who, since they are in debt to the college, however, was allowed to make such a deposit.

In previous years, this regulation was loosely enforced, due to the fact that there was a considerable amount of space available on campus. This year, however, it was announced that no student would be allowed to reserve space unless his deposit was made.

That announcement caused an agonizing amount of worry and anxiety among upperclassmen (and their parents) who could not or did not make the deposit. It is reported that the number of upperclassmen who will be forced to live off campus next year is well in excess of a hundred. Among these students are veterans who had counted on their May 24 government checks to wrap up financial matters for the year, and scores of upperclassmen who, since they are in debt to the college, were not allowed to reserve space.

In the enforcement of the reservation regulation, no preference was given to students who have but small debts, or to students who can assure the school of payment during the summer, or to students who have good reason for deferring payment, or to students whose deposits arrived after the May 24 cut-off date. Those payments are in are will be on campus next year; the others will be put on a mammoth waiting list, and most of them will wind up off campus.

The summer lies ahead. For underclassmen summer will be a hiatus, a breather in which to restore yourself for next year's resumption of busy college life. For seniors there will be no more college. You must not, however, despair and abandon yourself to idleness. There are other things to do in the world besides going to school—basket weaving, for example, or building boats in a bateau, or picking up bottles on the beach and making them into a floating island.

Whatever the future holds for you, be assured that the makers of Marlboro and Philip Morris join me in wishing you the best of the summer. Enjoy it.

We, the makers of Marlboro and Philip Morris, can only echo kindly old Max's parting words. Stay happy. Stay healthy. Stay loose.

THE STAFF
CHARLES L. GONZALO, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
UNDERGRADUATE ADVISOR, Dale P. Kiehl
MARGARET MARSHALL, ASSISTANT EDITORS, Paul Hams, E. L. Pritchett...
CONTRIBUTING EDITOR, Thomas O'Hearn
Sophomore Class Forms A Council To Augment SC

On Monday, May 16, 1960, the first meeting of the newly formed Class Council of the class of '62 will take place in Harkins Hall in Room 300 at 7 p.m.

The council is composed of all the elected representatives of the class, Soph Carolan and Dieges and Clust. They will discuss the Veritas, Cowl, and a class paper as they affect the sophomore class.

The reason for such a council was given by Matt Barry, treasurer, in his statement:

"We feel that the Congress has done a fine job this year but cannot successfully nor completely treat all the problems of the class of '62 when faced with the tremendous task of solving the problems of over 2200 students.

It is felt that the council will not hinder nor interfere with the Student Congress, but will supplement it as a strong organizational and planning unit with the class.

"In this way," he continued, "more members of the class will deal directly and participate more actively in class affairs."

Committee Receives '62 Ring Designs

The sophomore class ring committee will receive designs this week from both Balfour and Dieges and Clust.

The committee is now in the process of attempting to secure delivery of the rings by Christmas. Thus for two meetings have been held—one with Balfour and the other with Dieges and Clust.

One side of the ring is the standard side passed by a student congress resolution last year. The committee has yet to decide on the other side.

Ideas, designs, and suggestions are desired by the committee. Submit ideas to P.O. Box 260 or to any of the committee members.

A meeting will be held again near the middle of this week.

SUMMER JOBS

LARGE MIDWESTERN MANUFACTURING CO.

WILL PLACE A FEW MEN IN HIGH PAYING SUMMER POSITIONS IN THE RHODE ISLAND AREA

1. $85-$125 Per Week
2. Opportunity To Continue On a Part-Time Basis During The School Year
3. $400 Scholarships
4. Future
5. Car Necessary

WE ARE LOOKING FOR ENERGETIC YOUNG MEN WHO ARE INTERESTED IN SALES AND PUBLIC RELATIONS FIELD

INTERVIEWS WILL BE HELD THURSDAY, MAY 12 9:30 A.M. — 3:00 P.M.

HARKINS HALL — ROOM 105-A

SUMMER WORK

We are looking for several students to work as representatives of the Catholic Press to take orders for the world's most beautiful large family Bible. Will earn $125.00 to $150.00 a week.

For personal interview apply to 49 Westminster Street, Room 635, Monday through Friday, 2 to 4 p.m. or call DE 1-6866.

EAGLE PARK Automatic Laundry

405-407 ADMIRAL STREET

Same Day Service

WASH & DRY

The Place To Go

CLUB FLAMINGO

Entertainment — Wed. thru Sun.

1190 DOUGLAS AVE., NO. PROVIDENCE, R.I.

For Reservations EL 3-8686 — PC Students Welcome

GATEWAY MOTOR INN

SEEKONK, MASS.

Route 6 & 114

36 Deluxe Hotel & Motel Rooms Completely Air Conditioned

Television & Telephones in every Room

Swimming Pool

Meeting Rooms

4 Miles to Providence, R. I.

The New Gateway to Cape Cod

Open Now

The New

GATEWAY MOTOR INN
EARN OVER $1000 THIS SUMMER

STUDENTS AND TEACHERS NEEDED AS DEALERS LOCALLY AND IN YOUR OWN HOME TOWN. USE OF CAR REQUIRED.

Bob Dice in Youngstown, Ohio made $500 one week, as much as many students earn all year.

Gary Willaimson of the University of California won a $500 scholarship for sales last summer of over $6,000.

Beverly Coleman of Michigan sold over $4,000, and Ed Milligan had a $3,000,000 annual sales by dealers and a $500 scholarship for students who have been here for three years and who would like to remain here for their fourth and last year. They have found out that they are being evicted from their homes, due to a ruling which called for a room deposit by May 1, one week before the room reservations were to be actually made.

They are also faced with a refusal by the administration to accept deposits during the following week. Many juniors are being required to move into strange surrounding against their will.

Supposedly, the reason for this is that a record freshman class is coming next year and that every bed is needed for those incoming freshmen. But why do it at the expense of those who have faithfully attended this college for three years? Surely those responsible for this decision must realize the tremendous financial burden carried by the members of the student body during this past year due to the class rings, N.Y.T., and class weekends.

It sounds like the old story of the villainous landlord saying, "You must pay the rent," and the poor widow saying, "I can't pay the rent," but in this story there is no hero to say, "I will pay the rent." As a member of the student body and a class officer I implore the administration to reconsider their decision and to give those non-tribe refugees shelter on campus.

Respectfully,
Charles McAre

PLAN AHEAD!
BE HEATING DOLLARS AHEAD!
INSTALL A
PETRO
OIL BURNER
FUEL SAVING  •  EASY BUDGET TERMS

Whether converting your present burner or installing a new oil-burning system, we can design an oil-burner unit for every heating need.

FREE HEATING SURVEY CALL WI 1-0050
PETROLEUM
HEAT & POWER
COMPANY OF RHODE ISLAND
375 ALLENS AVE., PROVIDENCE

Members of the Sophomore Class:
We would like to express our thanks for the warm treatment of the Sophomore in the elections of April 8th. It is most gratifying to note that over 80% of the class voted. We would like to assure the members of the class that we will do all in our power to fulfill the honor bestowed upon us.

We would also like to express our appreciation for those who helped make Sophomore Week one of the most memorable in Providence College's social history. To all who attended and to those mates behind the scenes, ahoy and thanks.

Charles Reilly, Pres.
P.G. Kosanze, Vice-Pres.
John Judge, Sec.
Matthew Barry, Treas.

LA SALLE
CUSTOM TAILOR
ADOLPH DEL ROSAL, Prop.
Cleaning—Pressing
Repairing of All Kinds
FUR EXPERTS—
1100 RHODES
UN 1-7809
Providence, R. I.
Notes From The SPORTSDESK by JIM CARROLL

A SIGHT NOT OFTEN SEEN on the Providence College campus was witnessed by the sparse gathering taking in the varsity baseball encounter between Providence College and the University of Rhode Island last Saturday afternoon.

During the process of seeing the Friars whitewashed by Ram chucker Tony Rao, Coach Alex Nahigian took objection to a few decisions rendered by the umpires. Nahigian, evidently not one to keep his sentiments entirely to himself, even went so far as to bring his protests to the field of battle. Of course, it was to no avail, for the umpire is never wrong.

NOW I'M NOT particularly in favor of umpire baiting or unnecessary chiding on the part of coaches. The likes of Paul Richards and Danny Murtaugh, currently leading their respective major leagues in being thrown out of ball games, do not seem to be helping their clubs to win ball games by their constant ruckus-raising tactics with umpires.

However, for the last couple of years, the Providence baseball scene has been almost stagnant insofar as competitive spirit and drive are concerned. Last year an inert ball team looked even worse because of a dearth of that indescribable quality which makes a team hungry for a win and fight for every advantage, that spark which makes a club enjoyable to watch and easier to root for. This year's team, despite its unimpressive record thus far, seems to have that inspiration to win. It was a pleasurable sight to see Nahigian backing this desire with the forceful action evidenced last week. With a team well-stacked with juniors and sophomores, the baseball picture looks a good deal brighter if not much more successful.

ON ANOTHER spring sports scene, the Providence College tennis team exploded to a roaring start by winning four straight matches. Last Saturday they suffered their first defeat of the year to Boston University. Now a 4-1 record is certainly a commendable slate and drive are concerned. Last year an inert ball team looked even worse because of a dearth of that indescribable quality which makes a team hungry for a win and fight for every advantage, that spark which makes a club enjoyable to watch and easier to root for. This year's team, despite its unimpressive record thus far, seems to have that inspiration to win. It was a pleasurable sight to see Nahigian backing this desire with the forceful action evident last week. With a team well-stacked with juniors and sophomores, the baseball picture looks a good deal brighter if not much more successful.

A U. S. Army exhibit, depicting the Army's progress in this nuclear age and featuring an actual HAWK missile, was unveiled Monday, May 9, at Providence College. The exhibit shows some of the end products of the military's research and development program. An emphasis is placed on the new operational combat equipment.

A SIGHT NOT OFTEN SEEN on the Providence College campus was witnessed by the sparse gathering taking in the varsity baseball encounter between Providence College and the University of Rhode Island last Saturday afternoon.

During the process of seeing the Friars whitewashed by Ram chucker Tony Rao, Coach Alex Nahigian took objection to a few decisions rendered by the umpires. Nahigian, evidently not one to keep his sentiments entirely to himself, even went so far as to bring his protests to the field of battle. Of course, it was to no avail, for the umpire is never wrong.

NOW I'M NOT particularly in favor of umpire baiting or unnecessary chiding on the part of coaches. The likes of Paul Richards and Danny Murtaugh, currently leading their respective major leagues in being thrown out of ball games, do not seem to be helping their clubs to win ball games by their constant ruckus-raising tactics with umpires.

However, for the last couple of years, the Providence baseball scene has been almost stagnant insofar as competitive spirit and drive are concerned. Last year an inert ball team looked even worse because of a dearth of that indescribable quality which makes a team hungry for a win and fight for every advantage, that spark which makes a club enjoyable to watch and easier to root for. This year's team, despite its unimpressive record thus far, seems to have that inspiration to win. It was a pleasurable sight to see Nahigian backing this desire with the forceful action evidenced last week. With a team well-stacked with juniors and sophomores, the baseball picture looks a good deal brighter if not much more successful.

ON ANOTHER spring sports scene, the Providence College tennis team exploded to a roaring start by winning four straight matches. Last Saturday they suffered their first defeat of the year to Boston University. Now a 4-1 record is certainly a commendable slate and drive are concerned. Last year an inert ball team looked even worse because of a dearth of that indescribable quality which makes a team hungry for a win and fight for every advantage, that spark which makes a club enjoyable to watch and easier to root for. This year's team, despite its unimpressive record thus far, seems to have that inspiration to win. It was a pleasurable sight to see Nahigian backing this desire with the forceful action evident last week. With a team well-stacked with juniors and sophomores, the baseball picture looks a good deal brighter if not much more successful.

A U. S. Army exhibit, depicting the Army's progress in this nuclear age and featuring an actual HAWK missile, was unveiled Monday, May 9, at Providence College. The exhibit shows some of the end products of the military's research and development program. An emphasis is placed on the new operational combat equipment.

A SIGHT NOT OFTEN SEEN on the Providence College campus was witnessed by the sparse gathering taking in the varsity baseball encounter between Providence College and the University of Rhode Island last Saturday afternoon.

During the process of seeing the Friars whitewashed by Ram chucker Tony Rao, Coach Alex Nahigian took objection to a few decisions rendered by the umpires. Nahigian, evidently not one to keep his sentiments entirely to himself, even went so far as to bring his protests to the field of battle. Of course, it was to no avail, for the umpire is never wrong.

NOW I'M NOT particularly in favor of umpire baiting or unnecessary chiding on the part of coaches. The likes of Paul Richards and Danny Murtaugh, currently leading their respective major leagues in being thrown out of ball games, do not seem to be helping their clubs to win ball games by their constant ruckus-raising tactics with umpires.

However, for the last couple of years, the Providence baseball scene has been almost stagnant insofar as competitive spirit and drive are concerned. Last year an inert ball team looked even worse because of a dearth of that indescribable quality which makes a team hungry for a win and fight for every advantage, that spark which makes a club enjoyable to watch and easier to root for. This year's team, despite its unimpressive record thus far, seems to have that inspiration to win. It was a pleasurable sight to see Nahigian backing this desire with the forceful action evidenced last week. With a team well-stacked with juniors and sophomores, the baseball picture looks a good deal brighter if not much more successful.

A U. S. Army exhibit, depicting the Army's progress in this nuclear age and featuring an actual HAWK missile, was unveiled Monday, May 9, at Providence College. The exhibit shows some of the end products of the military's research and development program. An emphasis is placed on the new operational combat equipment.

A SIGHT NOT OFTEN SEEN on the Providence College campus was witnessed by the sparse gathering taking in the varsity baseball encounter between Providence College and the University of Rhode Island last Saturday afternoon.

During the process of seeing the Friars whitewashed by Ram chucker Tony Rao, Coach Alex Nahigian took objection to a few decisions rendered by the umpires. Nahigian, evidently not one to keep his sentiments entirely to himself, even went so far as to bring his protests to the field of battle. Of course, it was to no avail, for the umpire is never wrong.

NOW I'M NOT particularly in favor of umpire baiting or unnecessary chiding on the part of coaches. The likes of Paul Richards and Danny Murtaugh, currently leading their respective major leagues in being thrown out of ball games, do not seem to be helping their clubs to win ball games by their constant ruckus-raising tactics with umpires.

However, for the last couple of years, the Providence baseball scene has been almost stagnant insofar as competitive spirit and drive are concerned. Last year an inert ball team looked even worse because of a dearth of that indescribable quality which makes a team hungry for a win and fight for every advantage, that spark which makes a club enjoyable to watch and easier to root for. This year's team, despite its unimpressive record thus far, seems to have that inspiration to win. It was a pleasurable sight to see Nahigian backing this desire with the forceful action evidenced last week. With a team well-stacked with juniors and sophomores, the baseball picture looks a good deal brighter if not much more successful.
Devereaux Upset Top Tennis News

The varsity tennis team, in only its second year of existence, has so far this year compiled the best record of any spring sport, four wins and only one loss. Their success has been capped by a trip to the New England Invitational, the first time in the school's history that three of the regulars were engaged in class-weekend activities.

Possibly the biggest upset of the collegiate tennis year was provided by Jack Devereaux as Coach Jackie Allen's charges defeated Merrimack College at the latter's home court last week. Devereaux, a former Rhode Island state champion from the Salle Academy, upset highly favored Don Foust (left) of Davie Cupper who had been undefeated in two years of collegiate competition. As matter of fact, Foust had never lost a single set against college opponents until he faced Devereaux, who defeated him handily, 6-2, 6-2.

Later in the match Jack teamed with Les Conotton in coping with doubles match as the Friars moved to a 6-4 triumph.

The tennis team is one of the least known of all the college sports, but although it is only in its second year of existence, it has proven itself a team that Providence can single out with pride. Jackie Allen has turned his men into a truly solid group.

New England P R Rifle Champions

THE COWL, MAY 11, 1960

Tony Rao, star pitcher for the University of Rhode Island, blanked Coach Alex Nahigian's Friar nine with a seven-hit performance Saturday afternoon on Hendrick Field. Jim Hodgkins went all the way for the Friars, giving up 12 hits and three walks in his stint.

The game was marked by errors, six by PC and two by the Rams. The big play of the game was made by Tony Rao, who has been having trouble with his glove in the past few games, catching three, and shortstop Don Mezzanotte, catcher Warren Howe, and first baseman Al Izzi made one each.

The Rams loaded the bases in two innings, the third and the ninth, but were unable to score. In the third they filled the sacks with one out, but Rao tightened up, forcing Joe Caperella to fly out to short center and striking out Pete Muro after the Friar center fielder had run up a full count.

Pinch hitters At Bacovario and Holyhock, Bamberger led off the Friar ninth with back-to-back singles, spelling the end of the line for Rao, who was bothered by a blister on his pitching hand.

Rolie Better came on for the Rams at this point and retired pinch hitter Holyhock on a groundout. This brought in walk Don Mezzanotte, loading the bases, but ended the game by striking out Dettmer. Al Izzi finished with one more than a single, collecting two in five trips, one on a double.

The Friar fielding was either very good or very bad. Although the infielders made five errors, they also pulled off four double plays. Don Mezzanotte and brother Nick and Al Izzi figured in two of them, one started by Don and the other by Nick. The Friars tallied four these and four that, with one out, and scored a run down play Murphy to third and Nick Mezzanotte on a groundout.

The Friars loaded the bases in the seventh, and one in the eighth. Their third baseman Barry Nicholas, brother of present third baseman Barry Nicholas, to second, making room for Don.

Last season Don was one of the few bright spots in Providence's otherwise disastrous season.

This year, with a new coach, Don has blossomed into a top-flight star of the diamond world. Some of his better efforts have been a four-for-four day against Brown and a two-for-four going against URI. One can easily see that Don Mezzanotte has earned his share of the Kickers prize.

Friar Open Ascension Thursday

Mr. Joseph Prisco, coach of the Providence College golf team, announced Monday that the annual Friar's Open golf tournament will be held on Ascension Thursday, May 26, at Triggs.

The tournament will be open to everyone associated with the College; students, teachers, priests, and players. Entry fee will be in addition to the regular green fee of $1.50 in the past and probably will earn many more before this spring comes to a close.

The tournament will be open to everyone associated with the College; students, teachers, priests, and players. Entry fee will be in addition to the regular green fee of $1.50 in the past and probably will earn many more before this spring comes to a close.

Friar Open Ascension Thursday

Mr. Joseph Prisco, coach of the Providence College golf team, announced Monday that the annual Friar's Open golf tournament will be held on Ascension Thursday, May 26, at Triggs.

The tournament will be open to everyone associated with the College; students, teachers, priests, and players. Entry fee will be in addition to the regular green fee of $1.50 in the past and probably will earn many more before this spring comes to a close.

The tournament will be open to everyone associated with the College; students, teachers, priests, and players. Entry fee will be in addition to the regular green fee of $1.50 in the past and probably will earn many more before this spring comes to a close.

New England P R Rifle Champions