Friars Face Gorham In Basketball Opener

By Martin Sandler

Hopes for an extremely successful season run high as the varsity basketball squad enters its final week of preparation for the 1952-53 season. The Friars officially open their season next Tuesday night when they play host to Gorham State at the Mt. Pleasant Gym.

No less than nine varsity veterans appear on the P.C. roster and assure the Cuddymen of having their most experienced club in years. Returning from last year's varsity are Bob Moran, Bob Prendergast, Hank McQueeney, Tom Mullins, Ken Kerr, Jack Reynolds, Jack Durkin, Phil Lynch, and Joe King. Newcomers to the varsity include Bill Quinlan, Ed Ryler, Charlie Aquavia, Jack Keating, and Jack Priessner. Returning to the varsity after a year's absence is John Pover.

Moran Scores 380 Points

Bob Moran, the Friars have the most prolific scorer in their history. Last season, his first in varsity competition, Bob set a new P.C. scoring record of 380 points. It seems that nothing short of disaster will be able to stop him from even bettering that mark this year.

Bob Prendergast and Hank McQueeney give the Cuddymen two other excellent scorers. Both will be counted on to carry a heavy share of the offensive burden.

NFCCS To Observe Mary's Day Dec. 5

The Mariology Commission of the N. C. C. S. announced today that a "Mary Day" is being planned for December 5 in honor of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

This day, which is First Friday, has been selected in order that "Mary Day" can be observed in conjunction with the Eucharistic adoration in the Student Lounge.

This activity marks the inception of the Mariology Commission's program for this school year.

The extent of student participation in this homage to Mary will be recorded by means of a register located outside the Student Lounge which will be signed by the students entering the lounge for the special Friday devotions.

Plans are now in progress and daily bulletins will be posted the week of December 1, giving particulars for the special observance.

"Seven Keys To Baldpate" Tryouts Begin Monday Evening At 7:30 P. M.

"Seven Keys to Baldpate", a mystery-comedy, will be presented by the Pyramid Players, Thursday, February 12th. The play, by George M. Cohan, includes three female parts plus seven male parts. The try-outs will take place in Room 221 in Harkins Hall, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, (December first, second and third,) at 7:30 p.m.

The plot involves an author who has made the bet that he can complete a novel within twenty-four hours. He then goes to a deserted summer resort, in the middle of winter, to create atmosphere and plot for his story. A variety of episodes takes place interrupting the author at his

Timlin Announces Xmas Job Openings

Mr. Maurice J. Timlin, director of the Providence College Placement Office at Providence College, announced that additional conferences will be held the first week of December. The conferences will take place in Harkins Hall. For the convenience of the Seniors who have not attended previous conferences, the following hours are reserved to enable them to attend these very important meetings:

Tues., Dec. 2, 9:30, Room 208.

Wed., Dec. 3, 12:30, Room 210.

Wed., Dec. 3, 6:30, Room 214.

Thurs., Dec. 4, 10:30, Room 208.

ALL Seniors are strongly urged to attend regardless of their standing with the Armed Forces or their intentions to go to graduate school. Mr. Timlin also wishes to inform all students that Christmas jobs are now available at most department stores in Providence. However, immediate action is advised because of the number of students seeking holiday employment.

The stores that have hired Christmas help expect employees to work right up to Christmas Eve and possibly a few days after Christmas. Students planning to have CHRISTMAS week for Post Office jobs will not be considered.

Initial Issue Of Quarterly To Come Out After Holiday

The Alembic, campus literary magazine, will make its first appearance soon after the Thanksgiving holiday, it was announced at the publication's office on Monday afternoon. According to Henry P. Griffin, Editor, this first issue will not be large, but it should prove interesting to the students.

NOTICE TO SKI CLUB MEMBERS

The Ski Club photo for the Veritas will be taken after the Thanksgiving recess at a time and place to be announced later.

Economic Troubles Facing Rhode Island Explained By Gadon

Emphasizing the high cost of productivity in Rhode Island as compared with the lower costs in other parts of the nation, was the theme of the talk given last night by Mr. Herman Gadon in addressing the Industrial Relations Institute and the Labor-Management Guild of the Thomistic Institute at Albertus Magnus Hall.

Mr. Gadon then went on to discuss in fuller detail the particular problems that face the businessmen of Rhode Island today.

Mr. Gadon is the works manager at Crescent Company Incorporated of Pawtucket. He is a graduate of Dartmouth College and presently is studying for doctorate in economics at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is also a member of the sponsoring institute.

Next Tuesday evening at 8:00 p.m., the third in the series of these lectures will take place in Albertus Magnus Hall. The speakers for the occasion will be Mr. John Bello and Mr. Frank Sgambato, two of the top leaders in this state's labor movement. These forums are open to the public.

Myers Addresses Business Gathering

Mr. Dwight T. Myers, Traffic Engineer for the city of Providence, will be the featured speaker at the monthly meeting of the Ship-Scales Club in the Student Lounge of Harkins Hall, Wednesday evening, December 3, at 8 p.m.

Arthur T. Alcaez, Corresponding Secretary of the association, announced that this will be a very interesting meeting and all members are requested to attend. At the conclusion of the meeting, coffee and doughnuts will be served.

Friars Club Complete Plans For Dec. Formal

A Christmas motif will form the background of a week from Friday's annual Friars' Formal, Dave Nani, Friar Club president announced today. The construction of this holiday theme is under the direction of George R. Hyland.

Joe Pompei and his orchestra, newcomers to the College, will provide the music for this occasion, which is the only on-campus formal of the social season. Dancing will be from 8 to 12 a. m.

Price Reduction

The price of the Formal this year has been established at $3.00. However, if any student obtains his tuxedo from the Waldorf Co. in downtown Providence, Ken Quirk, P. C. '34, will pay $1.00 towards the price of the bid. Thus the actual price will be only $2.00.

The selection of a queen to preside over the Friars' Formal will take place this year for the first time. A novel method of selecting the queen has been chosen. The presidents of each of the fourteen territorial clubs will submit a picture of their choice for queen to Charles F. Banfield, queen selection chairman. Banfield stated that those attending the dance will have the final say in picking the queen. The regional club choices will be placed on the wall, and, as the couples enter the Harkins Hall Auditorium, they will be given two ballots. The couples will then vote for the queen.

Refreshments to Be Served

Egan, Hieroglyphics Discussed At Panel

By J. J. Marquis

The sports forum conducted last Monday night ran the gamut from Egyptian hieroglyphics to the subject of Pat Egan, sidelined defenseman of the Rhode Island Reds.

Appearing at the panel were: Jerry Prior, sports columnist for the Journal-Bulletin; Frank Lanning, cartoonist and sports writer; Jerry O'Brien, sport announcer for WJPB; Joe McGee, former coach of football at P. C. and the Rev. Paul M. James, O.P., advisor of the COWL.

Hieroglyphics Early Sports Writing

In getting back to the subject of hieroglyphics, it seems that the first form of sports writing was found in Egyptian tombs, in those times they recorded the famous sporting events (Continued on Page 2)

Brown Cadets Hold Joint Military Ball

The members of Providence College's Army ROTC unit have been extended an invitation by Brown University's Air Force ROTC group to attend that unit's annual Military Ball, which will be held on Saturday, December 13, at Alumni Hall, Pembroke College.

A similar invitation has also been sent to the ROTC units on the University of Rhode Island campus. This non-floral dance, which draws upon the ROTC units of Rhode Island's three major colleges join in a formal social event, will be one of the highlights of Brown's social calendar.

There will be dancing from 9:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. Ed Drew's orchestra will supply the music, and the Jabberwocks, a vocal group, will entertain during the intermission. Brown's Air Force ROTC Drill Team will provide an escort for the queen, who will be elected and crowned during the course of the evening.

A limited number of tickets are available at ROTC headquarters on the Providence College campus. The price of admission which includes refreshments is $2.00 per couple.

Col. Fisher Speaks At ROTC Banquet

Lt. Colonel James Fisher, the former battalion commander of the 465th transportation heavy truck battalion, was the guest speaker at a cadet officers' dinner held last Wednesday night at Johnson's Hummocks Grill. Colonel Fisher, who now holds the civilian position of port agent of Providence Authority, spoke on the advantages of the transportation corps. Colonel Fisher told of his experiences in the transportation corp and the usefulness of this experience in his present position.

Attending the dinner were the Very Reverend Robert J. Slavin, O.P., who praised the officers for the work they were accomplishing; the Reverend Vincent C. Dore, O.P.; Colonel Roy P. Moss, PMS & T at Providence College; members of the ROTC staff and many cadet officers. The dinner was sponsored by the Cadet Public Relations Committee.

Bishops Statement

That morality and virtue are handled lightly here in America is quite evident. Through thousands of advertisements, ease and enjoyment are put forth as the ends of life. Through newspapers, magazines, radio and television programs and lectures, pagan living is exalted in crude and subtle ways. Any reference to the desirability of virtue or to gearing one's life to higher goals is ruthlessly eliminated.

In many of our colleges and universities, students absorb poisonous doses of hedonism, positivism, pragmatism and egalitarianism. What does this mean? It has led to an atmosphere of pessimism and a sense of despair which threatens to lead us to moral bankruptcy and national ruin. What is the solution to this unsavory situation?

Out of the annual November meeting of American bishops came a statement which was a penetrating and tightly reasoned solution to this problem. The gist of the argument was that in order to correct the eroding influence of secularism, religion must not be separated from education. This is so because man needs religion "because he is a creature of God, . . . to give meaning to his life . . . to give him a sense of responsibility . . . because without God man is lonely . . . because he has an impelling need to worship."

This recognition of religion is absolutely necessary because "without religion morality becomes a matter of individual taste, of public opinion . . . without religious education, moral education is impossible."

The bishops did not call for the destruction of public schools. . . "We recognize that the state has a legitimate and even necessary concern with education." What they did call for was increased recognition of the importance of religion by the state, so that the threat of secularism can be eradicated. It is to be hoped that these words do not fall entirely on deaf ears.

Hockey Spirit

This year our hockey teams enters its first season of intercollegiate competition, and if we can judge from the terrific battle which they put up against Brown last Friday night at the Auditorium, this school can expect a real renaissance insofar as school spirit is concerned. To anyone who did not actually witness this contest, the final score would be grossly misleading, since for the first two periods our men almost kept pace

Congress Holds Meeting; Deals With Old Business

The Providence College Student Congress held a special informal meeting last Tuesday, November 18 in Room 300. President Roger J. Aubin stated that his purpose in calling this special meeting was to eliminate the backlog of business on the Congressional calendar.

The first item on the agenda was a discussion of whether Tuesday or Thursday was the best day to hold a meeting. Lou Gomez then stated that, as he found himself unable to attend the meetings, he was forced to resign from the Congress.

In accordance with the constitution, which provides that a class's elected officers shall fill any vacancy in a class's congressional representation, Jim Dillon, Junior Class vice president, will take Mr. Gomez's place.

It was then decided that, as two members would be unable to attend meetings on Tuesday, future meetings of the Congress were to be held on Thursday.

Dick Fontaine, chairman of the legislative committee, announced that Senior Delegate Jim Marshall had proposed an amendment to the constitution to the effect that the Congress should convene two meetings per month.

Bill Broderick, Junior Delegate, then obtained the floor and pointed out that it would take three months to amend the constitution, and that any ordinary bill to the same effect would be unconstitutional. Brod. . . suggested that President Aubin make it a policy to call a special meeting each month. This would establish a tradition of having two meetings per month, but would be more workable than a constitutional amendment.

Len Riley, Sophomore Class President, then requested that the Student Congress purchase some peanut spots which the Sophomores had bought for their Hop. Riley went on to state that these lights could be added to the Congress's newly purchased set of permanent decorations. It was then decided to investigate the possibilities with a team which is perennially one of the finest in the nation. In fact, two years ago Brown reached the finals of the NCAA tournament.

But the most amazing aspect of this Providence team was not its skill, although it boasts some highly talented players and will within a short time become P. C.'s athletic pride and joy, but it was the pluck and spirit displayed throughout the game which impressed us. More of this type of spirit is needed in every phase of Providence College life. Indeed, our representatives in other sports might do well to watch the hockey squad in action.

The students, too, might profit considerably by attending the games. In addition to thoroughly enjoying themselves, they could not help but gain some measure of pride both in their team and in their school; and perhaps they might carry away with them some of the genuine school pride manifested in the rink.

We should also like to take this opportunity to remind the students of the coming basketball rally. It will occur on Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 6:30 p.m., in Harkins Auditorium. Make a real effort to attend this rally, to show that you are 100% behind the team.

Friars . . .

will also be decorated in keeping with the holiday spirit.

A community sing will be held during the intermission. During this innovation, our school anthem, Alma of having the Sophomore Class donate these to the school through the Congress.

In the course of the discussion on this suggestion it was proposed that a tax be levied on each organization holding a dance or other social event in the Harkins Hall Auditorium or Student Lounge. The money thus realized would be used to obtain more decorations and other paraphernalia for the Auditorium and lounge.

After this, the much discussed attendance proposal was brought up once again. This bill was discussed for almost one hour. The purpose of this discussion was to arrive at several versions of this proposal, originally introduced by William F. Broderick, Jr., in the hope that one of them would prove acceptable to the necessary two-thirds of the Congress. In the midst of the discussion, Len Riley moved that, as this bill had already been voted down, the Congress should not discuss it any more. The members then voted to kill the proposal by a vote of 11 to 2. Broderick and Horn voted against killing it. Marshall, Resnisky, Doherty and Romberg were absent.

However, in explaining their votes against killing the bill, the two members voting in favor of the original proposal succeeded in resurrecting the bill. It was then suggested that Broderick draw up a series of versions of his original amendment and submit them to the Congress for action. Broderick agreed to do this.

The meeting was closed with President Aubin urging the members of the Congress to devote themselves less to haggling over procedural methods and more on constructive measures.

Mater, as well as Christmas Carols and dancers' choices will be sung.

Bill O'Neil, chairman of the affair, joined Friars' President Nani in assuring all and sundry that, "all who attend this highlight of the social calendar will have a thoroughly enjoyable evening." O'Neil further said that, "As there are more than twelve hundred students in the college and only 250 bids to be sold, we urge all those who wish to go to the dance to purchase their bid as early as possible. The bids are happily going faster than expected, and we may have to refuse some who would want to go."

Friars Club Will Sponsor Rally Before Initial Game

The Friars Club will sponsor a basketball rally this coming Wednesday night starting at 6:30 p.m., in the Harkins Hall Auditorium. The rally will precede the opening game of the season against Gorham State which will be played at the Mount Pleasant Gym immediately following the festivities.

Supplying music for the occasion will be the R.O.T.C. band. One of the innovations at this rally will be the introduction of the new fight song written by a group of sophomores.

The players of both the varsity team and the freshmen teams will be introduced to the students by the coaches, Vin Cuddy and Hal Martin.

A FEELING OF RUSTIC CONTENT permeates the faces of these good folk at last Saturday's Farmer's Festival Dance. Calf in right foreground, though forgotten, appears unmoved.

(i.e. chariot racing, water-polo etc.) on the walls of the tombs.

However, it was not until the time that they began putting all the sports on one page of a newspaper that the sportswriter came into his own.

Jerry O'Brien made the observation that a sports announcer who is broadcasting some sporting event is put on the spot every moment, whereas a sports commentator or newspaper writer can retract or make apologies for a statement. The announcer doesn't have the same opportunity, once he says something, that's it.

R. I. Reds and Pat Egan Discussed

Of interest to local fans was the discussion that centered around the Rhode Island Reds and Pat Egan in general. Egan, defenseman for the Reds was recently suspended from the league for the remainder of the season, thanks to the league president. He was granted the suspension without even the benefit of a hearing.

Naturally, the discussion got around to Ted Williams and whether or not his drawing power was the result of the newspapers building him up, or whether he was a colorful figure and it was necessary to write about him. It seems that this moot question will never be settled to the satisfaction of all.

Latin, Anglican Heritage Discussed

The first in a series of lectures sponsored by the Carolan Club was held last Thursday evening at Aquinas Hall, at 8:00 p.m. The speaker, Rev. F. C. Lehner, O.P., was introduced by John Martiska. Approximately sixty students attended. The lectures usually last thirty minutes or more, and are followed by a somewhat similar period of questions from those attending the lecture.

The topic of discussion was, "The Culture of Europe," emphasizing the countries which the speaker had visited. The countries discussed were: Italy, France, England, and Belgium. Father Lehner discussed the customs,

Hilarious Contests Mark Senior Frolic

One of the largest crowds ever to attend a dance of this kind in Harkins Hall was on hand last Saturday evening, when some 350 couples attended the Farmers Festival.

The annual Senior informal extravaganza took place amid a typical barnyard scene complete with a live calf and turkey. Cornstalks and cowpens were also employed to create the farm-like atmosphere. Dancing was to the music of the Leonard Brothers orchestra, with a professional caller on hand for an occasional square dance. Contests of various nature were held throughout the evening with appropriate prizes awarded to the winners. At intermission, sweet cider and doughnuts were served in the Student Lounge.

When contacted yesterday, Tom Gildea, co-chairman of the dance, expressed his gratitude to all classes and individuals who participated in the success of the event.

PHIL-INS

Impending Basketball Season Will Be Launched By Friars Club Rally

PHIL GRIFFIN

After we've all done the turkey justice and have recuperated from the over-indulgence, and the banner days will be with us. The indoor track team, the hockey team, and the basketball team all swing into highly concentrated action after the holidays.

On December 3, the Friars Club will greet the new basketball season with a rally in Harkins Hall. The boys who will carry the banner for the Black and White on the hardwood are to be honored by a display of student enthusiasm on the date, the evening of the Gorham State game. We will not be urging the boys to do their utmost to down Gorham State alone, naturally. The rally will embrace the whole season. (Although, there will most likely be another when the Friar Boy meets the Bruin and the Ram.)

Thus, this affair will serve as a quite reliable gauge of student enthusiasm. I'm sure the success of the impending voyage will depend a great deal upon the send-off. You'll have plenty of time to get over to Mount Pleasant after this brief display of support. The games will start a little later than usual, so you won't miss any of the action.

It might be a good idea to get over there that night and show the club that the other schools won't out-do us in student support. Mr. Cuddy and the boys will show their appreciation on the court that evening and all throughout the season. You can be sure of it.

Basketball . . .

guards. Both are extremely capable on defense and should set up many P.C. tallies this season.

Kerr, Reynolds, Power to Help
Such performers as Ken Kerr, Jack Reynolds, and John Power also figure heavily in the Cuddymen's plans. Kerr is an extremely agile ball-player and is capable of turning into an excellent scorer. He can be counted on to grab more than his share of rebounds. Reynolds and Power will also be looked to for offensive help.

With a few good breaks along the way, the 1952-53 squad could well be just about the most successful P. C. team in history.

Worcester County Team Sets Dorm League Record

Records fell as the Dorm League, sponsored by the Carolan Club, opened its basketball season last week. In the first few games, the action provided many close games. In last week's big encounters, the Brewers downed the Boston Club, 26-17; Donnelly Alumni whipped the Conn. Yanks, 56-52; the Ferrets beat the Fabulous Five, 45-44; the Hartford Eagles turned back their city rivals, the Hilltoppers, 74-56; the Midgets edged the Sharks, 54-44; and the Worcester County Club turned in a record breaking performance in trouncing the Waterbury Club, 101-48. McBride, O'Neill, and Roy led the Worcester attack.

Rondeauites Yield To Brunonians 12-4 In Hockey Clash At Arena

By Bill Reardon

The Friar sextet was beaten by skaters from Brown University last Friday night at the Rhode Island Auditorium by a score of 12-4. This was the first game of the season for both teams, a tough one for the Bruins to win, and conversely, and a tough one for P. C. to lose.

Frosh Battle First Foe On Wednesday

The roster for the 1952-53 basketball squad was announced this week by Hal Martin, freshman mentor. The roster is as follows: Larry Collomore, Walter Malecki, Jim Heatherton, Ted Tedesco, Dick Elston, George Coleman, John Smith, Gus Westerhuis, Francis Mahoney, Dave Flaherty, John McKnight, and Don Moran.

The freshman have before them one of their toughest schedules. Included on this schedule are contests with such top aggregations as Newport O.C.S., Quonset Air Station, Holy Cross Freshman, and Dean Academy.

The Martinmen open their home season on December 3, when they meet Leicester Junior College at the Mt. Pleasant gym, prior to the varsity game.

The complete schedule for Mr. Martin's club will appear on page 4. It includes the finest opponents that this area could produce and will be a real test for the yearlings.

In spite of winning, the Bruins suffered a major blow when, late in the second period, George Conn, left-winger on the No. 1 line skidded into the boards and broke his right leg. He will be out at least eight weeks.

Brown opened the scoring at 8:30 of the first period on a goal by Conn, in a gang attack on the Providence goal. Brown scored twice more in the period, Farrell and Keefe garnering the points, the later on a solo dash which beat Eddie Hornstein. With less than 16 seconds left in the period, Bob Reall caught a rebound during a gang attack and flipped it into the corner of the nets.

In the second period it again took the Bruins till 8:57 to score a goal. Vietze got two and Farrell the other one. Monahan scored at 2:05 on a beautiful pass from Sweeney, and Tom Army on a gang attack with the aid of Petite and Wholey.

In the third period the Friars got off to a fast start when Jimmy White cut the cords at 1:06, and then the roof fell in. Keefe got away for three solo dashes, and Pettit and North closed the scoring for the Bruins.

The game was marred by 21 penalties, 11 of them coming in the last period, including a match misconduct penalty against Hornstein and DiBiase for fighting.

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

They're made better to taste cleaner, fresher, smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?

You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Because Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette . . . for better taste—cleaner, fresher, smoother taste . . . Be Happy—Go Lucky!

Veritas Notice

In order to have the senior yearbook emerge as a success two things are necessary. The first is a competent staff; this we have. The second is adequate funds; this we are striving to attain. Each year the staff is allotted a budget from the school which is sufficient to produce a yearbook, but in order to have one of superior quality this fund must be implemented through advertising and patrons.

This year the Business Staff has sent to each family of a senior an appeal to become patrons of the yearbook. Perhaps you have raised the question: "How about the student fee. Is not that enough?" Frankly, no. In order to have an excellent Veritas more funds are needed. Perhaps you feel that your parents have spent enough on your education already. That is undoubtedly true, so we have a suggestion.

Since your parents have been spending handsomely on you, why not spend something on them? It would be a nice gesture to them of your appreciation for all they have done for you by donating a patron fee in their name. They would appreciate such an act and so would the staff of the Veritas. Remember, indifference never has produced anything worthwhile, so the yearbook will be no better than the seniors desire it to be.

NOSE, THROAT,

and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."
