Alumni Festivities To Begin Saturday With Grotto Mass

The annual Alumni Day and Dinner will be held Saturday, May 31, on the campus, it was announced by Charles F. Reynolds, 26, Alumni Day Chairman. In conjunction with this program, the committee has also arranged for the reunion of the following classes: 1907, 1912, 1917, M'1942, D'1942 and 1947.

The program schedule for this day is as follows: 8 a.m., registration, Harris Hall or Student Lounge, 10 a.m., Alumni Mass at the War Memorial Chapel. The Very Reverend Robert J. Slavin, O.P., as celebrant, 11 a.m., traditional club receptions: 12 noon, Dutch Treat luncheon at Harris Hall cafeteria, 2 p.m., exhibition of football game, Holy Cross vs. Providence College, at Hendrick Field, 6 p.m., Reunion dinner, Bona Vista, sports, surprises (Gazzan Hall reception room and Antonini Hall; 6:30 p.m., Alumni dinner-bathing, Benediction at the Grotto.

Reynolds emphasized the fact that all alumni are cordially invited to attend these festivities. They are in no way restricted to the above-mentioned classes.

Out of 1,000 alumni planning to attend class reunions of the All-Alumni Day affair, it is anticipated that at least 700 Alumni Mass participants will attend. It is believed that the Alumni Mass will be held at Harris Hall.

The Friday night dances will be held at the Friars Club, official student reception organization, wearing ashes, will serve as hosts and guides for the alumni.

The number of special prizes will be awarded by the Alumni Association. These prizes include one to the alumni who has traveled here from the greatest distance, a door prize to the alumni who has traveled the greatest distance, and a special prize to a Member of the Senior class. Free beverages will be served to all seniors in attendance, and the officers of the senior class will present certificates of the Association.

The Awards of the Class of 1947 and the Class of 1917 will be announced by Rev. Vincent C. Dore, O.P., President of the University.

Suffolk University officials have announced that Rev. Vincent C. Dore, O.P., will receive the degree of Doctor of Education at Commencement exercises to be held on the Suffolk campus in Boston, on June 10th.

Three Barristers To Receive Honors

James A. Jackson, Joseph F. Mullen, and Joseph G. Quentin, will receive degrees in arts. It was announced by the Rev. Vincent C. Dore, O.P., and Rev. Charles B. McKenna, O.P., that all three juniors of the senior class of this year's graduating body, and have taken an active part in the debates in which Providence College has engaged this year. P. C. Nine Face Crusaders Saturday In Final Game

With two games left to play, our baseball forces are all even for the season, with sixty-five victories and fifty losses. In their last outing Hal Martin’s squad fell before Springfield, 10-4. A game with the Knights of Columbus in New York on Friday and another with Holy Cross on Saturday will round out the schedule for the 1902 season.

For eight innings against Springfield the Friers looked like world beaters. But Crusaders was running along with a no-hitter, and the boys were long one or two runs in. Then somebody had to go and decide the thing would go the regulation nine.

In the Springfield ninth (the weird third out at first we’ve seen in many games) the O’Neills jumped on four Friar hurlers for ten runs. That, for all practical purposes, was the ball game. Buncia, who had pitched brilliantly until the fatal ninth, lost his and his shutout when he gave up a two-run homer. Carl walked another batter and retired in favor of Ed Sullivan, who performed nobly un- till lifted in favor of Fred O’Neill. For once Fred didn’t have it and Don Podbielski finished up. Hal Martin had collected with an added run.

It was the first time this season that O’Neill didn’t have it. The Wednesday side had 15 and 19 in its first two games. It was the brilliant all season long. The game was a heartbreaker for Buncia. Carl was magnified for eight frames. Here are two boys with very bright futures.

Bill Mullin will probably go against Holy Cross on Saturday. Bill handled the Buncia game, is a running sore, but atrocious support ruined him. For that matter, the pitchers could have used a little better backing against Springfield. If Bill is as effec- tive as he was against the ‘Cros, he figures to pick up the win. Carl is not at his best yet as he has not been in form since Bates down in the opener.

Howie McGuinness is a “true one” he was downed to the right leg. Eddie Buncia will pip Fred O’Neill and Pete Drury who should be at second base next season. The team raced in the Eastern Intercol-legiate held in Boston last week.

In this meet Bob Tiernan, who was defending his title in the quarter mile, came in second. Close second. Chris Lehman earned another second in the mile run. In the hurdles Bill McMullin and Frank Lauster placed third and fourth respectively. Mike Baezrri placed fourth in the javelin.

Dick Duigan is the boy in whom theSEALS are interested. He should have a great season with power. A strong arm and fielding that’s as sure as any on the squad. Dick’s multiples are even.

So you set your teams on another baseball season, we pick our brightest prospects for next season. Pitchers –

Fria Tracksters

The Providence College track teams have completed their schedule for this season. After facing top opposition against the four dual meet members of the team raced in the Eastern Intercol- legiata held in Boston last week.

In this meet Bob Tiernan, who was defending his title in the quarter mile, came in second. Close second. Chris Lehman earned another second in the mile run. In the hurdles Bill McMullin and Frank Lauster placed third and fourth respectively. Mike Baezrri placed fourth in the javelin.

Coach Harry Costley would all of this year’s freshmen and sopho- morees to come out early in the fall in order to practice on the new jumping pit and the baseball diamond.

The first cross-country meet next fall will be on October 3rd when P.C will run against Army.

Veritas Dedicated

Dean announces that the scholars failures must be made up.

Juniors who receive a failure at the end of the year may secure their previous failure or deficiency will not be admitted to the senior year. However the Junior must renew his application for admission by attending an approved summer school or at a time approved by the Dean of Providence College. This matter should be attended to forthwith as an urgent matter.

Consultation may be had, if desired, of the Dean of the College, between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. and on June 14 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Sophomores and freshmen who have been Math or have accumulated two failures from the current or previous semes- ters, must remove these failures by attendance at an approved summer school or at a time approved by the Office of the Dean. This matter must be attended to forthwith, as the report of the record card, and the Of- fice of the Dean is notified immediately.

Students who have one failure in courses other than Science or Math of the previous semester or semester average are strongly urged to attend summer school or to withdraw before the beginning of the fall semester of the following year.

J. Marshall Named To Athletic Council

James Marshall, co-editor-in-chief of the ‘The Providence Register’, representative in the Athletic Council by the Student Council at a meeting recently in the Student Congress of- fice.

Marshall, a junior and a member of the Student Congress, succeeds Walter Fritzer who held that posit- tion last year.

The Athletic Council serves as an advisory body to the athletic policy of the college. The board met on September 19, October 17, January, and April. Special sessions are held when necessary.

Robert Farrelly Is New Head Of Providence Club

Robert Farrelly was elected president of the Providence Club at the annual dinner meeting held by the club on May 15th at the Narraganset Hotel. Also elected were Philip Dem- ertility, vice-president; Francis Brown, secretary, and Donald Ley, treasurer. The Rev. Thomas Fallon, O.P., was the speaker.

As the outgoing president of the new club, Lawrence Waldbrenner, was announced as the new president.

William Slattery was elected president of the Providence Club and was present at the club’s secretary. He is also a member of the Senior Business Club. Although never having received college’s letter he is active in intramural sports.

Because of the great amount of time he has devoted to the class, this year’s senior group is truly representative of the class. On numerous occasions the student body has given his help to such organizations as the Providence players, the Bat- ters and the COWL.

Quinton will also receive the annual Award for Best Coaches’ Money prize given to the person who has displayed a large amount of eloquence and proficiency in orator- cal debating. It is provided for fund furnished by the Beekman Foundation.

John F. Leonard. The award this year amounts to $100.

This year’s VERITAS is unique in the many aspects, limited as it is in its dedication. This dedication was made in gratitude to the Very Rev. Robert J. Slavin, O.P., for his achievements in behalf of the college, and reads in part: "In recognition of his leading the college to a new high in prestige, in tribute to his in- spirational planning for a deeper study of Theology among the students, and in honor of his attaining the highest degree in Theology. . . . This is the first time that Father Slavin has been the recipient of such a dedication. It reflects the excellent taste of the edit- ors and this year’s graduating class.

The theme of the book, as manifest- ed in the cover design, is, of course, representative of the attitude of Catholic University, a university and a land of man reaching for the symbolic torch of truth. Editor-in- Chief Joseph Quinton, the VERITAS staff, and the publication’s moderateur, a new institution at this university, deserve a good deal of commendation for their hard work and first-rate achievement.
