

SPIRITED VOTING MARKS ELECTIONS

White Chosen Junior Pres. In Election

Class Elects Slate of Officers in Close Balloting Yesterday

CARTER IS SECRETARY

Walsh Vice President and Donley Treasurer in Other Choices

In an election marked by a close contest for the vice-presidency, the junior class yesterday chose their officers for the ensuing year. The class balloted and elected an entirely new slate of officers.

Bernard T. White was chosen president, Michael J. Walsh, vice-president, William J. Carter, secretary, and John F. Donley, treasurer. White won his post in a race with William J. Riley, last year's vice-president. Fred D. Hogan polled a large number of votes but he was unable to get within striking distance of White.

Walsh Wins

The race for the vice-presidency was won by Walsh, John M. Reynolds waged a battle with Walsh but when final tabulations were made he was 18 votes behind him. Other nominees for the post were Alvin Whalley and Anthony Sasso but they were left behind in the contest.

William Carter won the secretary's post without much opposition although Irving Hicks, last year's treasurer, kept within striking distance throughout the entire contest. Marcus Driscoll and Edward McCaffery were tied for last position with sixteen votes each.

The race for treasurer was decided in the first few minutes of the tabulation of votes. Daniel Geary threatened.

Sophs Nominate For Class Officers

Four Slates Named for Class Elections on Next Thursday

Four slates of candidates will face members of the Sophomore class when they meet next Thursday to select class officers for the coming year. The slates were formed yesterday as the result of meetings based on catalogue divisions.

Representing the arts division in next Thursday's election will be: Robert M. Mooney, for President; Charles E. Sweeney, for Vice-president; John P. Fay, for Secretary, and Charles J. McGovern, for Treasurer. Candidates put up by the science division are: John J. McKenna, for President; John E. Pulaski, for Vice-president; John F. Dunn, for Secretary, and Paul P. Dunn, for Treasurer.

Selections of business students include: John F. Keenan, for President; William P. Danahy, for Vice-president; Edward J. Fitzpatrick, for Secretary, and Joseph J. Reynolds, for Treasurer.

Philosophy students who ordinarily offer two slates based on differing concentration fields agreed to support one set of candidates alone when they vote next week. Philosophy candidates are: John F. Gibbons, for President; George H. Gardner, for Vice-president; Joseph F. Ney, for Secretary, and Donald A. Delahunt, for Treasurer.

"Boy's Town" Still Interesting To Sophomore Who Saw Filming

Robert Masterson Says Mickey Rooney is Sophisticated But Reserved

Contrary to popular belief, witnessing a motion picture in production does not in the least diminish the pleasure of seeing it on the screen. Robert Masterson, a sophomore here, was still enthusiastic as he talked about "Boy's Town," and its stars.

Masterson's pastor is the brother of Father Flanagan, the priest whose courageous exploits to aid homeless boys have been made famous through Hollywood. Masterson was lucky enough to be one of the party given special permission to witness the "shooting" of "Boy's Town," and he came away with some very definite impressions of the cast and the atmosphere.

Passes Given

Passes were secured for Masterson and his party, and they were admitted to "Boy's Town," a real town governed by the boys, situated about 10 miles west of Omaha, Masterson's home.

Bob met Mickey Rooney on location, where he was preparing for the touching scene in which Pee Wee Watson, his faithful friend is run over. They shook hands, and though not too talkative, Mickey might have been quite impressive if it were not for a badly sunburned nose, the result of a hot August sun. In contrast to the roguish appearance which makes him so popular in pictures, Mickey is sophisticated and speaks good English.

Bob was impressed that Director Norman Taurog, famous for his juvenile pictures, spent three hours doing a scene which took five seconds on the screen. The production company spent three weeks on location, and the rest of the filming was completed in Hollywood.

Band to Wear New Uniforms Saturday

Flood Waters Recede and Leave Sweaters and Flannels in Wake; Boys Happy

All was not well a week ago Sunday in the P. C. football stands. The fans were enjoying themselves to the full, but members of the band were uncomfortable in their Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes instead of being garbed in their new swaggar black sweaters and white uniforms. Hand-some horn-tooters who usually delight in strutting their stuff between the halves were denied that privilege simply because a hurricane had blown a little water through the downtown streets.

Now it can be told that the new uniforms which were left in the wake of the big wind and flood of Sept. 21 in a local department store will be worn Saturday afternoon and the new routines which have been rehearsed will be exhibited for the approbation of the Providence College and Manhattan routs.

Practice Program Started

The Rev. Irving A. Georges, O. P., moderator of the organization, told the members Tuesday afternoon that the band and its problems had been discussed at a faculty meeting. As a result a definite program for practice has been established. Thursday noons will be devoted to a rehearsal of numbers to be played at the coming game. Friday afternoons from 1:50 on will be used for a practice of drills and marching formations. All students having class or laboratory periods will be excused.

Much spirit has been imbued in the members of the band as a result of the competition they will meet tomorrow when the Manhattan or the La Salle band will take the Jasper stand.

CUTS FOR ABSENCES

In the future students absent without excuse from regular class meetings will be given one personnel cut, it was decided at the meeting of the Faculty Extra-Curricular Activity. Three personnel cuts equal one general cut.

The new ruling applies only to regular class meetings on the second Thursday of the month, the day set aside for class meetings.

Blaze Tonight Will Feature Game Fervor

Rally and Informal Dance Mark Pre-Game Enthusiasm

The biggest "pep" demonstration in the history of the school, combining a huge outdoor rally with an informal dance in Harkins Hall, will be staged by Providence College students and their friends tonight.

A bonfire, fireworks, music by the school orchestra, group singing and cheers will feature the out-of-door ceremonies starting at 11:30. Dancing will be enjoyed from 8:00 until then.

While the bonfire is sending its blazing plea for victory over Manhattan tomorrow to the gods of gridiron combat, speeches will be delivered by the Rev. Paul C. Perrotta. The school orchestra will play the Alma Mater and the fight songs and the singing and cheering of the throng will be led by the regular corps of the "artist of applause."

Tickets On Sale

Tickets for the dance which will follow the rally have been on sale since yesterday and will be sale at the door tonight. Students and their friends will be dancing to the music of the newly-organized swing band composed entirely of Providence men for the first time. Turf for the indoor affair is twenty-five cents per couple.

The demonstration is being sponsored jointly by the members of the Friars and Carolan Clubs, who urge all to "come early and stay late" to show the "Fighting Friars" they are not alone in spirit when they take the field against the highly-touted and powerful Manhattan Jaspers.

Players Name Dates For Year's Shows

The College dramatic organization, the Pyramid Players, will hold monthly meetings the third Wednesday of every month at 8 p. m., it was announced yesterday by the Board of Directors.

The Rev. Arthur H. Chandler, O. P., dean of studies, approved the following production dates released by the moderator of the Players. The initial major production will run for two nights, Jan. 9 and 10. On March 16, three one-act plays are scheduled to be shown and the last show of the year, the musical comedy, is due to play five nights, April 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22.

NEWPORT CLUB TO MEET

The Newport Club will meet today at 12:30 to consider nominations for officers of the group.

Seniors Pick Tully to Head '39 Officers

Others Named Are John Grady, Robert Healey and Jiray Avedisian

PROTEST CONSIDERED

"Tully For Intullygent Action" Slate Wins Class Support

James F. Tully of Peacedale was elected president of the Senior class at noon yesterday; John P. Grady, Pittsfield, Mass., was elected vice-president; Robert C. Healey, Providence, was elected treasurer; and Jiray Avedisian, Pawtucket, was named treasurer. Avedisian's election was protested to the Rev. John T. McGregor, O. P., Moderator, shortly after the meeting.

Father McGregor is considering the protest now and will announce his decision at 10:00 a. m. today in the large parlor to the group which presented it.

Tully's victory came on the second ballot when he obtained a majority over Fred Turner of Stonington, Conn., and Daniel J. Murphy of Fall River, Mass. Murphy had been president of the class of 1939 last year. Thomas Flynn of New Haven, Conn., was eliminated on the first ballot. Tully is a member of the Friars Club and the Carolan Club.

Grady Defeats Long

John Grady defeated George Long of Woonsocket and Eugene J. McElroy of Providence on a second ballot. Rene Lemieux of Central Falls and Francis X. Asselin of Pawtucket and John A. Mahoney of Boston, Mass., were eliminated in the first.

Freshmen Trample Sophomores 6-0

Bob Dunn Runs 67 Yards on Intercepted Pass to Score

A 67-yard runback of an intercepted pass by left half-back "Bob" Dunn gave the Freshman Class footballers a 6-0 victory over the Sophomores combine on Hendrickson Field yesterday afternoon. Dunn's sensational dash was made possible by the quick formation of his interference, which cleared out all the eligible tacklers in true varsity style, as the hard-running back made his touchdown jaunt.

Powerful Ground Game

The first-year men featured a hard-driving and powerful ground game, with the well-drilled linemen showing exceptional blocking ability in leading the backs to the triumph. "Bob" Dunn and George Avery were the big stars for the Fresh aggregation, with the former excelling in all the departments of triple-threat play and the latter's clever running and passing-snatching ability marking him out for special mention.

Reynolds Outstanding

"Ambie" Reynolds was the best man on the field for the Sophomores, time after time going high into the air to catch the aerial bombs of "Jim" McGrath. This combination was responsible for most of the gains registered by the second-year group, and they led the lone sustained drive.

ENLIST

There is absolutely no reason for any Providence College student with specific interests and talents to fritter away his spare time. No matter where his interest lies, be it in athletic, social or intellectual activity, Providence College has an extra-curricula organization which will suit his individual needs. These various organizations are wide open to those who display the necessary interest.

As far as athletics are concerned, Father Quinn has not only invited, but also requested all those who are personally interested in participating in athletics to try out for any of the teams.

The Debating Union offers the untired candidate every opportunity to broaden his knowledge of world questions and events, and to develop an ability on the public platform.

The Pyramid Players is open to those interested in dramatics or in stage management. The Cowl is a valuable proving ground for those who wish to make a career of journalism.

These are but a few of the many activities. Time and space does not permit enlarging on the functions and opportunities of others—the band and orchestra, the language and literary clubs, the Carolan Club, the various city clubs, the social committees. One or more of these extra-curricula activities is designed for the individual needs of each and every student.

Join an activity; get into the swing of things; associate with your classmates outside of the classroom, broaden your interests, your knowledge, your personality. Enlist.

LEADERSHIP

The bitter feeling which usually follows class elections is enough to make one think that perhaps the democratic election of candidates does not serve its true purpose. The objects of an election: the unification of the class through spirited leadership, the promotion of the class as a representative unit of the College, and the promotion of its social, athletic and intellectual life, are made possible if animosity enters into the election. The choice of leaders should not be dictated by petty ambition, personal prejudices and vague likes and dislikes.

A worthy and capable leader can do much for the general benefit of his class. He can make successes or failures out of its various activities. It is he who is most capable of securing the prestige of the class, through the selection of capable committees, by getting the co-operation of each and every member of the class in all of the class activities, and by conducting himself in such a manner that the College as a whole will respect the class because of him.

And just as it is obvious that a capable and worthy leader is practically a necessity to the success of a class, it is also obvious that the best leader cannot be chosen in a class election if petty politics enter into it. The members of the class who let short sighted personal feeling overcome better judgment will not, cannot choose the best man. Mediocrity will triumph in an election dominated by short sighted politics. The election of an unworthy candidate will probably be followed by a dissatisfaction which will cripple important class activities.

It is to be hoped that the class elections at Providence College will always be characterized by a calm, objective, unprejudiced selection of leaders. The individual classes and the College as a whole will be much the better for it.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Question: Do you favor a third term for any President?

John Gibbons, Sophomore, Philosophy.

No. I do not favor a third term for any President. If a President has been in office for two terms, he has had sufficient time to carry out his policies. Although it may sound improbable, the threat is present that a third term might possibly lead to a dictatorship.

Thomas Mulligan, Freshman, Philosophy.

Yes. In the United States the people indicate their choice by popular election. If the people make evident their desire, through the process of an election, that a man return for a third term, he should fulfill his duty to them by returning and carrying out his program. If his party, through him, has carried out a program that has been for the best interests of the nation as a whole, it should continue on that course, since a change in the control of the government would nullify all previous work.

Joseph Giblin, Freshman, Philosophy.

Yes. If the people desire that a man should return for a third term, he should be allowed to accept and to complete that term. However, I favor a few changes in the cabinet at the end of the second term in order to remove the possible danger of an autocracy.

Francis J. Devine, Sophomore, Business.

No. I do not believe that any man should be allowed to return for a third term as there is grave danger that his ideas might be perpetuated. This perpetuation of ideas might prove to be disastrous, as changing circumstances often necessitate a change in the domestic and foreign policies of the government.

John Cronin, Junior, Science.

Yes. If a man possesses the ability and is fit, he should not be prevented from holding office for a third term. The case should be tried before the people at the polls. It is not a Law which prevents a man from holding office for a third term, but instead a tradition, established by George Washington. Since Washington could not have possibly foreseen all the situations into which America would be placed, there is no reason why mere tradition should prevent a man of ability from giving his service and talents to the people.

Joseph McCarthy, Junior, Science.

No. Two terms are enough for any man to carry out his program. If a third term is granted, it may lead to subsequent terms, giving us a dictatorship instead of a democracy.

Martin Orzech, Sophomore, Arts.

Yes. I do favor a third term for a man if he has the ability. A third term will enable a man to complete his plans. In the present instance the plans involve balancing the budget and completing his program of recovery. A third term is vital and necessary to the completion of these plans. Therefore, why should this program be cut short because of mere tradition.

Uncle Peter Overlooks The Alumni

Official activity on the part of the alumni association will begin on November 14 as a result of a meeting of the board of governors held last week at which a tentative list of activities was proposed and approved. The 14th will see the first beefsteak of the season to be held in the college cafeteria. An innovation, in the form of an added attraction, will be a guest speaker at each beefsteak. Selection of the speaker for the first supper, which is being sponsored by the first six alumni classes, has not been definitely made as yet.

Of interest and importance is the football dinner which the alumni has decided to sponsor, and which will probably be held sometime during the month of December. It is encouraging to see the society taking on additional activities, and it is particularly gratifying to see that the graduates are appreciative enough of a new coach's problems not to demand a Rose Bowl eleven before giving a dinner in recognition of his services.

The remainder of the year's activities will be patterned after the successes of other years and will include running off the series of beefsteaks, the alumni ball, the Communion breakfast, alumni day festivities, and of course, the annual election of officers.

The alumni are expected to play a big part in the promotion of the Manhattan game at La Salle field tomorrow. The Jaspers, while not possessing too strong an eleven, probably will rule slight favorites to take the Friars into camp. Don't let the Niagara score fool you as to the increased power of our eleven, however, for unreported in the press.

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

Syracuse, N. Y.—(ACP)—After five years of experimenting with courses on marriage problems, Syracuse University this fall established one of the first full-credit classes in the subject.

But, though 80 per cent. of the men voted in a student referendum in favor of the course, not a single male registered for the new classes.

Men, not afraid of marriage or the discussion of it, are afraid of registering in a home economics department course, officials believe, for it is in that division that the subject is offered.

Cambridge, Mass.—(ACP)—A new attack on the problem of what causes personal failure or success has been launched by Harvard University with the establishment of a long-time study of "the forces that have produced normal young men."

Under the direction of Dr. A. V. Bock, head of the hygiene department, the investigation will deal with the heredity, constitution, family, school life and other elements pertaining to the make-up of the individual.

Easton, Pa.—(ACP)—"See America First" is the guiding principal of a new type of exchange scholarship arranged by Lafayette College here and Occidental College in California. Traditionally, exchange scholarships are arranged only between universities and colleges of two different countries. The new arrangement gives students in one part of the U. S. a chance to see how the "other half" lives.

It's news when a man bites a dog, but it's supernews when a football coach has to pay to see his own team in action. But that's exactly what happened at the University of Scranton when Coaches Davies and Jones were stopped at the gate for no gain until they paid through the window.

QUOTABLE QUOTES

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

(By Associated Collegiate Press)
"Every college student today should learn whatever he can from teachers, courses and books about human relationships. They are far more important just now than the control of nature, for if we lost control of ourselves, nature will quickly go wild again. But no college student can shift his responsibility on to books and science. He has to find out for himself how human relationships work for him." Dr. Henry Seidel Canby urges more attention on human living.

"Colleges which want to teach young people how to live an examined life may disregard the business index. Whether jobs are scarce or plentiful, the country will wish to be intelligent. In the light of what has happened in certain impoverished European countries, it may be that intelligence is most important when jobs are scarcest." Pres. R. M. Hutchins, Univ. of Chicago, puts in another lick for cultural education.

"There is no evidence to support the common belief among instructors that written tests as commonly used motivate learning or increase total achievement in college classes." Michigan State College's Dr. Victor H. Noll.

"Constantly to prove and improve the power of the mind, to win by experiment and contact an appreciation of beauty, to give the spiritual side of man a chance to expand, whether through formal aspects of worship, through the intellectual approach to ultimate realities, or through the higher types of social relationships—these are tests which youth owes to itself." And Yale University's Pres. Charles Seymour believes that the college campus is the world's best testing ground.

This fall Goucher College will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its founding.

There are nine college alumni associations that are more than 100 years old.

Personality Shots

By John Schofield, '39

Sauntering along the corridors one can't avoid seeing incidents peculiar to daily class life here in the college. For example we find John McGrath with his banana colored sport shoes wearing a topcoat into class. Yet he owns a locker. "Babe" Demers on the third floor asks a freshman some what dazedly where he can find Room 39. And its not because he hasn't his glasses on.

Charlie Prendergast unobserved, practices a few steps of the Lambeth Walk which seems very okay. And Joe Sullivan stares into the Library door where sits Thom Carr reading a current version of Popular Mechanics. Over by the window Frank O'Brien is attempting a few wisecracks into the ear of Jim Tully. Says O'Brien, "So you know a Freshman who knows more than the Professor. Eh? That is bad. One of them has to leave and it isn't going to be the good Father. He eats here."

McNally looking as studious as ever reclines not so gracefully over some Philosophy. George Dickson sits staring at the ceiling, apparently thinking. In the corner we see George Sullivan grinning feebly at McQueeney who is saying something about a "Tent."

So out of the Library and down to the Rotunda we discover a group of Frosh Pre-Med as yet anonymous. Nunez stands to one side preparatory to sliding up to Theodicy. Larry Shattuck meambles by on his way to do a spot of studying. Incidentally they tell a good one about Shattuck. He carried his laundry one night up to the drug store, had the laundry weighed, paid twenty-seven cents postage and returned home whistling. Three days later he received his

Chaplain Forming Holy Name Group

Large Number of Students Already Enrolled for New Organization

A Holy Name Society under the directorship of Rev. Charles H. McKenna, O.P., is being formed at the College. Although formed primarily for boarding students, all students are invited to join.

The aim of the Society is to make the name of Jesus better known and loved, to promote clean and wholesome speech. To receive Holy Communion once a month is the only other requirement of the organization.

Members Share

Besides numerous indulgences, the members receive a share in all good works, the Masses, the preaching, the teaching, the manual labor of the Dominican Order. This includes a share in 33 Masses which a Dominican is bound to say every year for the departed brethren.

Cambridge, Mass.—(ACP)—Ordinary people have nothing on geniuses when it comes to insanity, much though popular beliefs may lead you to believe otherwise.

Authority for this "don't you believe it" item is Harvard University's Dr. E. M. East, who, after a great deal of careful research, proclaims:

"We ordinary people realize that we are not geniuses, and we invent a reason for not making the grade that is soothing our egos. Our nervous systems are sound and healthy. We are mediocrities because we are well-balanced and do things like other people. All we needed to make us geniuses was an inherited or acquired mental taint, something that would have made our actions eccentric."

From the Lab

By Paul Kearney, '39

A visit to the Physical Science Lab. reveals many interesting and I might say many surprising things. One of the best, I believe, is an intricate piece of apparatus which is called a "Constant Temperature Bath." A product of Father Hickey's fertile mind, it has no equal. Its purpose, says James McNamee of the Senior Scientists, is to measure certain units for which the temperature will remain at a constant of 25 degrees centigrade. Since the machine does not vary more than one-hundredth of a degree above or below this constant, it ranks on a par with the costly commercial equipment.

John Flynn of the Freshman Pre-meds was advised by his brother Tom of the Seniors that if he wished to advance in his scientific knowledge, he should write out everything ten times! He will have to do it later anyway. Ask the "Gallant 22!" We Know!

Flood sales: A good number of the Pre-meds and for that matter the entire student body were down-town picking up bargains during the past week. Yours truly paid $2.50 for a zippered leather case which probably went for $10.00 before the storm. Fred Turner put his bargain shirt on and then—he could not get it off. Rube Holdredge was in need of a radio tube. He said it looked swell in its box but when he returned home and was in the act of placing it in his set, the water ran out something awful.

COLLEGIATE REVIEW

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

With the gridiron mania now firmly fixed in the minds of alumni and undergraduates alike, we thought you'd be interested in a few things that you probably never knew 'til now about the world's most popular amateur sport:

A "no game" was ruled in the University of Illinois-University of Chicago contest in 1894 within 21 minutes of the end of the game because Illinois substituted its coach for a regular player.

Football pools net their promoters about $10,000,000 annually. They snare about 2,000,000 customers a week.

Average attendance at all college football games over a nine-week season is 16,000,000 people. And they pay about $20,000,000 for their tickets.

The average cost of outfitting a college football player is $75.

Quarterback Joe Kelly of Santa Clara made a punt in 1935 that landed 24 yards behind him.

Dorais' quarterbacks will call signals in the good old-fashioned way when his eleven is in possession of the ball. For Gus believes that this type of play makes the game more interesting for the spectators.

But before each play is begun by Detroit's opponents, the Titans will huddle to determine which defensive formation to use, a style of play little used on United States college gridirons.

College Parking Rules Stressed

Fr. Foley Says All Drivers Must Observe List of Rules For Parking

To those students who have the good fortune of driving to college every morning, the College authorities want to make known that the parking regulations are to be strictly observed. Because a few negligent motorists have parked their cars in the circular driveway in front of the College, the Rev. Frederick C. Foley, assistant dean, announced that these orders will be stringently enforced. Failure to obey them will result in fines or personnel failures.

The rules regarding parking are repeated:

1. There is no parking in the circular drive in front of Harkin's Hall. There is no parking in the driveway from Eaton street up towards the College.

2. Parking begins on the right at the white line running parallel with the edge of the building and continues on the right only as far as the white line on opposite side of the building.

3. There is no parking permitted in front of the steps leading to the athletic field or in front of the garage.

4. Parking is permitted on Donnelly Drive, on the right only, from Eaton street to the rear of Harkin's Hall.

5. When all available spaces are filled use the elevation in the rear of the building.

World's Fair Sports Program Revealed

New York—(Special)—The sports program of the New York World's Fair 1939, which makes special appeal to the "sand-lot kinds" of this country, from whose obscure ranks have risen many of the foremost athletes of America, was made public by Grover A. Whalen, President of the Fair Corporation.

Announcement was made simultaneously with the dedication by the New York Yankees baseball team of the Fair's Court of Sport, an extensive outdoor area forming part of the setting of the exhibit building on Constitutional Mall, main avenue of the Exposition, which is to house the Fair's Academy of Sport.

The Yankees, who have just won their third Pennant in a row and are now about to entrain for another World Series, arrived at the Fair grounds shortly after noon, accompanied by their manager, Joe McCarthy.

They were escorted at once to the Court of Sport and there Manager McCarthy hoisted to the top of a flagpole the New York Yankees' Championship Pennant. This was the first sports flag to be officially raised within the Fair grounds.

In the Fair's program of sports outlined by Christy Walsh, Director of Sports, there are to be both outdoor and indoor events with independent competitions staged elsewhere under private management but with the co-operation or sponsorship of the Fair. Such events are to include the All Star Major League baseball game at the Yankee Stadium in July of next year, the International Police Pistol Tournament and others to be announced later.

Probably the keenest appeal to the sport-loving youth of America will be through the Fair's School of Sport, the instructors in which are to be this country's leaders in the fields of Baseball, Football, Track and Field and Boxing.

The "school term" extends throughout the period of Fair operation, from April 30 next to the following October 31.

Carolan Club Names Five Committees

Members Cooperating in Rally and Dance to Be Held Tonight

Last Monday evening the Carolan Club met in the Old Auditorium, and plans for tonight's rally and dance to beat Manhattan were discussed. Joseph T. Baldwin, '39, secretary of the organization, was in charge. This group is co-operating with the Friar's Club in sponsoring the affair.

The members appointed to various committees for the coming social calendar were:

Banquet committee, Thomas F. Flynn, '39, chairman, Frederick R. Smore, '40, James D. Welch, '40, Daniel F. Murphy, '39, Stanley Esilonis, '40.

Insignia committee, Joseph Fitzgerald, '40, chairman; Jacob Belofsky, '40, Bertram L. Holdredge, '39, Wilbur Carter, '40, John Barnini, '40.

Committee for chances, Leon J. Thibodeau, '39, chairman; Berle C. Sacks, '41, Robert Lalane, '41, Frank Di Traglia, '40, Douglas Ferraro, '39.

Committee for rally and dance, Joseph Martellino, '39, chairman; Donald Albro, '40, Ambrose M. Reynolds, '41, Paul Kearney, '39, William Nesbit, '41.

Committee to see freshmen, Milton Krevolin, '41, chairman, James T. Clifford, '41, Henry F. Cimlin, '41, James Leo, '40, Donald Cronin, '41.

HOT OFF THE FRYER

"THE WINNER . . . AND NEW . . ."
Pugilism's gift to Providence College will return to the wars next Monday evening (as duly noted on this page in last week's issue of the Cowl) when Freshman Joey Archibald sallies forth from his corner to do battle with one Mike Belloise for the honor of succeeding Henry Armstrong as the featherweight champion of the world. We'll all be hugging the radios that night, and we hope that your name will finish that pulse-stirring sentence "The winner and new featherweight champion of the world, Joey Archibald."

Notes On Niagara

They tell us that the boys played their best game of the year thus far last Sunday afternoon when they held a powerful Niagara team to a 20-7 score on the home field of the Purple. One of the unintentional interference of an official prevented another Providence score as Lefty Carter was touchdown bound when the "twelfth man" stopped him. Lack of reserves again militated against the Friars cause but the team never gave up until that old final whistle blew. Standing out for the Black and White combine was the constantly improving Dan "Red" McKinnon and "Sixty-Minute" Avedisian in the backfield, and Eielonis, Barnini and Johnston in the line.

Young Men of Manhattan

The most formidable rival to invade Providence this season will be the Manhattan Jaspers, who will provide the opposition for the "Fighting Friars" at La Salle Field tomorrow afternoon. The young men of Manhattan are making the second trip into New England territory in as many weeks to swap plays and stuff with the Dominican aggregation. Last week they managed to hold the powerful Crusaders to a 19-6 count up there at Fitton Field, and are determined to redeem the pride of the Empire State at the expense of our boys. Don't forget to be out there to lend a voice to the cheering for the team that hasn't given up yet . . . the "Fighting Friars" who just might come up with their first victory of the year.

Looking Ahead . . .

State seems to have something there in the person of one "Duke" Abruzzi. The man really has gone to town in the games the Rams have played thus far . . . well enough to have a Boston writer refer to him as "one of the outstanding backs in the East." The Bear over on the other side of town had better keep his claws sharpened for that Ram, especially if the Dartmouth college batters him too much.

Dots and Dashes

We're all having our troubles this year . . . the Yales, the Harvards, Princeton, and us . . . We might have mentioned the team that played the Yankees in something called the World Series . . . Quickly, now, what was the name of that club?

Mal Brown returned to the campus with great enthusiasm for Niagara . . . as a honeymoon spot. Assistant coach Ed Crotty reported that his confrere Joe Dulkie made a record-breaking speech after the Niagara game when he said, "The refereeing was lousy."

In 1856, seventy-five camels were imported to form a Camel Corps to patrol the southwestern desert areas of America.

Friars Tackle Manhattan Tomorrow

Niagara Downs Fighting Friars

Capt. "Gig" Pariseau and Paul Sweeney Out as Team Loses 20-7

The Providence College football team traveled to Niagara last week-end and dropped a 20 to 7 verdict to the Niagara University club. Two successful aerials and a 12 yard sprint from scrimmage gave the Purple Eagles their margin of victory.

A crowd of some 10,000 fans saw a gallant Providence team go down to defeat fighting to the bitter end. Well have they been named the "Fighting Friars." A series of penalties, bad breaks, and some very inefficient officiating did not dampen their spirit. Right up until the last whistle was blown they stayed in there giving all they had for a lost cause.

Two Regulars Out

Providence, starting the game minus two injured regulars, Capt. "Gig" Pariseau and Paul Sweeney, fumbled the opening kickoff. They held Niagara for four downs but were penalized 15 yards for holding which gave Niagara a first down on the 12 yard line. On the fourth down DeSantis passed to Spadaccini for the score. Brady kicked the extra point. The Friars came right back after the next kickoff and marched 59 yards to the Niagara seven yard line before their attack stalled. A few minutes later they put on another sustained drive that carried to the 10 yard line before it bogged down.

With six minutes to go for the end of the half Stan Esilonis, whose play was outstanding all afternoon, broke through to block a Niagara punt. The ball rolled behind the goal and Jimmy Leo who was following the play fell on the ball for a touchdown. Jack Levey kicked the extra point to tie up the ball game.

In the second half Niagara scored twice more to gain the victory. Calise scored on a 20 yard pass from Davies and DeSantis dashed 12 yards for the final tally.

Friars Play Good Ball

On the whole Providence played exceptionally good ball under the circumstances. They showed a powerful offense and a stubborn defense. "Twinkle Toes" Davies, Niagara's star back, was stopped almost completely gaining only about 10 yards from scrimmage.

To praise one man in the line in particular would be an impossibility. For from end to end they played magnificent ball. In the backfield Ray Becker was a veritable dynamo. He called signals in excellent manner, he backed up the line defensively, and his blocking was superb. Charlie Avedisian was the Friars most consistent ground gainer with Bill Carter doing most of the kicking and passing. "Red" McKinnon starting his first varsity game gave a great exhibition of courage under fire and broke loose for several substantial gains.

Although defeated, the Friars are far from discouraged and will come back this week fighting just as hard to bring victory to Providence.

Remote tribal country around Assam, Burma, and Tibet is still a center of slavery.

A Chinese dictionary has been completed after 30 years of uninterrupted work. It is composed of eighty-five volumes and contains about 4,500,000 words.

ALBIE AT GAME

As an added attraction in tomorrow's encounter with Manhattan the Providence College Athletic Association announced that L.T. Albie Booth, one of Yale's greatest backs of all time, will be among the four arbiters. Since his college days the former Eli captain has done considerable officiating throughout eastern collegiate circles, but this will be his first appearance in Providence.

Afterthoughts

The whole town is talking about a certain something for which the Providence College gridiron machine is outstanding . . . something which is most often referred to by the somewhat inelegant but highly-expressive word, "Guts."

The Sixty Minute Men

Some enterprising member of the sports-writing fraternity has originated a complimentary sobriquet for the Dominicans which is bound to stick and which is indicative of the general feeling toward the team. The scribe called the boys the "Fighting Friars" . . . and that is what they will be called from now on. The paucity of reserve material has made several of the squad sixty-minute men and the gallantry they have shown under the gruelling fire of full-game play has won several other superlatives of praise from the usually ultra-conservative scribes of the sports sections.

The Coaches' Pride

Coach Hugh Devore and his assistants Crotty and Dulkie make no secret of the fact that they consider this squad one of the most courageous in the nation. All three men were loud in their praises, particularly after the Niagara tussle, and they stressed the fact that no one man should be singled out for special mention because every one of their charges has such a splendid team spirit.

The Rev. Robert Quinn, O.P., faculty director of athletics, is the most enthusiastic supporter of the "Fighting Friars." He is confident that a few of the future opponents of Providence College are going to be very disappointed if they expect to take the measure of his "kids."

RAMBLINGS

At 8:30 the students rushed into the college to get something there that they desired—education; when the day came to a close, the pecking hens left their feeding only to return the next morning. Each time they daintily chose their food and hurried home to digest it.

Some students take education as if it came from an automaton; others take a four year stroll, touching, holding, seizing, grasping earnestly the cup of knowledge, and, at the end, wishing the journey hadn't been so short.

The professor's stare pierced the stunned and frightened class and a disciple had a sudden longing to be oblivious of all realism.

Some students were found studying in the auditorium at band practice! Anyway, they might say, its quieter than home. Homes, like the forgotten country life, have lost their comfort and dignity. Soon there will be folding-pocket beds for those who do not wish to caress the gutter.

New Yorkers Will Invade La Salle Field For Game

SQUAD GEARED TO CONQUER STRONG JASPARS

Avedisian Expected to Start at Tackle in Grady's Place

The Manhattan College football forces invade New England soil for the second successive Saturday to renew gridiron relations with Providence College tomorrow afternoon at La Salle Alumni Field for the highlight of the present home season.

The game will mark the first time that the Jaspers have played on a local gridiron since their last tussle with the Friars in 1928. That year under the tutelage of Archie Golembeski the Providence aggregation pinned an 18-7 defeat on the Green and White eleven coached by Joe Schwartz.

New Coaches

Tomorrow's contest will also bring together as opposing head coaches two men who served as assistants on the staffs of New York universities in 1937, namely: Hugh Devore who came here last Spring from Fordham University and Herb Kopf, the visiting mentor, who left his position as assistant to Lou Little at Columbia to succeed Chick Meehan at the Bronx institution. And strangely enough both men have installed new coaching systems since the taking over of their present duties (thus evening things up as far as that score is concerned.)

The New Yorkers come here after a none too auspicious beginning, the lone bright spot on their record thus far being a 19-0 victory over Niagara University, 20-7 winners over the Dominicans in last Sunday's encounter. The fact that should not be overlooked however, is that all three opponents the Jaspers have faced, employed the Notre Dame System. The result being that Herb Kopf and his boys feel that they now know the Rockne tactics almost as well as their own pigskin methods.

Injury Jinx

Partly responsible for the visitors' shaky start has been their inability to steer clear of the well-known injury jinx in the pre-season drills and in the games thus far. However, Coach Kopf feels certain that the injuries sustained are not of a very serious nature and consequently expects his charges to be at full strength for tomorrow's battle. He made it plain though that he is taking nothing for granted after seeing the remarkable progress the Friars have made under their new coaching regime.

Speaking of injuries, add Johnny Grady, Pittsfield Senior tackle to the list that seems to increase with every game. Johnny was replaced by Jiray Avedisian soon after the start of the Niagara contest when he suffered a broken nose forcing him to the sidelines for the remainder of the game. So impressive was Jiray's play both offensively and defensively that tomorrow may find him in the starting line-up against the Jaspers. The remainder of the starting assignments will most likely be filled by the same men who started Sunday's game. They were: Leo and Potera at ends; Esilonis at tackle; Captain Gig Pariseau and Bob Johnson, guards; Barnini, center; Becker, quarterback; Carter and McKinnon, halfbacks; and Charlie Avedisian at fullback.

Fast Forwards

The invaders will field a forward wall that is plenty fast and powerful and a backfield that is noted for its speed and deception. What is more important, however, is the wealth of reserve material that Coach Kopf has at his disposal. In the three games played to date reports have it that the play of the second stringers has been every bit as good as that of the first team men. This makes the task of forecasting a starting lineup a very difficult one at the time of this writing. Nevertheless the following men are due to see plenty of action against the locals before darkness descends on Alumni Field tomorrow afternoon.

At the ends there'll be Bill Dorsey, a one-hundred-ninety pound senior with two years of varsity experience and Joe Mitchell, who towers six feet four inches and is quite adept at snagging passes. Joe did the booting for the Jaspers last season and against Detroit University he got away an 87-yard punt. Pete Shulha and Art Jocher, a pair of six-footers will be at the tackle posts. Sophomore Herb Boreman and Jerry Fall, Kopf's two "watch charm" guards, appear right now to have clinched these positions from their more experienced competitors. At center "Mugsy" Pomietter is far ahead of all rivals. He plays an intelligent and aggressive game on the defense and is a sound offensive pivot man.

Captain Quarterback

Behind the line we find Captain Al Caruso, veteran signal caller, di-

Frosh Welcomed By Sophomores

Mixer Last Night Climaxes Program of Soph Activities

The annual Freshman-Sophomore Mixer took place yesterday as the sophomores welcomed the first year men with an afternoon of sports and an evening of entertainment.

The freshmen defeated the sophomores 6-0 in a tough football game on Hendrickson field in the afternoon. The evening's entertainment, with John Fay, '41, as master of ceremonies was featured by S. G. Terrace, '41, Charles Flynn, '42, Ralph Paparella, '40, J. T. Clifford, '41, Anthony Caras, '42, Anthony Ricci, '42, Roger Fournier, '40, the "Finnegan A. C.," made up of boarding students and Leonard Lark, John Murphy, Joseph Hern, F. J. Curry, James Murphy and John McKenna, all of Guzman Hall. The audience joined in the choruses played by the College orchestra directed by Milton Phillips, '39. Following the entertainment, refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

of the team, which finally stalled on the Frosh 20-yard line as the first half whistle blew.

Both clubs used every man on the respective squads in an effort to eke out a win. Frosh squadmen included Campanelli, Katzenson, Cooney, Murray, Feldman, Connelly, Lavoie, Flynn, Sloan, McLaughlin, McLeer, Fitzgerald, Carew, Avery, Riccio, Barbarito, MacDonald, Coffey, Gaffney, Kroozan, and Accino. Sophomores who saw action were Reynolds, Orzech, Jacobson, Gray, Farrell, Fay, Clifford, McNally, McCarthy, Saxe, Kusnitz, Gardner, Morris, McGauley and Capt. McBreen.

FR. McKENNA TO SPEAK

The Rev. Charles H. McKenna, O.P., who has just returned to the faculty from a three-year's leave at Oxford University, will speak next Thursday evening before the Federated Catholic Alumnae in St. Xavier's Auditorium on "Europe Today." Father McKenna has gained a wide knowledge of the continental scene through his studies and travels in Europe. He was present at the recent Coronation of George VI.

ATTENTION FRESHMEN

By Associated Collegiate Press)

If all you freshmen who think you've been having a hard time of it these recent initiation days (haze is supposed to be in the air in the fall, you know), just listen to this rule from the "Ten Commandments for Freshmen" published at West Virginia University just after the turn of the century:

"Freshmen must remember that no self-respecting girl wishes to be seen in their company—therefore, freshmen must not talk to girls on the campus."

Quite a bit different from the date bureau, dance and hostess program of 1938, isn't it?

vote. Grady also is in the Friar's Club and the Carolan Club, and last year he participated in the intramural basketball games.

The presidential and vice-presidential elections were carried by a majority vote, while those of secretary and treasurer required only a plurality. The decision to employ the plurality vote came after a motion to that effect had been offered by Achilles Joannidi.

Healey Secretary

Healey defeated Joseph Murray of Providence, Thomas Conley of Harrisville and William Tierney of West Barrington. Healey has been editor of The Cowl since April, 1937, and was co-author of "Friar Away," last year's musical comedy. He is a member of the Alembic staff, and the Debating Union, and was secretary of the class last year also.

Contesting for the treasurer's post were Avedisian, Terence Rielly of Providence, Arthur St. Germaine of New London, Conn., and John Hogan of Fall River, Mass. Unless Father McGregor decides to call for further balloting, Avedisian will stand as treasurer. He participated in football in his Junior year, and is now on the Varsity squad.

Bert Holdredge of Narragansett was nominated for treasurer, but he declined to run yesterday even though he had all the necessary qualifications and his candidacy had been approved by the Dean of Studies.

AQUINO CLUB MEETS

The Aquino Club, Providence College Italian organization, held its first meeting of the academic year last night in the old auditorium.

The club constitution was revised. Nominations for the election of officers will take place next month.

recting the club from the quarterback slot. Al is the team's best blocking back besides being an able punt returner. Jim Grandi and Manlio Boverini are two boys who also may see service at this position. Joe Migdal, a speedy power-runner, will do most of the ball carrying and passing from his left halfback post and "Spider" Spisak, who is expected to display some fancy footwork, will be at right half. At fullback, "Tubby" Savage, chief ground-gainer on the '36 and '37 teams, may get the starting assignment. "Ziggy" Nedwick, Teddy Mazur, and Sophomore John Supulski, all three of which are triple threats, are in line for a good deal of relief work.

DANCE GROUP HOLDS REHEARSAL

At its rehearsal the new college dance group attracted nearly 100 students into the auditorium to listen to its smooth arrangements. Most of them were entranced by the performance and a clap hands group was formed to accompany some of the numbers. A new arranger, Kenneth Clayton, '42, has been added to the roster of the group and some of his arrangements were used yesterday for the first time.

Studiously considering the advantages to be derived from buying a Players' season ticket book, two members of the still very "green" freshman class were seen observing the billboard in front of Robinson Hall the other day. Before parting with their five almighties they wanted to be sure of getting their money's worth.

After contemplating for a while, the smarter one of the two pointed an accusing finger at the female lead in last year's show. "Huh," said he, "Rotten makeup. He doesn't even look like a woman"

Veritas Popularity Contest Announced

Balloting in Annual Senior Feature Will Start Monday

Balloting in the senior poll, which is held annually to determine the outstanding members of the Senior class, will take place the first three days of next week. Michael A. Coyne, editor of the 1939 yearbook, announced this morning. A strict system of distribution will insure accurate results in the voting.

Work on the "Veritas" is progressing. Coyne said, and the class will probably be able to select the official photographer early in November. Sample pictures from all interested photographers will be displayed before the selection.

Coyne himself will issue all poll blanks at the Cowl office on Monday between 12:20 and 1:30 p. m., and on Tuesday between 11:20 and 1:30 p. m. No senior can obtain more than one blank, as each name will be checked in a College Catalogue when the blank is issued. Each must call personally for his own blank.

All votes must be returned to the Cowl office before Wednesday noon. Results will be announced in next week's Cowl.

The decision to hold the poll at this time was made to facilitate the placement of pictures in the Veritas. Last year's poll was deferred until late in April, and consequently was too late to be featured in the annual.
