Dorm Weekend Theme; begin on December 4. The Nov. 27, 28; freshmen on Nov. 13th to 16th: juniors on upper-classmen to acquire their couples. of sales has been limited to 200 the Raymond Hall dining room day afternoon. Co-chairmen Gene Fusaro and Jim achieved on the first ballot after achieved to national office in the. The theme for the weekend is "Sidewalks of N.Y." Dorm Weekend Theme, To be Held Dec. 8, 9, 10 Tickets for the twenty-fifth annual Dorm Weekend to be held December 8, 9, and 10 went on sale last Monday afternoon. Co-chairmen Gene Fusaro and Jim include a floor show and in Friday night's affair. On Saturday morning at 10 (Continued on Page 2) PC Boosts '62 Tuition Tuition at Providence College will be raised $25 a semester next September, bringing tuition for day students at the college to $800 a year, according to a story in the Providence Journal. At the same time, the fee for room and board will be hiked $50 a semester to a new total of $900 a year. The increases were announced last week by the Rev. Vincent C. Dore, O.F. President of the college, which they had been approved at an afternoon meeting of the committee on administration. Darigan Elected Pres. At NCCY Convention Francis J. Darigan Jr., 19, was elected president of the National Council of Catholic Youth at the biennial convention in Memorial Auditorium at Buffalo. He is a Sophomore at PC. Darigan is the first New Eng.lander to hold this office and he is first from Providence to be named to national office in the group. Mr. Darigan's victory was achieved on the first ballot after Student Poll Rates Mixers This past week a survey was taken on the Providence College campus to reveal the feelings of the students on the controversial subject of Friday night mixers. Among those voicing their opinion were:

Ken Talen, '63: It appears that the mixers are lifeless and a change of pace could be obtained by having a record hop. This would satisfy most rock-'n-rollers, but some long-play, soft style music would also be in order.

Ray Gagnon, '62: Positive identification by the girls that they attend college would halt the messy-seaters and insure the presence of even more college girls.

Frank Ardizzone, '64: How can we expect the girls schools to come down to our dances when we never send any students up to their affairs? The best solution appears in having buses for the students without cars or else have a car pool of those wishing to go.

Paul Cynwyr, '63: There are not enough students at these dances, so that when the college girls do go to the mixers, they quickly lose interest.

Jack Purchnick, '62: Keep the high school girls out!

PCAA Ticket Policy Announced First Come, First Served Basis
Athletic Department has the first game of the season. From that department, two tickets per students will be sold to each student on a first come first served basis. Due to the fact that unprecedented interest is expected in basketball this year, this policy is on a trial basis. If conditions warrant, it will be continued for the remainder of the year; however, it is possible that limitations of one ticket per student may be set for the remainder of the game. If the ticket supply for the St. Mary's game is exhausted and there are students without tickets, the policy of granting two tickets per students will be automatically discontinued. The athletic department has stated, that "it would like to give each student the opportunity to purchase one extra ticket per game."

THE COWL REPORTERS did not take a poll of PC gen. tlemen concerning Miss Brenda Wahlfort (see above). They did, however, take a poll concerning the Friday night mixers which Miss Wahlfort attends (see below). COWL/Photo by FOLEY THE COWL Reporters did not take a poll of PC gen­ tlemen concerning Miss Brenda Wahlfort (see above). They did, however, take a poll concerning the Friday night mixers which Miss Wahlfort attends (see below). COWL/Photo by FOLEY

PC Boosts '62 Tuition
Tuition at Providence College will be raised $25 a semester next September, bringing tuition for day students at the college to $800 a year, according to a story in the Providence Journal.

Darigan Elected Pres. At NCCY Convention
Francis J. Darigan Jr., 19, was elected president of the National Council of Catholic Youth at the biennial convention in Memorial Auditorium at Buffalo. He is a Sophomore at PC. Darigan is the first New Eng.lander to hold this office and he is first from Providence to be named to national office in the group. Mr. Darigan's victory was achieved on the first ballot after Student Poll Rates Mixers This past week a survey was taken on the Providence College campus to reveal the feelings of the students on the controversial subject of Friday night mixers. Among those voicing their opinion were:

Ken Talen, '63: It appears that the mixers are lifeless and a change of pace could be obtained by having a record hop. This would satisfy most rock-'n-rollers, but some long-play, soft style music would also be in order.

Ray Gagnon, '62: Positive identification by the girls that they attend college would halt the messy-seaters and insure the presence of even more college girls.

Frank Ardizzone, '64: How can we expect the girls schools to come down to our dances when we never send any students up to their affairs? The best solution appears in having buses for the students without cars or else have a car pool of those wishing to go.

Paul Cynwyr, '63: There are not enough students at these dances, so that when the college girls do go to the mixers, they quickly lose interest.

Jack Purchnick, '62: Keep the high school girls out!

PCAA Ticket Policy Announced First Come, First Served Basis
The Providence College announced ticket policy for the According to a news release tickets will be sold to each stud-ent on a first come first served basis. Due to the fact that unprecedented interest is expected in basketball this year, this policy is on a trial basis. If conditions warrant, it will be continued for the remainder of the year; however, it is possible that limitations of one ticket per student may be set for the remainder of the games. If the ticket supply for the St. Mary's game is exhausted and there are students without tickets, the policy of granting two tickets per students will be automatically discontinued. The athletic department has stated, that "it would like to give each student the opportunity to purchase one extra ticket per game."

PC Boosts '62 Tuition
Tuition at Providence College will be raised $25 a semester next September, bringing tuition for day students at the college to $800 a year, according to a story in the Providence Journal.

Darigan Elected Pres. At NCCY Convention
Francis J. Darigan Jr., 19, was elected president of the National Council of Catholic Youth at the biennial convention in Memorial Auditorium at Buffalo. He is a Sophomore at PC. Darigan is the first New Eng.lander to hold this office and he is first from Providence to be named to national office in the group. Mr. Darigan's victory was achieved on the first ballot after Student Poll Rates Mixers This past week a survey was taken on the Providence College campus to reveal the feelings of the students on the controversial subject of Friday night mixers. Among those voicing their opinion were:

Ken Talen, '63: It appears that the mixers are lifeless and a change of pace could be obtained by having a record hop. This would satisfy most rock-'n-rollers, but some long-play, soft style music would also be in order.

Ray Gagnon, '62: Positive identification by the girls that they attend college would halt the messy-seaters and insure the presence of even more college girls.

Frank Ardizzone, '64: How can we expect the girls schools to come down to our dances when we never send any students up to their affairs? The best solution appears in having buses for the students without cars or else have a car pool of those wishing to go.

Paul Cynwyr, '63: There are not enough students at these dances, so that when the college girls do go to the mixers, they quickly lose interest.

Jack Purchnick, '62: Keep the high school girls out!

PCAA Ticket Policy Announced First Come, First Served Basis
The Providence College announced ticket policy for the According to a news release tickets will be sold to each stud-ent on a first come first served basis. Due to the fact that unprecedented interest is expected in basketball this year, this policy is on a trial basis. If conditions warrant, it will be continued for the remainder of the year; however, it is possible that limitations of one ticket per student may be set for the remainder of the games. If the ticket supply for the St. Mary's game is exhausted and there are students without tickets, the policy of granting two tickets per students will be automatically discontinued. The athletic department has stated, that "it would like to give each student the opportunity to purchase one extra ticket per game."

PR Cord Dance
To be Held Friday
Pershing Rifles Company K-12 will hold its second annual "Cord Dance" this Friday evening from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Pocasset Country Club in Westerly.

Forty-one pledges will be presented with blue and white shoulder cords and ribbons, which identify them as members of the National Pershing Rifle Society. Tickets to the formal, non­ floral dance, are $3.00 per couple. The dance is open to all active Pershing Rifle mem­ bers, candidates and their dates.

The dress for the dance will be regular uniforms with white shirt and black tie.
It was a good little school of fine young boys. Oh, of course, there were the "others." But they were few in number, and over-critical. Besides, they were only students. However, one has to be careful. A few could louse up everything. And then what would happen to the school's public image?

(Reading thousands of miles away.)

"We do our job," said one official. "Boys become outstanding, moral men. Of course, now and then, boys will be boys, but..."

(Soviets launch man around the world.)

High school becomes big-time. (Who cares about Laos?) Second-rate basketball, third-rate football, and fourth-rate academics. (Dag Hammerskjold died now and then, boys will be boys, but..."

Second-rate basketball, third-rate football, and fourth-rate academics. (Dag Hammerskjold died now and then, boys will be boys, but..."

"Christianity? Virtue? Ideals? Fine things!" said another official. "But we must be practical." This means a ten-thousand-dollar job for every graduate. (Dag Hammerskjold died now and then, boys will be boys, but..."

Dorm Weekend... (Continued from Page 1)

There will be football games between the faculty and the Carolan Club. The Jazz Festival, which will be held in Aquinas Hall on Saturday afternoon from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. will have a Birdland setting and will feature a well-known jazz group which will be named at a later date.

Saturday evening's entertainment will be provided by the PC-St. Francis basketball game. The Sunday Mass at 10 a.m. will be followed by a Communion Breakfast in Alumni Hall, which will be held on campus. The Rev. Lloyd Mather, O.P., will be the speaker. An open house on Sunday afternoon will last from 1 to 3 p.m.

The first week of December has been set for the distribution date of class rings to those seniors who were among the first group to order," Andy Sayko, chairman of the ring committee has announced. He added that rings will be given out only to those students who are paid in full. It is expected that rings for the second group will arrive in mid-February. At this time the committee will sponsor a dance during which a ring-presentation ceremony will be held.

Rings can be ordered at any time during the year through Mr. Daniel Sullivan of the bookstore, who will contact a representative of the Josten Company. Mr. Sullivan will accept all payments on ring accounts.

Junior Rings Arrive Early In December

"The first week of December has been set for the distribution date of class rings to those seniors who were among the first group to order," Andy Sayko, chairman of the ring committee has announced. He added that rings will be given out only to those students who are paid in full. It is expected that rings for the second group will arrive in mid-February. At this time the committee will sponsor a dance during which a ring-presentation ceremony will be held.

Rings can be ordered at any time during the year through Mr. Daniel Sullivan of the bookstore, who will contact a representative of the Josten Company. Mr. Sullivan will accept all payments on ring accounts.

Junior Rings Arrive Early In December

"The first week of December has been set for the distribution date of class rings to those seniors who were among the first group to order," Andy Sayko, chairman of the ring committee has announced. He added that rings will be given out only to those students who are paid in full. It is expected that rings for the second group will arrive in mid-February. At this time the committee will sponsor a dance during which a ring-presentation ceremony will be held.

Rings can be ordered at any time during the year through Mr. Daniel Sullivan of the bookstore, who will contact a representative of the Josten Company. Mr. Sullivan will accept all payments on ring accounts.

Junior Rings Arrive Early In December

"The first week of December has been set for the distribution date of class rings to those seniors who were among the first group to order," Andy Sayko, chairman of the ring committee has announced. He added that rings will be given out only to those students who are paid in full. It is expected that rings for the second group will arrive in mid-February. At this time the committee will sponsor a dance during which a ring-presentation ceremony will be held.

Rings can be ordered at any time during the year through Mr. Daniel Sullivan of the bookstore, who will contact a representative of the Josten Company. Mr. Sullivan will accept all payments on ring accounts.

Junior Rings Arrive Early In December

"The first week of December has been set for the distribution date of class rings to those seniors who were among the first group to order," Andy Sayko, chairman of the ring committee has announced. He added that rings will be given out only to those students who are paid in full. It is expected that rings for the second group will arrive in mid-February. At this time the committee will sponsor a dance during which a ring-presentation ceremony will be held.

Rings can be ordered at any time during the year through Mr. Daniel Sullivan of the bookstore, who will contact a representative of the Josten Company. Mr. Sullivan will accept all payments on ring accounts.

Junior Rings Arrive Early In December

"The first week of December has been set for the distribution date of class rings to those seniors who were among the first group to order," Andy Sayko, chairman of the ring committee has announced. He added that rings will be given out only to those students who are paid in full. It is expected that rings for the second group will arrive in mid-February. At this time the committee will sponsor a dance during which a ring-presentation ceremony will be held.

Rings can be ordered at any time during the year through Mr. Daniel Sullivan of the bookstore, who will contact a representative of the Josten Company. Mr. Sullivan will accept all payments on ring accounts.

Junior Rings Arrive Early In December

"The first week of December has been set for the distribution date of class rings to those seniors who were among the first group to order," Andy Sayko, chairman of the ring committee has announced. He added that rings will be given out only to those students who are paid in full. It is expected that rings for the second group will arrive in mid-February. At this time the committee will sponsor a dance during which a ring-presentation ceremony will be held.

Rings can be ordered at any time during the year through Mr. Daniel Sullivan of the bookstore, who will contact a representative of the Josten Company. Mr. Sullivan will accept all payments on ring accounts.
African Conference Explains Distorted American Images

"People are as obnoxious and likeable in Africa as anywhere else," said Mr. Ernest Dunbar, an Editor of the Providence Journal, in explaining the distorted image of Africa in the in the writing of non-factual reports, he explained.

Mr. Murphy Talks On Papal Letter

Professor William O. Murphy, of the Providence College department of economics spoke Sunday night on "Trade, Aid, and Economic Solidarity." The basis for his lecture was the latest Papal encyclical, "Mutua红旗." He brought out the fact that 42 countries could be lost to communism unless a policy of aid and entering into the common market by the United States was carried out. Of major importance are the reciprocal trade agreements that will be stopped unless renewed before 1963.

Dr. H. Harrison Guest Speaker For Barristers

Highlighting the November 8th meeting of the St. Thomas More Club was an address by Dr. Harold Harrison of the University of Rhode Island.

Mr. Murphy was engaged in discussing courtroom procedure and the role of the expert witness, mannerisms and tricks used by lawyers in criminal court cases, and various types of evidence. Dr. Harrison used slides to illustrate his work in gathering evidence in criminal investigation.

These slides, some from previous murder cases, ranged from fingerprints and bullets to charred bits of paper which the scientists were able to put together and by use of infra-red rays to ascertain the dead owner's name, address, and social security number.

Career Cues

"Hitch your wagon to a 'growth' industry and grow with it!"

Douglas Leigh, President
Douglas Leigh, Inc.

"A growth industry is a new industry that is on the way up - moving quickly, expanding fast. When you join a company in one of the growth fields you have something extra working for you...you grow up with it. To find out which industries are hot, you try this: Ask someone in a good investment office to give you a list of the industries he considers 'growth industries.' Data Processing, plastics, and electronics are a few examples. Then pick the one you have a leaning toward, and get the names of the most progressive companies in that field.

One thing I'd like to point out from my own career is...a growth industry may also be an old business that's on the verge of new development. Shortly after leaving college I found this situation in the Outdoor Advertising field. What my associates and I did was to employ color, action and motion to dramatically personify the product, brand or services being advertised. In doing so, we developed the modern type 'Spectaculars' that talked, blew smoke rings, soap bubbles, etc...signs that changed the face of Broadway and the famous Times Square area.

This is just one example. The really important thing to remember is this: When you set your sights on a career, aim for an industry that is going to grow, so you can grow with it. It's the difference between a rocket that blasts off, and one that just sits there. Good luck!"
Editorially Speaking

Congress Woes...

In view of the fact that a few Student Congress members seem to think that the President of the Student Congress is not a capable head, The Cowl would like to point out that without sufficient support, a president of any organization cannot do a first-rate job.

It seems odd that these dissenters want a new president when they show by their own actions that they are not capable of being good representatives. Before the first floor is completed, there must be a foundation.

We commend Joseph Hall for those things which he has accomplished and also for the many ideas for the future which he has presented. Surely, he alone cannot do the job we would like without support.

Thus, instead of reprimanding the president for incompetence, why not first assist the president in accomplishing those ends for which he has been working so diligently.

Ticket Policy OK-But...

The Athletic Department is to be commended for setting up a pre-season ticket policy this year. Even more laudatory is the proposal that students will possibly be able to purchase one student ticket and one additional ticket for use by a friend or relative.

Unfortunately, in the past, a few students here at PC have taken advantage of the Athletic Department by purchasing blocks of tickets for re-sale at “scalpers” prices. To do this not only gives the College a black eye... who can equalize a PC gentleman with a ticket scalper, but also deprives other students of their rightful tickets.

It is hoped that the present student body will cooperate by conscientiously purchasing basketball tickets for their own personal use. And it is further hoped that the Athletic Department will find some way to confiscate the athletic I.D. cards of those students who sell a student ticket to an atheist.

Students should remember that to deprive a fellow student of his seat at the basketball games is more than unfair—it is unjust.

Bill Scanlon, stage manager for “Three Men on a Horse,” the initial production of the Pyramid Players, has sent out a call for stagehands.

S. E. held a meeting to ascertain if all those desiring to work on the stage crew will be held on Thursday at 7 p.m. in room 111 of Harkins Hall.

The play will be presented in room 258, Cranston, December 7 and 8.

The Cranston Club of Provence College will sponsor a “Sports Night” on Monday, November 20 at 8:00. The affair will be held at the club headquarters on Woodbine St., off Park Avenue in Cranston.

On Saturday, November 25, the club will also sponsor the “Price War” Dance. The affair will be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Petters Avenue from 8:30 to 12.

General Verbeck, Commanding General XIII Army Corps, will visit the Providence College campus on November 9. He is expected to reach the College by helicopter on Hendrickson Field in mid-morning.

Poverty can Be Fun

It is no disgrace to be poor. It is an error, but it is no disgrace.

So if your purse is empty, do not skulk and brood and hide your head in shame. Hand bell, Admit your poverty. Admit it freely and frankly and all kinds of good things will happen to you. Take, for instance, the case of Blossom Sigfusson.

Blossom, an inquisitive freshman at an Eastern girls’ college, was smart as a whip and round as a dumping, and nearly a day went by when she didn’t get invited to a party weekend at one of the nearby men’s schools. But Blossom never accepted. She did not have the rail fare; she did not have the clothes. Weekend after weekend, while her classmates went “red-checks” Blossom sat snowed in, utter despair only by her pack of Marlboros, for even an exquisite woman like Blossom’s can afford the joys of Marlioro—joys far beyond their paltry prices rich, tobacco, lovingly cured and carefully packed, and an exclusive electric filter. Crosses himself could not buy a better cigarette!

However, Marboro’s most passionate admirers—among whose number I am paid to count myself—would not claim that Marlboro can entirely replace love and romance, and Blossom grew steadily morose.

Then one day came a phone call from an intelligent sophomore named Tom O’Shanter at a nearby men’s college. “Blossom”...

“Accept these gifts from Tom.”

The play will be held at 8:00 p.m. on November 25, 300, Harkins Hall. Subject for discussion will be the purchase of a boat ticket for the club.

The Semi-Annual Formal Affair t...
S8

Notes
From
The

By Frank Mazzeo, Jr.

SPORTSDESK

THE MAL BROWN CLUB's sponsorship of the Providence College-Rutgers hockey game on November 29, appears to be the initial step in a much needed solution to the attendance woes of the hockey forces. People in the past have seemingly given only lip service to plans for more support of the icemen.

Listed as one of the two major winter sports at PC, hockey, because of its failure to crack the big time winners circle, has been shunned like a contagious disease by appearances at the hockey rinks.

A SPORT, WHICH USUALLY derives much of its excitement and color from its enthusiastic followings, at Providence has been reduced for the most part to listless contests played before an empty arena. No doubt, the hockey team's performances have anything but consistent last season, for example, after capturing the Boston hockey team's performances at Providence, such games as the one sponsored by the Mal Brown Club must not be rarities. The College's administration might one day decide that hockey has no value at the school and discontinue it. Then cries from the "hundreds" of loyal hockey fans will thunder across the campus.

Mr. Catalina

The essence of hockey's problem is that if hopes to get any type of backing it must win and win big. Perhaps this phenomenon is a legacy of basketball's outstanding success, but it probably reflects the true color of spirit at Providence College, spirit that is represented by "an admiring bog," that only knows how to follow a winner.

If hockey is to survive at Providence, such games as the one sponsored by the Mal Brown Club must not be rarities. The College's administration might one day decide that hockey has no value at the school and discontinue it. Then cries from the "hundreds" of loyal hockey fans will thunder across the campus.

Intramurals...

(Continued on Page 6)

Next Thursday the two undefeated teams in the league, the Met Club and Senior Education, will meet in a game which will decide the league championship. The outdoor basketball tournament of the Carolan Club was completed last week as the Reptiles, for the second match of the 1961 season by posting a decisive victory over Nasson College by a score of 1396-1346. Their record is 2-1.

On November 18, the Nimrods fired a score of 1412 in a postal march with Alfred University and Northwestern State College of Natchitoches, Louisiana. The scores of the latter have not been received.

PC Rifle Team Wins Second Match; Nimrods Score High in Postal Match

The Providence College varsity rifle team won its second match of the 1961 season by posting a decisive victory over Nasson College by a score of 1396-1321. Their record is 2-1.

The Nimrods fired a score of 1412 in a postal march with Alfred University and Northwestern State College of Natchitoches, Louisiana. The scores of the latter have not been received.

On November 18, the Nimrods journeyed to New London, Connecticut to compete in the Coast Guard Academy's tournament. Besides the Coast Guard team, the Friars will face the Crusaders of Holy Cross.

Big upcoming shoots include St. Bonaventure, a postal match on November 26, Brown University at Boston University at Alumni Hall on December 2; on December 6, the Nimrods will host Connecticut University at home while firing a postal against William and Mary on the same date.

The KTPC rifle team beat Westminster College of Fulton, Missouri in a postal on November 4 by a score of 1392-1346. This was their initial victory of the season.

The Cowl wishes to apologize for printing the picture of Joe Keough. The picture should have been that of Marsh Tsichela.

Check your opinions against L'M's Campus Opinion Poll "11"

1 Has the Berlin crisis increased Russia's prestige in Asia and South America?

2 Do you look at every date as a prospective wife (or husband)?

3 How many cigarettes do you smoke a day?

Expect more, get more, from L'M

There's actually more rich-flavor leaf in L&M than even in some unfiltered cigarettes. You get more body in the blend, more flavor in the smoke, more taste through the filter, so get Lots More from L&M . . .

RELAX in "HOLIDAY." Bright and light with contrast trim, in a blend of Cashmere and Wool Shetland and nylon thread. $12.95

Expect more, get more, from L'M

Vincent's Prescription Pharmacy

"The Best In Drugs"

Vincent N. CiaVatta, Reg. Pharmacist

364 Admiral Street

GA 1-6003

Vincent's Prescription Pharmacy

"The Best In Drugs"

Vincent N. CiaVatta, Reg. Pharmacist

364 Admiral Street

GA 1-6003
Ed Harvey Leads Friar Rifle Team

Leading the Providence College Nimrods this season is senior Edward A. Harvey Jr., captain of the ROTC Rifle and Varsity Rifle teams. On Saturday, November 18th, Harvey will lead the varsity rifle team against the Coast Guard Academy and Holy Cross at the Coast Guard Academy.

Harvey entered Providence College in the fall of 1958 after having graduated from Archbishop Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York. He enrolled at Chappaqua, New York.

After graduation, the lettermen major plans to serve a three year hitch in the Army in the armor branch. After completing his service obligation, he would like to enter the New York business field.

Mullaney - "In Top Twenty"

In an interview with a Cowl reporter in Alumni Hall, Coach Joe Mullaney was asked several pertinent questions about the progress of this year's Providence College basketball team, reported to be one of, if not, the best in college history.

"How has the team been progressing in practice sessions of late?"

Mullaney: "The team is healthy. As this stage of practice, it is a promising sign that the team is free from any serious injuries." (Tom) Nyrie slowed down recently due to the after effects of a flu shot but he is now ready as is (Dick) Leonard who suffered a leg injury. Another good sign is the acclimation of John Thompson to contact lenses. Everyone else is in good health.

"Has Jim Stone's knee rounded into shape?"

Mullaney: "Stone's knee has come along very well and he will be capable of playing whenever, and as long as, the occasion requires."

"Have any difficulties come up thus far?"

Mullaney: "The greatest difficulty encountered thus far has been the switch to a new double pivot offense. In the past the scoring burden was carried by the guards but with the presence of the two big men up front, Hadnot and Kovalski, it will not matter."

Coach Joe Mullaney

Thompson, the offense will be centered on moving the ball in to one of the pivots."

"Another problem is that Hadnot and Thompson must get used to each other's presence under the boards. Not knowing each other's pattern of play too well, they may tend, so to speak, to get in each other's way in rebounding. That, however, will iron itself out in time.

All eleven players on the squad are serviceable and I wouldn't hesitate to call on any one of them whenever a situation demanded the particular talents of one boy."

We will definitely be a fast-breaking team this year with two big men to get the ball and fire it down-court quickly. A rather somewhat amusing note is that the boys have been so intent on the new offense that they had forgotten to tip the ball in."

"With certain magazines presently rating Providence College prospects so highly, do you think it is resulting in any sort of pressure on the boys?"

Mullaney: "As a matter of fact they have been joking and kidding around about it. The only pressure to be felt will be indirect, that is, our opponents will be 'up' for PC and thus will be tougher than usual. However, if this team performs to its capabilities, it will be very difficult to beat the top twenty teams in the nation."

Friars compiled 199 points. The best ever achieved by a team from Massachusetts, with two runners in the top 10, captured the team championship with 101 points. Springfield 122, Brown 126, Holy Cross 116, and Connecticut, respectively, rounded out the top five.

Jim Keefe, a sophomore from Central Connecticut State, took the individual honors by winning first place. Keefe covered the 10-kilometer course in 31:01.

Keefe by the victory extended his victory record to 10 straight races.

He will now run in the NAIA National Championship at Omaha, Neb., Nov. 25.

Brown freshman's team won the title in the PC. He finished seventh. No member of this team was able to crack the top ten.

The Friars now journey to the NCAA National Championship in which they hold a record of 3:5 in the nation.