Debaters Leave For Vermont Road Tour; Challenge Students

Seniors Francis Parente and Gerard Cadorette and Sophomores, Vincentine Parente and John McManan of the Barristers, Varity Debating team, leave today on a four-day road tour which will be mixed by a two-day tournament at the University of Vermont. Friday and Saturday, November 18 and 19. The Barristers will meet Middlebury College tonight and St. Michael's College tomorrow.

Mr. Cadorette, secretary of the Barristers, issued the following statement. "The Barristers challenge anybody in the state tonight and St. Michaels College to-morrow. The Barristers Richard B. McGowan and Francis Parente represent the Barristers Richard R. McGowan and Mark Geary of the Wranglers."

The tournament was the national resolution for the year: Resolved, that the Federal Government should nationalize all basic non-agricultural industry. The judge for the debate was Dr. Metz of the Rhode Island College of Agriculture.

The first issue of the first volume of the COWL was presented to the Senior Class. When the COWL went on the press yesterday, twenty-eight members at the General Hubbub of a busy newsroom. The COWL staff members wafted gently the general hubbub of a busy newsroom.

The COWL enters its twelfth year with Today's Publication. With Today's Publication, the COWL is twelve years old. It is imperative that the Senior Class look at the COWL Bulletin Board every day. Perhaps there will be nothing new on it at times, but, the day you miss it is liable to be the day that some important information is being posted.

Loring Photographs 401 of 405 Seniors
The response of the Senior Class in Loring Studio has been gratifying. The STUDIO has been most gratifying both to the personnel at the Studio and to the members of the STUDIO staff. The lab fees and a half an hour we have been able to photo graph 401 out of 405 Seniors. This should approach some sort of record.

We thank you.

Now to the problem is to return the profits to Loring Studio at once. Since Loring Studio is in the STUDIO, bring it to Loring's, show it to the girls. There's all there is to it. But do it at once. We can displease the feel of picture-taking with prompt payment. We will start the Staff of the STUDIO be able to meet their engraving deadlines without any trouble. Loring Studio has it all at the Seniors.

The club has a membership of twenty-eight members at the present time. A membership drive is planned for the next two weeks. At the end of these two weeks students who will want to join and have not done so will be asked to join as associates. The flying in their flying can be taken only after the regular members are not flying.

The club is an Aeronce Club as its trainer plane, the plane being housed at Hillgrove, R. I.

The purpose of the flying club is stated by the Rev. Walter A. Morris, O.P. moderator, is threefold: (1) to teach its members to fly; (2) to teach the theory of flight and navigation; (3) to enable members to pass the C.A.A. examination for both pilot and navigation licenses.

The club belongs to the North Eastern Collegiate Association of Flying Clubs and hopes to participate shortly under C.A.P. regulations. C.A.P. membership will not obligate members to perform its officers from among the above mentioned four, with the following results: Casey, prior; Dragon, ovice moderator; Paulin; secretary; and William, treasurer.

The club intends to join the Civil Air Patrol as a squadron with the Friars. It also intends to join the Civil Air Patrol and hopes to participate shortly under C.A.P. regulations. C.A.P. memberships will not obligate members to perform its officers from among the above mentioned four, with the following results: Casey, prior; Dragon, vice moderator; Paulin; secretary; and William, treasurer.

The club intends to join the Civil Air Patrol as a squadron with the Friars. It also intends to join the Civil Air Patrol and hopes to participate shortly under C.A.P. regulations. C.A.P. memberships will not obligate members to perform its officers from among the above mentioned four, with the following results: Casey, prior; Dragon, vice moderator; Paulin; secretary; and William, treasurer.

The club intends to join the Civil Air Patrol as a squadron with the Friars. It also intends to join the Civil Air Patrol and hopes to participate shortly under C.A.P. regulations. C.A.P. memberships will not obligate members to perform its officers from among the above mentioned four, with the following results: Casey, prior; Dragon, vice moderator; Paulin; secretary; and William, treasurer.

The club intends to join the Civil Air Patrol as a squadron with the Friars. It also intends to join the Civil Air Patrol and hopes to participate shortly under C.A.P. regulations. C.A.P. memberships will not obligate members to perform its officers from among the above mentioned four, with the following results: Casey, prior; Dragon, vice moderator; Paulin; secretary; and William, treasurer.
COMING OUT OF YOUR SHELL

With publication of the first issue of the COWL back in 1935, the president of the college included in his message of welcome to its founders the thought that "Our predecessors have attained the high ideal of loyalty to the aims and purposes of Providence College and unquestionable realization that with all due "loyalty" to the student body the twelfth volume of the school publication, will strive for the same perfection that has been handed down to us, if we are to accomplish our predecessors' aspiration to work for and champion the name of Providence College, whether it be called the Student Congress or the Student Government."

With publication of the first issue of the COWL back in 1935, the president of the college included in his message of welcome to its founders the thought that "Our predecessors have attained the high ideal of loyalty to the aims and purposes of Providence College and unquestionable realization that with all due "loyalty" to the student body the twelfth volume of the school publication, will strive for the same perfection that has been handed down to us, if we are to accomplish our predecessors' aspiration to work for and champion the name of Providence College, whether it be called the Student Congress or the Student Government."

Looking back through the pages of the COWL of many issues gone by, we come to the inevitable conclusion that records speak for themselves. The student lounge in Harkins Hall was created back in 1935, the president of the college included in his message of welcome to its founders the thought that "Our predecessors have attained the high ideal of loyalty to the aims and purposes of Providence College and unquestionable realization that with all due "loyalty" to the student body the twelfth volume of the school publication, will strive for the same perfection that has been handed down to us, if we are to accomplish our predecessors' aspiration to work for and champion the name of Providence College, whether it be called the Student Congress or the Student Government."

VETERAN STUDENTS AND TRAINEES NEED NOT DEPORT NATIONAL GUARD DRILL PAY IN THEIR EARNING STATEMENT

DEAR EDITOR:

VETERAN STUDENTS AND TRAINEES NEED NOT DEPORT NATIONAL GUARD DRILL PAY IN THEIR EARNING STATEMENT

Expressing concern about the possible deportation of National Guard drill pay for veterans, a former COWL writer requests clarification.

"Dear Editor,"

"I wish to put in my two cents worth regarding an issue that was discussed in the Student Congress office. That issue is the servicing of the COWL."

"To the core of the argument, I feel that the COWL is an integral part of the student body, and that without it the student body would be incomplete."

"I believe that the COWL should continue to be published, and that the student body should be involved in the decision-making process regarding its publication."

"Thank you for your time and consideration."

(Signed) Baggy-britches.

DEAR EDITOR:

"I wish to put in my two cents worth regarding an issue that was discussed in the Student Congress office. That issue is the servicing of the COWL."

"To the core of the argument, I feel that the COWL is an integral part of the student body, and that without it the student body would be incomplete."

"I believe that the COWL should continue to be published, and that the student body should be involved in the decision-making process regarding its publication."

"Thank you for your time and consideration."

(Signed) Baggy-britches.

As I See It ... By Martin Hagopian, '50

Recently a Federal Court convicted eleven Communist leaders for subversion of the United States Constitution and State. With a few days the twelfth volume of the Student Congress was published. The release of the next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The trial of the next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending a hearing in the Supreme Court. The next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postponed pending the next issue was postpone
The actors had the benefit of modern comedy. Rows on rows of seats were floor of the gym while the orchestra filled before the brightly-lighted stage. Twelve members of the student body were elected to membership in the Friars Club, the campus hospitality group, last week bringing the club's roll, which is based on a class percentage base, to its quota for the first semester. Four members of each of the three upper classes were appointed. Seniors chosen were William D. Stillman, Hartford, Conn.; John P. Grady, Waterbury, Conn.; Spencer J. Fox, Hartford, Conn.; and Edward A. Strickland, Watertown, Conn., of the class of 1950. The club, founded in 1944, is one of the oldest and still another basket. Across the spacious floor to score an- added: "No matter what anybody may have said, the Marshall Plan has obviously done a great deal of good." During the business session, conducted by club president George E. Flynn, Jr., Robert A. Flynn, Jr. and Raymond Lavoque, 50, co-chair- men of the social committee, were authorized to begin consideration of plans for a future social event, sug- gesting as a dance by an unusually estimated number of the club mem- bers present, to which Kent County Alumni of Providence College are to be invited. The purpose of the reunion, for which no specific date has yet been set, is to bring the club members into closer contact with the alumni, and to promote the establishment of an active alumni association in Kent County.

Flynn and Lavoque are to submit a report for the club's approval at the next meeting, tentatively sched- uled to be held November 25, in the Gampfer Patio room. Herbert Under- hill, '52, was entrusted with making arrangements for the meeting. In a brief report, Guy Geoffrey, '52, of Fishersville, chairman of the publicity committee, declared that news of the club's activities in being carried by four Kent County newspapers.

One of the last matters to be con- sidered was a motion made by Robert E. Maynard, the club's new secretary, that alums be paid by all members. After considerable debate, in which students opposed the motion, the proposal argued for a permanent fund and opponents voiced themselves in favor of utilizing the club's present means of fund-raising and keeping the club in operation for the year the motion was defeated by a close marg- in. However, in view of the increased backing the plan appears to be gain- ing, it is believed that it will be re- presented again at the club's next meet- ing.

The meeting came to a close, as is customary, with the singing of the Alma Mater. New members who were welcomed into the club were: George H. MacDonald, '50, of Annapolis; Howard A. Douglas, '51, and Richard F. Ryan, '51, both of Greenwood; and Donald C. Quinn, '51, both of Easthampton, Mass.; Donately, 24. The Cowl, Wednesday, November 16, 1949.
By Dave Connors, Jr.

The Providence College Freshman Cross Country squad will journey to New York next week to participate in the ICA Freshman Cross Country run to be held at Van Cortland Park on Monday, November 21.

The race will be run over a distance of three miles and will pit the Friar runners against the runners from seven other Eastern schools.

Coach Harry Coates has announced that his Freshman Cross Country team will be ready for the meet. This team will consist of Johnson, Gannon, Waverly, Gage, Westein, and Bob Tiernan.

Pop Johnson will be given the job of organizing the Freshman Cross Country team. Johnson lost a

THE COWL, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1949

FRESHMAN TEAM TO RUN IN NY ICA MEET

SEVEN MAN TEAM REPRESENTS P. C.
22 TEAMS, 180 STARTERS ENTERED

By Jack Shea

The Providence College Freshman Cross Country squad will journey to New York next week to compete in the ICA Freshman Cross Country run to be held at Van Cortland Park on Monday, November 21.

The race will be run over a distance of three miles and will pit the Friar runners against the runners from seven other Eastern schools.

Coach Harry Coates has announced that his Freshman Cross Country team will be ready for the meet. This team will consist of Johnson, Gannon, Waverly, Gage, Westein, and Bob Tiernan.

Pop Johnson will be given the job of organizing the Freshman Cross Country team. Johnson lost a
New York Hotel Has College Department

With the advent of fall and the re-appearance of large groups of college students, that old familiar parable salve: 'Meet me under the clock at the Biltmore,' again echoes throughout the country. Indeed, this famed New York East Side hotel has become an accredited stand-in Alma Mater erly chaproned and having for its purpose during their Manhattan stay been students who weekend at the Biltmore, for the undergraduates of nearly one thousand universities, colleges and schools. Besides the usual college students who weekend at the Biltmore, there are also some of the girls who made repeated requests for a place in New York where they could come and to some extent be on their own.

The development of the idea for the Biltmore's College Department is interesting. About 1924 a group of American college girls was invited to spend the summer in a garden-surrounded 14th Century Manor in England. Properly chaperoned and having for its purpose a mental and spiritual expansion, this venture was called "The House Party" and proved so successful that an accredited stand-in Alma Mater was set up. An erly chaproned and having for its purpose was that of the undergraduate of nearly one thousand universities, colleges and schools. The first year 150 students were served and the concept was increased to 35,000 in 1941. The department, now "coeducational," is by no means a cloistered setting. That was seven years ago. The first year 150 students registered. The next year the number was augmented to 1500. In 1941 the records showed 35,000—a figure that was increased to 35,000 in 1942. The department, now "co-educational," is by no means a cloistered setting. This innovation likewise appealed to college authorities, and particularly to uneasy parents who had previously feared unsupervised over-night guest accommodations.

Therefore the Department of College Relations of the Biltmore was carefully organized. That was seventeen years ago. The first year 150 students registered. The next year the number was augmented to 1500. In 1941 the records showed 35,000—a figure that was increased to 35,000 in 1942. The department, now "co-educational," is by no means a cloistered setting. This innovation likewise appealed to college authorities, and particularly to uneasy parents who had previously feared unsupervised over-night guest accommodations.

The staff of the ALEMBIC, through severe self-criticism and study of the various literary efforts of other colleges, feel that the Literary Quarterly of Providence College rates favorably if not higher than any other Catholic Quarterly which has come to their attention. The task of maintaining this literary superiority rests with the undergraduate body of Providence College rather than with the outgoing Senior Class. In other words, the Staff of the ALEMBIC throws down the challenge to the lower classes: "This is your magazine—can you maintain the high standards we have acquired?"

There has already been a gratifying response from some of the Freshmen. Paul Flanigan, '33, will be read in the forthcoming issue of the ALEMBIC. He has presented two poems which reflect astuteness and skill and are indicative of even better things to come in the future. Other Freshman and Sophomore manuscripts are now under consideration for the forthcoming issue.

The ALEMBIC office is located in Donnelly Hall and we invite the underclassmen to come in and read the past issues of the ALEMBIC which are in bound volumes dating back to the first issue published in 1920. There are also the magazines of the colleges in our Exchange available for those who are interested in reading them.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1923. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.
Birthday...

(Continued from Page 1) conceived the COWL with Joseph P. Foley, '36 as editor-in-chief, loved and respected Father L. C. McConkey, then president of the college. It was given to say, "The COWL will serve several useful purposes at the college. Being less formal than the ALBEMBR and more dignified than the TIE-UP and RIPPLERS (now long defunct), it will be a practice field not only for the young men who have journalism ambitions but for all those who expect to use the press as a means for exercising greater personal or professional influence."

The COWL flourished and grew year by year until the Spring of 1942 when Editor James F. Shiel, '44, wrote in the 25th edition, "The COWL will probably suspend publication for the Summer trimester with this issue." The COWL was put to bed in 1942, the student body dwindled to practically nothing, the boys marched off to the far-flung battlefields, and the college embraced the military.

After the suspension brought about by the war years, the COWL came to life again on October 26, 1946, being welcomed by the president, now Father Frederick Foley. Yes, the paper was back to life again as a result of the efforts of Father L. C. McConkey. With Joseph P. Foley, '36, as chairman, the committee on arrangements was held together by Owen Mahoney, and in-charge of the ticket committee. Albert Calahan, Joseph Minnelli, Gerald Rogers, William Silva, Leonard Mosy, Arthur Hoy, John Lousserg, and Edward Lynch are members of the ticket committee.

The Rev. Edward P. Doyle, O.P., Moderator of the Senior Class, is advisor for the dance.

Support the Building Fund

The Building Fund is needed more than ever, and the committee is asking for your help towards this end. The Building Fund helps to carry on the work of the university, to help the students money-wise, to provide a place of study for the students, and to help with the support of the faculty.

Festival...

(Continued from Page 1) cludes Maurice Ferland, John Fagan and Gerald Cadorette.

Seniors may obtain tickets to the above men and also from members of the ticket committee. Albert Calahan, Joseph Minnelli, Gerald Rogers, William Silva, Leonard Mosy, Arthur Hoy, John Lousserg, and Edward Lynch are members of the ticket committee.

The Rev. Edward P. Doyle, O.P., Moderator of the Senior Class, is advisor for the dance.

Flyers...

(Continued from Page 1) fly their plans under government control.

Student expense in the club is also a concern: (1) a twenty-five dollar entrance fee; (2) monthly dues to cover out of langer space; (3) a small fee for use of plane (member pays for gas and oil he uses).

It is also the plan of the club to have a graduate division for those who wish to continue relations with the club after graduation.

The club, Fr. Murtagh said, presented an excellent opportunity for men interested in aviation and it gives a good opportunity to learn the rudiments of the theory of flight.

Profession...

(Continued from Page 1) to do—in their usual humble, feeble way.

"We are just beginning what they have brought to a glorious end."

He told the Territorials that they must be filled with the spirit of love "If there is any place, any person, anything that you love more than God, you cannot be saved... No matter where we go, no matter whom we may be with, God is there if we seek.

"As Territorials, we must bring God into the world. Turning again to the Dominican Saints, Father Jurasko concluded, "These Saints are watching every step."

In the simple ceremony of profession each novice knelt and said aloud: "To the honour of Almighty God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and Blessed Dominic, I Brother ——, before you, Father Rubba, who holds the place of the Master General of the Order of Friars Preachers, do make profession that it is my will to live henceforth according to the Rule and form of the Brothers and Sisters of the same Order of Preace of Blessed Dominic until death."

Following reception of the pos- sibles into the novitate, Father Rubba gave the Papal Blessing. Father Brennan officiated at the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, which entire group open with the Litany of Reconciliation and closed with the Lourdes Hymn.

It was unanimously agreed upon at the meeting in the lounge, that a drive for greater membership from among the student body should be started immediately. The number in the student section of the chapter, it is hoped, will eventually at least equal the large number lost in post-graduation, who belonged last year.