Ten Seniors Select F. W. Congress Students Who's Who

Ten Providence College seniors have been selected for representation in Who's Who Among Students and Colleges, it was announced recently. Who's Who is an outstanding college men and women. Those chosen are: William J. Sherry, captain of the basketball team; Joseph P. McGee, president of the Student Congress, member of the Catholic Union, and a member of the Athletic Council and the Literary Society, and David Kerin, vice-president of Student Congress. Also, Anthony E. Jaremski, member of the faculty of the English Department, and Robert F. McKevitt, editor of the Crusader, have been selected for the 1951 edition of Who's Who. The recommendation was given by the Student Congress and the Crusader, which is the official student publication of the college.

Casting For First Musical Since 1947
To Start In March

Providence College's first student musical since 1947 is in the early stages of organization and casting, and will hold during the early part of March. It is announced this week.

A definite call for actors will be made prior to the casting, which is expected to take place the week of March 5. A call for orchestra auditions has been made elsewhere in today's Crusader.

As it now stands, the script for the production will be informal, in the final form, but it is still subject to revision.

All students interested in trying out for the orchestra for the P.C. musical are requested to report to the student lounge at 8:30 p.m. on Fbr. 26. Bring your instruments along. This is not final and other members of the college may be selected.

Beginning March 1, all students, members who have had dancing experience or who are not interested in dancing, must submit a letter of resignation to the student council. Those members will be given a second chance for selection as they will be accepted in the musical in place of those who have resigned.

The music for the musical will be composed by a student who is a member of the music department.

Next Sunday Judge Francis J. McKeon, chief judge of the R.I. Juvenile Court, will continue the Legal series on courtship and marriage with a lecture on the legal rights of man and woman in marriage. It will be given in the auditorium of Albertus Magnus College.

In defining the roles of sanctifying and civilizing the family, Father McKeon said that by marriage, the couple enters into a state that perfects conjugal love, while actual graces are the special divine helps in carrying out the duties of the sanctifying and civilizing roles of the family.

In this connection, Father McKeon stated that the effect of the encyclical is to guide Catholics to look at their marriages in the light of the universal laws of marriage as promulgated by the pope and explained to them in the Papal Encyclicals as guides to maintain better social conditions.

At 7:00 p.m. Monday, February 26, the Air Force selection team will hold an open house to conduct a question and answer period in the auditorium of Albertus Magnus College. One film will star Sid Caesar, known for his comic interpretation of the college yearbook, and will show a typical day and the flight training received by qualified men.

A Tribute To Harry

The following letter has been received by track coach Harry Coates from Inspector Matthew A. Plummer of the Providence Police Department, expressing his appreciation to the fine performance of Coach Coates' one-mile relay team. We publish it because we feel it is a fitting tribute to the fine work Coach Coates has done.

Dear Harry:

Last night at the Junior National I was treated to two pieces that possessed a rather paradoxical character in the person of Vayo. This artist, who had the ability to capture a satiric inner as well as outer personality (as in the case of Charles Read), completely missed the character of his wicked Maria, when he painted her as a madonna. This would not be so strange, were it not for the fact that the portrait of his wife as a madonna, is his most triumphant work. The descriptions are lucid, and the dialogue contains an Italian flavor, an exceptional accomplishment, when a writer succeeds in another language.

The poetry of Paul Fleisher shows that his author knows what poetry is. And the last five lines of the poem "December Ground" prove that Fleischer knows how to speak poetically. He has a command of rhythm rarely found in undergraduate literature, and his imagery fuses for the most part.

Edward Kelley, in his character Rod- nay Adams, has created something the Walter Mitty variety. Adams differs from Mitty, however, since he is not content to daydream—he must act.

Get well, my friend.

Sincerely yours,
Matthew A. Skoe

Another issue which arises is that of cutting down the cost of the rings to the students, and we feel it is our obligation to include it in this investigation. I read at last Friday's meeting the proposal made to me by a reputable jeweller. Concern of whom I had never heard until we began the matter. I am not at present interested in the proposal because I am sure that you all remember the sav-

With the present method of pur-
curing the bookstores to make five dollars on every ring. Making a profit is a legitimate and no one challenges the right of the bookstore to do so. However, some do say that five dollars is too much, to which the bookstore replies, "It is necessary to offset the cost of unclaimed rings for which (the bookstore) is responsible. This does not seem at all reasonable because a deposit is all that is required by most companies and in the event of a ring not being claimed it is returned to the manufacturer who keeps the deposit and credits the agent with the balance cost of the ring. If the proposed method of purchasing the rings—namely, directly with the company—he adopt-

Aviation Cadets, training toward wings and commissions in the U. S. Air Force, get 36 hours of navigation training in the F-80 “Shooting Star,” fast jet fighter of the U. S. Air Force. The four Cadets shown here are going over plans for a navigation interception mission with their instructor. College men selected for Aviation Cadet training may also win wings and commissions as navigators in the new, long-range, multi-engined bombers and transports of the Air Force. A U. S. Air Force Aviation Cadet Selection Team of officers will be here from February 26 to March 2 to interview college men and women interested in flying and non-flying careers in the U. S. Air Force.

To Interview Men In A-110

1. Single, male citizen, between 20 and 26 years old. Applicants must agree to remain single during the training period.

2. Must have completed two years of college (60 semester hours or 90 quarter hours) towards a baccalaureate degree at an accredited college or university.

3. Must be able to pass the Air Force Qualifying Examination, Physical Examination, and Moral and Personal Examination. Physical examination for both the Air Force Pilot Training and the Navigation Training are the same except the latter is less stringent for vision. Starting March 2, the meetings will be held on Friday nights.

Flying Time Allotted

The Flying Friars held a short business meeting Monday night before their weekly navigation lecture. The use of the club’s plane, based at Providence Airport, was allotted to club members for the first time. There will be pilots for those who haven’t yet soloed.

As many students have manifested an interest in the navigation course, George Brenkel, club CO, has announced that there is still room for a few more members.

Starting March 2, the meetings will be held on Friday nights.

Plot Your Course...to the Top!

Start your climb to the top with a year of Navigation training in the U. S. Air Force... training that pays off when you proudly pin on those Navigator’s wings, with that starting salary close to $5,000 a year if you can qualify.

Choose Your Point of Departure...Climb on Course

In navigator’s language, that means “plan ahead.” Your point of departure is the Aviation Cadet Selection Team soon to visit your campus. See that team... and plan now to climb on course.

Your U. S. Air Force Aviation Cadet Selection Team will be on your campus:

TO FORM SECOND TERTIARY GROUP

The second meeting of the Providence College day school Tertiaries took place on Monday, February 2 at 1:30 p.m. Fourteen members were present. A lively discussion concerning various spiritual books read by the members followed the spiritual meeting of the club.

For a number of college students who cannot attend on Monday and desire to join, there will be a second group established at any hour on any day of the month convenient to them. They are requested to deposit in the Cowl box on the second floor of Harkins Hall a scheduling the free hours in which a meeting can be held once a month. A meeting of the second group will take place very soon. All interested should contact Patrick Casey, Prior, at once.

Bishop Ciales, Dominican Bishop from the diocese of Multan in Pakistan, was the guest of honor at the Expansion group of the Third Order held Friday night in Aquinas Hall. Bishop Ciales gave a thrilling description of life in Pakistan and the progress made by Dominicans in that country. After giving Benediction, the Bishop spoke personally with many of the Tertiaries. All the members were very much impressed by the Bishop's very interesting talk.

On Friday, March 3, the Rev. Norbert George, O.P., from New York City, will give an illustrated lecture showing films which he took while in Lima, Peru. His subject will be Blessed Martin de Porres, the colored Dominicans lay brother, for whose canonization Fr. Georges is the promoter. All Tertiaries are invited to attend this very interesting lecture. A large audience is expected.

Remember that there are now three groups of Tertiaries here at Providence College. One of these three must meet at convenient time for you. Why not join?

CAMERA CLUB MEETS

The Providence College Camera Club will hold its next meeting Tuesday, February 27, at 8:00 p.m. at the Club Geister. All members are urged to attend as a formal group photograph to be used in the yearbook will be taken.

Walter Little also announced that the annual outing and the exhibit will be planned at the usual time as well. Also stated that movies for the home-bound will start soon and all interest should be present to make arrangements.

Providence College To Run April Fete

About fifty members attended the third meeting of the Greater Providence Club held last week, so the club initiated plans for its social season.

The club voted to hold its first social function, a dance to be held some time in April. Robert Farrell and Tom Gleason were appointed Co-Chairmen of the dance committee. Also named to the committee were: Thomas Shainley, Francis Brown, Donald Renahan, Larry Waldman, Armand Blouede, George Murphy, Joseph McGee, and Norman Dube. The members also voted to donate five dollars to the Overseas Service Program of the NFCCS.

As this club is one of the newest campus organizations, it is still seeking new members, and a cordial invitation has been extended by its president, Robert Ryan, to all students who are residents of the greater Providence area to join; and he announced that the next meeting will be held on Monday, March 12, at 8 p.m., at the Roger Williams Post Hall on Smith Street, in Providence. Refreshments will be served and a well balanced program of entertainment has been planned.

Keep Kampus Klean

As this club is one of the newest groups of Tertiaries here at Providence College, a request is made in a moment of distraction and does not reveal the true mind of the co-editor.

"Bids are going like hot-cakes." That's the word spreading through the junior class as the ticket booth in the rotunda of Harkins Hall has been doing a land-office business in the past days. At press time yesterday nearly two hundred bids were already sold.

Co-Chairmen Louis Semmence and Robert McKinney announced yesterday that other classes will be given an opportunity to purchase bids starting next Monday. They also declared that only two hundred and fifty bids will be sold and that it will be on a first serve, first come basis.
Frolic On May 12

Preparations have begun for the Frolic's annual dance to be held on May 12 at Hartking Hall. Dancing will be from 8 until 12 midnight. Although dress will be semi-formal, those who are planning on attending are encouraged to wear formal attire. The orchestra will be selected at a later date. The price of the bids is $2.50 per couple.

The dance committee consists of Jim Wille as chairman, and Ted Sperati and Leon Crook as his assistants. Sam Billard, Carl Boniva, Jack Dowling, Dick Resnisky, Bob Burgquist, Joe Divine, Bob Perry, and Jules Paulino make up the Decoration Committee. As a few openings on this committee still exist, and three other committees have yet to be formed, anyone possessing artistic or decorative talents or who would like to offer his services, is asked to contact the chairman or one of the class officers as soon as possible.

Deadline To Enroll Under GI Bill Is July 25

Veterans who wish to go to school and take on-the-job instruction under the GI Bill and who plan to start their courses in January or February in order to be in training before the July 25, 1951 deadline for beginning training, are urged to enroll as soon as possible by John L. Beavey, Manager of the Providence Regional Office of the Veterans Administration.

"For most veterans, the opportunity to enroll under the GI Bill educational benefit will expire next July," Mr. Beavey said. "Therefore, those who have not utilized their entitlement but wish to take advantage of it should act at once. Entering a school that is run on a term basis isn't always easy if the student tries to enter after the term has begun. The term starting in January or February, or next spring, may offer many veterans their last chance to enroll under the GI Bill.

"Veterans having educational or training plans should make contact immediately with the schools or employers offering the type of course or on-the-job training that is desired. Complete information about how to enroll for training before the July 25, 1951 deadline may be obtained at any VA office.
