Many Innovations To Feature Junior Promenade

Many Music Will Feature Annual Social Highlight

This Friday night the members of the junior class will swing to the pulsating strains of Art Monroe's orchestra as this year's social highlight, the Junior Prom, gets under way, at 9:30 at the Sherman-Biltmore Hotel Ballroom.

Those planning to attend this year's affair will be the recipients of many innovations brought on by this year's Junior Prom committee. In order to remind you of these new revisions, let us go back to the beginning of the year, around election time. The Junior class elected in their offices for the year the Clover-Leaf party composed of William Conaway, president, Charles DeMello, vice-president, Al Lamy, secretary, and Edward Coleman, treasurer.

This party promised, "equal representation for all," in selecting a junior prom committee and the newly appointed officers as well as the committee on all basic from the clubs organized on the campus.

Next in line was the selection of the orchestra. It was a bit tragic that the Clover-Leaf party selected Art Monroe's orchestra, who have become famous for his playing for Four Leaf Clover.

Probably the most radical change in the series of events was the selection of the venue. This year instead of giving the ladies a piece of costume jewelry, as has been the custom in the past, they will receive replicas of Friar IV, the College Mascot. The awards are given especially for the junior prom and has since been adopted by the manufacturer for general sale.

This year's prom queen is being selected by plebes. Many pictures of the junior class members' dates have been turned in to the prom committee and from these, five finalists will be selected by a local model agency. The five finalists will then be distinguished at Dartmouth College where he or she will be known as national prominence.

The true spirit of Providence College students will be put to the test next Monday. On that day all undergraduates will have the dual responsibility of voting in the Student Government election and of voting for the best qualified men for those positions.

Students who are not registered in the election for representatives to the congruence think that you have done something very wrong. NOT only half of it is completed, for no group is as important as the students. The congress for the past three years has earned an excellent record for itself. That it will continue to do so is up to you.

Last Friday and Saturday as St. Bernard's, N.J., Providence College, the sending change, lost their bid for the Eastern Catholic Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Seton Hall, the host at this event in the Seton Hall Relays, proved to be an impolite host by winning two relays, both of which P.C. won last year. The Seton Hall men won the one-mile relay in which the Friars placed second. Iona College was third. The time was 3:28.4 for this event. Providence College was also second in the two-mile relay which Seton Hall won in 8:58. Le Moyne was third in this relay. In the 1,500 meter relay P.C. C. P. C. ended up in third place behind Morgan State, whose time was 3:50.7 and Fordham which placed second.

Four Providence College trackmen went up to Rosharon, Man. on April 27, and ran in the three-mile novice class road race. Herb Womler placed third, Gene Coyle 8th, and Connie Sullivan 4th. This gave P. C. 21 points and is a tie for the trophy. However, since a man from one other team tied with P. C. on 21 points, the championship was declared the winter as prescribed by the A.I.A.

One week from today Providence College will participate in a dual meet with Brown at Allrich Field.
