Forensic Activities Center On Tourney Workshop, Teaching

With replies received from several colleges, progress on the debating tournament to be held here on March 28 and 29 is progressing rapidly.

The event is sponsored by the Forensic Commission of the New England Region of the National Federation of Catholic College Students, whose headquarters are on this campus.

Holy Cross, who captured first place at the first holding of the annual affair last year, have already signified their intent to defend their Catholic Debating title.

Four rounds of debate, a final, and entertainment for the visiting teams will comprise the program of the two day affair. A banquet Saturday evening, at which prizes for outstanding debating will be awarded will end the tournament.

Each of the Catholic colleges in New England have been invited to debate the national debating topic: Resolved, that the federal government should

Next "Alembic" Is Due In Early March

The next issue of the Alembic, campus literary magazine, will be on the stand this week of March 4. Edgar A. Kelley, '32, editor-in-chief, announced yesterday. This issue will contain several stories by Marvin Gluckman and Vincent Trol, regular contributors to the Alembic, and some poems by Henry Griffin.

As the material in the next two issues will determine the immediate staff for next year, the editors are very desirous of having the undergraduates submit more material so that the quarterly can continue to progress. As yet, all staff positions are open, and all who feel capable are urged to try for them. The editors are more than willing to aid any aspiring contributors. Those who seek more information are directed to see Fr. Larnen.

Appointment Of Three Advisors Is Announced

The transfer of two faculty members and the appointment of three advisors for college clubs was announced yesterday by the Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., President.

The Rev. John T. Dittus, O.P., professor of theology, has been transferred to Newton College of the Sacred Heart, and the Rev. John P. Whitaker, O.P., of the chemistry department, has been appointed master of students at a novitiate in Washington.

The following advisors were appointed: The Rev. Herman D. Schneider, O.P., Friars Club; the Rev. Leo E. Schnell, O.P., Worcester County Club; the Rev. Robert G. Quinn, O.P., Union Club.

The Rev. Dominic Hughes, O.P., formerly of the College of New Rochelle, has been added to the faculty, and is taking Father Dittus' theology classes. Father Hughes has written extensively for the Catholic Education

Home Hoop Finale Tonight; Schlimm Seeks 1000th Point

By Jim Marshall

Tonight's game against Fairfield will find five seniors playing on the familiar Mount Pleasant court for the last time. It will mark the departure of Jerry Lembo, Tom Bauer, Ronnie Gagnon, Ray Kobusiecki and Jim Schlimm from the local scene but the occasion will probably be noteworthy from another angle. It might well mark, for the first time in the history of Providence College that a Friar basketball player will have scored 1000 points.

With Jim Schlimm needing only 23 tallies to break the 1000 mark, Providence's fans will be sitting on the edge of their seats tonight, hoping to see a treat which is parallel to a no-hitter in baseball. To date Schlimm has scored a total of 977 points and he appears a cinch to surpass the 1000 mark before the end of the week.

When Jim was a Sophomore, in his first year of varsity ball, he broke the individual record for one year by scoring a total of 357 points. Up to that time, Ted McCannan had set the previous high in the 1941-42 season when he amassed a total of 369 tallies. That was the year when the Friars placed second in the country in team high-scoring with an average of 62 points.

The fact that Schlimm broke the record in his Sophomore year seems all the more surprising when it is realized that he played as a reserve during most of the schedule. It was not until the eleventh contest, against Iona, that Schlimm started as a regular. Since the eventful Iona encounter, in which Jim marked his debut as a starter by 21 points, his name has

Routine Requests Handled At Meeting Cast For Arena Play Is Selected

"Merton of the Movies," the Pyramid Players' second venture this year into the arena theater, will be presented in the lounge of Harkins Hall, Wednesday night, April 23.

Thomas P. Kelly, president of the Pyramid Players, is directing the comedy, which is about a movie-truck young man in Hollywood.

The cast, which consists of members of the Pyramid Players and the Junior Veridames, is as follows: Gashwiler, Al McKittis; Elmer, Bob Finerman; Merton, Thomas Kelly; Minnie, Keatins and Beulah Baxter; Mary Kluff; Spike, John Barry; Montague, William Broderick; Montague Girl, Mary Cappelli; Rosenblatt, Jeff McMahon; Cameraman, Richard Jarvis; Weller, James Marshall; William Baird, Richard Buckley; Parmalee, Louis Murphy; Max, Arthur Dugas; Mr. Walburg, Thomas Kane.

George Murphy, chairman of the special committees on territorial club federation, reported that the proposal has been submitted to the club presidents for their approval, and that the Kent County Club has already given its assent.

According to the report of the Ways and Means committee, plans for the Student Congress elections, scheduled for the end of March, are under way. The Social Committee reminded the various clubs that the social calendar for the remaining months of College Faculty Members To Give Series Of Lectures On WJAR-TV; First Set For Thursday At 7:00 P.M.

A series of approximately fifteen lectures on history, politics and economics by members of the faculty of Providence College will be broadcast by WJAR-TV beginning Thursday night, the Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., president, announced yesterday.

The program to be presented Thursday evenings from 7 to 7:15 will be entitled, "The American Idea, Yesterday and Today." The first lecture will be given by the Rev. Joseph V. Braggkamp, O.P., head of the history and government department.

At press time details of the series had not been completely worked out. Tentative plans, however, call for lectures by various members of the history, government and economics departments. Slides and other forms of illustrations would also make up part of the format.

The series will treat of the United States and the World beginning from the pre-revolutionary era. Each lecture discussing a different aspect.

The program, which is to be a sustaining one, is part of one hour and three-quarters of free time which WJAR-TV is donating for educational purposes. Two of the other 15 minute segments will, most likely, be given by other colleges in the State.

WJAR-TV, which broadcasts on channel 11, is owned and operated by the Outlet Company.

Msgr. Julius Haun To Give Lectures Here Next Tuesday

The Right Rev. Monsignor Julius W. Haun, Ph.D., D.D., of St. Mary's College, Winona, Minn., will address the college's English majors at an assembly Tuesday morning at 11:30 a.m. in the auditorium of Harkins Hall, the Rev. William R. Clark, O.P., announced yesterday.

Monsignor Haun's lecture, which will be illustrated by 100 original photographs, will be on "The Physical Background of English Literature."

Among the places to be discussed are: Stonehenge; Glastonbury and the Arthurian Cycle; Winchester and King Alfred; Chaucer's Southwest and Canterbury; the Shakespearean country; Cambridge and its colleges; Windsor, Stokes Park, and memories of Grays.

Also, the great cathedrals of late Colonial times—Ely, Peterborough, Lincoln, Wells, Salisbury; The Bay of Bristol—Tintern, Gloucester, Bath, Bristol and new in London; (Continued on Page 3)

Fr. Hunt To Talk On Stained Glass

The Rev. Edward L. Hunt, O.P., of the college faculty, will give a talk on stained glass windows on the television program, "New England At Work," over WJAR-TV (channel 11) tonight at 7:00 o'clock.

Father Hunt, whose course in art appreciation includes a historical summary of stained-glass craft, will discuss stained-glass windows and their significance in church architecture. John Terrence O'Dugan of Boston will demonstrate the work of making stained-glass windows from a small-scale design exact in every detail.

College Is Saddened By Death Of Maurice Hamel, Paul Roche

Providence College was saddened last week by the death of two of its students, Maurice J. Hamel and Paul L. Roche. Hamel, who died last Thursday at Pontefract Sanatorium, was a senior majoring in political science. Roche, who died Tuesday, February 19, entered P.C. with the class of 1954. Hamel resided at 77 Tripp St., Fall River, Mass. The son of Wilfred and Omerille (Lavioie) Hamel, he attended Mrs. Prevost High School in Fall River, graduating in 1948. While at Prevost he was editor of the school paper; on the yearbook staff; a member of the Sodality, active in dramatics, and a member of the baseball team.

His funeral was held Monday, with a solemn high mass of requiem at Blessed Sacrament Church, Fall River.

Over one hundred senior class members, along with members of the faculty, attended. In his honor 25 masses will be offered and a set of law books will be presented to the school library by the senior class.

Roche was born May 21, 1933, and was a resident of Uxbridge, Mass. He was the son of Paul and Nora (Sisk) Roche. He was a graduate of Uxbridge High School, where he was editor of the school paper and received the Bensellier Science Award. He entered Providence College in the Fall of 1950, but had to withdraw during the second semester because of cancer of the leg. Fitted with an artificial limb he re-entered P.C. last Fall, but soon was forced to withdraw again, and he never returned.

Students Are Asked To Submit Own Choices For All Star Band

By Jim Wille

Not a single thought, but a conglomeration of memories. You know that doesn't even make sense, but at this point, what does make sense? Looking back to a few years ago, maybe six or seven, there was an organist by the name of Ken Griffin. Do you remember the first song that he recorded? Off hand I'd say it was You Can't Be True, backed by The Cuckoo Waltz. It sort of set the record world on fire, but then like most fires, it dwindled to glowing embers. At present Ken Griffin is making TV spots. He still plays a very beautiful organ. Word has it that Gene Krupa Trio is doing well. The famed group of the 40's featuring Krupa, Charlie Ventura, and Teddy Napoleon broke into action in January at Hartford. The big hit they recorded when they were the hottest thing on show was Dark Eyes. Remember Francis Craig, the Neat Boy and Bea You Pardon artist? Decca has just signed him to a term contract. Maybe we're in for a few more of those choppy piano tunes.

It seems that a musician can get any job he wants in TV now. And it's a good deal. More recognition is being given to the talent that tends to blow music than to the men that blow dollars. You can't beat the fact that you have to eat but the boys on TV are doing right well for themselves. A good example of this type of show is the Mel Tormé Show (not received in these parts), that is some few afternoons a week over CBS. The combo in charge, is under the direction of Al Peligrini, and for the past few weeks had featured men like Red Norvo, Tal Farlow, and Clyde Lombardi. The above three are leaving now, but their replacements are able men too, namely, Chubby Jackson, and Billy Harris. Neal Hefti of Coral Reef time is also playing with the group.

Looking out the window, and seeing the swirling snow, and wintery winds blowing, brought to mind a great song that was waxed by Buddy Clark and Dinah Shore. Remember Baby It's Cold Outside? A great tune done by two of the best. It is unfortunate that Buddy Clark had to meet such an untimely death, for when he died, one of the most versatile singers who ever issued a note was lost to the world. His voice was rich and deep and termed by many as the best. Dinah Shore has come a long way since then and she now holds the title, The First Lady of West Coast TV. Her radio and TV work has really pushed the name Dinah Shore to the top of the record lists, the radio and video reviews, and her pretty face for the covers of many entertainment magazines.

Last year in my final article I picked an All Star band, and submitted it for your approval. I never heard any comments on my choice so this year the selections are all up to you. You

Plans For Musical Are Progressing

Providence College's annual musical will be held during the second week of May; it has been announced by Thomas P. Kelly, president of the Pyramid Players. Tryouts for the cast will be held sometime in March, at a time to be announced.

The script for the musical is now being completed, and music is being written by George Meehan, lyrics by the Rev. John B. Larnen, O.P., advisor of the Pyramid Players, and William McMahon.

Anyone interested in submitting music should see Father Larnen, Kelly announced. He also stressed the need of help from anyone with a knowledge of choreography.

Brotherhood is good sportsmanship saying: Do not make another person or another group the scapegoat for your own shortcomings and frustrations.

Brotherhood is religion saying: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them.

Brotherhood is science saying: Humanity is one: there is no such thing as a superior or inferior race.

Brotherhood is American democracy saying: We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights.

Four Tertiaries Receive Dominican Scapulars Thursday

Thursday afternoon at 1:00 p.m. in Aquinas Hall chapel, four students will receive the Dominican scapular, the sign of their entry into the family of St. Dominic. A year of probation will follow their reception of the scapular. This probationary period enables the Tertiary to become more familiar with and to nourish himself with the spirit, the aim and the way of life of a Dominican Tertiary. If the Tertiary, during his probationary year, proves himself sufficiently endeared with the aim and spirit of the Third Order and if he is still desirous of following the path to perfection mapped out by St. Dominic for single and married laymen and laywomen, he becomes eligible for full membership or final profession, as it is called, in the Third Order of St. Dominic.

All students are invited to attend the reception ceremonies Thursday afternoon.

A meeting of the Third Order will also take place Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Aquinas Hall chapel. This meeting is scheduled primarily for the convenience of the dormitory students. The interest manifested by the dorm students at the last evening meeting was gratifying. Come Thursday evening and find out something about the Third Order.

Monsignor Haun will also lecture on Tuesday evening at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium of Albertus Magnus Hall. The evening lecture will be on Greece and Italy and will be given in the Footsteps of the Ancients."

College Men! CHOOSE A CAREER in the U.S. Air Force

Aviation Cadet Program Offers Special Opportunities for Collegians Now Preparing for Military Service

Here is a real man-size opportunity! You can choose—immediately—between being a Pilot or Aircraft Observer in America's swiftly-expanding Air Force. The Air Force encourages candidates to stay in school and graduate. However, seniors and students with two years or more of college who anticipate early entrance into military service can insure their future and serve their country best by applying for Aviation Cadet Training today. You receive the finest training and experience when you fly with the U. S. Air Force—experience that pays off in later years.

WHO MAY APPLY

AGE—Between 19 and 26½ years.
EDUCATION—At least two years of college.
MARITAL STATUS—Single.
PHYSICAL CONDITION—Good, especially eyes, ears, heart, and teeth.
HOW TO QUALIFY

1. Take transcript of college credits and copy of birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station.

2. Appear for physical examination at your nearest Air Force Base or Government expense.

3. Accomplish Flying Aptitude Tests and enlist for two years only!

4. The Selective Service Act awards you a four-month deferment while awaiting class assignment.

5. Immediate assignment to Aviation Cadet Training Class begins May 27, July 19, August 19 and October 2, 1952.

6. Attend Aviation Cadet Training School for one year—either as Pilot or Aircraft Observer. Get $100 monthly plus food, housing, uniforms, and other benefits.

7. Graduate and win your wings! Commissioned as a second lieutenant, you begin earning $5,000 a year. In addition, you receive $250 uniform allowance and a 30-day leave with pay.

Friar Six Tied For First; Playoffs Start Next Week

Providence's Friars on ice hit the crucial end of the trail this week. Yesterday they tangled with Army at West Point. From now on they will ready themselves for the all-important playoffs, which begin the middle of next week.

The playoff schedule, of course, was indefinite, but it shapes up as a duel between P. C. and Dunne's. If it's the first four teams that are to vie for the title, then Burrillville must be regarded as a serious contender of the crown.

The Knights of Hudson don't boast what may be considered as a national power in hockey circles, but they're well regarded in the Pentagonal Circuit, which includes the East's top teams. To make matters even tougher for the local representatives, the Academy rink is quite large, although regulation size. This discrepancy in playing surfaces may have been fatal to our standard-bearers in their second venture into intercollegiate circles. In their other tangle with a college outfit they lost to powerful Brown, but the Bruins scored six of their eight goals in the last two minutes of each period.

In their last Rhode Island Amateur League outing, the Friars were fought to a 3-3 stalemate by third-place Burrillville. Until 1:45 of the third (Continued on Page 5)

Friarhouse Five Tops Donnelly In Dorm Thriller

By Bill Davis

Dorm League basketball opened on a full scale last week with practically all eighteen clubs taking part. The feature attraction of the week was the clash between the Donnelly Hall Alumni and the Friarhouse Five. The latter club won by one point in what proved to be the most thrilling contest played this year.

The Friarhouse Five got off to a quick start and held a ten point margin at one stage, but the sensational passing and driving of Beaver Power gave the Donnelly Hall quintet a one-point lead with about a minute to play. However, Tartagliano's basket from four feet out made the score 37-36 in favor of the Freshman club. Power and Bill Mullins were high for the lozers with fifteen and thirteen points and Tartagliano paced the victors with nine.

The Biltmore A. C., the Aquinas Friars, and the Hartford Hilltoppers all won this week, practically assuring themselves of playoff berths. The closing week between the Hilltoppers and the Aquinas Friars should prove to be another exciting and hard-fought contest. The top five clubs as of now are the Friarhouse Five with seven victories in as many games, the Hartford Hilltoppers with six victories and no defeats, Donnelly Hall with five victories and one defeat, the Aquinas Friars with four victories and a lone setback, and the Biltmore A. C., who sport four victories and three defeats.

Stonehill Stops JV Win Streak

By Martin Sadler

A heart-breaking 67-65 loss to the strong Stonehill College varsity put to an end the five-game winning streak of the Providence College JV basketball team.

Last week Hal Martin's boys avenged an earlier defeat by rolling over Admiral Biall Academy, 84-62. Bill Quinn led the scorers with 21 points, while Ryder (11) and Premsier (9) gave plenty of help.

Following the Admiral Biall victory, the JV's kept on their winning ways by burying the Clark Junior Varsity, 64-36, thanks to an error in contention as Ryder and Premsier led the way to the decisive victory.

Last Saturday the JV's dropped a 72-64 verdict to the strong Springfield College Frosh. Ryder, O'Connell, and Quinn all turned in strong efforts in a losing cause.

PC, Fairfield In Last Home Tilt Tonight

By Phil Griffin

There are two big games on the agenda this week, one at home, the other away. Tonight the Friars lock horns with the Fairfield Slags and Friday with the Rhode Island Rams at good old Rodman Hall at Kingston. The local lads have just completed a highly successful road junket in which they knocked over Dedman, Bates, and Springfield. The only thing which marred the trip was the cancellation of their game with highly touted Colby. Jack Frost dropped his alabaster blanket over Portland and vicinity and the team was stranded in Portsmouth, N. H.

Beat Fairfield 67-64

In their meeting with Fairfield at the Waterbury Armory, P.C. came out on top, but the Red and White were very uncooperative before bowing 67-64 after a late surge which almost pulled the thing out of the fire for the young school from the Bridgeport area. With Joe Kehoe exhibiting a phenomenal one hander from the very extremes of the fore court, the Stags array to Mount Pleasant tonight. He has two rugged big men in Stan Suchenski and Frosh Bob Gerwin, a talented yearling who did well in driving from the side in the last game. He also has ball handling ace Whitley Frauenhofer and Fred Lane, who nonchalantly dropped two long set shots when the torrid Mr. Kehoe was given a well deserved rest late in the game.

The last one was a heart-stopper and you'll probably be talking to yourselves after this one, too. With the JV's tangle with Stonehill in the opener, there's all the earmarks of an excellent doubleheader.

Cuddymen Are Defending Champs In Tournament

Providence College's basketball team received a bid to play in the district N.A.I.B. tournament to be held in the Colby College gym in Waterville, Maine on March 5th and 6th, it was an honor to play last night yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Aloysius Begley, O.P., Director of Athletics.

Also accepting bids were Colby College, the University of Bridgeport and American International College.

Last year the Cuddymen won the New England N. A. I. B. tourney by defeating Tufts and St. Anselm's and then went on to represent New England in the National N. A. I. B. Tournament held at Kansas City, Mo. At the nationals the Friars were defeated by Morningside College of Iowa, 66 to 63.

It is this writer's opinion that Providence will probably meet either A. I. C. or Bridgeport in the opener March 5th with Colby taking on the remaining team. The two winners of the March 5th encounter will challenge each other the following night with the victor receiving the right to represent New England at the nationals in Kansas City. The two losers will meet each other in a consolation contest.

Of the three teams competing Providence has met only A. I. C., whom we defeated earlier in the campaign, 85 to 46. Probably the toughest squad the Friars will be up against will be Colby who is ranked fourth in New England. Making the Colby Mules an even tougher nut for the Smith Hillers to crack will be the fact that they are playing on their home court.

Originally the Cuddymen were scheduled to meet Colby during the regular campaign, but when Feb. 19 rolled around the Friars found themselves snowed out in the wilds of Maine and the game had to be canceled. That week the Friars played the basketball of their career and should just about be reaching their peak once next Wednesday.

It might be interesting to note that last Saturday, Colby received quite a lift when they were upset by an underdog Coast Guard Academy five, 64 to 34. The navy boys solved the attack of the Maine Mules by throwing up a tight zone.

period, it looked like P. C. who led the league for most of the season, would gain the nod and emerge as sole possessor of first place. But it was not to be.

Burrillville lit the red light when they rushed the cage with only fifteen seconds remaining, and even the combined efforts of Army, Wholey and Farley failed to pull the fat out of the fire. So the whole thing stands knotted until Mr. Lou Pieri makes things definite when he gets the play-offs under way next week.

Two Cadet Captains To Visit West Point

ROTC cadet captains, Harry J. Bohlin of Providence and Richard C. Fontaine of New Bedford, Mass., will visit the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, during the period February 2 to March 2.

Bohlin and Fontaine, both juniors, will join 112 ROTC cadets from other colleges at West Point. These students are making the trip in order to become familiar with the life and training of a cadet at the Military Academy. These future officers of the Army and Air Force should have a variety of information to exchange.

While at West Point, Bohlin and Fontaine will live as cadets. They will have a cadet escort who will take them to classes and to meals. They will live in cadet barracks during their stay at the Academy. Also scheduled are military demonstrations by the 180 2nd Special Regiment, a tour of the post, and entertainment in the form of movies, athletic events, and a dance.

Over four week-ends, some 445 senior ROTC students will go to West Point as part of an overall indoctrination program. The date will add further emphasis to the Sequential ROTC Observance at the Military Academy and promote mutual understanding of civilian and regular officer's training programs.

Juniors Decide On April 25 As Date Of Annual Prom

James Gannon, chairman of the Junior Prom Committee, announced today that the date set for this year's Prom is April 25, 1952. Tickets will be on sale early in March and reminder will be placed at various spots throughout the campus to let the juniors know of the date and how close the time is getting for obtaining tickets.

The committee organized for selecting the queen met recently and plans are underway to have the queen selected before the Prom. In this way the queen will be the keynote of the whole affair and will reign over the whole affair for the night.

Be Happy

In a cigarette, taste makes the difference—
and Luckies taste better!

The difference between "just smoking" and really enjoying your smoke is the taste of a cigarette. You can taste the difference in the smoother, mellower, more enjoyable taste of a Lucky. . . for two important reasons. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . fine, mild tobacco that tastes better. Second, Luckies are made to taste better . . . proved best-made of all five principal brands. So reach for a Lucky. Enjoy the cigarette that tastes better! Be Happy—Go Lucky! Buy a carton today!

I work so hard to make good grades
I must relax—no job—
So I just light a Lucky Strike
Cause they're grade A smokin'!

Vets Asked to Refrain From Dividend Queries

Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts veterans were asked today to refrain from writing inquiring letters concerning their 1952 National Service Life Insurance dividend, so that the speediest possible payment of the dividend can be accomplished.

Acting Manager Edward D. Graham of the VA's Providence Regional Office, said that all policy holders are being mailed a reply postcard form with which they may select cash payment of the dividend or have it applied as a credit against future delinquent premium payments.

He pointed out that the inquiring letters being received in VA's Philadelphia District Office only slow the gigantic task of processing the thousands of dividends already scheduled for payment. Payment will be made subsequent to the anniversary date of the individual's policy.

this time they stand a good chance of bringing home the bacon. Their unprecedented perfect road trip is the cause for all this optimism.

Rhode Island gained the measure of Providence in their last meeting on the basis of superior board work and fine foul shooting. P.C. matched the Rams from the floor, but it looked like the Big Parade in the last quarter as the local luminaries fouled their way out of the ball game and Ram after Ram strolled to the free throw stripe. Although Congleton and Hellwig must be credited for controlling both backboards, the Friars lost their own game through inconsistency from the floor more than a lack of height. Providence played a highly creditable defensive game, but it failed to make up for their inefficiency on offense. Only Jim Schlimm, who, by the way, is within sight of the highly coveted one thousand point mark, and Bobby Moran hit with any regularity, while RIU divided the scoring among most of its operatives.

Fredergast Looks Good
Mr. Cuddy was pleased with the road trip in which he watched his charges edge Bowdoin 66-63, drub Bates 84-58, and upset Springfield in her own backyard, 71-69. He was especially pleased with the work of Phil Lynch, Kenny Kerr, and Tommy Mullins, who has been playing with a bad leg. He showed positive joy over the great play of Bob Fredergast at Springfield. Bob scored 17 points, but that's only half the story. He was great off the boards and saved the Friar cause with the greatest game of his collegiate career. The renaissance of the big man may mean the difference in the RIU game. Ray Korbusiak comes in for his lion's share of the credit in the Springfield game, too. His 17 points were also a vital factor in the victory.

The time is 1620 in England. The galleon, Mayflower, is about to set sail. The first mate is about to call the roll:

"Miles Standish,"
"Miles Bradish,"
"Miles Taylor,"
"Miles Pinkleman,"
"Excuse me, Matey," interrupts the captain, "I say what's going on here?"
"I'm trying to see how many miles I can get to the galleon."

the year is crowded, and that all events must be cleared by the committee.

The amendment proposed by Junior Representative Schlegel that would define the powers of the classes was returned by the Legislative committee with the recommendation that for it should be substituted a bill of participation, similar to that of the National Federation of Catholic College Students Committee. This bill would be drawn up by the class presidents themselves.

President William McMahon, in his report to the Congress, reiterated the necessity of clearing social events with the student Congress calendar. He also told the Congress that the Red Cross Bloodmobile would be on campus during the month of April. Further details of the blood campaign are to be announced at the next meeting of the group.
